

CLOVER LEAVES

"IMPROVING FAMILY AND COMMUNITY LIVING"

4-H Club Week

JULY 25-30, 1955

NORTH CAROLINA STATE COLLEGE
RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

THE BAND PLAYED ON.... Here Charles McClure of Enka warms up for band practices.

NOMINATIONS FOR STATE OFFICES

Nomination of candidates for 1956 4-H officers held the spotlight at yesterday's state council meeting at Riddick Hall. G. K. Davis, president, presided and the council reports the following nominations up to press time:

President - Norma Kay Shoe, Alamance; Nancy Tuttle, Stokes; Nancy Johnson, Catawba; and Joan Batten, Johnson.

Vice President - Erwin Fuller, Franklin; Neal Kelly, Haywood; Jackie Morris, Chowan; and Richard Rhynes, Anson.

Secretary and Treasurer - Alan Teimster, Alexander; and Ronald Pinkerton, Buncombe.

Historian - Joan Crawford, Clay; Elizabeth Rich, Pender; and Ruth Temple of Wake County.

LONG AWAITED MOMENT ARRIVES

By Joyce Routh (Randolph)

Happy expressions marked the faces of 28 4-H'ers from all over North Carolina as they were tapped into the honor club; one of the highest honors a 4-H'er can attain.

New members were elected by honor club members on the basis of their outstanding records and achievements in 4-H work.

An impressive ceremony was held on Freshman Field, with Esley Forbes, honor club president, presiding.

All honor club members formed a wheel. New members formed the rim; old members formed the spokes; and honorary members formed the hub.

New members tapped into the honor club last night were:

Norma Kay Shoe	Alamance
Keith Black	Cabarrus
Jackie Morris	Chowan
Joan Crawford	Clay
Beth Davis	Cleveland
Sara Sugg	Craven
Faytie Cox	Currituck
Kenneth Howe	Gaston
Charles Canada	Guilford
John Rufty	Iredell
Martha Stevenson	Iredell
Rachel Jurney	Iredell
Peggy Ann Hall	Jackson
Joan Batten	Johnston
Myrtle Johnson	Johnston
Wallace Spivey	Montgomery
Sara Matthews	New Hanover
Lois Winslow	Perquimans
James Hendricke	Pitt
Ella Blossom	Richmond
Jackie Jackson	Sampson
Glenn Woodley	Tyrrell
Ruth Temple	Wake
Allen Ray Overman	Wayne
Barbara Ann Davis	Wayne

(continued on page 2)

KEEN COMPETITION IN PUBLIC SPEAKING FINALS

By Clyde Templeton (Iredell)

Even with a strong heat wave flowing through Reynolds Coliseum yesterday afternoon, a large group gathered to listen to the 12 finalists in the state public speaking contest.

One could easily figure how each of the 12 had won in their district as they held us spellbound from beginning to end! Mr. Lyman Dixon introduced the speakers in the following order: Linda Son, Pender County; Olin Jarrett, Madison County (second place boys' winner); Susanne Hamrick, Cleveland County (third place girls' winner); Ronny Culbreth, Cumberland County; Nancy Tuttle, Stokes County (first place girls' winner); Glenn Owens, Gates County; Vivian Rolon, Graham County; William Bates, Mecklenburg County; Myrtle Johnson, Johnston County (second place girls' winner); Leonidas Holt, Guilford County (first place boys' winner); Emma Sue Ormond, Craven County; and Erwin Fuller, Franklin County (third place boys' winner).

Miss Tuttle seemed overwhelmed with enthusiasm and set warm smiles into the audience as she discussed, "Building a Better America Through 4-H." Mr. Holt appeared as an old experience hand, using the topic "A 4-H'ers Plan for World Peace."

Judges for the contest were Dr. Carlisle Campbell, Dr. Richard Stone, Mrs. Eleanor Barbara Davis, Dr. Carey H. Bostian, Mrs. Esther Willis, and Mr. G. L. Noble.

"Have you forgotten you owe me $5?"

"Not yet. Give me a little more time and I will."

OUR DAIRYMAN PRESIDENT

By Tom Garrett (Haywood)

G. K. Davis, our state president, has an excellent record for his 9 years of club work. His main project has been Dairying.

G. K. has participated in county dairy judging 5 times and is a national first place winner in dairy achievements. In 1953 he was on a dairy judging team that took fourth place at Waterloo, Iowa.

I asked G. K. what he would like to see the new officers do. He said, "I'd like to see each of the officers visit the four 4-H camps in our state."

He plans to study Dairy Husbandry at State College and help in 4-H county work in the future.

Long Awaited Moment Arrives

(continued from page 1)

Carl Earl Davidson	Wayne
Janet Boykin	Wilson
Dwight Byrd	Wilkes

Dean Colvard was tapped as a honorary member and G. L. Carter as an associate member.

New honor club officers elected last night were:

President - Carolyn Crouse, former 4-H member of Davidson County, now assistant Home Agent in Guilford County.

Vice-President - Irvin Aldridge, Caswell County;

Secretary - Carrie Franks, Wake County;

Historian - Mary Farmer, former club member of Cherokee County, now assistant Home Agent in Buncombe County.

