

Basketball Season Ends With Hair-Raising Encounter

TECHS TAKE DUKE, BOW TO CAROLINA IN EXCITING TILTS

Sermonmen Close Current Cage Season In Thrilled-Packed Tilts With Old Rivals

The State College Red Terrors turned on the heat in the closing minutes of a thrill-packed basketball game to defeat the Duke cagers by the score of 49 to 45.

The Blue Devils held the lead during most of the game, but the Techs suddenly snapped back with four minutes to go. A goal by dependable Bill Mann put the Sermonmen out in front never to be headed again that night. P. G. Hill added a pair of markers to the State cause 15 seconds before the final gun to put the game on ice.

The Terrors played brilliant ball throughout the contest, time after time executing difficult plays with machine-like precision and accuracy. Mann, playing his usual fine floor game, in addition to dropping 23 points through the pay-off hoop, was the individual star of the night. Captain Mac Berry was a whirlwind on the defense and followed Mann in the scoring with 11 points.

The game, played before a capacity crowd of 4,500 people, was a great exhibition on the part of both quintets, with the Techs outplaying the red-hot Dukes to revenge an earlier defeat.

Bow To Carolina

A gallant but thoroughly outclassed State College basketball team brought a brilliant court campaign to a close Tuesday night dropping a hard-fought game to the Carolina quintet by the score of 41 to 32.

The White Phantoms grabbed the lead on a crisp shot by Bershak and added two more points on another crisp shot by Dilworth before the State scored on a foul try by Hill. Bershak came right back with another goal to give the Chapel Hill group a 6-1 lead. Mann tallied on a nice crisp shot and then added to it by sinking a free try.

State's chances were hampered by poor foul shooting, the Terrors converting only 10 out of 25 free throws, for an average of 40 per cent, while Carolina's team made seven out of 10 tries for a 70 per cent average. The game was fast and plenty rough, 19 fouls being called on the Phantoms and 11 on Doc Sermon's proteges.

A regrettable incident occurred in the waning minutes of the encounter when a free-for-all took place under the State basket. Pete Mullis, excited by the tense battle, tripped Captain Mac Berry, Boone, of Carolina, and State's Eddie Berlinki joined in the melee.

Immediately a crowd of spectators rushed onto the floor and blows—Continued on page 2.

TECH GRAPPLERS WIN STATE TITLE

Hickman's Matsters Close Brilliant Season With Win Over Carolina

State College wrestlers are the Big Five mat champions of 1938. The championship closed the season for the Tech team, which scored victories over Virginia Tech, Maryville, Duke, Davidson, Tennessee, and Carolina. The grapplers lost only to Washington and Lee.

Coach Herman Hickman, completing his first year as varsity coach, turned in a masterful job of coaching and offered State one of its best teams. In developing such inexperienced men as Johnson, Leggett and Fry into classy wrestlers, Hickman has done a wonderful job. Under the tutelage of their able coach, Captain Clarence Shimer, Hunter, Truslow, and Davis turned in some of the best performances of their varsity careers. Orchids to Herman Hickman for his first year as varsity wrestling coach, and a brilliant grappling team.

The rotund mentor started the season with only a few men from last year's crack squad returning to action. When the call for wrestlers was issued, Hickman started to mold around these hold-overs such experienced men as Johnson, Leggett, Hines, Fry, and others. The product of his superior coaching is one of the crack wrestling teams of the South.

Success Predicted For Diamond Squad

Doak Says Outlook Is Bright Despite Loss of Many Veterans

Coach Charles (Chick) Doak is quite optimistic over State's baseball prospects who open pre-season drills March 1.

Even though the Techs lost a good many reliable performers through graduation, prospects seem to be brightened by the fact that a number of last season's dependable reserves and a few of last year's freshman team will be on hand to fill the vacancies.

An eye-dozen letter men are expected to report for drill the first of next month. Among those who are expected to report are first-sacker: Bill Mann; catcher, Eddie Berlinki; second baseman, Fred Hoyle; and pitcher, Mac Berry. Berlinki, Mann and Berry are at present attending their duties with basketball and probably will be a couple of days late reporting since the Southern Conference Tournament ends on the fifth of March.

Graduation and the hand of fate took the greater number of last season's heavy hitters.

"We lost a lot of good hitters at graduation," said Coach Doak recently while reviewing the prospective players. "Many of them were batting over .300 in college ball. Hitting will probably be our weakest point this season."

