CU Prexy Candidates

CHARLES W. AVERRE

JOHN TESTER

Charles W. Averre left is a Junior majoring in botany. He was graduated from Christ School, near Asheville, N. C. His experience with the Union includes two years as an active committeeman with the Social and Outing Committees. In 1953-54, he served as chairman of the Social Committee and as a representative on the Board of Directors of the College Union.

John W. Tester right is a Junior majoring in Pulp and Paper Technology. He is from Lenoir, N. C., and has been active in the Union for the past three years. John has served as chairman of the Outing and Activities Committees, as well as being a member of the College Union Board of Directors for the past two years.

Charles Averre and John Tester were selected by the students and faculty of the College Union Board of Directors to run as candidates for the presidency of the College Union for 1954-55. Election for this office will be held during general campus elections on April 28. These two students were selected on the basis of their wide experience in College Union work; for example, (1) their thorough understanding of the complexity of the Union organization, (2) their ability to carry out successful Union sponsored events, and (3) their loyalty to the principles of the College Union Constitution:

- "To encourage the student to have pride in his dormitory, fraternity, and school.
- To bring the students and the faculty into a closer relationship outside the classroom.
- To improve the student's morale on campus through meaningful programs.
- To give the student an outlet for certain basic drives—needs for recognition, need for acceptance, need for self-expression.
- To teach as many students as possible the elements of organizing community events and thereby developing good citizenship.
- To produce interesting week-end programs which will make it unnecessary to leave the campus for week-end recreation."

Ed Rose Makes Bid For SG Secretary

Ed Rose has announced his candidacy for Secretary of the Student Government.

Ed is a rising sophomore in Civil Engineering from Newton Grove, N. C.

He is a member of the N. C. State College Veterans Association and is now assistant secretary of the American Society of Civil Engineers. In addition Ed is a pledge of the Phi Kappa Tau social fraternity.

Ed released the following statement to THE TECHNICIAN:

"During my two years in the Army and four years working in industry, I believe that I gained valuable knowledge and experience which will aid me in carrying out the various duties which this position requires. If the opportunity presents itself, I shall fulfill all obligations and duties to the best of my ability."

Gregg Presents Views On Agromeck

The editor can make or break an annual. This throws a great responsibility on one man's shoulders and this is the reason why you should consider carefully before voting for the position.

You might think then, why do I want to take on this responsibility and work? I can answer this in one statement—I want a better AGROMECK. I want to see the students get what they pay for and not what an editor wants. You, as a student, pay for this publication. You pay a picture fee to have your picture in your class section and to have your organization appear. I feel that there is no excuse for class pictures being left out when they have been taken on time and paid for by the student. This is a result of an inefficient organization, and it is a mistake on the editor's part to let something like this exist. The average student only gets four yearbooks, and I'm sure that no one wants to get left out through oversight or mistake. It's true that no book is perfect, but it's also true that a lot can be done to improve these mistakes. I can look back over the last two AGROMECKS and see things that I would have done differently, things that you learn through experience in the actual work.

The publications board felt that I had the experience so they gave me the nomination, and now I am appealing to you for your support in the coming campaign. I am sincerely interested in making the 1955 AGROMECK the best yet, and with the continuation of the cooperation and confidence you have given me in the past elections, it will be the best.

Kroger Co. Host To Scholarship Winners

The Kroger Company was host at a dinner meeting held last week in the N. C. State College dining hall in honor of Kroger scholarship winners at Woman's College and N. C. State.

The company, a big grocery chain, each year awards scholarships in home economics at woman's College and in agriculture at State College.

Lee Fulcher, head of the personnel department of the Roanoke, Va., branch of the Kroger Company, represented the company at the dinner and remained at State College to interview seniors for possible employment.

State College students now holding Kroger scholarships include Roody H. Fields of Route 4, Greensboro, and Peter D. Tuttle of Route 1, Tobaccoville.

Among N. C. State officials attending the dinner were Chancellor Carey B. Bostian; Dr. D. W. Colvard, dean of agriculture; and Dr. Roy L. Lovvorn, director of instruction in the School of Agriculture.

A delegation of faculty members from Woman's College also attended the dinner session.

George Cline Named Frosh Chemistry Star

George B. Cline, Jr., of Chapel Hill, a freshman in civil engineering at North Carolina State College, has been named the outstanding student in freshman chemistry at the college, Prof. W. E. Adams, director of instruction for the college's School of Engineering, announced recently.

Cline has been presented a copy of the 35th Edition of the Handbook of Chemistry and Physics published by the Chemical Rubber Publishing Company in recognition of his scholarship. The Handbook is awarded annually to the student who has had the highest grade in general chemistry.

Adams said that Cline was also presented an engraved copy of the Merck Index by Merck and Company, Inc., of Rahway, N. J. A copy of the Index for second place went to James Edward Wallace of Sanford, a freshman in mechanical engineering.

N.C.S. Site Of 1st AIEE Paper Meet

Electrical engineering students from colleges and universities throughout the Southeastern states will gather at N. C. State College for the first time for their annual American Institute of Electrical Engineering Student Papers Conference April 21-24.

