Among The Missing

Baugham . . . Not here. Cornwell . . . not here. Dortch . . . not here.

Their names appear on an inconspicuous list in the Alumni Office. They are three of the men to whom our Memorial Tower is dedicated.

Think, for a moment, of these men. They were young men—probably about the age of most students of today. Think of the contributions they might have made to civilization!

Yes, had these men lived, their contributions to America might have become great. But they heard the beat of drums, the cheers of crowds—they absorbed propaganda—so they went overseas and absorbed lead.

They knew all this, and we wonder what they would have to say if they could come back today and see the war-hysteria again mounting. If they could see us once more on the brink of war, even more unprepared than before.

Come back, Baugham, Cornwell, and Dortch! Come back and tell them of the Hell war is without proper preparation! Make them wait until they can at least defend themselves before they try to settle the troubles of the rest of the world!

Election Squabble After all the recent bickering about the Interfraternity Council elections, we are glad that the Council voted to allow the Student Council to hold the elections along with campus-wide elections in the future.

Under the supervision of the Student Council there will be a list of all eligible fraternity men provided at the election, and as each fraternity man votes his name will be checked off the list and a numbered ballot will be given to him.

We strongly recommend, however, that the number of each man's ballot not be placed beside his name on the list. Every man has a right to a secret ballot and the right to vote the way he chooses.

In The Spring

Rumor has it that signs are about to be placed about the campus by the Student Council urging students and others to keep off the grass in the following plaintive limerick: "Let it not be said, said in vain, That all was beauty here before you came."

Perhaps the Council is trying to leave something that the students will be able to see they have done, a piece of tangible evidence that there has been a Student Council, so to speak, a Council that has existed in a form other than that of a police court.

Ever since the occurrence of a regrettable incidence several years ago, the last time a colored band played here for a dance, an unwritten law has ruled prohibiting Negro bands from again performing on this campus.

Dusky Syncopators

By being able to secure Negro bands—for their dances, a substantial saving should be realized by the Interfraternity Council, the Engineers' Council, and all the other groups that sponsor dances on the campus throughout the year.

Besides the savings possible through the engagement of colored bands, variety will also be obtained. Negro bands have a distinctive style all their own—not necessarily fast, as many people believe.

Most of the other schools in the state are permitted to engage colored bands and appear to be well-satisfied with them. We believe that State College can successfully employ Negro orchestras and should be permitted to do so.

Courtesy

One thing that a student should learn now, if he has not already learned it, is to be courteous and show good conduct during assembly programs. Some students talk and laugh so much while a speaker is on the platform that the speech has to be interrupted while a faculty member reprimands the students.

We should at all times be aware of the fact that a speaker judges a student body largely by the courtesy he receives while talking to a group of the students. Quite often we are not interested in the speaker or in what he has to say, but that should be no excuse for taking our attention from him and carrying on a conversation with our neighbor.

This habit of discourtesy is not representative of the entire student body by any means, but of a few boys. It is up to everyone, however, to show a courteous attitude and to remind others to do the same.

BEHIND THE MIKES

By Jack Thurmer

A very tough break will probably turn into a good break. Bobby Day's decision to sell his band Saturday left the Engineers' Council without a band, and so, after trying various booking offices, a local band of septa musicians finally arrived.

Whether or not it was a good band is not as important as the fact that good Negro bands can now come on the campus. This will bring good music at a cheaper price than now is being paid, plus a chance to see some of the better bands of the country.

The Duke has had the best band in the country over a period of years and when the Dorseys, Millers and Goodman are forgotten about, he will still be in the big time, because his band plays good music.

Since the Friday night date for the finals has not been filed, why not try to book either Lunceford or Ellington? One school official has already expressed his willingness to allow more Negro bands on the campus.

Jimmie Lunceford in his last visit to Raleigh expressed his desire to play at State College dances, and the huge number of followers of his band that were at the dance came largely from State College.

For contrast on one record, Charlie Barnett's negroid arrangement of "Blue Juice" features some fancy soprano sax work by Charlie and Bus Etri's guitar while "Harmony Haven" is a slower number with Bob Carroll and the Glee Club doing the vocals.

Tony Pastor in his relaxed style plays some nice tenor on "I Close My Eyes" and "Confessing." Dorsey Anderson vocalizes on the first one and Tony on the latter. Duke Ellington and his famous orchestra play some very good swing on arranger Billy Strayhorn's "Take the 'A' Train" with all sections taking solos.

