Less than 1,000 voters of a possible 3,000 plus turned out for the Wednesday-held primaries. The vote was sufficiently heavy though to elect Bill Oliver as President of Campus Government for the coming year. He will take office with the rest of the new council members within the next two weeks.

CG Evaluation Form Nears Completion

Council Considers Case of UNC Professor Whose Car Was Damaged on Campus; Spirit, Elections, "Big-Four-Day" Also Discussed

Tom Ward, vice president, presided over the meeting due to the absence of President Vince Outland. The first matter of business was a letter from the Carolina professor which had seemed to have some trouble in parking his car in front of Tucker Dorm, during a basketball game, and some damages were made to it while parked. He has asked for full payment of the damages. We asked him in a letter to meet with us so the matter could be fully discussed, but instead of meeting with us he wrote a letter stating that he saw no need in meeting with us and that he feels that it is an administration affair and not the Campus Government's.

Here follows a copy of the letter:
Dear Chancellor Harrelson:
I have just received a letter from Mr. G. Herman Porter in which he suggests that I come to State College to meet with members of the Student Council to discuss the damage done to my car on the night of March 5.
My original letter indicated that I felt that this was a matter to be considered by the North Carolina State College Administration. Since I still have the same opinion, I can see no reason to come to Raleigh in order to meet with the Student Council,

Chancellor Choice Now Down to Four

Advisory Committee Recommends Four Persons To Gray as Qualified

The advisory committees assisting President Gordon Gray of the Consolidated University of North Carolina in the selection of a new chancellor for North Carolina State College met at the college Wednesday afternoon, April 8, and recommended to President Gray "the names of four persons considered by the committee as qualified for the position as chancellor of State College."

After the meeting, Major L. P. McLendon of Greensboro, chairman of the joint committee, issued the following announcement:

"The joint committee consisting of alumni, faculty members, and trustees met this afternoon at 2:30 p.m. at State College and received a report of the sub-committee. After receiving the report of the sub-committee, the joint committee unanimously recommended to President Gordon Gray of the Greater University the names of four persons considered by the committee as qualified for the position of chancellor of State College."

Mr. Chiles, representative of JOSTENS will be at the College YMCA Tuesday, May 28 to discuss any adjustments or corrections in the rings for the class of 1954.

Campus Stores Invite Unaccepted as Yet

Nary a single letter has been received by the Student Supply Store Advisory Committee in response to their stated intention of discussing the Stores policies and practices over WVWP in early May. The members of the Committee have stressed that the extent of the student's response may very well determine the success or failure of the venture. If the response comes close to being negligible, the whole program might be called off to have a report submitted in its place.

If my assumption is wrong, I should appreciate your returning to me the service bills since they are the originals and I should like to have them for my files.

Haggai May Jump For "Spirit" Drive

Student Chutest Offers Services for Publicity; Stunt to Get Out the Vote

The Operation Spirit people are stepping high, wide and handsome in order to stimulate interest in the election during the run-offs. They will figuratively have the campus jumping if plans which are now vague ever crystallize.

A former professional parachutist has offered to leap off into space on the 29th and land on Doak Field, where a gathering of students will greet him and then accompany him to the polling both at the "Y." The Spirit Committee is also attempting to get classes excused for several hours around mid-day in order to assure a favorable turnout for the event.

The jump, by Ted Haggai, a junior in Electrical Engineering, has been tentatively scheduled for Wednesday, April 29. Ted plans to delay the opening of his chute until he has fallen one and one-third miles. He carries with him a sack of self-rising flour which enables sight-seers to observe his downward progress. At approximately 1,000 feet chutist Haggai pulls the cord and as a result is able to make a pin-point landing. The former professional retired in 1951.

The Spirit Committee has a number of other tricks up its sleeve, but the details are not known as THE TECHNICIAN goes to press.

Recent Meeting Clears Troubled CUSC Air

The air which surrounded recent happenings in Consolidated University Student Council is clearing.

The Carolina delegation has expressed a willingness to support a move to have the Carolina Student Legislature rescind the provisional ratification which that body gave the CUSC Constitution. The provision was to have the Legislature review and then ratify the Constitution each year instead of giving it one blanket ratification as is usually done.

A clause in the CUSC Constitution which has been a bone of contention at Carolina for a long time

Bey of Beauties Will Sponsor Junior-Senior Ring Dance

"The combined committee is composed of 17 persons, and 16 were present for the meeting today."
"For obvious reasons, the names of the four persons recommended by the joint committee are not being released. President Gray was advised of the action of the committee, and it is understood that he will make his recommendation to the executive committee and full board of trustees."

Col. John W. Harrelson, the present chancellor of State College, has announced plans to retire on June 30, 1953.

CAMPUS STORES—

Letters containing suggestions, constructive criticism, and complaints are most courteously being solicited. This is the first time that the students have been given an opportunity to express themselves, anonymously if they wish, in public. It is also the first opportunity that the Supply Stores have been given an opportunity to clear up any misunderstandings which may be prevalent concerning their operation, policies, and plans.

Mail those letters today, to either the Campus government of-rice in the Publications Building, or drop them in the mail box marked TECHNICIAN which is located in the hall on the south end, first floor, of the 1911 Building. It is also planned to accept phone calls on the night of the broadcast. The definite time will be announced later.

CONSOLIDATED—

has undergone some proposed alterations which will be submitted to the Council at its next meeting. The alterations were tentatively outlined by a member of Carolina's executive Committee, Ham Horton. President Tom Sully who met with State's Paul Wagoner and Bill Hagler last Sunday for the purpose of straightening out the whole affair.

Under the heading "Purposes of CUSC" a clause which reads, . . . to act as a liaison between the student body of the Consolidated University and the Administration of the Consolidated University," has been changed to read, . . . to act as a means of liaison between student bodies of the Consolidated University and the Administration of the Consolidated University, providing that the rights of the respective student governments are not abridged."

