

Meeting Shows That Profs Have Troubles

By JULIAN LANIER

On Tuesday, a luncheon meeting was held in Room A of the school cafeteria. There was nothing so irregular or unusual about the meeting in its physical sense for it was merely an assemblage of certain faculty members who teach engineering students. The purpose of the meeting, however, was quite unique. The meeting was called to discuss the question, "What, if anything, can be done to improve college spirit, to uplift student morale, and to increase student pride in State College?" This question is quoted directly from the letter sent out to approximately 25 faculty members who teach engineering students.

The response by the recipients of these letters was 100 per cent. Twenty-five of the 25 persons receiving letters attended the meeting. The group consisted of instructors from practically every engineering department on the campus, in addition to instructors from the English department, and the Basic Division who teach engineering students. There was no group

Faculty Meeting

The General Faculty is called to meet in Pullen Hall at 4:30 p.m. Friday, 8 February 1952. The purpose of this meeting is to vote on the recommendations for honorary degrees which are to be conferred at the Commencement on 8 June 1952. Biographical sketches of those recommended for the honorary degrees are on file in the office of your respective Deans, and may be examined there. Examination of these sketches should be made prior to the Faculty Meeting on 8 February 1952.

alma mater

Even those of us who only have time enough for a glance at the newspaper headlines or for the opening sentences of a news broadcast have noticed the definite trend which this country appears to be taking in regards to the path of morality. The days of the month are as well marked by scandals continuously breaking as they are by the calendar.

However, the problem, as in many cases, is more easily isolated than the solution. The Charleston News and Courier of November 25, 1951 had some observations to make on the problem which we find very close to our own sentiments.

"With schools and colleges dependent on ever increasing tax appropriations, it is difficult for professional educators to be independent of politicians. Spiritual values, academic scholarship, lofty ideals do not thrive in an atmosphere of politics.

"Politicians, and sometimes educators lay greater stress on sums of money, on splendid buildings, and powerhouse athletics than they do on graduating young men and women armored with moral stamina."

In conclusion the editorial offers this advice to the "parents, alumni and faculties." It says that "they should stand united to maintain education on a higher plane henceforth lest future generations turn completely rotten."

We also look to the enlightened alumni and parents for primarily theirs is the assistance, material assistance, which supplies the oil for the proverbial lamp. Otherwise, a bleak future is seen where the investigated will outnumber the investigators.

behind the meeting, it had no plans to organize, and its only purpose was to discuss the question stated above.

The discussion which ensued was an effort on the part of all present to air their ideas about existing situations and to put forth any ideas they had which might improve "esprit de Corp" within State College. The talks ranged over problems from the student attitude both before and after graduation, to the improvement of student-faculty-administration relations and the honor system. Many frank opinions were voiced during the discussion in an effort to seek out the real reasons for existing student-faculty relations and the lack of sense of loyalty and college spirit which exists among our graduates and students of today.

Although it would be impossible to reiterate all that went on at the meeting, there were several important points brought out. These points were agreed on: the problem of student attitude and morale is not a simple one, nor can it be solved by any one act. There exists many possible reasons for it being what it is today, no one of which could be pinned down as the "monkey wrench in the machinery of college life." The faculty has many of the same problems to cope with which confront the student, in their dealings with the administration. Though many of the faculty may side with the students in an issue, it is not within their power to make or correct policy matters. A well-informed faculty is prerequisite to an understanding of student problems, and to the building up within the faculty itself the proper morale and attitude toward the college in which they work.

Campus Leaders Meet; Grey Discusses Problems

Mop-Up Petition, White Paper Topics As President Told Of Student Plans

Consolidated University President Gordon Gray met with student leaders Monday during his second regular visit to the campus and was informed of plans for the Student Supply Stores petition and of student interest in the CG White Paper.

President Gray was told that the petition to be submitted to the Campus Government Tuesday will ask that all net profits from the operation of the Stores be returned to student use.

It is expected that the petition to the Board of Trustees will make the same request upon which the trustees originally granted 15 per cent of the profits to the students. That request was "to expend (15 per cent) of the net profits from the Student Supply Stores for the development of cultural, recreational and social facilities and activities for all the students."