GLEANINGS

Years may come and years may go, but we seem to stay on forever . . . at least, it seems that even after five years I find myself back on the staff of your newspaper—still pounding the keys and reminiscing of old days.

The Engineers' Council found grief Saturday night when their band violated their contract and failed to show up for the dance. However, the boys did manage to break all tradition and set a precedence by having a colored band . . . for what we believe was the first time in history.

Next week marks the beginning of Daylight Saving Time, but no doubt the 8 o'clock whistle will still blow at 8 o'clock . . . suggested places to begin early morning classes during spring: Kitty Hawk Tavern, Raleigh airport, local golf courses, front porch of your girl's house, the beach, and several unmentionable places.

Professors have been catching the worst end of several campus initiations of late. One textile initiate jumped up in the middle of Prof. Miller's class and yelled some unheard of statement such as "Will it pay?" . . . and then, there is the Seaboard and Blade neophyte who had to talk a Strength professor out of a class quiz—result, no quiz.

Now that elections are over, we wonder what will become of all the campaign promises that floated so freely last Wednesday . . . especially do we wonder just when another issue of The Wataugan is scheduled to make its appearance . . . noticing, also, that The Wolfpack Club is beginning its own publication, which will appear monthly except during football season, at which time it will replace the regular programs.

OTHER UNUSUAL EVENTS: "Cutie" Carter suffering from sunburn and attempting to recover from a wonderful trip to Wrightsville Beach over the week-end. . . . Howell Stroup driving away in his modern version of the one-horse shay from the Boylan Apartments, accompanied as usual by "Seabiscuit" Thompson. . . . Jimmy Call and Henry Rowe discussing some rather unusual events of the recent inspection trip taken by the chemical boys . . . seems like they got lost from the regular routine . . . add Ralph Williams to the list of strayed on this venture. . . .

Shotwell getting all prettied up for the Style Show girls . . . an infinite number of students fighting for front row seats at the same event . . . plus proud escorts of the visiting models . . . a picture of Steve Bundy imitating Textile Professor Hart . . . a miracle would happen if McRorie and Ownley came to their 12 o'clock class on time the same day . . . what attraction do these E. E. boys find in the I. E. school? . . . also hear that Bob Stuekey was considering changing schools . . . this late in college years, too. . . .

Peter Pop attempting to extend his baby-tending service on a nationwide basis, with assistance from a telegraph company . . . Bill Friday planning on attending another convention . . . he has probably traveled farther this year than Wiley Post did on his round-the-world flight. . . . Wade Brown practicing his swatting on the golf course, accompanied by Norm Wiggins . . . some say Pat Pebley is planning on taking a big step in the near future . . . ditto for Pete Phrydas. . . . Julian Bunn musccling in on a mighty good racket at gym dances, without a union card, too. . . . "Blind Man" Kaufman delaying softball games to watch a passing pretty girl. . . . "Curve-ball" Ray becoming a strike-out king for Pi Kappa Phi . . . Charlie Schubart spending a blue Monday after jaunting to the beach for the week-end . . . blaming all on sunburn, too. . . .

Aldine Thomason's tales of losing his hat and shirt with the paper this year . . . if they're being lost, it's out in the country . . . Don Brown and George May still upholding their reputations as being croovy casanovas . . . Tom Rowland strolling one night recently with an old-time sweetheart . . . Jimmy Allen planning a trip to Greensboro this week-end, to W. C., to be exact . . . the only funny thing is that he is taking a girl with him . . . the movement on foot to purchase glasses for "Ump" Mayton. . . .

And we'll leave you with a final query: "What did the white bear say to the black bear?" . . . Answer: "Amapola." "SPUD"

Twenty-three Hickmen Enter Carolina AAU Meet Tomorrow

Track Squad May Nab 20 Points Against Tough Opposition; East, Holloman, Hanff, and Johnson Sure of Places

On a basis of individual past performances this season, State's cinder squad seems slated to capture 20 points at the Carolina A. A. U. track meet to be held at Fetzer Field in Chapel Hill tomorrow.

Because of their showing in a dual meet against Carolina last Saturday, the Blue Devils of Duke are favored to win top team honors. In that meet, Duke's cindermen took 10 of 14 first places and set two Southern Conference records.

Dick East, senior sprinter who ran the hundred yard dash in 10 seconds flat last Saturday against Davidson, will be running against one of the best sprinters in intercollegiate circles when he faces Duke's Moffat Storer. Storer broke the Fetzer Field record for the hundred yard dash by clipping off a 9.6.