The next meeting of CUSC is planned for May 3 at the Woman's College at 3:00 p.m. Ham Horton has promised to attend the next meeting which may be followed by one other on the 17th of May to elect new officers.

CAMPUS GOV'T—

A motion was then made to the effect that we will not approve of any attempt to take money out of the student activities fund.

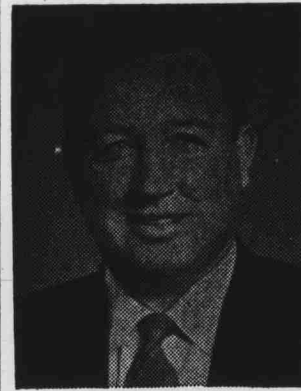

Bob Horn made an announcement about the "Big-four-day," on May 12, and urged members to "whoop it up."

Dave Barrett reported on the Faculty Evaluation. He passed out forms to the members for their approval, and he also asked them to talk it up and try to create an interest in the Faculty Evaluation.

Tom Avery stated that elections were ready to go, and he asked members to volunteer to check polls and see that everything goes off in order. Polls will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Tom Ward, chairman of Operation Spirit, is planning a big hour of fun for everyone in trying to build up a better school spirit to-

Food, Politics and Music Feature Ag Club Picnic Which Draws Large Crowd

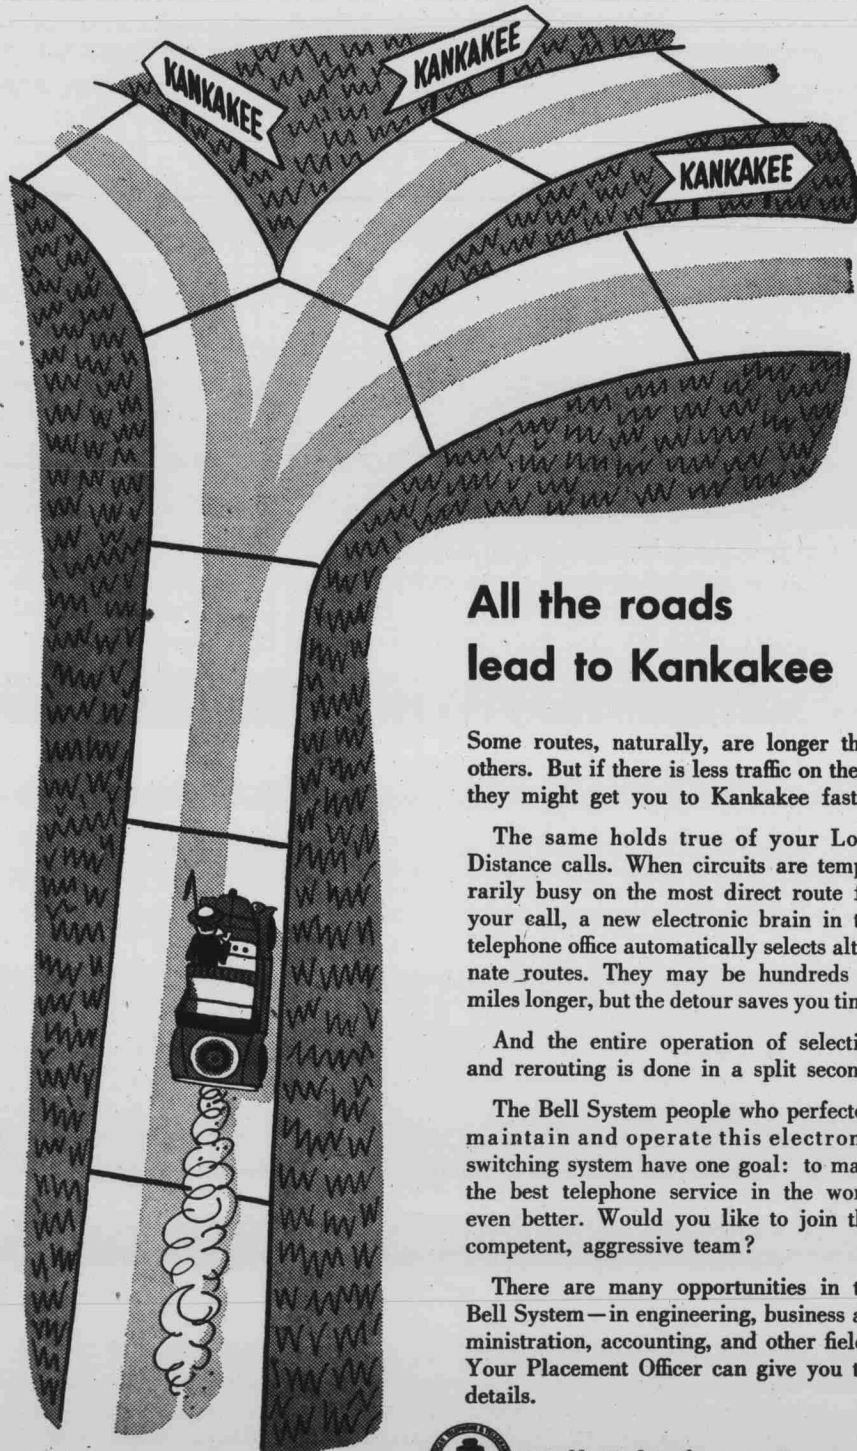

Last week's Ag Club picnic drew a crowd of 439 with only one stray engineer in the lot. The good eating and entertainment kept everybody more than happy. Chairman Byron Hawkins did a first-rate job in planning the event.

During the Tuesday night meeting a group of public spirited men got up and presented their respective platforms for positions on Campus Government. Everybody was urged to come out and vote.

