What is your opinion of the seating arrangement for students in the coliseum?

Barwell Smith, Sr., Field Crops

The scattering of students in nearly all parts of the coliseum does not leave a good feeling among the students. However, this is the first season we have had the coliseum. Therefore, I believe the management will be able to devise a better system from the experience gained this year.

Roy Moffitt, So., Geo. Eng.

For the poor games the students get good seats if they take dates, but come a good game and where do you sit? All the fair to decent seats are gone. We don't expect to get the best in the house, but just a fair deal when seats are taken. After all, it is publicity throughout the state for the coliseum.

Lawrence Eller, Sr., Ag. Ed.

There should be a rearrangement of the seating of the students so that they will all be in one body. Also there would probably be a better school spirit among the students if they have a section to allot to the students as a whole. As for the view from the some of them are too far back and at an angle not desirable.

Mr. Taylor, President of the Taylor Food Company with its plant located at Cary, will speak to engineering juniors and seniors at eleven o'clock Monday, March 6, in Pullen Hall.

Mr. Taylor, a native of Owensboro, Kentucky, will speak on some aspects of problems in establishing a small manufacturing business in North Carolina.

Textile Scholastic Society Initiates 89 New Members

Sigma Tau Sigma, textile scholastic fraternity, initiated eighty-nine seniors, juniors, and faculty members on Friday, February 10. The initiation ceremony, used for the first time in the society's history, was written by Thomas A. Wood with the assistance of Professor T. R. Hart.

Banquet

A banquet for new and old members and their guests was given at the Club Bon Air on Friday, February 17. Mr. George H. Dunlap of the School of Textiles spoke on "Your Opportunity in Management."

Faculty Members

Eight faculty members were initiated into Sigma Tau Sigma. They are: C. N. Asbill; K. C. Campbell; D. S. Hamby; W. E. Moser; R. L. Parker; H. A. Rutherford; W. A. Thomason; and B. L. Whittier.

The sixty-one new senior members are: H. D. Addison, of Biltmore; A. E. Bristow, of Laurinburg; J. Burke, of Charlotte; J. H. Byler, of Chicago, Ill.; C. M. Cloer, of Lenoir; R. E. Coleman, of Greenville, S. C.; E. T. Connamad, of Norfolk, Va.; P. J. G. de S. Cortez, of Brazil; L. A. Crayton, Jr., of Concord; J. W. Crews, of Curdsville; E. C. Deibler, of Sanford;

Faculty Exam Committee Rejects Proposal; Erection Of Agronomy Building To Begin Soon

Numerous Objections To Proposed Plan

By BOB HORN
The Faculty Exam Committee met on Monday for the purpose of considering the proposed exam schedule. Their final decision on the matter was clear cut in view of the evidence presented pro and con. They "canned" the whole thing.

Of the 826 reports turned in to the Registration Office by the students, 563 registered no conflicts; 323 were less fortunate. The six to four ratio registers as a record in last week's TECHNICIAN held almost perfectly true to form. Even though the "no conflict" group led the field, the committee did not feel justified in sanctioning the change. They agreed that the boycott had ended in a draw with the proposed schedule not offering any outstanding advantages over the one regularly used.

Numerous Objections
Numerous objections to the new schedule were raised at the meeting, but the decision to reject it rested mainly on the ratio of conflicts to no conflicts. The Mathematics, Chemistry, and English departments went on record as strongly opposed to the change, even though they are among the larger departments, the ones which the new schedule was designed to aid.

Catalogue Error
The College Catalogue lists March 10 as the date on which Winter Term exams were to begin. Mr. Mayer states that this is an error which passed unnoticed in the printing of the catalogue. Then too, extra time was originally allotted for the exam period. Six days were set aside, and were then cut down to five. Later a Sunday was shaved off until the final official date of Monday, March 13 was reached.

Book Exchange To Open Soon

The Student Book Exchange will open again on Monday, March 13. The exchange, located upstairs in Barracks 22, will be open from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. for the remainder of the Winter Term, and from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. during the first two weeks of the Spring Term.

Students are urged to bring their books in during exam week so that they will be on the shelf for the early buyers. A great deal of money belonging to the students is waiting to be picked up. The organization also has on hand a collection of obsolete books which they would like to get rid of.

All students who have brought books in to be sold are urged to check Barracks 22 to claim any money or books in their name. All books that are out of date and that are not reclaimed, and money which has not been claimed will become the property of Alpha Zeta at the end of the Spring Term.

