King And Queen Have A Big Day

By HARPER THAYER

From the time that Charlie Musser left for Woman's College in his big black Buick convertible last Saturday, it seemed inevitable that the "King for a Day" rites would be a huge success.

Charlie returned around one o'clock with Vivian White, WC freshman, who was Miss North Carolina of 1947. It was she who was destined to become the ruling queen of the day and the royal partner of "King" Richard Kirmeyer. Kirmeyer was chosen for this honor through his prowess in grabbing greasy pork chops on the hoof. (Any connection between this and food served at local ptomaine taverns is purely illusionary.)

Festivities Begin

The festivities, sponsored by 30 and 3, began with a luncheon at the Club Bon Air in honor of the royal couple. During the luncheon, the King and Queen were introduced to all the 30 and 3 members and their dates.

After the lunch Emmett Bringle, B.M.O.C., introduced the principal speaker, Andy Patton. Patton is well-known on the campus as associate geek on the Watauga staff.

When the gas had cleared away, the party moved its C.P. to Lewis' State College Store on Hillsboro Street. Here the royal couple signed their names on the signature ceiling.

Following this momentous occasion, the King selected the $150 worth of clothing that 30 and 3 were presenting to him. He was ably aided in this chore by the beautiful, titillative, scintillating Queen.

His choices included: a neutral shade $85 Steinblock garbardine suit, 2 dress shirts, 2 pair of slacks, 2 sport coats (including a corduroy jacket), 2 swimming trunks, 4 sport shirts, a pair of shoes, and numerous socks and ties.

The royal couple then dressed and had supper at Teel's Supper Club. A small group of 30 and 3 members and their dates accompanied them.

Officially Crowned

During the intermission of the Sophomore Hop on Saturday night, the King and Queen were officially crowned. The crowning proclamation was read by Emmett Bringle. Then, mingled with the snapping of flash bulbs, Virgil Mimms, president of 30 and 3, performed the coronation ceremony.

Following this the King's selections of the afternoon were formally presented to him. The Queen was also given a combination compact and cigarette lighter.

When the intermission ended, the royal couple descended from their thrones on the stage and danced with the commoners. It is this homely touch that so endears royalty to us.

Schedule Change

Final exam week has been moved up one day on the schedule. Exams will now begin Friday, June 4, and end Thursday, June 10.

Graduation exercises will be held Monday, June 14, at 8 p.m. There will be no commencement activities on Sunday, June 13.

Book Dedicated To Major Kutschinski

Those big, broad smiles flashing across the faces of Atwood Skinner and Tom Millsaps, editor and business manager, respectively, of the Agromeck, can mean only one thing; that the fruits of their year of hard labor are here and ready for distribution. And that is exactly the answer they gave.

Millsaps and Skinner stated that one thousand Agromecks arrived this past Monday and that distribution will start next Monday. Students whose last names begin with the letters A through N will be able to pick up their Agromeck any day next week from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Arriving Regularly

With more books scheduled to arrive regularly, distribution of the record breaking annual is expected to continue unbroken. Students who had sponsor pictures are requested to pick up an engraved book for their sponsor also. Publication Board members are also entitled to engraved books.

Boasting some 5,500 pictures and 405 pages, as compared to 366 pages last year, the 1948 Agromeck well lives up to a previous claim of being "Bigger, Better, and Earlier." The cover has an attractive brown finish with gold lettering, with a Wolf's head motif in the lower right corner.

Dedicated to Kutschinski

The book is dedicated to Major Kutschinski, head of the State College Music Department. "Through his music, nobility of character, and time unselfishly devoted to N. C. State and its students, he has given us a finer appreciation of college life." A special page in memoriam to former college physician Dr. A. C. Campbell is included in the year-book. "As College physician for 26 years, Dr. Campbell was faithful and unselfish in his service to North Carolina State College."

The annual is divided into five sections: the College, including the administration, faculty, students and a special section of graduate students; the Corps; Organizations; Athletics; and Features. The entire book has a continuing color scheme of brown and yellow variations. Another new and attractive addition is the scattering of snapshots throughout the book and sketches on each page.

Skinner and Millsaps were even thoughtful about their advertisers, placing snapshots throughout the ads in order to at least expose the readers to advertisements.

Harrelson, Taylor Return From Trip

Chancellor J. W. Harrelson of State College and H. W. Taylor, executive director of the College's General Alumni Association, returned late Saturday after completing a 12-day speaking tour through Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Illinois, and Pennsylvania.

