

7-23-57

CLOVER LEAVES

"IMPROVING FAMILY AND COMMUNITY LIVING"

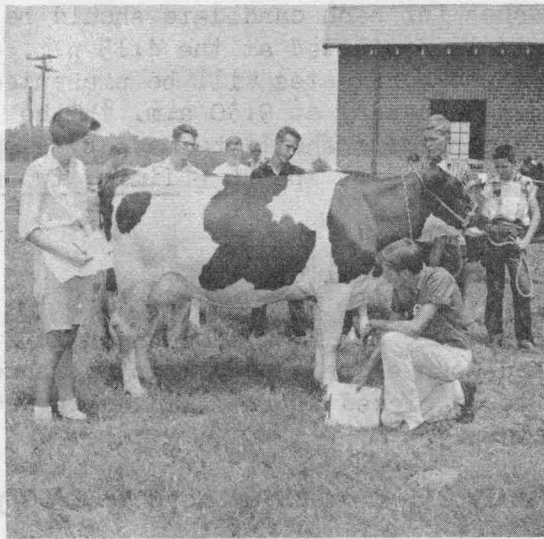

4-H CLUB WEEK
JULY 22-27, 1957

N.C. STATE COLLEGE, RALEIGH

BIG WEEK AHEAD! The "big week" is finally here and 4-H'ers from all over North Carolina swarmed onto the State College campus yesterday filled with excitement and enthusiasm. Among the early arrivals were this group of delegates from Bertie and Moore Counties. Registrar Carl Blake, State College Forage Crops Specialist, is helping Asst. Moore County Agent Tom Hall register his delegates.

Among those who participated in the State Dairy Judging Contest held yesterday at the State College Dairy judging pavillion were Henry Brake, Edgecombe; Mary Beth Key, Henderson; John Cherry, Catawba; James Larri-more, Forsyth; Jimmy Alb-right, Brunswick.

Competition was keen in the State Livestock Judging Contest held yesterday at the State Fairgrounds. Giving this feeder lamb a critical eye are, left to right, Asst. Per-quimans County Agent Richard Bryant, Bibb Swain, Tyrrell; Linda Meadows, Wake; Frank Coble, Rowan; and Rex Byrd, Wilson.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING ELECTION OF STATE 4-H OFFICERS - 1957

All nominations for 1957 officers of the State 4-H Council will be made at a meeting of all members of the State 4-H Council, at 4:15 p.m., Tuesday, July 23, in Williams Auditorium. The officers of the State 4-H Council will conduct the meeting.

ELIGIBILITY FOR ATTENDANCE AT STATE COUNCIL MEETING: The current president, vice president, secretary-treasurer, and historian (or reporter) of each county 4-H council, and all district officers are members of the State 4-H Council. Only these officers, or appointed substitutes, are eligible to attend the State Council meeting and participate and vote in the business of the State Council. Four identification cards will be issued to one agent from each county at registration on Monday, July 22, and the officers, or appointed substitutes, will be required to show their cards for admittance. Campaign managers who are not members of the State Council will be admitted to the meeting but cannot vote or take part in the discussion.

CANDIDATES ELIGIBLE FOR OFFICE: Only members of the State 4-H Executive Board (who are the present district officers), now active in 4-H work, may be nominated for one of the State 4-H Council offices of president, vice president, secretary-treasurer, and historian. Club members who have completed one year of college work and are currently enrolled in college are not eligible for nomination. The officers this year will follow the usual rotation plan: President - girl, Vice President - boy, Secretary-Treasurer - boy, and Historian - girl. Candidates must mail their picture, glossy print suitable for reproduction, and a short summary of their qualifications for a particular office to the secretary of the State 4-H Council, Clara Vann Tysinger, c/o State 4-H Club Office, State College Station, Raleigh, before July 20. A summary of these qualifications will be published in a special election edition of the "Clover Leaves."

ELECTION REGULATIONS: Short qualification speeches for each candidate should be made by his or her campaign manager when the candidate is nominated at the 4:15 p.m. council meeting in Williams Hall on Tuesday. Then these candidates will be presented to the entire group at the Club Members' Assembly on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. in the Coliseum. Short qualification speeches for each candidate should be made by campaign managers at this time and the candidate should make a short speech - limit, two minutes for campaign manager and candidate.

The names of the candidates will be entered on a printed ballot.

Primary elections will be held Thursday afternoon, July 25, from 12:00 noon to 2:00 p.m. Polls will be held during these hours by the Head Counselors at the main entrance to each dormitory. (Ballot boxes and ballots are to be picked up from and delivered to the Information Desk at the Gym by these Counselors.)

Final elections will be held Friday afternoon, July 26, from 12:00 noon to 2:00 p.m.

CAMPAIGNING: Posters and campaign literature may be used. Posters may be used if they are placed on or near the bulletin boards in the YMCA, Dining Hall, Gymnasium, and Coliseum. There is a limit of four posters per candidate. Other campaign literature may be distributed only in the dormitories and cafeteria. Glue, nails, or any other material which will harm structures are not to be used. No campaigning will be permitted during classes or assemblies (except Wednesday morning assembly when time is provided).

State College and personal property must be respected at all times.
No campaigning allowed within 50 feet of the polls.
All literature must be taken down and picked up after the elections.
No cars are to be used by anyone for campaigning purposes.

DELEGATES WELCOMED
TO COLLEGE CAMPUS

By Nancy Roberts, Orange County

North Carolina State 4-H Club Week was opened officially by Bill Pennel, State President, at the Monday evening assembly. All the delegates enjoyed the special music by the 4-H Swing Kings from Rowan County.

Dr. Carey H. Bostian, Chancellor at State College, welcomed the 4-H delegation to the campus. He challenged us to learn all we could and then carry the information home to the local 4-H members.