Senior Class Meeting To Be Held Tuesday

The members of the Senior Class will hold an important meeting next Tuesday, March 7th, at 12 noon in Pullen Hall, according to Avery Brock, president of the class. The meeting will climax a previous group of meetings with the Chancellor and Dean Cloyd by committees appointed previously. Classes will be excused for those missed in order to the meeting. This is a very important meeting and every Senior is urged to make every effort to attend, Brock said.

Dues

The Senior Class dues of one dollar ($1.00) voted by the class at an earlier meeting will be collected at the meeting, and every one is requested to bring up their dues at that time in order to facilitate deciding of the class gift. The class now has a little over $300 in its treasury from class dues already collected, Gene Tatum, class treasurer, reported.

Committee Report

From the Commencement Committee, headed by Secretary Tommy Wood, will come a list of speakers for the commencement exercises. Several very prominent national figures composed the list which has been carefully screened by the committee and the Administration and faculty. The class will vote on the speaker it desires most, with a second and a third alternate.

Juniors Selected

The twenty juniors recently initiated are: M. Alapin, of Brookline, N. Y.; J. C. Ashworth, of Seagrave; J. C. Bardavid, of Mexico; D. A. Bassi, of Washington, D. C.; J. K. Clements, of N. Wilkesboro; W. Denyes, of Kenosha, Wis.; G. W. Fox, of Handlemar; K. Gottlieb, of Haddon Heights, N. J.; R. E. Holland, of Canover; J. Lasnick, of Morristown, Tenn.; J. P. Morgan, of Salisbury; W. C. Muller, of Merion Sta., Pa.; M. Pudnos, of Bronx, N. Y., N. Y.; M. Robinson, of Newark, N. J.; H. H. Scheviak, of Kenosha, Wis.; J. A. Signoret, of Mexico City, Mexico; M. Wardinon, of Tel-Aviv, Israel; C. H. Whitehead, of Mooreville; and S. F. Zuziga, of Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

Campus Elections Set For April 13 And 20

The election of Campus Government officers has been set for April thirteenth and twentieth. The primary on April thirteenth will reduce the number of candidates to two men, and the second election on April twentieth will be the deciding vote when a majority is not reached in the primary.

File Now

Filing will take place in the Dean of Students Office. All candidates for Campus Government offices must file before 12 noon on Saturday, April first. All students interested in running for an office are urged to file as soon as they decide.

A change in the Eligibility Rule listed under Section II Article 13 is before the council. If this amendment passes a second vote the scholarship requirement for officers will be raised.

Offices

The offices included on the Campus Government Ballot includes the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer of the Campus Government; the class representatives to the council from each of the six schools; the faculty advisor to the Campus Government; the Editors and Business Managers of the Technician; and the Watanagan; the Business Manager and Station Manager of WVVP; the Head Cheerleader; the Athletic Council members; and the recipient of the Alumni Athletic Award.

Chi Epsilon Conclave Is Big Success

Dr. C. L. Eckel of Boulder, Colo., dean of the College of Engineering at the University of Colorado, was elected president of Chi Epsilon, national honorary civil engineering fraternity, at the concluding session of the fraternity's 11th national conclave at State College Saturday.

He succeeds Dr. Frank W. Stubbs, Jr., of Purdue University, who presided over the two-day national gathering at State College.

Prof. W. F. Babcock of the Department of Civil Engineering at State College was elected vice-president of the fraternity to replace Dean Eckel, who served in that post for the past two years. Professor Babcock has served as faculty adviser of the N. C. State Chapter of Chi Epsilon for several years.

Supreme Council

Other members of the Supreme Council, in addition to Dean Eckel and Professor Babcock, are Prof. Ray S. Owen of the University of Wisconsin, secretary-treasurer; Alfred C. Ingersoll of the University of Wisconsin, editor of "The Transit," national fraternity publication; Douglas N. Stewart of Rochester, N. Y., delegate-at-large and president of the Universal Bottled Gas Corporation in Rochester; and David B. Steinman of the University of Missouri, delegate-at-large; and Harold T. Larsen of New York City, delegate-at-large and editor of "Proceedings and Separates," a publication of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Honorary Members

Honorary members chosen during the meeting were Charles Gilman Hyde of Berkeley, Calif., professor emeritus of sanitary engineering at the University of California; and David B. Steinman of Brooklyn, N. Y., a noted consulting engineer. Hyde was endorsed by the University of California delegation, and Steinman was nominated by the delegation from the College of the City of New York.