Their schedule included speaking engagements with State College alumni clubs in Danville, Va., Charleston, W. Va., Dayton, Ohio, Louisville, Ky., Chicago, Ill., Cleveland, Ohio, Pittsburgh, Pa., Akron, Ohio, and Roanoke, Va.

Chancellor Harrelson said they conferred with alumni from virtually all sections of the nation.

Classes Are Suspended For Scholarship Program

Bishop Howard E. Rondthaler, President of Salem College at Winston-Salem, will speak during the Scholarship Day program in Pullen Hall next Wednesday at noon. In announcing the program, Col. Harrelson stated that the faculty would form at the Tower and go to Pullen Hall in a group.

The event is being sponsored by the scholastic and honor societies on the campus. During the program, awards, prizes and medals will be presented to various students for outstanding work.

Dean Cloyd announced that classes will be suspended from 11:45 until 1 P.M. to permit faculty and students to attend. Col.

Harrelson urged that all members of honor societies make a special effort to attend.

Bishop Rondthaler, a former minister and professor, is a member of many societies and organizations, including SAE fraternity. He is also a scholar in many fields and a fluent speaker.

Sponsors For Annual Kappa Alpha-Kappa Sigma Ball

Pi Tau Sigma Initiates Six Honor Students

Six top-ranking students in the School of Engineering at State College have been initiated into the membership of Pi Tau Sigma, national honorary mechanical engineering fraternity, it was announced today.

The new members are Norfleet N. Smith of Belhaven; B. T. Fitchett of Wheelerville; Fred M. Mallison of Washington, N. C.; John T. Meador of Union, S. C.; John M. Glenn of Gatesville; and Thomas S. Tucker of Winston-Salem.

Officers of the fraternity are Bob Lloyd of Asheboro, president; Richard Bean of East Bend, vice-president; Steve Flannagan of Henderson, recording secretary; Owen Bransford of Winston-Salem, corresponding secretary; Basil Greene of Brooklyn, N. Y., treasurer; and Phil Moore of Norfolk, Va., historian.

Turn In Applications

Colonel Samuel A. Gibson, PMS&T, Military Department, N. C. State College, has announced that applications from veteran students for enrollment in Advanced ROTC are still being accepted by the Military Department. Veterans who are interested should have their applications in by June 1, 1948. Information concerning the various courses offered and prerequisites necessary for enrollment can be obtained at the Military Department, Room 1, Holladay Hall.

Membership in the organization is restricted to juniors and seniors who have an academic average of 80 per cent or above and who are members of the student chapter of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Chief objectives of the fraternity are to advance the interest in scholarship, to promote the ideals of the engineering profession, and to coordinate departmental activities.

Morgan To Head Baptist Student Union

For the first time in its 26 year history in North Carolina a State College student has been elected to head the Baptist Student Union work in the state. Leonard Morgan, a junior in General Engineering, was elected president of the North Carolina Baptist Student Union at the annual officers' training clinic in Greensboro recently. Twenty-three colleges were represented in the voting. He succeeds Don Shropshire, of Carolina, in the office.

As president of the N.C.B.S.U. Morgan will have a decisive voice in the planning of two week-long, state-wide summer conferences and two state-wide student conventions which will be held in the fall and next spring. He will preside at each conference. In addition he will supervise the state-wide work of the B.S.U. Working with him will be seven other officers from various colleges in the state.

Active For Three Years

Morgan has been active in B.S.U. work on State College campus for the past three years. He has represented his church on the Executive Council and has taken an active part in planning and carrying out all its activities. In addition he served last year as editor of The Reveille, state-wide B.S.U. publication which goes to all colleges in the state. Next year he will serve the local organization as the B.S.U. representative to the campus Protestant Religious Council.

Morgan hails from Raleigh. He is the son of L. L. Morgan, Sunday School Secretary for North Carolina.

Alumnus Gives College A $5,000-a-year Fund

Richard J. Reynolds, Jr., former mayor of Winston-Salem and now a resident of Miami Beach, Fla., has transferred to State College income-producing securities sufficient to bear an annual income of $5,000, Chancellor J. W. Harrelson announced this week.

Chancellor Harrelson said the transfer of the securities was made early in 1948 and that the income from these investments will be used for the promotion of education and research in the College's School of Agriculture.

Interested In Ag Research

Reynolds, who studied with the State College Class of 1927 and whose family founded and operates the Reynolds Tobacco Company, has been active in the support of his alma mater for many years. He has been especially interested in agricultural research and in other affairs relating to the welfare of the State's farmers.