Other letter men expected to report are: Griffin, Wicker and Beam, outfielders; Green, Steele, Hart and Bruinooge, pitchers; Miller, third baseman.

Two transfer students, Red Hamilton and Bill Kaufman, are expected to report.

Vick Holshouser and Little Doc Smith, who are listed among the sophomore material, were rated as one of the most effective freshman batteries of last season and may help to strengthen the Tech ranks considerably.

Reliefs who will not be back for various reasons are: Nell Dalrymple, Walter Rabb, Sandfoss and Richardson.

Tennis Mentor Greeted By Impressive Turnout

Plans for the 1938 tennis season were completed last Tuesday at a meeting of all prospective players and Coach R. W. Green.

The largest turnout for spring training that State has ever had gathered in the YMCA to discuss schedules, tennis ladders, and technicalities of the game.

Mr. Ivey, manager of the Student Supply Store, has generously offered valuable prizes to winners of the freshman and varsity tournaments, to be held in the very near future. Frames, strings, balls and preser will be given to the semi-finalists in each tournament.

A varsity ladder has already been posted by F. M. Southerland, manager of the team, and challenge matches will begin Monday afternoon. All those wishing to enter the competition may get in touch with Southerland, whose box number is 5627, and freshmen may contact L. W. Cartwright, whose box number is the same.

Intramural Sports

By BOB COLEMAN, JR.

Intramural boxing for this season will be brought to a close Tuesday night when the dormitory and fraternity champs meet for all-campus honors. Every match is a top-notch. Among many others, such fighters as Means, Waldin, Crawford, Rooney, and Paviolski will see action. In addition to the intramural championship matches Mr. Miller has arranged a free-for-all among Negroes, sponsored by the various fraternities. A complete list of the bouts can be found at the end of this column.

On Monday night the Lambda Chi's and Kappa Sig's play to see which team will meet State (the other bracket champion) in the fraternity basketball championship game of March 7th. Neither the Lambda Chi's nor the Kappa Sig's have lost a game. Both teams have a fast offense and a stubborn defense. This should be one of the outstanding games of the year. The Kappa Sig team is smoother and should be rated the slight favorite.

On that same night 1st and 2nd 7th win this game, there will be a three way tie for first place in the bracket between 2nd 7th, 1st 1911, and 3rd 1911. 2nd 7th has one of the best teams on the campus and should have little trouble with 2nd 1911.

Third 7th should not be hard pushed when they meet 5th Dormitory on Monday night. Should they win, they will be the basketball champions.

Second 7th scored 7 points in the second half of their game with 1st 1911 to overcome an 8-4 lead at the half. Johnson and Whitmire had tallied 4 points each in the first half, while the 2nd 7th points were scored by Leet and Hoyle. In the second half Karlman scored 3 points, Teague 2, and Leet 2 to give 2nd 7th a total of 11 points. Johnson tallied once more for 2nd 1911 making a total of 10.

Basketball results for the week were: Lambda Chi, 35-Sigma Nu, 7; Pika, 16-AGR, 12; KA, 17-Pi Kappa Phi, 14; Delta Sig, 16-Phi Kappa Tau, 11; SPE won by forfeit over Phi Kappa Tau; 2nd 7th, 11-1st 1911, 10; 1st South, 25-2nd South, 15; 3rd 1911, 24-1st Watauga, 13.

All-campus finals in intramural boxing:

WOLVES TACKLE VIRGINIA TEAM IN MARCH CLASH

Newtonmen Climax Spring Grid Drills With Hampden-Sydney Practice Game

The climax of spring football practice will be reached March 5 when the Wolfpack will meet the Hampden-Sydney Tigers in the Riddick Stadium.

Doc Newton was non-committal as to what he thought the outcome of the game would be, but he ventured that the blocking and tackling had shown a slight improvement. Doc has his boys hard at work every day except Sundays, and on Saturdays divides the boys into teams and sends them against each other.

Graduate-manager Von Glahn announced that next fall the Detroit game would be the homecoming game and the day of the game would be Homecoming Day. As there are no other games in the State that day, it is expected that an overflow crowd will jam the Riddick Stadium.

Detroit will come to Raleigh with an enviable record, besides having been the highest scoring team in the country last year. Andy Farfax, their star back was among the leading individual scorers until he was injured.