Three South American students put on a musical show for the club during the program.

ward elections. He is also trying to get some folders published to set the public straight on qualifications of the candidates and something about their platforms.

All the roads lead to Kankakee

Some routes, naturally, are longer than others. But if there is less traffic on them, they might get you to Kankakee faster.

The same holds true of your Long Distance calls. When circuits are temporarily busy on the most direct route for your call, a new electronic brain in the telephone office automatically selects alternate routes. They may be hundreds of miles longer, but the detour saves you time.

And the entire operation of selection and rerouting is done in a split second!

The Bell System people who perfected, maintain and operate this electronic switching system have one goal: to make the best telephone service in the world even better. Would you like to join this competent, aggressive team?

There are many opportunities in the Bell System—in engineering, business administration, accounting, and other fields. Your Placement Officer can give you the details.

General Assembly Again Elects John Clark To The Board of Trustees

John W. Clark, industrialist from Franklinville, was reelected to the Board of Trustees by the General Assembly last week. His name was among 28 which were presented to the legislature for approval.

A Trustee since 1933, Clark received a great deal of publicity during the 1951-52 school year when it was revealed that he had written letters to various home town officials when he was investigating the backgrounds of some of the University's liberal students. In these letters he identified himself as a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of which he was not a member. The Carolinian at W.C. called on the Executive Committee to censure Clark for using the latter groups name. Clark was later rebuked for his actions.

Victor S. Bryant of Durham, Chairman of the Trustee Visiting Committee and a member of the Executive Committee was also reelected to his post.

Big-Time Football? No Thanks!

RETRENCH IS THE WORD

Editor's Note: We've been scooped! The following editorial, three weeks in the preparation stage, was almost ready for presentation when Columnist Dick Herbert let the cat, or should we say wolf, out of the bag. In so doing he may have stolen a great clap of our editorial thunder, but we are not phased. The Herbert advance release on Big-time football prospects at State has served a useful purpose. It has removed the shroud of doubt which cloaked the whole affair, and our juiciest suspicions have all been borne out.

Prominently displayed in the curvacious hand? of Miss Marie Wilson above is an object used in a game familiar to us all. The game, or at least as it is presented on this campus, has lately been the recipient of much criticism, not undue, which resulted in its becoming the subject of a thorough investigation initiated by the Athletic Council.

Before the investigation got underway no one seemed quite certain what the best thing to do with football here was. Not so with us. We know exactly what to do with it. We therefore invite you to listen while we tell you that there is no timidity, no restraint on our part as we prepare to tackle this problem head-on, for in so doing we might very well force the big-time ball carriers to drop their loaded charge so that it will explode into a million pieces.

Let the successive waves of the controversy beat against our brows, we shall endeavor to remain staid and sensible come what may, and steer a course perhaps not tried, but true.

In order to accomplish our mission most effectively we must necessarily covet the attention of the Investigation Committee headed by Dean Kirkland of the School of Education, and ask the members of this committee, the members of the Wolfpack Club, our friends, fellow students, Consolidated countrymen in Comptrolling positions, compatriots, and anyone else who might be interested in this subject, to lend us their ears.

Since these auditory attachments might very well get slammed back against the heads to which they are affixed, we advise, at the outset, bending them forward slightly before proceeding further.

What concerns us most at the moment is that we have come to suspect and the suspicion is particularly well-founded that the efforts made by the Investigation Committee tended not so much to estimate the football situation objectively as it exists as they did to find ways of promoting and sustaining Big-time football on this campus. Why else would Jim Tatum's name come into the picture, and why if the Committee wanted to discover the cost of going Big-time did they have to meet with Tatum when they could very well have phoned Chapel Hill or consulted the local papers in order to have comparative Costs of football in the Big Four laid open before their eyes. Somebody's hand was plainly showing when the Tatum interest developed, wasn't it?

The news that State is interested in going Big-time is alarming, whether it be released today, tomorrow or next year. It is distressing in the extreme, for we are fearful that many of the powers behind the athletic powers are still laboring under the delusion and the groundless assumption that there is great popular demand for going Big-time football, that a majority of the students and faculty would be delighted to see the present unsettled football program expanded, that we all harbor a great and consuming affection for the game, that the Big-time stuff would be as welcome as free medical care for all, and that at the mere mention of the word "football" we are so overcome by its nostalgic implications that we prostrate ourselves at the feet of the athletic promoters with a willingness to accede to any of their demands. This is absolutely not true.

One need but sit in on a Campus Government meeting or an Honor Council trial, for example, and listen to the students and faculty members alike grumbling about athletics, and particularly football, in order to understand that there is a growing resentment towards the position of dominance that athletics have taken on this campus, a position responsible for two distinctly different elements, athletics and educations constantly vying with each other for supremacy by running in a hot race which more often than not finds athletics in the winner's circle.

Of course every so often the educators and academicians challenge the right of athletics to this position by hopping back into the circle to vigorously protest the decision of the judges who have had their vision impaired. Then the shuffle resumes. Round and round they go, where to end up is anybody's guess. But, we do know which entry the smart money is on, because one of these two animals is bound to win out in the long run, and it isn't going to be athletics. No, sir.

Time and time again, to make matters worse, the athletic people have persisted in antagonizing the educators by flaunting an, "ATHLETICS-FIRST-AND-TO-HELL-With-Everybody-else," attitude which results in these two really strange bedfellows spending many a sleepless night together, much as the students living near the Coliseum do when game-goers leaving the area near midnight, as is so often the case, make a clatter greater than Jolly Saint Nick and his eight tiny reindeer every thought of making when they landed on the rooftop.