Chancellor Harrelson reported that Reynolds contributed $5,000 annually during the period of 1938-47 for the purpose of supplementing the salaries of four or five top-ranking scientists on the college's agricultural staff.

A former treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, Reynolds has been active in the support of aviation and aided in the establishment of the College's Department of Aeronautical Engineering while he was a member of the institution's board of trustees several years ago.

Produced Several Pictures

He also produced several motion pictures of North Carolina farm conditions for use in educational programs sponsored by the State College Agricultural Extension Service.

Spring Enrollment Breaks All Records

State College broke another enrollment record with the beginning of the spring term, Registrar W. L. Mayer's office reported today.

Total enrollment is 4,864 for the term that started about a month ago. The previous high for a spring term was set last year with 4,478 students.

The current registration figure, however, represents a decrease of 287 students as compared with the winter term when the enrollment stood at 5,151. The fall term figure of 5,334 included 470 more students than the current enrollment.

The School of Engineering leads the other schools and divisions of the college, with 2,725 undergraduates. The School of Agriculture was next, 952, and the School of Textiles drew 834. The Division of Teacher Education attracted 305. There are 48 special, unclassified students.

M. E. Dept. Leads

The Department of Mechanical Engineering has 587 students to lead the various departments, and the Department of Electrical Engineering was a close runner-up with 582. The Department of Civil Engineering, with 420, took third place.

A breakdown by classes showed the following: 1,182 freshmen; 1,311 sophomores, 1,298 juniors; and 833 seniors.

The total enrollment includes 4,826 men and 38 women. Veterans of World War II now enrolled at State College number 3,656.

A recent survey of the enrollment figures indicated that 83 per cent of the students are North Carolina residents.

CAMPUS GOVERNMENT

By WALTER M. CLARK

The officers and members of the new Council met with the old Council Tuesday. This will be the practice until the new members become familiar with their jobs and then the old Council will withdraw.

Merit Rating of Teachers

The Promotions Committee reported that they are ready to take action on the grading system for instructors. Dr. Anderson has written to other schools that have tried such a system. The answers to these letters have been given to the committee to guide them in drawing up their final plans. These will be submitted to the Faculty Council for approval.

The tentative plans call for the Departmental Honor Committees to handle the operation. Rating sheets will be given out by the Honor Committeemen in the various classes. The Departmental Honor Committees will then compile the papers on the various instructors and submit a report to the Department Head. The instructor will then be commended on his good points and told how he can improve on others. If a man gets a low score and doesn't improve, the report will be taken to the administration for further action.

Change In Dismissal

An amendment to the by-laws was passed on the first reading. The change if passed on second reading, will enable a man who has been dismissed, to re-enter college after one calendar year if the administration is willing, and on whatever terms they set forth. At present a man dismissed may not return under any conditions. The by-laws relating to "suspension" whereby a man is suspended for one, two, or more terms will not be affected by the change.

Installed Music

Mr. Fred Willard, Ralph Flowers, and Fred Collins were given Ronson cigarette lighters in appreciation for the good job they did of designing and installing the speaker system in the cafeteria.

EDITORIALS

Poorly Attended . . .

A small but appreciative audience attended what some qualified music levers pronounced "the best non-professional presentation in Raleigh in years" last Sunday afternoon in Pullen Hall, when the thirty-piece State College Orchestra presented Mozart's "Titus" Overture, Dittersdorf's Symphony in F major, Bizet's "L'Arlesienne", Suite, a Scherzo by George Dasch and an excerpt from Wagner's "Die Meistersinger."

The small crowd gave a rise to the question "what is the matter with music appreciation at State College," but it is possible that the storm which broke at about starting time kept many folks away, yet it is recalled that in much worse weather last fall the student body was out there helping the Wolfpack beat Wake Forest. This Sunday, May 9, the "Redcoat" Band plays at 4:30 P.M., and it is hoped that a much larger group of State student and faculty members will show evidence of their appreciation of the efforts of the musical organizations to provide wholesome and cultural entertainment.

More Activity . . .

The "King for a Day" program went over big.

The success of the program should be a sign to many other organizations and honor societies on the campus; and these societies should make an effort to snap out of their inactivity and make themselves known on the campus.

Since football season any sort of unusual activity or program has been sadly lacking. With a campus the size of State College something should be popping just about all the time.

It is difficult to see how the interest of members can be maintained when a society rarely does anything outside its own group.

There are many worthwhile projects around the campus that need a lot of pushing. Let's get some of these projects pushed.

