Thirty and Three Announces Its Plans for Second 'King For A Day'

BY HARYEY SCHEVIAK
Make way for the King!!
At the sound of the gun or the drop of the handkerchief fourteen
King for a Day aspirants will scurry about Devereaux Meadow to make the all-important tackle upon a greased pig. The freshman who succeeds in capturing the slick, fleet-footed pork chop will be honored in the traditional King for a Day manner. . . a wardrobe valuel at $250, and luncheon and uel at $250, and luncheon and dancing accompanied by his "Queen for a Day."

The selection of the King via the greased pig race will be held at the State-Duke baseball game on April 30. The King's "Day" will be the festivities of May 7.

Luncheon and Dance

The Order of 30 and 3, sponsors of the affair, will be hosts to the King and Queen at a luncheon to be held at the Club Bon-Air on the day of the Freshman Dance. Coronation ceremonies of the "Royal Couple" will take place at the dance Couple" will take place at the dance which will be held in Frank Thompson gym on the evening of

The costs of the dance and the clothes presented to the King will be managed by the freshman class.

Last year's frosh King, Dick Kirmeyer, proved his football background by tackling the pig in short order. The King's date for the day, who reigned as his Queen, was Miss Vivian White, Miss North Carolina of 1947.

Friday Night Record Concerts

The regular Friday night record concert will be held tonight in the Conference room of the YMCA. The program includes the Gayne Suite of Khatchaturian, Beethoven's Symphony No. 6 ("Pastoral") and the Tschaikowsky Violin Concerto.

These sessions are conducted.

These sessions are conducted by Bert Jessup and Gray Os-born, both juniors in the School of Design. Everyone is invited to attend.

William Evans—Agile, speedy "Willie," State's left-handed centerfielder and leadoff hitter, might well be called the "nuisance" in the well be called the "nuisance" in the Pack batting order; a nuisance in the respect that he causes opposing pitchers no little trouble from the outset of the fracas. His ability to arrive at first by the speediest method of locomotion since the invention of jet-propulsion is the first annoying step in Willie's game of "neskinges"