The same high and mighty athletic group is so aloof that it cannot stoop to assume any other responsibilities on the campus, save those intimately and directly connected with promoting profitable athletic events. As an example, they have been quick to disclaim any responsibility for the rutted condition of Doak Field which was caused by Coliseum patrons. The disturbances which have been caused by Coliseum patrons blocking the entrances to student parking areas has not been looked upon as their partial responsibility either. And there are other little thorns in the side too. Ever see them turn out to support a Union-sponsored event? Not often we'll bet.

Oddly enough, even in the Athletic Council itself there has been talk and threats of discontinuing or deemphasizing football, only this talk is quickly quelled by shouts of "Over our dead bodies," a cry peculiar to those whose only interest in the game is financial. These individuals are the shrewd cookies who are seeking to make a wise investment for a change, an investment which will prove wise enough to pay off the debts already incurred by the present unprofitable set-up. They do this with little or no regard as to whether or not it is the best thing for State College, which you may recall, was established as a Land Grant EDUCATIONAL institution.

We are furthermore certain that many of the financial supporters of the athletic program, as it applies to football, have of late begun to balk. Their investment seems to be netting a mighty poor return. Under the circumstances it is not difficult to understand why potential investors—in addition to the regulars—would be discouraged from indulging in the unmitigated, abysmal foolhardiness of such a venture.

Another important and disheartening consideration, from the Athletic interest's point of view, is the reduced amount of Book Store profits available for athletic scholarships. That isn't provoking any smiles. Where the money could come from is quite a mystery, and quite a problem unless the reserve fund of the Book Store is due to be tapped. Could anyone be thinking of that?

In theatrical circles and on Broadway, as you know, the people who give plays financial backing are called, "angels." Now, if one were to place the athletic finance men here in a similar category, he would soon see that the "Let football die over our dead bodies," holdouts would indeed be fools to rush in where even the "angels" fear to tread.

Everybody knows that State can't even draw enough people to fill comparatively little, old Riddick Stadium when it plays Duke, much less any more formidable opponent. And come to think of it, it's about time that somebody seriously challenged the squatter's rights of that

State . . . . . . . . . . Side THE EDITOR'S NOTES IN PASSING

The Technician Picks a Slate

It may be unprecedented, but here we go anyway with editorial support for four campus government candidates. This selection will be in keeping with the qualifications which The Technician listed in last week's editorial entitled, "Previous Experience Necessary Requisite for C. G. Aspirants." These are the candidates whom The Technician thinks merit the support of the general student body. The selections have been made in the best interests of the students since we believe that the average student voter has not been afforded ample opportunity to familiarize himself with the respective candidate's qualifications.

Here goes: For President, Bill Oliver; Vice president, Bob Jordan; Secretary, Dave Barrett; and Treasurer, Bob Krook.

Since this selection is bound to cause repercussions, we shall elaborate further on the subject, because there have been, are, and always will be, candidates for high office who make a lot of noise about the "cliques" that are running things on this campus. They are right, but only in one respect. A relatively restricted number of people run things on this campus because there are so few who are willing to put forth the required initiative and devotion to duty which characterizes a good official. If these are the individuals who comprise the cliques then we are for them.

What really gets us though, are the candidates who tell the voters that they are going to buck the cliques on this campus. We should like the voters to know that any such individual guilty of misrepresentation if he promises to go clique-busting at N. C. State, for the simple reason that he cannot fulfill the promise.

No, the professional grippers form the only real "clique" on this campus. How familiar we all are with the group that makes a hobby of "criticizing" such organizations as Campus Government without really knowing what makes the organization tick. It's so easy to lie back in the dorms prostrated on a sack and gripe away about what somebody else isn't doing to better the student's lot.

Beware of this fellow, Mr. Voter, beware.

Anyone who wants to trouble themselves to investigate the possibility of using the buses owned by the School of Agriculture to run a shuttle between the campus (or trans-campus) and downtown may do so with our encouragement, for what it's worth, to back them up.

These roomy means of conveyance sit behind Polk Hall all day doing nothing constructive while those 15 cent fares work havoc on our pocketbooks.

There are many obstacles which would have to be overcome, many kinks to smooth out, but we thought it might be worth mentioning anyway. We agree with Bill Collins, it's a bright and a promising idea. Suppose you could interest the Ag Club, Bill?

Exclusive of the sports pages, of the 164 inches of news and editorial copy which were run in the April 17 issue of The Technician, 123 inches were either written or prepared by the Editor. Under the circumstances he would therefore welcome the opportunity to share this burden with some other hard-working beast who would be willing to shoulder it with him.

Just to let him know that his efforts have not gone unnoticed or unappreciated, we would like to single out T. E. Ricks, Secretary of Campus Government for special recognition this week.

T. E., always pleasant and affable, goes about his work with a calm deliberateness which belies his capabilities and efficiency. He is the fellow whose job it is to keep the minutes of Campus Government meetings (a harassing task), to keep tabs on the attendance in C. G., to contact committee members who don't show up for meetings, and to arrange for and track down people who become involved in trials conducted by the Honor Council. T. E. covers the campus, week after week without ever relenting or complaining. He's a hustler.

Aside from the President of Campus Government if anyone has performed well in an administrative capacity on behalf of his fellow students, T. E. Ricks is that man.

Because there is neither sufficient time nor space to explain in detail a brief abstract of the TECHNICIAN's editorial policy must suffice. It is: TO REPRESENT IN SO FAR AS IT IS POSSIBLE TO DO SO THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE STUDENT BODY BY SAYING THE RIGHT THING AT THE RIGHT TIME. And brother, that's almost a full-time job.

Sure sign of Spring: Heat sizzling in all the radiators, even those on third floor Daniels. Can you beat it?

Lecturer: The man who gives in when he is wrong is a wise man; but the man who gives in when he positively is right is . . .