Pugh Elected

At the annual meeting of the Southern Area Student Council of YMCAs held at Atlanta University in Atlanta, Georgia, on February 24-25, Charles Ray Pugh, of N. C. State College, was elected President for the coming year. The Southern Area Student Council meets as a policy-making body for the Student YMCA movement in the ten Southern states, namely, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Tennessee, and Kentucky.

College Announces List Of Low Bidders

Bids for the erection of a new Agronomy Building and a headhouse for greenhouses at State College were opened at the college recently and are now under consideration by authorities of the institution and the State Budget Bureau.

Lowest base bids for the general construction of the two structures and for the installation of plumbing, heating, electric systems, and other facilities amounted to $946,538. The General Assembly appropriated $1,238,000 for the building, the headhouse, and the equipment for both.

Low Bidders

The low bidders for the Agronomy Building and the amounts of their bids are as follows:

For the general construction—Southeastern Construction Company of Charlotte, $647,926; for the plumbing system—W. H. Sullivan Company of Greensboro, $73,483; for the heating system—Rowe-Walsh-Jones Company of Durham, $42,800; for ventilating and refrigeration—Stahl-Rider, Inc., of Raleigh, $35,273; for the electric system—Cheyne Electric Company of Charlotte, $3,800; and for freight elevator—the Monarch Elevator Company of Greensboro, $13,983.

Low base bidders for the headhouse which will be attached to the Agronomy Building and the amounts of the bids are as follows:

For the general construction—T. A. Loving and Company of Goldsboro, $97,986; for the heating system—Sam E. Beck of Winston-Salem, $3,758; for the plumbing—Alliance Company of Durham, $4,715; and for the electric system—Peele Electric Company of Burlington, $4,415.

On Hillsboro

Plans call for the erection of the structures on the northwest side of the State College campus facing Hillsboro Street. They will be located halfway between the A.A.A. Building and Polk Hall and will occupy a section of an area formerly used as a student trailer park and known as Trailwood.

The head house will be 100 feet long and will include two greenhouses.

The Agronomy Building will include four floors. The first floor will contain provisions for all soil fertility work and plant breeding and will include experimental laboratories for hybrid corn, peanuts, soybeans, small grains, cotton, and forage crops. It will also provide office space, cold storage facilities, a stock room, and offices for the North Carolina Crop Improvement Association and its variety testing program.

Spring Tour

The Guilford College A Cappella Choir is now booking for its 1950 Spring Tour, March 17th to 28th. The program will be as follows:

A Choral Invocation—Ralph E. Cleveland
Ave Verum Corpus—(1543-1623) William Byrd
Unto Thee Lift I Up Mine Eyes—(1524-1594) Palestrina
Haec Dies Quam Festi Dominus J. Palestrina

(Group of Negro Spirituals)

Students, faculty and citizens of Raleigh are cordially invited to attend. This program comes under the direction of the Y.M.C.A. commission of Campus affairs of which Charles R. Pugh is chairman.

An offering will be taken to apply on expenses.

Second Floor

The second floor will include the Agronomy Department's administrative offices, the departmental library, classrooms and laboratories for all teaching in crops and soils, and an auditorium seating 175 persons.

Laboratories for research in soil chemistry, soil physics, soil conservation, soil classification, and soil survey and a spectrographic laboratory will be housed on the third floor.

The fourth floor will contain laboratories for tobacco research, soil microbiology, plant breeding, and cytogenetics, and offices for agronomy extension workers.

Northrup and O'Brien of Winston-Salem are the architects for the structures.

Annual Military Ball To Be Held In April

Once again, the year's most colorful dance, the Military Ball, is being presented was assured by choosing four members from each organization to work on the Dance Committee. Sanford Gluck, Vice-President of the Cadet Officers Association, will serve as Chairman of the Committee.

Other men from C.O.A. are: Gil Newton, Harry Barr, and Carl Huggins. Those from Scabbard and Blade are: Gene Tatem, Paul Campbell, Jack Potter, and Frank Parkins; and from the Arnold Society is represented by Bill Mashburn, Cluddy Roberts, Jim Mills, and John Sexton. The twelve men on the Committee have been broken down into groups to carry out the many duties that fall on the shoulders of a Dance Committee. Everyone is confident that the 1950 Military Ball will be even more successful than last year's, and all those interested in buying tickets are urged to do so as early as possible after the start of next term.

