STAFF DECIDES TO DISCONTINUE
PUBLICATION OF CLOVER LEAVES

Following a joint meeting Thursday night that continued well into the early morning hours Friday, the editorial and business staff of your daily paper, namely CLOVER LEAVES, decided it would be necessary to discontinue publication after the Friday issue.

This dreaded decision was the outcome of an extensive survey made on the possibilities of obtaining enough news to warrant the continuance of such a publication. It was unanimously agreed by all present that since 4-H Club members will be going back home tomorrow and deserting the State College Campus this would be a serious handicap to us in being able to gather enough news to continue publishing the paper. This not only would mean that extra effort would have to be made in order to get interesting news, but it is believed that the circulation would be reduced to some extent. A reduction in circulation would mean a reduction in advertisement. A reduction in advertisement would definitely mean operating at a greater financial loss than is true of past issues. EDITOR'S NOTE: Advertisement as referred to above, means telling others of the outstanding qualities of cooperation and leadership that has been shown by the approximately 1,400 wonderful 4-H Club members attending State 4-H Club Week.

It is the belief of the staff that between now and the beginning of next year's Club Week things can be worked out so publication of CLOVER LEAVES can be resumed on the opening date.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS
STILL TO BE DECIDED

The final returns on the special run-off election for officers of the State 4-H Council were not available at press time; therefore, it is possible to give only the finalists as determined from the primary on Thursday.

Candidates still in the run-off this afternoon were: President, Hazel Garris of Pitt County and Betty Moore of Iredell; Vice-president, James Wright Jackson of Sampson County and Horace Layden of Perquimans; Secretary, treasurer, Bobby Williams of Wilson and Paul Wagoner of Guilford; Historian, Dorothy Shields of Cherokee and Barbara Ann Cooke of Northampton.

Proof of the interest club members show in electing their state officers was evidenced in yesterday's primary when a total of 1,505 votes were cast.

Dairy Foods

First place honors in the individual demonstrations on Dairy Foods went to Marth: Kate Cashion of Mecklenburg County. First place in the team demonstration went to Sarah Jarman and Lois Hooks, both of Anson County.

Dairy Production

Davidson and Iredell Counties took top places in the dairy production contest. John Robert Sowers and Edwin Yarbrough, the Davidson team, won first place in the Class A division. Billy Cansler of Iredell, was tops in Class B competition. The main difference between the two classes is that Class B entrants must keep milk production records on their animals.

Second place in Class A competition went to Hubert Cartner, Jr. of Forsyth County. A brother team composed of Jack and Hugh Dougherty of Wayne County was third, and Bob Wilson of Watauga was fourth.

Hugh Lytton of Catawba County was runner-up in Class B. Second place went to Dennis Harrell of Guilford, and third place to the Rockingham County team --- Barbara Ann French and Ralph Massey.

HONOR COUNCIL
ELECTS OFFICERS

Members of the 4-H Honor Council have elected the following officers for next year: President, Betty Jane Alexander of Mecklenburg County; Vice-President, Chester Barbour of Johnston County; Secretary-Treasurer, Johnny Long of Iredell County; and Historian, Elizabeth Womble of Nash County.

DID YOU PAT YOUR FOOT?

Did you hear the wonderful concert given last night by the Camp Lejeune Marine Band?

The band, which consisted of about 65 or 70 musicians, was assembled on the playing field of Riddick Stadium. They played many beautiful and well known selections. And how about the drummers, did you notice them?

I think the whole concert was simply marvelous and I know everyone enjoyed it.

ELECTION HELD

The election was held yesterday to elect officers for the coming year.

The election was a roaring experience. The campaigners worked hard to put their candidates in office. Members from the different counties were out early this morning trying to make people think their way.

Those to run in the second primary were Hazel Garriss and Betty Moore for president, James Wright Jackson and Horace Layden for vice-president; Bob Williams and Paul Wagoner for secretary-treasurer; and Barbara Cooke and Dorothy Shields, historian.

UP WITH THE SUN

As I awoke this morning, I heard a sweet familiar voice. I went to my window to see who was up so early. As I approached the window, I saw her walking very quickly towards another friend. They carried on a conversation for about three minutes and then flew away. They were Robins.

FUN AT THE YMCA

Many of the 4-H members were at the YMCA Thursday afternoon around one and one thirty. It was very interesting to watch Dot Brown and George Boyette dance.

Boys, all of you may have talent, but let me tell you one thing if you see anybody that can move their feet faster than George Boyette, well he is really in for it.

Dot was very good also. She wasn't bashful and she had a splendid personality. The Virginia reel was done by 16 4-H members.

TOWER BELLS

Have you been listening to the beautiful tower bells each evening? Those beautiful, old, familiar hymns fill our hearts with spiritual inspiration.

They make us feel closer to the Supreme Being and remind us again of the task which is ours here on this earth. Do you ever think of the message in the words of those beautiful hymns? Some of these words have been used for mottos of some of our most prominent people and have carried soldiers through strife and battles. We have only one more day to enjoy these bells, and if you have never listened to them, won't you stop sometime between 6:45 and 7:15 this evening and offer a silent prayer for the privilege of hearing them?

EVENING PROGRAM

The Thursday evening program was like a double feature movie with two first run movies showing. It surely was interesting.