Hickman Heads Economics Dept.

Iowa Scholar is Selected After Nation-Wide Search Takes Over on July 1

Appointment of Dr. C. Addison Hickman of the University of Illinois as head of the Department of Economics at North Carolina State College, effective July 1, was announced today by Chancellor J. W. Harrelson and Dean John W. Shirley of the college's School of General Studies.

A widely-known scholar, Dr. Hickman was recommended for the post by eminent educators from throughout the country and was endorsed for the job by a State College faculty committee after it had conducted a nation-wide search.

Commenting on the appointment, Dean Shirley said that he believes the Department of Economics at the college "will flourish and become strong under Dr. Hickman's able leadership."

Born in Sioux City, Iowa, June 11, 1916, Dr. Hickman was graduated from East High School, Sioux City, Iowa, 1934; and holds the B. A., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Iowa. He also studied at Columbia University, New York.

A widely known writer in his field, Dr. Hickman is the author or co-author of six major books dealing with economics, including "Pan American Economics," "World Economic Problems," and "Our Farm Progress and Foreign Trade." He is completing two additional books this spring. He has also written a number of articles published by various national magazines and has reviewed certain works in his field for several publications and journals.

Trustees May Include Students

Umstead Aide Sees Possible Inclusion of Student Leaders As Non-Voting Members

The Daily Tar Heel carried a story last week which quoted Ex-Lt. Gov. Frank W. Taylor as saying that it might be possible for a student member from all three branches of the Consolidated University to sit in on Executive Committee meetings of the Board of Trustees. The students would have no vote.

Taylor, a UNC Trustee and now Gov. Umstead's legislative liaison counsel, said that the idea of having students represented on the Board and Executive Committee would not require the approval of the General Assembly.

The Student Party at Carolina has advanced the idea of having a student Trustee and the possibility was discussed in a TECHNICIAN editorial two weeks ago.

Taylor invited students at Chapel Hill to put forth the proposal at the Executive Committee's next meeting in May. He said that the only formal action required would be a vote of the committee. The entire Board would have to take the same action in order for the students to be officially recognized as representatives.

Student Counselors for Freshmen:
Set up a program whereby the departmental societies and clubs will assign juniors and seniors from their society to act as student advisors and counselors for the freshmen in their department. In this way the new student will be welcomed to the school, will have at least one upperclassman to which he may turn to for advice, will be informed of the Honor System, told of the societies he may join, etc.

Registration System:

Continue the registration system tried this Spring with the modification that each department post course rosters with the name of the instructor teaching the course in some centralized place in the department. This will allow the student to sign up for a course under the same instructor for succeeding terms. Of course, when a roster is full the student will have to sign up under another instructor.

Cut System:
There should be unlimited cuts for Juniors and Seniors and two cuts per class per term for Sophomores and Freshmen. After a student becomes an upperclassman, he is aware of the fact that if he doesn't go to class he is hurting only himself. There are times, however, when it would be to the student's advantage to cut a class if, for example, he had a crucial quiz coming up the next period.

Faculty Advisory System:
Have faculty advisors from the same department from which the student is enrolled. These advisors would know more about the curriculum requirements, and they could advise the student better along the lines of electives which would be of use to him. Also, there should be some compensation made for the advisors time so he would have some time for counseling.

Students Parking Lot:
The present parking lots should very definitely be improved and enlarged. There have been many incidents this year when cars, have been blocked in the parking lot due to overcrowded conditions. There have been even more incidents where many cars have been stuck in the mud when it rained.

Publication of the Wataugan:
If enough literary talent can be found on this campus, and I believe it can be found, publication of the Wataugan should be resumed. It was a blow to the already ebbing morale when this college humor magazine was discontinued, however, the students are entitled to a better magazine than those last few published by the editorial staff of the Wataugan before its discontinuance.

Honor System:
Let the Honor Committeemen in the individual schools be responsible for administering the Honor System. They should work with the faculty to eradicate the fundamental causes of cheating on quizzes. There should be a judge, prosecuting attorney, defense, and a jury in each school who will investigate and try all violators of the Honor System.

Vetville:
Garbage Disposal System — The garbage area should be screened in, and there should be more garbage cans.

Parking Lots—There should be more parking facilities and the present parking lots enlarged.

Recreational Facilities — There should be more and improved recreational facilities the funds for which should come from profits made from Vetville housing.

Telephones:
If it is technically possible, the inter-campus telephone system should be extended so as to eliminate charges for on-campus calls.

Candidates DERRO and BARRETT Submit Platforms

Campus Government presidency seeker Joe Derro has prepared a platform which represents him as the "Students' Candidate." He filed for the office just as the deadline was ready to close, thus his qualifications were not available for publication as THE TECHNICIAN went to press. A handbill listing his qualifications was retrieved from a basket just in the nick of time. Here is the six point program:

Qualifications

Rising senior; officer, Xi Sigma Pi, honor fraternity; Blue Key; secretary, Lambda Chi Alpha; past dormitory club representative; representative to I.F.C.

Platform

1. New blood is essential in any organization—A. we need a change in the leadership of our campus government; B. we need to stimulate student participation in our campus.
2. Develop our present honor system—A. an effective honor system will add value to your education and prestige to your diploma; B. bring the honor system down to the student level by decentralization.
3. A closer relationship with our freshmen through more effective counseling—A. increase the number of capable counselors; B. increased campus-wide participation by freshmen.
4. Improved campus environment—A. better living conditions in the dormitories (cleanliness, disturbances during study hours, etc.); B. provide effective student committee to consult with the college engineer concerning needed repairs and improvements to our campus.
5. More adequate intramural facilities—new gymnasium and better use of fields.
6. Institute closer cooperation with new chancellor.