Sponsors

For the first time, the Military Ball is this year being sponsored by three groups: the Cadet Officers Association, Scabbard and Blade,

Miller, Griffin Are Winners Of Annual Athletic Awards

By NEILL POSEY

Staff member J. F. Miller and student W. V. Griffin won the first annual Inter-Dormitory Council athletic awards presented Saturday night, February 26 during the half time of the Villanova-State basketball game. J. F. Miller won the award for the college staff member who had done the most for athletics at N. C. State College during the past year.

W. V. Griffin won the award for the most outstanding Athletic Director in the dormitory league.

Alex Vann, president of the I.D.C. in presenting the award to Miller commented on his excellent intramural and physical education programs. He congratulated Griffin on an excellent record of his Turlington dorm intramurals.

Staff Member Receives Award This year the I.D.C. itself elected the staff member to receive the award. In future years the dormitory residents will vote for the man.

Selection of the dormitory Athletic Director was made by the president of the I.D.C., Alex Vann, and the two dormitory representatives to the Intramural Athletic Board, Harold McKnight and Neill Posey.

The awards were donated by the Student Supply Store.

The I.D.C. plans to make the awards a yearly affair.

Outstanding Award Miller believes his award to be a climax to the many other awards he has received. He was captain of his college football, basketball and baseball teams. He was selected by New York papers for third All American football. During his student days at Springfield he was chosen by the college to coach the second team in basketball when they entered a team in the Connecticut Valley League. He has played some major league baseball. He won conference championships in all three sports while coaching in the Big 7 Conference and the Michigan State Association.

However he says, "As I think back over the years, I recall three honors coming from the students at N. C. State College which mean more to me now than any I have received. Many Honors The first year the Golden Chain was organized, I was selected as a Faculty Honorary member; ten years later a section of the Agromack was dedicated to me; and now in 1950 the students again honor me." "I have had honors in my line of work before, but this recognition last Saturday night caps them all because it was so totally unex-

Message

A message from the campus government regarding the Honor System is being distributed to the dormitories and fraternities. Off-campus students may pick up copies at the campus government office, or at the Y.M.C.A. All students are urged to keep the pamphlet, and read and discuss its implications.

It has injected a tonic in my veins. I do appreciate this from the bottom of my heart."

Griffin whose No. 2 Turlington team won first place in total intramural rated points last year was not available for a statement. He graduated this quarter.

YDC Speaker

Mayne Albright, Raleigh attorney and gubernatorial candidate in 1948, will speak to the State College Young Democrat Club at a supper meeting in dining room "A" of Leazar Hall March 9 at six o'clock. All interested persons are invited to attend, no meals will be served in the dining room but will be brought in the regular line and eaten in "A." The meeting will be held to a maximum of an hour and a half so as not to interfere with exam study.

New Fight Song

A new fight song for N. C. S. is wanted. The Pep Club and Mu Beta Psi (music fraternity) have organized a committee to work out the plans for a fight song contest. George Hughes, chairman of the committee, says that there is a definite need for a new fight song that the students would be proud to sing and that would bring more recognition to the spirit at school. Other members of the committee include Wade DuBoise, Hamilton Sparger, Elizabeth Lee, Tom Wood, Leon Bisette, and Bill Raper.

Participants for the contest may include anyone and everyone, even students and persons not affiliated with State College. There will be a cash prize of considerable sum awarded to the composer of the best fight song, and second and third place awards might possibly be made. Complete details of the rules, prize (s), judges, and dates of the contest will be disclosed in the near future. A great deal of interest and financial support has already been offered by many organizations on the campus; and as soon as the plans are complete and authorized, the contest will be underway.

Wives Club

The Student's Wives Club will meet Tuesday, March 7 at 7:30 p.m. in the West Campus Y. Bridge, and bridge and rummy are on the agenda. All veteran's wives are cordially invited to the meeting.