CG President George Pruden stated that President Gray thought that the trustees would give the petition a fair hearing, but could give no indication as to what action they might take.

Pruden also said that he found that the President was thoroughly familiar with the White Paper and that he was impressed with Gray's interest in the students' problems.

Gray told the seven students who conferred with him that his visits should not be seen as an attempt to replace local administration in dealing with campus problems. All discussion at the meeting was on questions previously discussed by the students in a meeting with Chancellor Harrelson last week.

The students present represented Campus Government, the Inter-Fraternity Council, the College Union and The Technician. For CG, George Pruden, John Dinan, vice-president; Dick Pitts, treasurer; and Vince Outland, secretary; for the IFC, Monroe Brettler, president; for the Union, Jack McCormick; and for The Technician, Paul Foght.

Girls To Reign At IDC Party

Next Friday evening, February 8th, in the Frank Thompson Gymnasium, the Inter-Dormitory Council will stage its giant LEAP YEAR PARTY. Festivities will get under way at 8:30 o'clock and conclude at 11:30 p.m.

Co-chairmen, Jim Smith and Bill Herrmann, have announced that plans for new and old mixers, contests, socials, prizes, square dances, and that many surprises are rapidly taking form. The party will be staged in the true spirit of the year: "the girls will reign supreme for the evening."

Girls from the local colleges and nurses homes have been invited from which a large turn out is expected. Boys are also encouraged to bring their own dates. The party will be informal (coat & tie) and there will be no admission charge. Buddy Klein and the Statesmen will provide the music for the evening.

REGRETS

"Y" Dinner Features Talk As Prelude To WSSF Drive

A nineteen gun salute and an ROTC parade have been planned for next Friday to salute the Ambassador from Indonesia who will appear in behalf of the Consolidated University World Student Service Fund organization.

The first event in preparation for the WSSF drive was a speech by Dr. W. D. Weatherford, vice-president of Berea College, Berea, Ky., at a YMCA-sponsored dinner Sunday.

Classes will be suspended at 11 a.m. Friday, February 8 for a military review in honor of the Ambassador from Indonesia. Following the parade and salute the ROTC regiment will march into the Coliseum to hear an address by the Ambassador. The student body, faculty and general public are invited to hear the address.

After his address the Ambassador will attend a luncheon given by the college administration. He will also attend a student-faculty banquet at 7:00 p.m.

Ambassador Sastroamidjojo is appearing at the request of the Consolidated University World Student Service Fund. All funds raised by the WSSF drive this year will be sent to the University of Indonesia as the "Frank P. Graham Memorial Fund."

Proclaiming that "we are trying to buy the world with money" Dr. Weatherford presented a plea for breadth in education. American colleges must teach international relations, community leadership and knowledge of self, Dr. Weatherford stated.

In introducing the speaker Chancellor J. W. Harrelson stated that Dr. Weatherford was instrumental in establishing YMCAs at State, Clemson and on campuses throughout the South.

YMCA members, members of the faculty and students were invited to the dinner in the cafeteria. Musical selections were performed by the West Campus YMCA choir under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Shaver.

CG Adds Three Names To Council Group

During the latter portion of its January 22 meeting C.G. President Pruden opened the floor for nominations to fill the post left vacant by the recent resignations. Nominations were also in order to fill posts for two faculty members.

John Crosby, Talbert Tippet and Jerry Floyd, all from the School of Engineering and Mr. D. S. Hamby, and Mr. Ruddell Reed, from the School of Textiles and Engineering respectively were nominated.

Before these names were voted on the thought was presented to the Council by Dr. York that perhaps the schools which the resigned members represented should replace these men with alternates.

The motion was made that if the schools wanted to replace these members they could, but if the school did not, then these students nominated would be voted on at the next meeting. The motion was seconded and passed.

Address Unknown?

The importance of giving the College YMCA your correct address can be seen from this occurrence. Last Sunday a death message was received at the YMCA and the student did not have his correct address on file. Because of this the student was delayed in getting the message since the "Y" experienced great difficulty in locating him. Give the "Y" your correct address as soon as possible.

Union Program Will Give Away Money

During a discussion of College Union plans and programs at the Golden Chain Leadership Banquet last Thursday night, Union Director Jerry Erdahl revealed a new plan to provide financial aid for "worthy" students.