Don't Be A Sucker . . .

Has a young girl with a fast line of chatter tried to sell you magazine subscriptions in the past few days?

If anyone tries, tell them you aren't interested. These roving crews travel from place to place with their fast-talk and try to give the impression that they are really giving their prospects a bargain. But they are not.

The prices they quote you are substantially the same prices that it would cost you to order the magazine from the publisher.

These people are trained to out-talk you. They were operating on the campus without permission of any college official. Furthermore, they have been asked to stay off the campus.

If they show up again report them. Above all don't be a sucker for their fast talk.

That Man
Is Here
Again!

- Final examinations must be given on all courses. Any exceptions must be approved by the Dean or Director of Instruction.
- All examinations will be given in accordance with this schedule.

OPEN FORUM

Dear Editor:

I am asking for help, for me and many other students on the campus. You and your paper can help us.

We need a patrol officer on the campus at night to protect automobiles. Something is stolen almost every night from some automobile. Gasoline and extra accessories such as white and chromium rims are the chief items being taken. In the past month my friend next door has lost gas, my roommate rims, and I lost a tank of gas this week.

If you and your paper will help us I think we can put a stop to all this. Don't you think we need an officer? There is no telling how much stuff is being taken. Let's stop it!

C. B. Lloyd.

City; Grover Turner of Indianapolis; Charlie Bondy from Far Rockaway, Long Island; Arnold Corwin and Peter Koch also from New York and Ken Gottlieb of Haddon Heights, N. J. Invitations have been sent to parents and friends of the initiates and it is hoped that many will attend the banquet. The present strength of PET is 27 members.

The Sigma Omega Chapter of Sigma Alpha Mu will celebrate its tenth anniversary on May 8. The local chapter of this National Fraternity was started in 1929 under the name of Theta Phi and then operated as a local until 1938 when they were given their Sammy Charter. Today there are about 38 active chapters of SAM in the United States and Canada in addition to several Alumni Chapters. The local chapter has 40 members and pledges. In celebration of the birthday, the fraternity will hold an informal party at the Bon Air Supper Club on Saturday night.

One more fraternity has reported on its spring elections. The new Pi Kappa Phi officers who were elected this week are: Jay Deyton, President; Maurice Lamb, secretary; Dan McCulloch, treasurer; Lewis Reep, assistant treasurer; Jim Blue, historian; Ray Queen, chaplain and Rufus Herring, warden. The new senior representative to the IFC is Bill Wallace, and Jim Blue will act as junior representative.

WITH the GREEKS

By TED WILLIAMSON

Another State fraternity has held its annual election and reported the names of their new officers. Pate Forehand, President of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, this week gave up his office to Charlie Tripp of Raleigh. In addition to his fraternity activities, Charlie is widely known on the campus through the golf team which he coaches so well. The Vice-Presidents job will be filled by Bill Patten, also a Raleigh boy. Recording Secretary is Ralph Coble of Greensboro; Treasurer for the year will be Ben Merritt; Corresponding Secretary, Ted Williamson; Warden, Buddy Boyles; the Herald is Neal Jones and the new Historian is Mack Arnold. The all-important job of pledge-trainer will be filled by Pate Forehand, the retiring President.

Every once and a while a frustrated reformer finds an unoccupied soap-box and with a cry of "Down with fraternities" leaps upon it and makes himself look foolish. This fact has come to the attention of David A. Embury, chairman of the National Interfraternity Conference, who recently came to the defense of the Greek system. Attacking those who claim that the American College Fraternity is undemocratic in its selection of members, Mr. Embury honestly pointed out that "Nothing is more important than that college fraternities, in choosing members, seek men of the same racial, religious, social and cultural backgrounds as their own." He then went on to point out that unless the fraternities were made up of such closely akin and mutually compatible men, they would suffer internal dislike and misunderstanding which would destroy them and all that they stand for. The right of every human to choose his own friends and associates is as important as his right to wear his choice of ties and shirts and to worship where he will. The right of the fraternities is the same. Those who would deprive them of this right are the ones who would later deprive us of all our rights; they are the rabble-rousers and reds.

Phi Epsilon Tau, State's only local fraternity, inaugurates its first PET Weekend next week. Highlight of the affair will be initiation of new brothers who pledged the fraternity in the winter term. The Friday night initiation will be followed by a banquet at Teel's on Saturday in honor of the new men. Those who are to be initiated are: Ted A. Venia of New York

VETVILLE NEWS

By ISH COOK

The wives in Vetville have been trying their hand at entering some of the numerous quiz contests, and the results have the whole community buzzing with interest.