Concert Band Gives Program

The State College Concert Band presented a concert program in Pullen Hall Sunday afternoon under the direction of Christian Kutshinski. The program opened with a new Goldman march, "On Guard" and closed with a Sousa March—"Hands Across the Sea", while the "meat" of the program included "Doxology" (a modern Choral Prelude by Erik Leidzen on the Choral familiarly known as "Old Hundred"), "Procession of Nobles" from "Mlada" by Rimsky-Korsakoff, a modern tone poem—"Wilderness Road", by Siegmister, "Autumn" (Bacchanale from the Ballet "The Seasons") by Glazunov, "Slavonic Rhapsody" by Friedmann, "Comedians" Galop from "The Comedians", Op. 2 by Kabalevsky; also a tone poem by Kotelbey—"Bells Across the Meadows", featuring cathedral chimes, and "Deep Blues", composed by Lou Singer for Muted trumpet and Band. Ben Eting of Lincoln Park, Michigan was the soloist.

Key Charms Awarded

During the intermission, special key charms were presented to those seniors who have continued to serve as members of the "Red-coat" Concert Band throughout their State College careers. These recognition awards were presented to—Donald Anderson (bass clarinet) of Kenosha, Wisconsin; Harold D. Black (clarinet), Concord; Ben Cahill (baritone, grad.), Winston-Salem; Robert S. Houston (clarinet, grad.), Monroe; James Leo Murphy (percussion), Rocky Mount; Ross J. Morgan (drum major), Holbrook, Arizona; Howell R. Peele (tuba), Williamston; N. F. Quinn (trombone), Charlotte; John W. Sison (horn), Audubon, N. J.; Wm. F. Wilson (clarinet), Gastonia; Thomas A. Wood (bass), Gastonia.

Major Bill Reynolds, Oregon '40 Pilot-Professor, U. S. Air Force!

Bill was an all-round athlete. He chose football as his favorite sport, made the varsity teams at Pomona Junior College and also at the University of Oregon. A Theta Chi, Bill enjoyed campus social life. Found that it eased the pressure of rugged athletics and his heavy study schedule in Personnel Management. Upon graduation, Bill chose a future in the Air Force. He "flew" his first Link trainer as an Aviation Cadet in 1940. By March, 1941, he had won his pilot wings. The 1st Observation Squadron, Fort Riley, Kansas was Lieutenant Reynolds' first assignment. While there he met the future Mrs. Reynolds. They married a year later and now have two fine sons. The Squadron moved to Panama, then to the Pacific. Bill advanced from pilot to operations officer to squadron commander. He came home a Major and qualified for a Regular Commission. Recently commended for peacetime work—organizing and improving instruction techniques—Major Reynolds, a "Pilot-Professor", looks forward to a long and gainful career in the U. S. Air Force.

FRATERNITY INTRAMURALS

By PETER KOCH

Sections three and four finished their regular schedules last week and Sigma Nu and TKE came out on top. Sigma Nu completed an undefeated season with a 24-17 victory over KA. Fite led the winners with 13 points, and Hines hit for eight points for the boys from KA.

As predicted, TKE and SPE wound up their schedules in a tie with 5-1 records. TKE won over AGR for their fifth win. Miller (TKE) and Jenkins (AGR) each pushed through seven points. SPE had a bit more trouble in beating Sigma Pi for their fifth triumph. The score in this one was 22-20. LeGrand of the losers led the scoring with 12 points, and Bodwell tallied eight for SPE. This necessitated a playoff between TKE and SPE and the TKE's eked out a 21-18 victory. Fleming of SPE led the scorers with nine points, and Miller, Downey, Pettinelli, and White each scored 4 for the winners. Here are the final standings in Sections 3 and 4.

NO. 1 BECTON TAKES VICTORY IN PLAYOFF CONTEST, 30-23

By ED BOND

In the tip-off game of the dormitory double elimination basketball playoffs, Thursday night, February 23, No. 1 Becton came from behind to defeat No. 1 Syme 30-23.

Not until the last of the third quarter did No. 1 Becton take the lead. D. B. Knowles made two points to put Becton in the lead 21-20.

Early Lead

No. 1 Syme took an early 8-0 lead in the first quarter with the sharp shooting of D. S. Gooden, and C. A. Routh. At this point the No. 1 Becton team started a full court press and behind the shooting of B. Barr and R. M. Hepler soon closed the gap to 12-6 in favor of No. 1 Syme at the end of the first quarter.

The full court press didn't seem to bother the Syme team as they went on to score seven points and keep the lead at 19-13 at the half.

The press began to tell in the third quarter as the Becton team allowed the Syme boys only one point. With E. H. Frazier and D. T. Watts controlling the back boards and D. T. Watts, R. M. Hepler, B. Barr and D. B. Knowles setting a fast pace, the lead of No. 1 Syme soon dwindled to one point as the score became 20-19.