Dave H. Barrett . . . . . Dave H. Barrett, sophomore in Civil Engineering, is a candidate for secretary of Campus Government. He is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Theta Tau, 30 & 3, and is a representative on Campus Government.

Dave's qualifications for the job are two years experience as a representative to Campus Government and a strong interest in the organization.

This year he was a member of the Freshman Orientation Committee and the Constitution Committee. He was also Chairman of the Faculty Evaluation Committee.

His objectives, if elected, are: approval and ratification of a new Campus Government constitution; a more active, vigorous Campus Government; an attempt to bring Campus closer to students; and an improved faculty evaluation program.

Sigma Pi Alpha Host To Lingo Congress

The State College chapter of Sigma Pi Alpha, honorary language fraternity, will be host to the annual Congress which will be held on April 25. Chapters from various colleges and Universities in the South will be present.

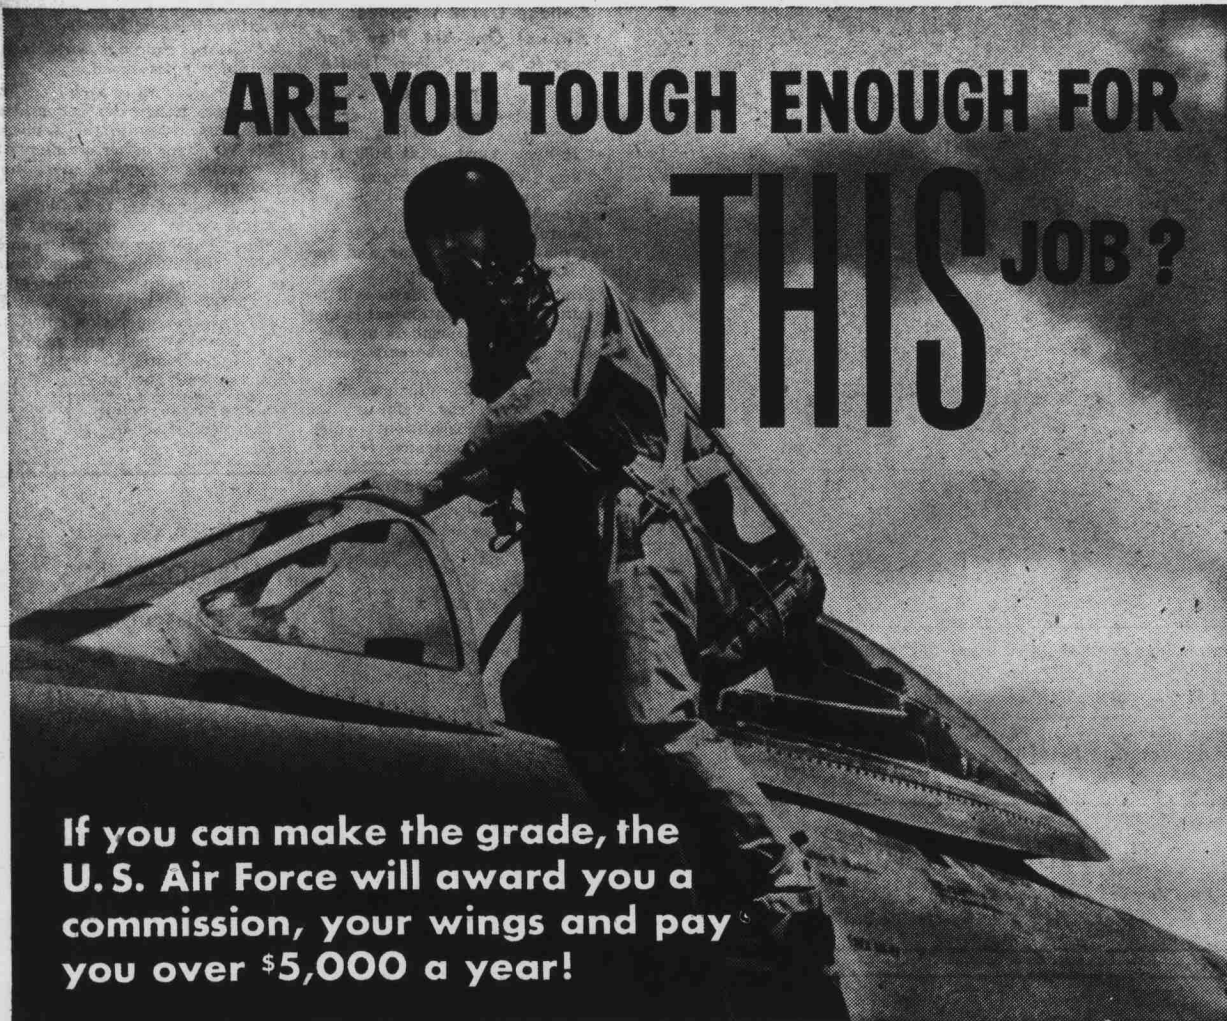

New members will be initiated and will be honored with a banquet followed by a dance at the Women's Club.

All members who wish to attend are urged to contact Mr. F. J. Allred, Mr. S. T. Ballenger at the Modern Language Dept. or Mr. P. Rolnik at 203 Groveland Ave. at their earliest convenience on or before April 23.

There had been a long dry spell and two cowboys were discussing the lack of grass.

"Just how bad are things over at your ranch?" asked one.

"Pretty tough," replied the other. "Why our cattle are so thin that by using carbon paper we can brand 'em two at a time."

If you can make the grade, the U.S. Air Force will award you a commission, your wings and pay you over $5,000 a year!

CAN YOU "take it" 6 days a week? For 52 weeks? Can you meet the high standards required to be an Aviation Cadet? If you can—then here's a man-size opportunity! An opportunity to serve your country and build a personal career that will fit you for responsible positions both in military and commercial aviation.