Boys and girls both enjoyed the beautiful music of the Camp Lejeune Band. They were such handsome men too, with their beautiful uniforms. Were they not, girls? I think the only thing wrong with the concert was it did not last long enough.

Now on to the second feature of the evening, the State Dress Revue. Those girls surely were beautiful, or at least I think so.

The dress revue was carried out in such a unique way. We had a look back through pictures to our grandmothers then we saw their beautiful grandchildren. The girls were seen at the Little Red School House, at the travel bureau, in church, on a picnic, and at a lovely party. Miss Marshall, in a clear voice, introduced the lovely misses to us.

The dress revue was lovely, and I think I shall never forget it. Those who were in charge did a fine job. I wish as a 4-H Club member, I could thank each of them for such a lovely program. It was fine and enjoyable. Our best wishes go to the winning girl, Miss Audrey Pierce. I know she is very happy. If she does or does not win in Chicago, we are very proud of her here in North Carolina. She is beautiful. Just to tell the truth, I didn't know we had such beautiful girls in the 4-H Clubs as we saw in the Dress Revue.

LETTER OF SONGS

"Got a Saturday Date"

"My darling, my darling,"

"A little bird told me" that you love "Cornbread", "Potato Chips", and "Pork and Beans", "Because" you can have them "So early in the morning."

"Baby Face", "I'd love to get you on a slow boat to China" going to "Far away places" listening to the "Dark Town Strutter's Ball". We could have an "Enchanting Evening."

"Mable," and "Linda" will be with us too, because "There's yes, yes in their eyes."

"Beg your pardon" I almost forgot but "Among my souvenirs", I still have your "Golden earrings" and String of Pearls."

"Tomorrow night: we will really be "Near you" when we go "Cruising down the river" so bring all your friends "Again".

"I love you so much it hurts me",

"Marjorie"

EMBARRASSMENT

Two girls from Becton Hall were campaigning Thursday night. I should say Friday morning because it was 12:30. As they were on the second floor and at the last door, they went in. There were two young ladies in bed. The girls asked the ladies where they were from. Then they said, "Well, would you two mind voting for Hazel Garris of Pitt for president?" The ladies answered, "You see, we are agents from Wilson County, but we will do all we can." The girls turned around and walked out very slowly.

THE PHOTOGRAPHERS STAYED BUSY

The last five pages of CLOVER LEAVES have been devoted entirely to pictures so that club delegates may better remember a few of the highlights of their busy week's activities.

- 1 -- Frances Lancaster of Edgecombe County and Ralph Brown of Iredell, the 1949 4-H King and Queen of Health, pose with their court during the colorful health pageant in Riddick Stadium, Wednesday night.
- 2 -- These young ladies are the first-place winners in each of the five divisions of the State Dress Revue. Reading from left to right, they are, sitting, Inez Kiser, Gaston County, school dress; Clonnie Jean Richardson, Guilford, party dress; and Cecilia Cartwright, Hyde County, picnic dress; and standing, Audrey Pearce, Chowan County, first in revue as well as church dress division; and Marie Shirley, Edgecombe, travel dress.
- 3 -- Two of the newly tapped Honor Club delegates seem to enjoy their initiation.
- 4 -- Mr. Mark Love gave his audience a special treat by singing "Shortnin Bread" and several other favorites.
- 5 -- Delegates leave Pullen Hall following one of their regular morning general assemblies.
- 6 -- Dr. I. G. Greer speaks to club delegates at their general assembly Wednesday morning.
- 7 -- Everybody was anxious to cast their votes in the election of State Council officers. The campaigning was so effective until the first election wound up in a tie.
- 8 -- "Be on the lookout for a tan Pontiac bearing North Carolina license plates 346-640."
- 9 -- Now if you will just take your eyes off of picture No. 8 long enough to look at No. 9, you will be delegates enjoying one of their welcomed meals at the College Cafeteria.
- 10 - Two club delegates conduct a well planned and informative poultry demonstration.

- 11 -- "Batter up." Baseball was only one of many types of recreation that the delegates enjoyed throughout the week.
- 12 -- These 4-H ers are looking through the mail to see if they heard anything from home.
- 13 -- Betty Moore of Iredell County stands beside one of her campaign posters during the election for State Council officers.
- 14 -- Donald Owen of Mooresville, an expert at sanding floors, is shown as he performed the demonstration that won him top place honors in the boys division of floor-sanding and finishing.
- 15 -- One of the many pretty scenes enacted during the Health Pageant.
- 16 -- Evening recreation proved very popular with club delegates. This picture was taken during one of the recreation periods at Riddick Stadium.
- 17 -- The "mop up" was one of the favorite gathering places for delegates when they had a few spare minutes for a coke or candy bar.
- 18 -- These two delegates are showing others just how a club member's room should be kept.
- 19 -- Different surfaces require different paints, and this was proven by these two club members in their well conducted demonstration.
- 20 -- These are the new members who were initiated into the State 4-H Honor Club.
- 21 -- ~~Those who~~ do not believe pretty curtains add to a room should have seen the wonderful demonstration these two girls conducted.
- 22 -- A "father" listens to his "son" explain how he thinks they should include more soil conservation practices on their farm.
- 23 -- These two fellows are observing one of the many interesting things they found in the State Museum. The tour of Raleigh, which carried the delegates to the State Capitol and other interesting places around the city, was highly enjoyed.