Close Contest

With only forty seconds left in the third period, D. B. Knowles made two points which put Becton in the lead for the first time 21-20.

With only five seconds of play left E. H. Frazier scored and the third quarter ended with Becton ahead 23-20.

No. 1 Syme was able to muster only one foul goal and one field goal in the final period while No. 1 Becton made seven points which gave them a victory with the final score of 30-23.

The high scorers for the strong Becton team were B. Barr 8 and R. M. Hepler 7. E. H. Frazier and D. T. Watts provided the best floor game for the Becton team.

No. 1 Syme's high scorers were D. S. Gooden 6, Stump 5, and R. N. Jones 5.

Smith is Leader

With Bob Smith leading, the No. 2 Turlington team took an early lead and were never headed as they gave No. 2 Becton a sound beating. No. 2 Becton usually fields a very strong team but they were "off" for this game.

From the opening play Bob Smith, Butts, and Bob Oliver ran a score of nine before the Becton team had scored.

Pete Woodard came through with a goal in the last three minutes of the first quarter to put the score 9-2 in favor of the Turlington team.

As the second quarter opened, Becton used the 3-2 zone defense but still couldn't stop Smith. He had accumulated nine points at the half while the Becton team was limited to one field goal and four foul shots to make the half time score 15-6.

Dominate Scoring

Butts and Oliver dominated the scoring in the second half for Turlington and with help from their teammates ran the score to 27-12 to win the game.

Smith of No. 2 Turlington was the leading scorer with 12 points with Butts second high with six points followed closely by Oliver with five points.

R. H. White, C.	No. 1 Turlington	R. B. Phelps, G.	No. 1 Alexander
C. C. Biggs, Jr., G.	No. 2 Owen

Selection was based on three items:

1. The players points per game average.
2. Opponents (managers and players) opinion of the player.
3. This writer's viewpoint concerning the player.

R. F. Smith, "Mr. Basketball" in the dorm league as far as this writer is concerned was the only player to make this all dorm team without a desert. Smith has a 11.25 point per game average, tops in the league.

High Average

At the other forward spot is Smith's teammate R. R. Oliver, whose 10.25 point per game average is runner up to Smith. Oliver maintained his average in spite of the fact that manager W. V. Griffin uses him as a play maker in spots. D. R. Jarrett, a freshman, took one guard spot while C. H. Nintzel, a senior, took the other. Both men are point making guards as well as rebound men and play makers.

Greatest difficulty was in the selection of centers. W. S. Patterson of No. 2 Bagwell edged out J. C. Whitehurst of No. 1 Bagwell, a brother team.

Without a doubt D. B. Fleming won the best manager-coach selection. He placed No. 1 Becton in the finals without having a single truly outstanding ball player on his squad. (This writer hears Becton's Athletic Director, R. S. Dobbins yapping.)

Fleming learned his basketball as a member of Greenville High School's team and N. C. State's team. He coached the No. 1 Becton team on the tricks he had learned. All through the season he pulled games out of the fire by his strategy and "right spot" use of his players.

Readers may remember this writer's prediction that No. 1 Becton and No. 2 Becton would reach the double elimination finals. They did. However, they placed only Al Skarrup on the all dorm team.

Well-Rounded

No. 2 Becton's team is well rounded. They had little trouble winning their regular league games. Their substitution was liberal. No player stayed in the game long enough to acquire much of a high point per game average.

Hank Frazier and Doug Watts of No. 1 Becton failed to outshine their teammates. In fact the team play inspired by D. B. Fleming was exceptional.

Odds and ends around the loop: Mr. J. F. Miller's winning of the I.D.C. award for the faculty member who did the most for athletics at N. C. State College was in part due to the fine intramural program he has set up and maintained at the college.

Richly Deserved

His honor was richly deserved. The award was a student affair. The students wished to thank him for his beyond duty devotion to intramurals as well as other items.

Director is the well-liked, highly successful Athletic Director of No. 2 Turlington.

Griffin two years ago started building his teams. This work paid off. He leaves this quarter. The award comes as a climax to the betterment he has put into the dormitory intramural league.

Bob Bradford, new Athletic Director of Owen Dorm, has already made a name for himself inside and outside his dorm.

When he took over the directorship there were many reasons why Owen was avoided by other capable men. Owen led in forfeits, Owen lost her men each year, Owen's athletes lacked experience. Owen lacked unity, etc. However in one short term Bradford has reduced forfeits to none and has had Owen fighting for championship places in every winter term sport.