It won't be easy! Training discipline for Aviation Cadets is rigid. You'll work hard, study hard, play hard—especially for the first few weeks. But when it's over, you'll be a pro—with a career ahead of you that will take you as far as you want to go. You graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year. And this is only the beginning—your opportunities for advancement are unlimited.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?

To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN PILOT OR AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

If you choose to be an Aircraft Observer, your training will be in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination.
3. Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet Training Class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

Where to get more details: Visit your nearest Air Force Base or Air Force Recruiting Officer. OR WRITE TO: AVIATION CADET HEADQUARTERS, U. S. AIR FORCE, WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

edifice too. We've been stumbling around it about long enough and the plans to remove three-fourths of it can't be pushed fast enough to suit us. And to think that a prominent alumnus once wanted to donate $85,000 to enlarge the structure. (He was turned down.)

Did you ever consider the time which the stadium and for that matter the Coliseum, sits idle? Pretty wasteful isn't it? There are so many other more pressing and worthy projects on the campus which should be given top priority, among them a new gymnasium to be used for the intra-mural programs, which, after all, meet the basic recreational needs of a majority of the students.

Back to the Athletic Council now for a switch of pace. This year that body declared itself so impoverished because of the $56,000 debt incurred by the football program, that it declined on one hand to finance a spread in the 1953 year-book, could not afford a paltry $100 to send the fencing team to the NCAA playoffs, but could on the other hand afford to fly the football team to Texas and toy with the preposterous notion of spending upwards of a cool quarter million

Winecoff Wins $400

William Luther Winecoff of Concord was recently awarded a Keever Starch Scholarship of $400.

Winecoff is a senior in Textiles and was awarded the scholarship on the basis of his student attainments at the college.

The scholarship, presented by the Keever Starch Company of Columbus, Ohio, is given to worthy students interested in textile manufacturing or finishing and preferable to the son of a textile mill employee. Winecoff, 28, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Winecoff of Concord and is married to the former Ruby Plyer of Monroe. The Winecoffs are the parents of a daughter, Rita, 2½ years old. Winecoff will graduate from State College in June.

"Swat Men" Go To Duke Tomorrow For Game

the Technician SPORTS

Views and Previews

JERRY ARMSTRONG, Sports Editor

The Southern Conference baseball race came into the light this week with Carolina, Duke and Clemson battling for the top three places. Duke was the surprise of the conference with a startling burst of raging ball playing that looked so much like last year's team the fans seem to take it in stride. The Blue Devils jumped everyone they played recently with the attitude of the Brooklyn Dodgers gunning for another National League pennant. They floored the Demon Deacons 8-4 and then rampaged over the Pack 12-4 on State's home grounds.

Fighting also for the right to climb into the first division with the leaders this week was an inspired State Pack. Coach Sorrell's boys got off to a slow start but they picked up some needed steam and by the time they met the Demon Deacons, the first of the week, they had "blood in their eyes." Much of this credit is due to the fighting spirit of the entire team. From the start of the season the chips have been stacked against the Pack, but with the aid of some fighting spirit and some great pitching by Hargrove, Hardison, Horbelt, and Yvars the Pack has played without a "pat hand" and have come out on top with some well deserved victories. Another reason for the lifting of the team has been the fine effort on the part of Johnny Yvars, Mr. Shortstop, in keeping the morale of the team up to par. Johnny's hitting and fielding have more than justified his All American rating of last year.

Frat Softball

By DICK RUDIKOFF

Phi Epsilon Pi fraternity is holding its sixth annual Phi Ep Weekend. The affair, which is their biggest social function of the year, promises to be one of the best the Phi Ep's have ever held. A great deal of work such as redecorating the living room, dining room and bar has been put into their newly acquired fraternity house. The weekend will include banquet and formal dance at the Sir Walter Hotel on Saturday night, which will be the highlight of the weekend, a party at Crabtree Park on Friday night, and a cocktail party on Saturday afternoon. The Four Notes will supply the music for the occasion. Fraternity elections were held at the Phi Ep house and Bob Hart became the new president, Dick Kalish vice-president, and Howie Greenberg treasurer.

Dorm Intramurals

By JULIAN LANIER

Now that the softball season is well underway, it's high time a few words were written about some of the fine games which have been played thus far. This writer apologizes for not having a more up-to-date column on the subject; however, one must remember that a rapid report from your dormitory athletic director is necessary if the game coverage is to be as recent as possible. These reports should be turned into room 107, Berry Dorm, within as short a time as possible after the games are played, and they should contain the outstanding highlights of the games along with the full names of the star players.

Several games were played on Monday, April 13. Becton No. 2 blasted Syme No. 1 by a score of 21 to 4, and the game was called at the end of the first inning, Becton having more than a 10 run lead. "Not much ball game," reported Doug Temple, athletic director of Becton. Turlington Dorm fielded a complete team on the 13th, but Bagwell No. 2 failed to show, giving the game to Turlington by forfeit.

Berry Dorm "rolled on" on April 13th, bowling over Bagwell No. 1 by a score of 13 to 2, in what was termed a "very loosely played" game by athletic director, Bert Weeks. A homerun by Harold Jones put Berry in the lead early in the first inning, then Berry cut loose in the second period scoring 12 runs. Jesse Mayhew contributed a grand slam homerun in this scoring spree, and Harold Jones added a triple. It was the second win of the season for pitcher Jack McDade in as many appearances. McDade was injured at the last of the game when a line drive off the bat of "Whitey" Sanderson struck him on the left wrist; however, he was ready to take the mound again on Thursday for the boys from Berry.