Feature Mile Run
Co-Captain Vann Johnson of State, Dave Morrison of Carolina and Henry Profenius of Duke will put on the best show of the meet when they tangle in the mile run. Although Johnson's best time of 4:33.5 is relatively slow compared to Morrison's time of 4:26.4 last Saturday, he has never been pushed to the limit and should lower his mark below 4:30 tomorrow when he runs against the flashes of Duke and Carolina.

State's other co-captain, Ike Hanff, will be aiming for a new pole-vault record. Hanff's vault of 13 feet last Saturday against Davidson is a foot higher than Lloyd Carolina's vault, has done this year. Ed Singen, former Rhode Island State star and graduate student at State last year holds the present Carolina AAU record of 12 feet 9 inches.

Holloman Pushed
Payton Holloman, flashy State sophomore, is undefeated in dual meet competition for the 440 this season, but will have tough going against Brown of Duke. Brown has run the distance in half a second faster than Holloman's best time.

There will be no charge for spectators and plenty of seats will be available since Fetzer Field holds about 3,500.

Wake Track Meet

Captain Herman Hickman yesterday succeeded in arranging a dual track meet with Wake Forest to be held in State's Track Stadium, Wednesday, April 30. Field events will start at 4 p. m., and running events half an hour later. Only the varieties will take part.

The Deacons last met State on the track and field in 1938, when the cinder sport was resumed here. That battle was an informal one, with both varsity and frosh tracksters competing together, and no official result is available.

Racketeers Win, 7-2, Over Boston College

Coach Green's Squad Takes Season's Second Win
Turning in its second victory of the season, Coach Pee-Wee Green's varsity tennis squad took the measure of the Boston College team, 7-2, last Friday.

State won all three doubles matches and four singles. A. A. Pruitt, A. W. Katterman, Emmet Shoffner, and Elliot Winston all triumphed in two straight sets, in the singles.

Pruitt and Owens, Shoffner and Winston, and C. I. Light and Ev Levin teamed up in the doubles matches. Each of the three matches went for three sets with State winning the first, losing the second, and finally triumphing in the third, in each one.

Darkness Halts Game As Techs and Heels Stand Tied, 9-9

Ninth Inning Uprisings by Both Squads Leaves Battle in Deadlock; Craig Pinch Triples

Darkness stepped in last Tuesday after 26 State and Carolina baseballers had trod the basepaths for nine weary innings and had accomplished nothing.

It was the season's first diamond meeting of the two rivals, and a 9-all deadlock existed (practically a moral victory for the Techs) when the umpire called the game after the ninth inning because of increasing darkness.

The Tar Heels reached Right-hander Ray Hardee's tossing as soon as the battle began, tallying three runs in the first inning and repeating in the second. Doc Newton's crew found the range in its part of the second frame, pushing across two scores then and three more an inning later.

The Wolfpack manufactured another run to tie the score, but gave way again when Carolina tallied in its half. Thus the game stayed in the uprisings in the ninth inning.

Two Men Out

Two men were out and two were on base when State Substitute Frank Craig pinch hit a rousing triple to left field. Warren Bailey, subbing for Wheeler, had singled, and Pat Fahley duplicated with a line drive over the second baseman's head.

In the half of the last frame, Carolina smashed out three singles for one run before Pinchhitter Hank Feimster came in. He batted a high fly towards second base, and Jack Singer, who was under it, dropped it. Singer whipped the ball home but the Carolina runner performed a neat hook-slide that completely fooled Catcher Chick Doak.

Wildcats Look Easy For Tech Nine Today

MURAL MUSINGS
By JOE LeVASSEUR

Softball opened up with a bang last week when baby-tender Peter Pop took enough time off from his extra-curricular activities (?) to lead his Sigma Pi brothers to a 15-10 victory over A. L. T. Pop accounted for three runs and covered third base like a door-mat. White and Mimms took turns on the mound for the winners with Davis pitching for the losers.

Lambda Chi and PIKA put on a track meet last Thursday with Lambda Chi finally coming through to win the game, 23-21. Hill and Heyward took turns on the mound for PIKA but were unable to stop the Lambda Chi's. Curtis was the winning pitcher.

K. A. beat Sigma Nu, 14-12, with Hodges on the mound for the winners and Houser pitching for the losers. Hodges also accounted for three runs for K. A. with Bundy, Joslin and Garnett making up the murderer's row for Sigma Nu. Ray, Pi Kappa Phi, pitched his teammates to an 8-4 victory over A. K. Pi with Fleck of A. K. Pi being tagged with the loss.