Boxing

Owen went to the boxing matches with almost a man in every weight—duplicated only by No. 1 Becton. Owen took a full team to the swimming events as did most of the other teams in the league. Owen placed high in the Table Tennis events before being eliminated.

The I.D.C. should watch this man. By next year at this time he may deserve the most outstanding Athletic Director award.

Forfeits in the major sport basketball were reduced to what is believed to be an all time low of three despite the fact that section winners were determined earlier this year than most years.

Fast Action In State-Villanova Contest

The shots above show some of the fast action in the recent State-Villanova contest. The Wildcats, led by All-American Paul Arizin and Captain Leo Wolf, defeated the Pack 65-64 in an overtime thriller played before 12,000 fans. Gill To Direct Gridgers

The appointment of Jim Gill, Carolina line coach, as head freshman football coach at State was announced last week by Athletic Director Roy Clogston. Gill, 34, a native of Jeffersonville, Missouri, and a former All-Missouri Valley tackle at the University of Missouri, was recently given permission by Carl Snaveley, head football coach at Carolina, to negotiate for a new coaching position.

Rebuilding Plan Clogston in announcing Gill's appointment said it was the first step in a football rebuilding program here. He indicated that another varsity coach might be employed to assist Head Coach Beattie Feathers in the near future. Gill is expected to report on May 1. He takes over the head freshman job succeeding Dick Peacock, former-Pack center, who will step up to the varsity as an assistant line coach. Gill will serve as a scout for the Wolfpack in addition to his job of guiding the State frosh. Gill is one of the best liked mentors in the Southern Conference and he has gained a wide reputation as a "player's coach." He is a bachelor. Coach Feathers, commenting on Gill's appointment as head freshman coach at State, said, "We're happy to have Jim Gill on our staff. He's undoubtedly one of the best young coaches in the business and we feel fortunate in securing a man of his ability to work with our freshmen teams at State."

Wolfpack Rates Eighth In Latest Press Poll

State's Wolfpack lost to Villanova last weekend yet they moved from ninth to eighth place in the weekly Associate Press ratings. Apparently news of the Pack's trouncing of Duke, Carolina, and Louisville just reached the big city sports experts. Bradley University's basketball Braves scored a double victory off the court during the week. The lads from Peoria, Ill., accepted an invitation to compete in the National Invitation Basketball Tournament in Madison Square Garden and for the second week in a row were picked as the No. 1 court team of the country in the Associated Press' poll. Ohio State was ranked second and Holy Cross, unbeaten Crusaders were named third.

Two other outstanding quintets, Duquesne U. of Pittsburgh, and St. John's U. of Brooklyn, also accepted bids to the 12-team NIT tourney which will be held March 11, 13, 14, 16 and 18. Several other quintets are expected to be picked for the Garden tourney shortly.

Duquesne (22-1) is fifth in this week's poll, a drop of one peg from the week previous. St. John's, which seems to have lost its midseason edge, ranked tenth in the poll, a big skid from their previous sixth place ranking.

Bradley (25-3) was accorded a stiff tussle in the poll contest by Ohio State's (18-3) newly crowned Western Conference champions. Bradley accumulated 42 first place votes and 1,214 points on a 10-9-8-7 etc. basis to 10 first place votes and 1,128 votes for Ohio state.

A total of 148 sports writers and sports casters participated in this next to last poll of the season. The Big Tenners, picking up plenty of support because of their pennant win in a strong conference, nosed out Holy Cross by 87 points. The Crusaders, already chosen for the District No. 1 berth in the NCAA tourney garnered 1,041 points and 36 first place nominations.

Kentucky's Wildcats (22-4) moved into fourth place followed by (5) Duquesne, (6) UGLA, (7) Western Kentucky, (8) North Carolina State, (9) La Salle, and (10) St. John's.

There were several shufflings of position with only one team knocked out of the first ten. Long Island U. (12-4), dropped from 10th to 15th and La Salle (18-3) moved up from 12th to ninth.

Notable jump was made by Villanova (22-4), a strong candidate for the District 2 nomination in the NCAA and the NIT should it square itself with the NCAA. The Wildcats vaulted from the also-rans up to 11th place. La Salle, Kentucky, Western Kentucky, San Francisco, the defending NIT kings, unranked CCNY and LIU are understood to be in the best spot for NIT bids.