A "BIRDS'-EYE" VIEW

By Ruth Temple (Wake)

State College once again blossoms with white and green as 4-H club members from Manteo to Murphy fill the campus. And what do some of these delegates have to say about the happenings here so far? Well, let's see - - -

"It's just grand!" says Rachel Peele from Washington County. Rachel went to 4-H camp and liked it a lot and so decided to come to Club Week. She says she's met many nice, interesting people.

Glenn Owens from Gates County says that it is the best out of five he has attended. He is sure he can enjoy it even more after entering one of the state contests and the "butterflies" go away.

Janice Eason is from Greene County and thinks that it got off to a very good start with programs and classes looking very interesting. And she says, "Everybody is so friendly!"

Last year's National Citizenship<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> winner, our own Bobby Newton from Granville County, says that it is still great and getting better and better every year. He thinks that it is just great to see old 4-H friends again.

Rachel Forbes is from Hertford County. This is her first year at Club Week and she is having a good time so far. She is looking forward to the Dress Revue most of all.

"It's very impressive thus far," said Chuck Graham. He especially liked the vesper service last night. Chuck says that there are a whole lot of girls he doesn't know yet and would like to meet.

-----
He serves his country best
Who lives pure life, and doeth righteous deed,
And walks straight paths, however other stray.
And leaves his sons as uttermost bequest
A stainless record which all men may read.

-Susan Coolidge

FUN ON THE GREEN

By Jo Ann Mills (Beaufort)

4-H'ers with Mrs. Anne Livingston calling the sets turned Freshmen Field into a huge dance floor last night. Folk dancing was the special feature and was enjoyed by all who participated.

We are indeed fortunate to have such an outstanding director in the field of recreation, Mrs. Livingston lives in Florida and is a specialist with the National Recreation Association, New York City.

In college she majored in music and physical education. She has worked with professional and volunteer leaders in all 48 states.

Two weeks ago she worked with 4-H'ers at their state club week.

Her last visit to the State College campus was 3 years ago. She was also in charge of recreation at club week then.

-----

CLOVER LEAVES

Published Daily During
4-H Club WeekAdvisors

J. Harold Parker, Assistant Editor
Martha Kate Cashion, Asst. Home Agent
Carolyn Crouse, Asst. Home Agent
Douglas Young, Asst. Farm Agent

Reporters

Erwin Fuller, Franklin; Tom Garrett, Haywood; James Gold, Rutherford; Jo Anne Mills, Beaufort; Joyce Routh, Randolph; Linda Son, Pender; Ruth Temple, Wake; Clyde Templeton, Iredell

DRIVING SAFETY PAYS

By Erwin Fuller (Franklin)

Did you know that in a family of four living a normal span of years two persons will probably be either killed or injured in a traffic accident? This startling information was revealed to the Hands Group yesterday by members of the State Highway Patrol presenting the program "Drive With Care, Everywhere."

This marks the first time in several years that a safety program has been presented as a part of the 4-H Club Week activities. This program, under the direction of Sgt. E. W. Jones, will be presented to a 4-H group each day as a part of the Patrol's vast traffic safety education program.

Sgt. Jones, with able assistance from Commissioner Edward Scheidt and other Patrol personnel, discussed the vast changes the auto has brought about. He stated that "truly America is a nation on wheels, for there is an automobile for every three Americans."

One of the features of the program was the showing of the film "And Then There Were Four." This film pointed out vividly some of the problems in the habits and attitudes of drivers the Patrol has to cope with. The Patrolmen showed 4-H'ers some of the equipment the State is using to combat traffic accidents and deaths.

In conclusion, Sgt. Jones distributed a book, "Traffic Law and Highway Safety" for our study. He listed several ways the 4-H can promote safety. First, we can set an example for others; second, we can educate ourselves in highway safety; and third, we can put into use the safety rules we learn. By doing these things, the 4-H can contribute to making North Carolina a safer state.

-----

The 4-H Honor Club has been active since 1931

DEAN COLVARD LEADS PANEL DISCUSSION

By Clyde Templeton (Iredell)

4-H'ers went away from the morning assembly better informed about our N. C. School of Agriculture after a most interesting panel discussion led by D. W. Colvard, Dean of the school of agriculture.

Richard Rhyne was first speaker of the panel and discussed the major functions of the school of agriculture with Dean Colvard. "It is one of the best schools in the country with divisions of instruction, extension, and research," said the Dean.

"There are 1840 home demonstration clubs and 46,000 members in N. C.," said Miss Verna Stanton. Vivian Tucker further discussed with Miss Stanton extension work through home demonstration clubs and the way that home demonstration work is carried to the various counties throughout the state.

Norma Kay Shoe questioned David S. Weaver on the purpose of the cooperative extension service. Mr. Weaver said in reply that North Carolina has the largest extension service in the U. D., and that the farm and home development program is working to provide more assistance to farm people.

In connection with research work, Dr. R. L. Lovvorn discussed with Jimmy Hendrix the work that the department is doing to bring new information to farmers that will increase their incomes. "I will never run out of a job because we must change with these changing times!" said Mr. Lovvorn.

Professor D. H. Hostetler told of the work of the school of instruction. As Bobby Smith talked with him, we learned that less than one-third of our N. C. high school graduates are attending college.

-----

Tar Heel 4-H'ers enroll in more than 65 projects each year.