The complete schedule for next fall is given below:

Sept. 24—Davidson, at Charlotte.
Oct. 1—Carolina, at Raleigh.
Oct. 8—Alabama, at Birmingham or Tuscaloosa.
Oct. 15—Wake Forest, at Raleigh.
Oct. 22—Durham, at Raleigh.
Oct. 29—Virginia Tech, at Blacksburg or Norfolk.
Nov. 5—Manhattan, at New York.
Nov. 12—Detroit, at Raleigh.
Nov. 19—Duke, at Durham.
Nov. 24—The Citadel, at Raleigh.

TANKMEN CLOSE SWIM CAMPAIGN WITH EASY WIN

Reynolds Shatters Own Pool Record as Lefortmen Take Randolph-Macon, 53-22

Coach Romeo Lefort's State tank team closed a commendable swim season Saturday afternoon with an impressive victory over Randolph-Macon College to the tune of 53 to 22.

Reynolds, swimming the 220-yard freestyle, churned through the distance in brilliant form to clip fourth-fifths of a second from the pool record he set against Duke in a previous meet.

The Lefortmen came through a rigid season in veteran style, taking the Big Five title and dropping only three meets to much more experienced aggregations. The State cause was dealt a damaging blow early in the season when it became known that Jimmie Grantham, crack diver, was declared ineligible on a conference ruling. But Lefort took diminutive Moe Barber in hand and developed him from a fair diver to a consistent winner.

The summaries:

300 Medley—State (White, Gerber, Bailey) 3:31.8.
220—Reynolds, Payne, State; Davis, R.-M., 2:24.8.
50—Graveley, R.-M.; Bailey, Davis, State, 26.4.
Diving—Barber, State, 75.5; West, Lewis, R.-M.
100—Reynolds, Payne, State; Graveley, R.-M., 56.8.
150 Backstroke—Smith, R.-M.; Wood, White, State, 1:59.8.
200 Breaststroke—Tucker, Rowland, State; Richardson, R.-M., 2:53.4.
440—Davis, R.-M.; Schneider, Cartwright, State, 6:37.
400 Relay—State (Fait, Bailey, Payne, Reynolds) 4:00.4.

'ABC of Living' Is New Course

A department in manners—the first in a publicly-supported university—has been created at Hunter College. It will be known as "the ABC of Living, or Conversation in the Amenities, Behavior and Customs."

Mrs. Katharine Bleecker Melg, who heads the course, has prepared a set of commandments for the business woman. They are:

1. Thou shalt not ever use scented powder as a substitute for soap and water.
2. Thou shalt not wear flashy clothes, or screaming colors.
3. Thou shalt not put on makeup like Theda Bara, nor perfume thyself so strong that strong men reel when you pass.
4. Thou must not talk too freely—keep gossip for thy private life.
5. Thou must keep thy love life outside the office.
6. Thou must not leap like a fire horse at the alarm when 5 o'clock comes.
7. Thou must speak clearly and directly—accurately.
8. Thou must not be emotional or oversensitive or get thy feelings hurt.
9. Thou must do thy work thoroughly. Fear not to say, "I don't know."
10. Thou must not think men in the office are making passes when they are only being civil; do not make passes thyself.

John T. Ball jumped into the verbal battle on Tuesday with his open forum letter, in which he said:

"I know Colonel Harrelson to be a very fine gentleman and executive. However, as a Raleigh business man whose interests could be affected by the college continuing to permit the public to eat at its cafeteria, I must say that I think Colonel Harrelson's statement was not satisfactory. Book Store Problem Discussed With Ivey in handling them because he did not know from one day to another how much the price would vary. He said: "The store bases the sale of old books on an economic law: the greater the risk, the larger the profit should be."

Informed by the representatives that the students had voiced their dissatisfaction at having to purchase new editions of the same book from year to year, Ivey said that it was not his affair. "If the professors prescribe a certain book to be used, we order the book, but we have absolutely nothing to do with the prescribing of the books," the Supply Store owner commented.

Twenty Per Cent Profit Ivey said that the store's profits on new books did not exceed 20 per cent of the list price, and that this was an acceptable figure with book agents throughout the country.

As a possible solution to eliminate the feelings of the Student Body that they are being unjustly charged for their books, the student representatives decided that if a rule could be passed by the college requiring all departments to list names of the books, along with their prices, that will be used in the following year and print this information in the catalog, much of the friction and ill feeling will be eliminated.