Mrs. Ann Dick won the "Cinderella Weekend" contest, which is broadcast by a local radio station. Last weekend Mrs. Dick and her husband went to New York for an expense-paid vacation of night clubs, dining, dancing, plays, breakfast in bed, and a tour of the city. The trip was only part of the prize. Before leaving Raleigh, Mrs. Dick received a $145.00 suit, $22.95 blouse, $26.95 cobra shoes with a $24.95 handbag to match, plus three pairs of nylons.

Mrs. Robert Leith is a two-time winner. Her first success came when she won an electric sandwich toaster. The second contest provided a monetary prize.

The members of the Board of Directors of the Vetville Mutual Grocery and some of the stockholders have completed a store house under Apt. 15 F. The added storage space will enable the management to offer a wider variety of canned goods. Some of the space in the store will be utilized by providing poultry. The size of the present meat case has prevented the sale of poultry to date.

There will be a regular meeting of the stockholders (as stated in the by-laws) the last Sunday in May. At the meeting a survey of prices in the stores of Raleigh will be available.

Callaway Elected

Dick Callaway of Henderson, a senior in textile manufacturing, has been elected permanent president of State College's Class of 1948, it was announced.

Other permanent class officers are Bob Hinkle of Lexington, vice president; Andy Patton of Franklin, secretary; and George Whitfield of Asheboro, treasurer.

'No Modeling' Says Miss N. C. Registrars Convention

By AL DUGAN

"I have no desire to be a model or enter any more beauty contests," declared Miss Vivian White, the lovely brunette beauty queen who is a freshman at Woman's College. Miss White was recently guest of honor at the Thirty and Three sponsored "King For a Day" program held in conjunction with the Sophomore Hop. She was escorted to the dance by Richard Kirmeyer, freshman football player who earned this honor by catching a greased pig.

When asked about the effect that being named Miss North Carolina would have on her future, Vivian said that she was sure it wouldn't alter her future plans a bit. Vivian is 19 years old, 5'6" tall and is enrolled in a commercial course. Prior to entering college, Vivian was employed in a clothing store. It was only after much insistence by her employer that she entered the contest which won her the title of "Miss Fayetteville." Vivian then entered the state-wide contest and was selected as "Miss North Carolina." She also competed in the national beauty contest at Atlantic City and was later named Miss All American by the 82nd Airborne Division.

Unusual Experiences

Asked about unusual experiences, Vivian laughingly recalled some of the mail she received during the contest. Many of the letters from soldiers still stationed overseas who were at one time stationed at Fort Bragg which is near Fayetteville. "I tried to answer as many as I could," she said, "but after awhile I just had to give up."

No amount of kidding would persuade Vivian to commit herself on present boyfriends. And as for marital outlook she wants to finish school and work for awhile but admitted that, "you never can tell when you're going to change your mind." When asked for advice to give the new "Miss North Carolina" who will be elected this summer Vivian smiled knowingly and said, "just let me talk to her!"

Vivian's favorite color is green although most of her clothes are white or black. She doesn't like jewelry except for silver and her favorite orchestra is Vaughn Monroe. Her pet peeve is for someone to say, "I didn't expect you to be like this, I thought you would be different."

Hopes To Study Music

Although Vivian has never had formal instruction in music she hopes to study piano as a hobby when she gets out of school. Vivian's mother taught her some piano at home. Commenting on the Miss America Beauty Contest today, Vivian said, "that talent means everything in the selection of Miss America."

Vivian intends to work this summer and return to school in the fall. While working in a clothing store last summer, Vivian learned to be a top-notch saleswoman in the Millinery department of a large store. "It looks good on them," she said, "and that's a millinery secret."

Vivian's only requirements for a man is that he be a combination man "easy to get along with and not on the fussy side." All we can say is, "how could he be otherwise?"

Registrar W. L. Mayer, Assistant Registrar Juanita Stott, and Miss Katherine Harden, Recorder, returned last week from attending the thirty-fourth convention of the American Association of College Registrars.

The convention was held at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel in Philadelphia, April 19 through 22. The association serves to establish uniformity in methods and aids the registrars by panel discussion on such matters as admissions and registration procedure, student guidance, and office procedure.

Techniques of machine operation were demonstrated and the registrar's office hopes to install International Business Machine equipment to facilitate handling of student records.

Mr. Mayer is a past president of the North Carolina Association of Collegiate Registrars, and was regional representative to the national convention. The convention will meet in Milwaukee next year, under newly-elected president R. F.