The College Union has planned a "carnival" to be held in the gymnasium on Friday, February 29. All income from this event will be turned over to the Campus Government for distribution to students requesting minor financial assistance.

Erdahl stated that plans were being made to prepare over 25 concession booths for the affair. Faculty members will be employed as barkers for the concessions, but the main attraction will be a "leg show," Erdahl said.

George Pruden, president of Campus Government, stated that he did not know how the money would be distributed. It will depend, he said, on the amount that is collected. "Not only Campus Government, but the entire student body should soon realize the desire of the Union to serve the entire student body," exclaimed Pruden.

All the money spent at the carnival concessions will be turned into the Campus Government fund; expenses will be paid by the College Union.

Chorus Appears Sun.

On Sunday, February 3, the Crusaders Chorus will sing in Pullen Hall. The group, originally organized by twelve men who just wanted to sing because they enjoyed it has grown considerably in numbers and scope of repertoire. The group is not only striving for a degree of perfection in music but also to help make the entire community and this country a better place in which to live.

Dorm Nominees Chosen For Coming Elections

The individual preliminary dormitory elections will begin next week, February 1. In these elections all dormitory residents will have a chance to vote for their president, vice president, and secretary. These elections are very important to the residents because these officers are your representatives for all campus business for the following year.

Following is a list of the nominations for the various dormitories:

Owl Sessions Begin

A new series of night classes, arranged for the special benefit of residents of Raleigh and vicinity, will start at the college on Monday nights beginning February 4.

Eugene Starnes, assistant director of the college's Extension Division, said yesterday prospective students may register for the instruction beginning tomorrow and continuing throughout this week. Those who wish to enroll may do so by visiting the Extension Division office, Room 119, of the 1911 Building, or by telephone, No. 4-5211, extension 260.

It takes all kinds to make a family, including the teen-age nephew who, for some reason, knows Dagmar's real name.

Aquinas Club Retreat

On Sunday February the tenth a spiritual retreat will be held at the Catholic Orphanage, Nazareth, N. C. This retreat is sponsored by the Aquinas Club of State, Carolina, Duke and Wake Forest College.

The Rev. Father John H. Donnelly, Chaplain of the Newman Club of the University of Pennsylvania, will be the Retreat Master. Father Donnelly teaches courses on the Catholic Church, Philosophy and church History; he is also available for consultation and guidance.

Design School Holds Structural Exhibit

Residential, industrial and hospital buildings comprise the three classes of structures to be featured in an exhibit which will go on display in the School of Design gallery on the third floor of Daniels Hall today. The exhibition will be sponsored jointly by the American Institute of Architects and the American Federation of Arts.

Speaker Lauds South

North Carolina's natural resources and its industrial possibilities were highly praised by a N. Y. industrialist in an address at the School of Textiles Tuesday. The speaker was Richard T. Kropf, vice-president and director of research of a noted thread manufacturing company. Kropf pointed out that his company is aware of North Carolina's industrial attractions and has just opened a multi-million dollar plant at Hendersonville.

The Sky's The Limit

"Stairway to Heaven" will be presented this Sunday by the College Union Film Committee.

Stars of "Stairway" are David Niven and Kim Hunter.

The time is 2:30 and place the Textiles auditorium. Registration cards will admit students. Faculty and staff must present college union membership cards.

Dept. Head Honored

Dr. W. W. Kriegel, head of the Ceramic Engineering Department at NCS has been elected president of the Ceramic Educational Council for a period of one year. He will officially assume this office on April 27.

Pictured above is the Wolfpack wrestling team. The "grunt and groan" men, who meet West Virginia's Mountaineers Saturday night, have won three this season, taking victories over The Citadel, Emory, and Davidson, while losing only to Duke. ## Caught At Last?

What Role?

A petition will be presented to the student body for signature in which the students request that all profits from the operations of the campus gold mines, the Supply Store and Book Store, go for the development of the present minus programs, cultural, recreational, and social.

Your signature will mean intra-mural fields and dorm lounges. Your disinterest will serve to encourage and endorse the present inequities which pick your pockets. With sufficient support, the petition if passed will mean that with each purchase you support student facilities and not a personal bank account. The effort required on your part, we can assure you, is very little. This is not a request for a pint of blood, a hat-full of silver, or a three year enlistment.