Dickey, Ranzino, Bubas Are Named On All - Southern Basketball Outfit

Three members of this year's Wolfpack clinched spots on the 1949-50 All-Southern basketball squad as chosen by the Southern Conference Sports writers Association. Sammy Ranzino and Dick Dickey, the Pack's All-American forward combination, and Vic Bubas, the play-making guard, won places on the first team. Completing the honor selection were Chet Giermack, star center for W&M, and 6'11" Jim Slaughter, South Carolina's lanky pivotman.

The selections were announced by Ray Reeve, veteran sportscaster of radio station WRAL and executive secretary of the association. The second team was made up of Hugo Kappler and Nemo Nearman of Carolina, John Moffatt of George Washington, Dick Groat of Duke, and Stan Najeway of Wake Forest.

All-State Previous to this selection, Ranzino, Dickey, Bubas, and Paul Horvath had been chosen to the annual

All-State team as compiled by the Raleigh Times. Joe Harand, who missed making the first team by only a few votes, headed the second aggregation. Warren (Swede) Cartier received honorable mention.

Ranzino Unanimous Ranzino, the high scorer for the Wolfpack, was named to a first-team position on every ballot of the All-Southern team. Dickey missed only one first-team vote, landing on the second team from that writer. Giermack and Slaughter won their positions on the first team by a wide margin, but Bubas nosed out Carolina's Kappler, who missed several games because of injuries, by a single point.

The top three men in the voting—Ranzino, Dickey and Giermack—are repeaters from last season's first team. Bubas and Slaughter take the places of Coy Carson of Carolina and Ceep Youmans of Duke. Carson did not play this season.

No sophomore was able to make the first team. Dickey and Giermack are seniors, and the other three are juniors. Groat made a strong showing in the voting despite the fact many members of the association did not give him consideration because he withdrew from school with seven games remaining on the Duke schedule.

Reeve said that a total of 38 players received mention in the voting, which was done without regard to the position each man played.

The association will pick an all-tournament team and the outstanding coach and player in the tourney, which starts in Durham on Thursday afternoon.

All of the 10 men on the all-star squad play for teams which will compete in the championship event.

Informal Party

PHI KAPPA TAU held an informal dancing party on Friday night, February 24, at the house. The main attraction was the girls from the ALPHA GAMMA DELTA sorority of Chapel Hill, who brought an active part on the program by giving a skit representing a typical "bull session" that takes place whenever their group is together. The highlight of the party was a humorous recitation on "The Battle of Hastings" by Ed Needham, who used his English accent to the fullest to entertain all guests.

Lost A Coat?

A blue topcoat bearing the label Wright-Womble-Pitts, Inc., High Point, N. C. was turned in to the Technician office by a man who picked up a State College student on Saturday morning outside of Carboro. The student, en route to High Point, got off in Burlington and left his coat in a grey '46 4-door Nash. The driver described him as a sandy-haired youth, apparently a freshman.

The owner of the coat may retrieve it by calling at the Technician Office in the basement of Tompkins Hall at any time.

Villanova Tops Pack In Overtime, 65-64

Although Captain Dick Dickey closed out his career on the home court in a blaze of glory Saturday night, the Wolfpack lacked that victory touch, losing to the Wildcats of Villanova, 65-64 in an overtime thriller.

The contest, played before 12,000 frenzied fans, was one of the best games seen in this area in many a moon. The brilliant comeback displayed by the Pack in coming from behind in the closing minutes had the crowd howling.

Great Game for Dick

All-American Dick Dickey closed his home career by tallying 25 points. His brilliant all around play, especially in the overtime period, won him the plaudits of the entire Coliseum audience. Sam Ranzino hit for 19 points before fouling out late in the contest.

Paul Arizin, a great All-American, and Captain Leo Wolf, were the leaders for the Wildcats. Even though he passed 21 points through the hoops, Arizin was also a demon on defense, frequently getting the rebounds off the State backboard. It was Wolf who really upset the Pack defenses by his phenomenal accuracy on long set shots. Wolf got 15 for Villanova.

Trailed at Halftime

After trailing at halftime, 41 to 35, the Wolfpack fought back feverishly, and with 2:12 seconds left they had taken the lead and were ready to put on the freeze.

These tactics succeeded until Paul Arizin took an inbounds pass made by Joe Harand and promptly bucketed the tying basket. In the remaining seconds the Pack failed to hit, and the contest went into overtime.