Band Concert Sunday

The State College Concert Band will be heard in its third concert of the season on the lawn at Memorial Tower Sunday afternoon at 4:30. In case of rain the concert will be presented in Pullen Hall.

The program announced by Major Kutschinski, conductor, includes two overtures—his own "Overture in F. minor," (by popular request), and Tschaiakowsky's "1812" Overture in connection with the Tower Bells will be used experimentally, if certain electrical connections can be worked out to offset the lack of an outlet from the tower. Paul Hine, clarinet soloist, will be featured in Weber's "Concertino," opus 26. The program also includes a medley of George Gershwin favorites, a concert paraphrase on "Ol' Man River" from Jerome Kern's "Show Boat," a concert version of "Bells of Saint Mary's," Song of the Marching Men from Henry Hadley's "The New Earth," and Greenwood's modern "American Rhapsody."

English Club To Hear Distinguished Poet

Helen Bevington, distinguished contemporary poet and member of the English staff at Duke University, will speak to the College English Club at its spring meeting to be held in the N. C. State College YMCA tonight at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Bevington has been a frequent contributor of verse to The New Yorker, The Atlantic Monthly, and other publications. She is the author of "Dr. Johnson's Waterfall," widely acclaimed as one of the most brilliant volumes of light verse of the past decade.

The College English Club is composed of members of the English faculties of five colleges and junior colleges in Wake County. Dr. H. B. Jones of Wake Forest College is president, Dr. Lodwick Hartley of State College is vice president, and Prof. C. A. P. Moore of St. Mary's is secretary.

The English Department of North Carolina State College will be host for the meeting.

Intramural Front

By HERB BRENNER
 The Big 4 Field Day is all a thing of the past now and although we are not able to bring you the final tally on the events that were reeled off at Duke, we will present you with a complete coverage in next week's edition.

S.A.M. and Sigma Pi's Lead Frats Up To Press Time

The SAMMY's and the SIGMA PI fraternities are the two leading teams in the Fraternity Division in this term's activities as the midway period in the Intramural agenda draws near. The Sigma Pi's very recently took first place honors in Horseshoe Doubles; they will battle the T.K.E.'s for third place in Handball; and they are undefeated in softball. The Sammy's are likewise undefeated on the diamond; will clash with the Sigma Chi's on the 6th for the third place spot in Tennis, and will battle the P.E.T.'s for first honors in Handball.

The other undefeated squads in Softball as of last Tuesday are: Sigma Chi, A.G.R., 3rd Bagwell, Verville, 1st Syme, Trailwood, 2nd Turlington, and Basement Syme. There looks to be strong battles when these undefeated nines begin the final phase for top flight honors in the "bat and ball" sport.

Handball Finals

The finale to Handball was reeled off last Wednesday night and although we are not able to bring you the final result we will pass on to you the names of the team's who battled it out for the top four spots. In the first and second place fight, the S.A.M. lads tangle with the P.E.T.'s. This makes the second playoff the P.E.T.'s have had this season as they went into the finals in Ping Pong last term winning out. For the third and fourth marks the Sigma Pi's vs T.K.E.

Horseshoe Winners

The Sigma Pi's won over the S.P.E.'s to cop the high spot in the tossing game of Horseshoes. The third and fourth places go to the T.K.E.'s and the PIKAS.

Tennis Finale

The tennis champs were crowned last Thursday in the final matches of the Intramural season. Playing for first and second place positions were the PIKAS and the SPE's, and in the third and fourth slots the Sammy's matching the Sigma Chi's.

S.A.E. Defeats Pi Kappa Phi's
 Featuring a magnificent triple play in the fourth inning, the SAE nine whipped a fighting Pi Kappa Phi team 6-1 on the 27th. The winning batteries were Patton and Arnold. The losing moundman was Jordan. The losers lone tally came in the third frame.

2nd Alexander Wins

The men from 2nd Alexander defeated their first floor brothers, the 1st Alexander squad, 6-3 in the two team's encounter on the 28th. The 2nd floor winner's took an early lead of two runs in the first frame and added the other four markers in the third box.

Netters Top Furman For Sixth Victory

By JOHN LAMPE

The State College tennis team won their sixth match here in Raleigh last week by beating Furman University 5-2. The Wolfpack's record now stands at six victories and four defeats. The remaining matches are return encounters with Wake Forest at Wake Forest on May 6 and a meeting with the Citadel in Raleigh on May 12.