This is one of those times where you, the student, have been given an unfettered opportunity to back up your pet gripe. A signature will mean the difference between being a capitalist or a contributor.

Bankers, At Last

With the passage of several prospective measures concerning student funds, the Campus Government will truly emulate a functioning legislative body. For not only will it be a group of dynamic, interested persons, but it will also be a body which will be empowered to distribute substantial monies.

The Student Supply Store petition to be circulated will jointly give to the Campus Government the right to administer the store profits and distribute them where they are truly needed. It will be the rare condition in which a student fund will be administered by the students. Who else could be more aware of immediate needs?

The College Union will likewise turn over the proceeds of its proposed carnival to the Campus Government to be used for scholarships administered by the Government.

If the saying "money talks" is true, then the Campus Government will at least have a voice in college and student affairs.

With The Greeks

By FRANK GOODE

Many of the campus fraternities are now engaged in, or have recently completed, redecorating some part of their house. Phi Epsilon Pi has just finished repainting their dining room, Sigma Chi is now busily engaged in painting their cardroom and recreation room, and Tau Kappa Epsilon is putting the finishing touches on their dining room. Sigma Nu is in the midst of building a basement recreation room, which they hope to have completed for the weekend of Mid-Winters.

Rushing continues in a big way this week, as several fraternities begin, and others complete, their rushing program for this term. Delta Sigma Phi held a smoker on Wednesday evening, at which their house mother served coffee and coffee cake. Kenneth Jolls on the vibraphone, supplied the music for the occasion.

Phi Kappa Tau also entertained rushees on Wednesday night, with a smoker held at their house. Suppers and smokers were held for rushees last Tuesday and Wednesday by Pi Kappa Alpha also. On Thursday and Friday evenings, Sigma Nu entertained a group of rushees with a smoker and a mixed party. Theta Chi also held a rush party in the form of a smoker, at their home on Friday evening.

Kappa Sigma Conclave

The Kappa Sigma's are holding their District Seven Conclave this weekend at the Sir Walter Hotel. Participating in this event will be the chapters from Duke, Carolina, Woffard, University of South Carolina, Wake Forest, and Davidson. Meetings will be held at the Sir Walter all Saturday afternoon, followed by a Banquet in the Virginia Dare Ballroom. The weekend will culminate with a party at the Kappa Sigma house after the banquet.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon elected new officers last week. Filling the new posts will be: A. Hugh Harris, Jr., President; James W. Armfield, Vice President; William B. Patterson, Recording Secretary; Richard H. Brehm, III, Corresponding Secretary; Jerry L. Hester, Treasurer; William J. Trogden, Chronicler; Walter O. Schacht, Warden; and Maxwell R. Thurman, Steward.

On Friday evening, the pledges of Sigma Alpha Mu entertained the brothers with a humorous skit, followed by a party.

Penned Opinions

Dances Are Flops

To the Editor:

We are writing you in regard to the lack of organization, support, and interest in major State College social functions, namely dances. We feel that by combining the funds allotted for the numerous small dances, which are considered "flops" by many, State College could easily afford top-notch orchestras. In other words, we should sacrifice quantity for quality.

Why is it that schools such as Duke and Carolina, whose enrollments exceed that of State by a small margin, can have name bands, while State cannot offer anything that even tends to approach these. Such schools as the two above mentioned provide dances which concern and are supported by the entire student bodies. Therefore, by having the support of a greater number of students, they can offer much better dances.

The total enrollment of State College is approximately 3,500. The students in each school of State pay $6 annually in their respective schools through engr. fees, textile fees, ag. fees, etc. We realize, however, that a large percent of these fees are dedicated to the one publication afforded by each school and other such expenses. With 3,500 students each paying $6, a sum of $21,000 is accumulated. If $5,000 were allotted to dances, combined with the $10,000 spent annually by the I.F.C., there would be a total of $15,000 to be available for say three major dances. The $5,000 taken from the respective fees would be less than 25% of the total fees. We realize that such a contribution by the I.F.C. would be unfair to fraternity men. However, with so much money being spent on social functions there seems that some sort of solution of combining funds for such a cause could be derived. Can you offer a solution?