Mr. David S. Weaver, Director of N. C. Agricultural Extension Service, brought greetings as head of the State Extension Service.

We were all glad to hear from our own Mr. L. R. Harrill, State 4-H Club Leader, and we felt very important when he told us that each delegate represented 120 club members.

Mr. Joseph D. Tonkin of the Federal Extension Service presented an interesting film, "Tomorrow Calling."

Dr. Arnold Hoffmann, Director of music N. C. Public Schools, led the 4-H delegation in an enjoyable short song period.

All who participated in the preliminary Dairy Judging contest were excited when the winners were announced. Top individual winner was Mary Beth Key, Henderson County. The Henderson County team took first place, also. The team is composed of Mary Beth Key, Bill Key, David Edgerton and Roy Ramsey. This group is coached by Earl Smith.

Iredell County gave an inspiring vesper program which was followed by "get-acquainted" party, led by J. W. Thompson of the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Laundry -- Clothes left at the laundry before 9:00 a.m. each morning can be picked up by 4:00 p.m. the same afternoon. Girls 4-H uniform dress laundered for 35 cents, boys shirts 15 cents.
2. Registration: Total - 1269
Boys - 560
Girls - 709
98 counties represented.
3. Mail: Pick up mail at the Information center in Gymnasium.
4. Infirmary: A club member requiring medical attention should report immediately to his or her Extension Agent or to an agent on duty. An agent should always accompany a club member to the infirmary and should immediately report the incident to the agents on duty at the host and hostess desk in the gymnasium.
5. Swimming: Each afternoon from 4:00--5:30 in college gymnasium.

DAIRY JUDGING WINNERS
By Mikey Kiser, Lincoln Co.

Mary Beth Key from Henderson County took top individual honors in the State Dairy Judging Contest held yesterday at the State College Dairy Judging Pavilion.

Second place went to Brooks Piercy, Jr. of Cleveland County, third, Jimmy Talton of Wake, fourth, Edward Todd, Yadkin and fifth, Henry Reynolds of Buncombe.

Henderson County was the top place team. Yadkin placed second, Buncombe, third, McDowell, fourth, and Wake, fifth.

CLOVER LEAVES
Published Daily During
4-H Club Week

Advisors

Elwood Mintz, Assistant Editor
Joe Hancock, Assistant Editor
Mrs. Barbara Clark, Asst. Craven Agent
A. F. Wood, Asst. Rockingham Agent
Mary Rachel Shine, Asst. Wayne Agent

Reporters

Mary Eleanor Ramsey, Pender; Mike Goodson, Duplin; Rosamond Johnston, Warren; Larry Dilda, Pitt; Nancy Roberts, Orange; Tina Jordan, Mecklenburg; Mikey Kiser, Lincoln; Mary Beth Key, Henderson.

HIGHLIGHTS OF GET ACQUAINTED PARTY

By Mary E. Ramsey, Pender Co.

"How do you do? I'm Mary Doe from Oxford County and who are you? I'm 17 years old and 5 feet four inches tall."

These were the questions and answers passed about at the Monday night Get Acquainted Party held in the Coliseum last night.

Everyone enjoyed themselves very much with the dance rounds led by Mr. T. W. Thompson. Mr. Thompson is the Service Director of the National Committee of Boys and Girls Club Work of Chicago, Ill.

And just how do we know that everyone had a swell time? Well, here's the answers! The 4-H Swing Kings from Rowan County put the club members in a mood which they call a "rockin" and "rollin" time. The other answers can be found in the quotes of several of these 4-H'ers.

Annette Holmes from Duplin County stated that "I've never had so much fun with so many people."

Elaine West from Newton Grove said she enjoyed herself thoroughly and liked Mr. Thompson's technique of getting the 4-H'ers on the floor.

Elizabeth Rich, Pender County, declared she enjoyed herself thoroughly, too, but she thought they would enjoy themselves more after they learned the dances well.

"TOMORROW CALLING"

Twelve hundred 4-H boys and girls were greatly inspired by Mr. Joe Tonkin and the movie he showed last night. The film challenged us as to what we would do with our tomorrows.

Mr. Tonkin, Chief of Audio-Visual Branch, Federal Extension Service, teaches 80% of the County Agents and State Specialists in Visual Aids work. He has served on the Radio Committee at National 4-H Club Congress for seven years.

VESPER SERVICE

By Tina Jordan, Mecklenburg Co.

Using as the theme, "Love, the Divine Gift of Life," Iredell County presented the all important spiritual part of our program last night.

Edith Hall opened the service, leading the group of approximately 1200 club members in singing "My Jesus I Love Thee." Mary Long read the scripture selection from I Corinthians.

Diming the lights, narrator Judy Brown then explained that Unselfishness, Humility, Kindness, Forgiveness and Sincerity were the successful ingredients of Love--- in the persons of Nathan Morrison, Betty Vinson, D. E. White, Jr., Sarah Woodward, William Martin and Sue Goforth. Attendants were Celeste Belk and Lucille Mays.

Continuing the theme Edith Hall sang "More Love to Thee," accompanied by Judy Fletcher. The program was held in the Coliseum and was directed by Clyde Templeton.

ROWAN COUNTY WINS LIVESTOCK CONTEST

Rowan County won first place in the State Livestock Judging Contest held yesterday at the fairgrounds. Members of the winning team were John Coble, Frank Coble, Eddie Teeter, and Murray Corriher.

Second place went to the team from Haywood County; third place went to Perquimans County; and fourth place was Halifax County.

High individual scorers in order were: John Coble of Rowan County, Glenn Lee of Halifax County, and Harry Frady of Haywood County.