On May 1 Coach Seeger's Netters gained another victory by besting Furman University to the tune of 5-2. State won four singles and one of the doubles matches for its points.

Boney Extended

Charlie Boney, playing the number two singles berth, had to go into three sets to defeat Lohman of Furman. Charlie took the first set without too much trouble winning 6-1, but his Furman opponent rallied in the second to take it 1-6. Boney then regained his winning ways and took the third set 6-4.

At the number three, four and five single slots, Guirette, Kohn, and Ragan showed some good tennis in taking the measure of their Furman adversaries.

Culbertson Edged

Art Culbertson, Captain of the Wolfpack Netters dropped the only singles match during the afternoon. McMahan of Furman proved a worthy foe of Culbertson by rallying in the first set to win 9-7 and then go to victory in the second set by winning 6-2.

The other loss of the afternoon was in the number two doubles match. Mike Fuerstman and Jim Sherrill fought hard but finally went down to defeat. They dropped the first set 9-7 and the second 6-2.

Tracksters Top Duke, 66-60; Edge Out Virginia, 64-62

Deacs Here Tomorrow In Final Dual Meet

Coach Tom Hines' fast improving Wolfpack track team pushed their average above the .500 mark during the past week with victories over Virginia and Duke. The State tracksters edged the Cavaliers 64-62 last Saturday for their second win and surprised Duke 66-60 on Tuesday.

The cinder squad has lost two meets, a close 66 1/4-59 3/4 decision to Virginia Tech and a 77-49 decision to Carolina. Coach Hines will send his boys against Wake Forest tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 on the State track in their last dual meet of the season. They will compete in the conference meet next weekend.

Chambers Leads Way

Once again it was fleet-footed Charlie Chambers who paced the Pack in the scoring parade. The speedy Daytona Beach, Fla. flash racked up 11 points against Virginia and 16 points against the Blue Devils. Against the Cavaliers Chuck took first in the 220 and 440 and third in the low hurdles and against Duke he grabbed first in the 220, low hurdles, high hurdles and third in the 100 to push his season's total in five meets to 65 points.

Individual stars were many as nearly every man showed improvement in both meets. Dick Dickey scored eight points against Virginia, taking second in the javelin, broad jump and a tie for second in the high jump. Sprinter Herb Goldberg took second in both the 100 and 220 in both meets to grab 12 points.

Dubow Improves

Distance runner Dave Dubow continued to show great improvement as he scored 14 points in the two meets. Against the Cavaliers he took second in both the one mile run and two mile run and against Duke took first in the two mile run and second in the mile. Jim Byler continued his hold on the shot-put events, winning in both meets and setting a new record of 48 feet, 3 3/4 inches against Duke. Harry McLeod has shown a good deal of improvement, taking second in the discus against Virginia and winning against Duke.

Big George "Jorge" Pickett continued to master the high jump but still has to hit his peak. He captured the springing derby against the Cavaliers and tied with teammate Hal Owens against Duke. Oscar Miller took a first and a second in the javelin in the two meets.

SPORTING AROUND

With Bill Haas

I started quite a controversy when the comments about the ball park fight were printed. Some pretty severe criticism was directed my way, and with the printing of the following letter I'm dropping the matter—in print. It doesn't seem to be the type of copy suitable for a sporting comment, and if I'd known that it would blossom into a first class feud, I'd have curbed my critical nature a bit.

You've had my story of the affair. The gateman retaliated with his side of the incident, and now I want to print the ejectee's argument. I had several letters which substantiated my story, but space won't permit their being printed. Any further comment on the incident can be carried on personally with me. All the letters are open for inspection by anyone. So with this letter, I will drop the discussion in my column.

Dear Bill:

I am the fellow that was thrown out of the Duke-State baseball game and beaten by the gateman. I appreciate the opportunity to give my side of the incident.

Upon entering the gate with a group of my friends, I tore the ticket from my athletic book and handed it to the gateman assuming that he had it. After walking about 15 yards, I heard someone yell—"You didn't give me a ticket!" When I turned around to see what had happened, the gateman was pointing at me. I looked and noticed that there was a ticket on the ground at his feet. I asked one of my friends who was nearer the gate to hand the ticket to the gateman. My friend did so, but this must not have been enough for the gateman, for he came up to me and said that I was going to have to leave the ball game. I told him that my ticket had been given to him. The gateman replied, "Don't give me none of your lip. Get out of here!" I then told him that if he wanted to have me put out of the game to have an officer to do it. But instead of him or the other gateman looking for a policeman, he started putting me out himself. Two more times I asked him to call an officer, but he threatened me again with, "Get out of here or I'll throw you out!" I replied, "You'll play hell doing it." As soon as I said this, he grabbed me and threw me on the ground and began beating me in the face with his fist. When this happened, I told him I would leave, and he let me up. So I walked out of the ball park by myself.