Hampered somewhat by strong winds which persisted throughout the entire game, Turlington No. 1 and Tucker Dorm took to the field on the 13th, and the outcome was Turlington 13, and Tucker 8. Athletic Director Ed Purcell of Turlington had high praise for his squad of twelve men. Jack Koone in the outfield, Boy Blackwell pitching, and Bill Parton catching, contributed much to the Turlington win. Of outfielder Jack Koone, Purcell said, "I think he deserves some recognition as being one of the best softball players in this league, and I feel certain that anyone who has played with him or against him will fully agree with me that he is a great player—offensively and defensively. . . ." Purcell had further comment about his opponents, "Tucker Dorm gave us a good game and they have a good team, but the clicking together, teamwork, alertness, and determination of my boys was too much for Tucker, and we beat them by good playing."

On Thursday, April 16, the Welch-Gold-Fourth combination defeated Syme No. 1 by a score of 16 to 7. James Pope hit a home run with two men on base which started a W-G-F rally in the third inning. The W-G-F team scored a total of 7 runs in the third inning which sewed the game up. Brady Ratchford made a sparkling running catch with the bases loaded to save several runs in the final inning. Having almost perfect control, Graham Lutz pitched a good game for the winners. Pope led the hitting for W-G-F, getting a total of 3 hits in 4 trips to the plate, one of which was a homerun.

Also on Thursday, April 16, Berry-Watauga downed Alexander Dorm by the tremendous score of 28 to 17. The game was called in the bottom of the fourth when Berry had gained a 10 run lead.

Johnny Yvars, that whiz on shortstop, murder on the base lines, and Mantle at the bat, is really tearing up the statistic sheets this season with the Pack. He has been the spark of the team from the first game and it looks like he's headed for All American again this year. Watch his smoke!

Union Director Erdahl Honored

Delivers Keynote Address at NACU Meeting in Berkley; Turnage and Phillips Attend

College and university unions provide "a finishing course in citizenship" at America's centers of higher education, Gerald O. T. Erdahl, director of the North Carolina State College Union, said in an address here last week.

Erdahl delivered the keynote talk at the annual meeting of the National Association of College Unions at the University of California at Berkeley.

College unions, Erdahl said, offer campus activities which lead to the development of "a better adjusted married man and parent, and individual better adjusted to his job, and an individual whose life is enriched by life-long skills and hobbies."

Erdahl was accompanied here by David W. Phillips of Mount Olive, N. C., and Floyd Davis Turnage, Jr., of Chapel, N. C., student leaders at North Carolina State College, who represented fellow students at the national meeting here.

The Big Four

With each team in the loop having played two games, Duke's Blue Devils, defending champs, have climbed into the No. 1 spot in the Big Four League against, and, as has been the case in the past two years, they've done it on heavy hitting and the smooth hurling of star Righthander Joe Lewis.

Lewis, a strong-armed senior from Fall River, Mass., has started, finished and won Duke's tussels with Wake Forest and State and as a result leads the loop's pitchers in almost every department, according to averages released here today.

He's hurled the most complete games, two; pitched the most innings, 18; allowed the most hits, 13; fanned the most, 23; and walked the most, 10. Bobby Brown, Wake Forest righthander who has started both of his team's games and suffered both losses, leads in runs allowed, 12.

Pacing the batting of the loop is sophomore Shortstop Johnny Yvars of State, brother of New York Giants' Catcher Sal Yvars and also of State's outstanding freshman hurler, Jack Yvars. Johnny, injured in the opener versus Carolina, has played only sparingly, but has hit four times in five trips to a smooth .800 average.

Wyles Has Five Hits

Another State youngster, Outfielder Carl Wyles, has five hits in 10 trips for the runnerup honors and Duke Catcher Jack Tarr is also at the .500 mark with four hits in eight trips. Tarr hit for the cycle against State Wednesday. Wyles' five hits are the most owned by a loop hitter.

State's speedy centerfielder, Johnny Fuscoe, leads in runs-batted-in with five and Carolina's Harry Lee Lloyd has stolen two bases for leadership in that category.

There were no league games today, but five tests are slated during the coming week. Wake Forest plays at State and Duke at Carolina on Tuesday, Duke is at Wake Forest on Wednesday and State comes to Duke and Carolina is at Wake Forest on Saturday.

The averages:

FOOTBALL—

on a spectacular new football program headed by a coach like Maryland's Jim Tatum who reportedly commands a $22,000 a year salary.

The Chancellor of State College, just for the record, is being paid $10,320 a year. President Gray receives $12,360. Makes one wonder who's top man around here doesn't it?

Can the College, or anybody at it afford at this time then to entertain big-time football notions? No, absolutely not. That is the least of the College's needs.

Let us, in preference to sticking our poor, threadbare necks out any further, move with greater caution instead of throwing caution to the winds of emotionalism, excitement and the frenzied airs which are usually stirred during the football season with all its corsaged pagentry.

Why not maintain the Status Quo for awhile, why not revamp the schedule (if we must have a winning team) and play within our own league, a league in which it is doubtful that Army would care to categorize itself.

Why not take the suggestions so often advanced to offer token scholarships to any student, preferably a native, who can make the team and see how things go? Then, when the air is cleared, when the debts are paid off, perhaps in a few years a surer foot, State College's best foot and its best football can be put forward.

In looking at the whole picture objectively it is quite clear that someone or some group must be exploited even further in order for the Big-time investors to save face. Thanks just the same, but we're already handling all that the traffic will bear. We are certain that the students agree on this issue and will beware the Wolfpackers in sheeps' clothing who might try to pull the wool over their eyes.

What we would suggest to the Athletic Council in all seriousness, is that they pull in their necks, reconiter their forces both financial and physical and then go into at least a temporary period of retrenchment. Yes, RETRENCH is the word, and it is our fervent hope that the Athletic Council, the Wolfpack Clubbers, the Athletic Investigation Committee and the vice president of the University will take heed.