Dormitory Baseball

In the dormitory league, Upper Wat. shut out 3rd "C." 6-0. Young went the route for Upper Wat., with Ballard pitching for the losers. Gibson and Berryhill of 1st Seventh had too much on the ball against 10th dormitory and trounced them, 16-4. Jones was the losing pitcher.

Upsilon pitched Upper South to a close win over Lower Wat., 7-6. May went the route on the mound for Lower Wat. Ninth dorm won over 2nd Eighth, 14-6. Parrish and Hardzog were the respective pitchers.

Other Mural Sports

In the Volleyball tournament, Upper Wat., 5th, 6th, 1st Eighth, 1st Seventh and Lower Wat., advanced to the next bracket in the dorm division. Delta Sig, S. P. E., K. A., A. L. T., Sigma Nu and PIKA went up a notch in their league.

Tennis came into its own last week in the Intramural program with Ninth, 1st Seventh and 1st "C" dormitories all winning their games. PIKA, A. K. Pi, Delta Sig and Sigma Pi fraternities likewise came out on top.

Newtownmen Seem Ready For Davidson; Play In Burlington Tuesday

Heading into the home stretch of its season's schedule, the Tech nine looks for a not too complicated victory over Davidson's Wildcats this afternoon on Freshman Field.

The Wildcats have not been too potent in conference competition this year, occupying the cellar slot after dropping their first five league encounters. Today's battle is the first of a pair between the two nines, Doc Newton's squad being scheduled to close their season in Davidson on May 15.

After getting off to a flying start with victories over Cornell, Ivy League champion, and William and Mary, the Techs hit the skids against such foes as Pittsburgh, Wake Forest, St. John's, and Duke.

A six-day layoff after the Duke fiasco, plus several shifts in the lineup produced a dividend in the form of that 9-9 tie with Carolina on Tuesday. Doc Newton has not had too much success with anyone except Ray Hardee on the mound, but he may decide that the three-day rest since the Carolina game isn't enough for the sophomore right-hander and give the nod to either Web Groueten or Ray Smith.

McEwen semi-pro nine will play host to the Techs in Burlington next Tuesday. The Wake Forest return engagement, originally planned for Wake Forest next Saturday afternoon, has been moved up to earlier in the week.

The track team will leave for Chapel Hill tomorrow at 1 p. m. from Frank Thompson Gym.

"ON THE CAMPUS"

was founded in 1904 at the University of Illinois. While the qualifications for membership distinctly stimulate and reward scholarship, the society has a far broader purpose than merely the awarding of a badge of distinction. As conceived by its founders, its aim is to assist its members throughout their lives in becoming better men in their chosen profession and also better citizens. Another purpose of the organization is the helping of both members and non-members in the improvement of the standards of the profession, the courses of instruction, and the betterment of the institutions where its chapters are established.

The other officers elected for the coming school year are: C. G. Young, treasurer; J. F. Calfee, recording secretary; E. C. Benton, Jr., corresponding secretary; and E. F. Wooten, bridge correspondent.

AAA Training Course Began Monday Night

Course Will Include Six Meetings, Final Session For Examination

The short course in checking compliance work under the AAA program got under way in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. Monday night under the guidance of H. A. Patton, Head Field Officer.

The course will be given in six meetings, the sixth one to consist of an examination. Students passing the examination will be considered as having passed the classroom work in most counties, leaving only field training a prerequisite to beginning work.

Mr. Patton emphasized the fact that completing the course successfully does not guarantee any student a job this summer, but that it does place him in line for a position in this type of work. Prospects for getting work this summer are favorable, he said, because of the drain of the usual supply of employees by the draft and defense work.

ANYONE knowing this man or having seen him in the past week is asked to communicate with Howard L. Pierce, special agent with the State Bureau of Investigation. The pictured man is Second Lieut. William S. Burgess.

The class will meet each Monday and Thursday night in the Y. M. C. A. through May 10. By popular vote the time of meeting was set at 7 o'clock.

An important meeting of the college Radio Committee will be held in Room 204 of the Publications Building this afternoon at 1:30 to complete plans for a series of broadcasts.

NOTICE!
All students interested in poetry are invited to get together in the north end of the "Y" next Monday night at 8 o'clock. Professor Kenneth W. Cameron will be in charge. Students are invited to bring along their favorite poems. Professor Cameron assures everyone that there will be nothing academic about the meeting.