Sincerely,
Jerry Splawn
Joe Trollinger

Pack Takes Fourteenth Consecutive Victory Over Carolina In Overtime

By JOE BENNETT
"Class will tell in the end" goes an old saying, and it certainly was true last Saturday night at Chapel Hill as the Pack edged Carolina 58-53 in an overtime. This was the fourteenth consecutive victory over Carolina by State and was by far the most exciting of them all.

Blow Lead
Carolina had an eight-point lead in the fourth quarter, but Coach Case came up with the right combination from his reserve bench, and the Tar Heels fell before State's belated surge which tied the score at 53-53 at the end of regulation time.

The Tar Heels had possession of the ball in the last two minutes and 28 seconds and risked victory on a set shot from the left side by Vince Grimaldi. It missed, and the game went into a five minute overtime in which Carolina failed to score.

A free throw by Kim Buchanan and goals by Dick Tyler and Lee Terrill in the overtime gave the Wolfpack its eighth straight conference victory and its 13th of the season.

Terrill Leads
Terrill, the only State player going the route, turned in a magnificent floor game and led the State offensive with 17 points. Included in the cast of subs who sparked the last period spurt was Pete Jackmowski, whose three points in the fourth quarter put the Wolfpack back into the game and started the rally which ultimately tied the game.

Top men for the Tar Heels were Jack Wallace with 18 points and Al Lifson with 17.

Villanova Tomorrow
Tomorrow night the Wolfpack take on Villanova's Wildcats. Villanova, winner over State by 86-71 at Philadelphia, will rate the edge over the Pack.

Today-Saturday

Views and Previews

By PAT DOWNEY

I was prepared to write a blistering column about the hanky-waving, referee-boosing, program-throwing Carolina student body, but after seeing the State-Bowling Green game I realize that I am living in a glass house, and I had better not throw any stones. The time is right for another of Coach Case's speeches, for we have our hanky-wavers too, and when it comes to referee-boosing we could stack up with the best of them.

Bowling Green has the best team that has played here this year, and the Wolfpack came very close to beating them. The difference was their big men. The Falcons missed very nearly all of their free throws, but the biggest part of the bad foul shots were tapped in for field goals. It seemed as if they were deliberately missing the shots so that they could get the tap-ins. On top of this Bobby Speight was having a very bad night. Bob spent the day in the infirmary with a very high temperature, and it was doubtful that he would play. If Speight had been hitting his shots I think we would have beaten them.

I stated once before in this column that Sam Ranzino was called into the Army, but Sam got a thirty day deferment and made a liar out of me. The latest bit of news that I have is that the Gary Flash will be inducted into the service the day before the scheduled event in the Coliseum between the Rochester Royals and the Boston Celtics. This is by no means official, but there is a better than even chance that this scoop is the true word. Dick Dickey will definitely be here so there is still plenty to attract the fans. There is only a limited number of tickets left for this game.

It is rumored that Coach Tom Scott had his boys working out in a steam room for a week before the State-Carolina game so that they would have the advantage over State in the blistering heat of Woolen Gymnasium. I seriously doubt this, but one never knows what a coach might do to end a thirteen game losing streak against an arch rival.

Grapplers Take On Mountaineers After Villanova Game Saturday

By CHARLIE MOORE

Coach Al Crawford, former Olympic wrestler, will send his men against West Virginia University Saturday night in the Coliseum after the State-Villanova basketball game. West Virginia is undefeated this year and is gunning for a clean conference sweep. The Mountaineers will be out for a revenge because of the defeat the Wolfpack pinned on them last year. Coach Crawford's men haven't been waiting idly for them though. They have only one defeat by Duke, and have run up victories over Davidson, The Citadel and Emory University. This makes State's record an impressive 3 and 1.

This year's edition of the "broad-shouldered" men is a very talented group of men to be as inexperienced as they are. Heading the list of squad members is Donnell Taylor, who is out for his first year of wrestling. Taylor is a 145 pounder from Faison, N. C. He has no previous experience at all, but has done very well in the young season, taking wins over Duke, Davidson and The Citadel. Coach Crawford praised him very highly in saying, "I think he can beat anyone on my squad from the heavyweights on down. He has great natural ability and picks up instructions immediately." Also Crawford said, "He has possibilities of being Southern Conference Champion, if not this year, then next."