After walking through the gate, my friends came back to the gate and gave me another ticket. I took this ticket, handed it to the same gateman, and walked back into the ball park. Not a word was said between the gateman and me. The gateman kept both tickets that I had given him.

I might add that I did not make any effort to fight back at the gateman because of personal reasons.

If it is possible, I would like to have this matter brought up before the Student Council and get it settled once and for all.

Sincerely yours,
Name Withheld.

P.S. We are the friends who were with the above student when his encounter with the gateman at the State-Duke baseball game on April 17, and the above facts are true to the best of our sight and knowledge.

Seek Revenge For 3-2 Extra Inning Defeat

The Wolfpack swatters entertain Hanes Hosiery at the local diamond tomorrow afternoon in a return meeting. State suffered a 3-2 eleven inning loss at the hands of the knitters on May 1.

Next Wednesday, Coach Sorrell takes his diamond men to Durham for the third meeting of the season with the Dukes.

DiLorenzo Gets Revenge

Seeking revenge for the 8-1 decision he was handed by the locals in their first game with the Phantoms, DiLorenzo pitched an amazing comeback ball game to shut out State 1-0.

The lanky lefthander went the 11-inning route to stop the Statemen cold, issuing but two hits and fanning 14 batters.

Ernie Johnson of State tossed a 7 hit affair, with the locals backing him all the way, committing only one mistake.

Knitters Win Close One

In their second overtime game in two outings, State dropped a close affair to the Hanes Hosiery men 3-2 in 11 innings. Everett Lail showed his wares to the Knitters for five frames with two-hit pitching.

Trailing at the opening of their half of the seventh, the Hanes club put across the tying run and went ahead to take the game when Malcome's single drove home Sawyer in the eleventh.

'Packers Dropped To Third
The Demon Deacons held an up-

Inter-Squad Grid Game, Next Friday

Coach Beattie Feathers will conclude football drills next Friday night at 8:00 p. m. in Riddick Stadium with a clash between a Red and White team. The affair is sponsored by the Monogram Club.

Admission will be fifty cents and proceeds will go toward furnishing a trophy room and a Monogram Club room. Don't forget, Friday, May 14, 8:00 p. m., Riddick Stadium. Plan to be there, girl, liquid, peanuts, popcorn, hoarse voice and all.

Newly elected head-cheerleader W. S. Bull will be there with his assistants to dish out some BULL.

rising in their own camp Wednesday behind the leadership of Harry Nicholas to drop State into third place in Big-Four standing. Nicholas won his own ball game, pitching over only six hits, and sending one man home on his homer and crossing another player on a single.

The Deacs were in fine form as they knocked hurler Ernie Johnson out of play, and then proceeded to send Bob Edwards to the showers. Tootsie Holding took over hurling duties in the seventh and retired the side before any more damage could be done.

The loss put State in third place behind Carolina and The Deacs in Big Four competition.

Coach Charlie Tripp's golf team has that winning way. Currently boasting the best average of State College teams, 8 victories and 3 defeats, the Wolfpack linksmen handed the Deacons of Wake Forest their first loss of the season with a neat 14-13 decision last Tuesday here in Raleigh.

The win was sweet revenge for a previous loss to the Deacons. Last Friday the State linksmen swamped Davidson, 20½-6½, for the second victory over the Wildcats this year. Coach Tripp will take his men to Pinehurst this weekend to make a determined bid in the Southern Conference tournament.

Senior Weston Dixon paced the Wolfpack attack against Davidson with a 4-under-par 68. Dixon defeated Hill, 3-0, posting 7 birdies, 8 pars, and 3 bogies. The first five men shot a total of one-under-par. Charlie Gibson carded a 74, Maurice Brackett a 73, Gonzalo Saenz a 72 and Robert Turnbull a 72 to lead the way.

In edging out the Deacons, Gibson was medalist with a three-under-par 69. In match play he triumphed over Worsham, 3 up. Freshman star Maurice Brackett provided the spark that boosted the Wolfpack moral sky-high by edging Palmer 1 up, with a par 72. Palmer is the number one player for the Deacs and was defeated by Carolina's Harvie Ward in the North and South amateur finals.