In the 123 pound class is "Speedy" Sideras of Greenville, N. C. "Speedy" wears contact lens while wrestling. In the Davidson meet he misplaced his lens and had to be led to the mat. But "Speedy" took his man without his lens.

Captain Reginald Buie from Charlotte, N. C., holds down the 130 pound class for the Wolfpack, and does so very ably. Buie has taken both of his meets with Duke and Davidson, and has a very good chance of going through the season undefeated. Reginald also does a top flight performance in his school work, holding down a high "B" average.

Another North Carolina boy, Donald Tomlin from Greensboro, takes on the 137 pound class. Don is a very promising freshman. He got his experience at Greensboro High School. His first victory was over Duke.

Three men are battling it out for the 157 pound class. Ronnie Thomas, James Pope and Robert Lowen are the contenders.

Paul Waggoner, able Sophomore class treasurer, was in his first meet at Davidson, and as a result has one win and no losses as a record. He hails from Elon, North Carolina.

Footballer V. J. Kaiser, an Erie, Pa. boy is in his senior year, and is undefeated so far this season in the 177 pound class.

Rounding out the roster is heavyweight man Percy Riden. Percy is a freshman and a tackle on the football squad.

The only meet to be here this season will be with the strong West Virginia team, and will follow the State-Villanova basketball game on February 2. West Virginia has already shut out V.M.I. 28 to 0. V.M.I. is last year's Southern Conference Champion.

The remaining schedule is as follows:

West Va.—Feb. 2, here
U.N.C.—Feb. 15, there
V.M.I.—Feb. 21, there
V.P.I.—Feb. 26, there
Southern Conference Tournament—Lexington, Va. March 5, 6, 7.

Turlington Takes Win Over Berry
 In section 4, Turlington No. 2 took a 2-0 lead over the other teams in this bracket by a 37-30 victory over Berry. Both teams used the fast break very effectively, but Turlington had too much in the last quarter and won going away. Berry was leading by four points at the end of the third quarter, but when Turlington used a full court press, they outran the Berry team to win by seven points. Scronce, Smith, and Scofield led the Turlington attack with 11, 9, and 6 points respectively. For Berry, their offense was led by Young, Twyford, and Beasley with 6 points, and Billings with 5.

Bagwell Edges Vetville
 The boys from Bagwell No. 1 got off to an early lead and held it all the way throughout the game. The Vets never did have enough to bring it up, but it was close with Bagwell winning by two points. Red Lowe and Blackard led the Bagwell team with 6 points, and Barnhart and Fleming held the Vets down on defense.

Becton Stomps Bagwell
 Becton No. 1 continues at a hot pace with a very convincing trouncing over the hapless Bagwell No. 2 team by 39-15. Becton, using a fast break and give and go offense, got off to a fast start and never relinquished it. Becton had an approximate 32 per cent shooting accuracy in the victory. Leading the offense were: Harrell, 7; White, 6; Alley, 6; Dobbins, 5; and Dula, 5. Roper and Smathers were the defensive standouts for Becton.

Syme Romps Over Becton No. 2
 Bob Black led a good Syme team to a 34-10 victory over Becton No. 2 with Black scoring 8 points and Haynes marking up 7. The Syme team outplayed Becton from the beginning and outran the Becton team to mark up another victory.

Table Tennis
 With victories last week, Becton No. 1, Berry, Tucker No. 1 and Vetville reached the semi-finals in the Table Tennis playoff. Becton No. 1 took three straight sets over Bagwell No. 1. Berry gained the semi-finals by a forfeit. Tucker took two out of three matches over Bagwell No. 2, and Vetville chalked up three sets over Alexander.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 34...THE FERRET

Descended from a long line of distinguished researchers, this studious scholar has burned too many gallons of midnight oil to gloss over a subject lightly. Especially such an important item as cigarette mildness. He burrowed into the matter with his usual resolution and concluded that a "quick puff" or a "fast sniff" doesn't offer much evidence. Millions of smokers agree there's but one true test of cigarette mildness.

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...