Plans for the meeting were announced Tuesday by Johnny Pearson of Wilson, chairman of the AIEE student section at State College, who said, approximately 112 students will attend the conference.

Seventeen papers, representing 17 colleges and universities, will be presented by their authors at two morning sessions. The technical papers will be judged on written and oral presentations.

Keynote speaker for the event will be Dr. J. S. Long, chemical director for Devoe and Raynolds Company of Louisville, Ky. Dr. Long will speak at the conference banquet on "Purposeful Living."

Other features of the conference will be inspection tours of the School of Engineering facilities at N. C. State and industries in the Raleigh vicinity, an annual business meeting, and a dance.

The Department of Electrical Engineering at the college will be host to the visiting delegates.

Student Leaders Attend Banquet

"Leaders in campus activities should participate fully in the citizenship training aspect of student government to prepare themselves for work in community life after they have left the campus."

This observation was made by William C. Friday, assistant to the president of the Consolidated University of North Carolina, in an address at the annual Leadership Banquet at N. C. State College last Thursday, April 8.

The banquet, sponsored by the State College YMCA, was attended by the top officers of campus organizations and other student leaders at the college.

Friday, a 1941 honor graduate of State College, was introduced by Billy Oliver of Selma, president of the student government at N. C. State. The banquet toastmaster was Roy E. Congleton of Chadbourn, president of the College "Y."

In his talk, Friday paid tribute to Edward S. King, veteran secretary of the State College "Y," for "his many years of religious leadership at the college."

The University official pointed out the opportunities for citizenship training at the college and appealed to his listeners to develop their talents for future community leadership.

Fields Cobb To Run For Judicial Board

Fields Cobb, rising senior in Forest Management from Dendron, Virginia, is a candidate for the Judicial Board. Fields' experience includes a year on the Executive Honor Committee and he is now serving as a temporary member of the Judicial Board.

In a statement released to the Technician, Fields had this to say:

"Above all else I would like to see a real honor system work on this campus. There has been quite a bit of talk about an honor system, but practically all of it has stressed the importance of punishments, etc., which will be inflicted upon those who cheat. In my opinion, this is relatively unimportant. I believe the major purpose of an honor system is not to catch those who cheat but to teach trust and honesty among the faculty and students here at State College. The honor system should be and will be something with tremendous educational value. I like to be trusted and I know all of you do, too.

The main function of the Judicial Board is to build a strong honor system which all the students, faculty, and alumni can be proud of now, and in the years to come.

I want to serve the students on this campus in the best way I can, and I believe that as a member of the Judicial Board, I can do just that. If I am elected to this job, I will see to it that the students have a voice in the policies of the honor system and Judicial Board, because without the students' support nothing we do will succeed. I shall greatly appreciate your support.

EDITORIAL COMMENT:

Campus Offices Carry Responsibilities

Many Seniors, who paid their Junior-Senior class dues in the fall of 1952; were refused bids to the "Ring" dance because the records of the Junior class treasurer who received their money, were incomplete.

There may be a valid excuse for the records being incomplete but we very much doubt it. What this situation probably indicates is that the treasurer, when he ran for his office, was ignorant of what responsibilities the office carried. Or if aware of the responsibilities was unable or unwilling to give the necessary time to do them properly.

It appears, at times, as if students are running for office to test their popularity, or to increase the list of extra-curriculars after their names or to add glory to their fraternities' name with little or no concern about doing the job after they get it. Such practices will add to any students list of extra-curriculars and will appear to add prestige to his frat but if he shirks the responsibilities of his office the honor is dubious to say the least.

We feel that any student who runs for office without being prepared to work at the job is a fake and a charlatan and does a disservice to himself and his fellow students.

This is only half the story however since every office holder is elected by a majority of the student body of a given class. Every voter has the responsibility to know the candidates so that he may have some basis for selecting the man who will do the best job. Unless he has done so, no voter can complain about the treatment he receives from his elected officers.

We know it is difficult to gauge any persons reliability or to know with any certainty that they are conscientious but the effort must be made. A sincere effort by the entire student body should result in the election of the best men to every office.

Neal is commander of the State College Chapter of the Arnold Air Society, and Barnhardt is the society's adjutant. Neal and Barnhardt are student commandant and group commander, respectively, of the State College Air Force ROTC Unit.

Distribution Of Bids To Jr.-Sr. Snarled

Trouble developed this week in the distribution of bids to the Jr.-Sr. Ring Dance. Bids are distributed on the basis of carboned receipts made out to Junior Class members who have paid their dues. Seniors get their bids through records turned over to the Junior treasurer, David Bagwell, by last year's Junior treasurer, Bob Turner. According to some Seniors, some of the data has been lost as an incomplete list is now in possession of Bagwell.

Bagwell stated to the TECHNICIAN, "My records are complete but I haven't been able to verify (Continued on page 5)

State Profs Receive Faculty Fellowships

Two members of the North Carolina State College Faculty, Dr. Keith McKean and Dr. David Lowenthal, have been awarded faculty fellowships by the Ford Foundation's Fund for the Advancement of Education for study and research during the academic year 1954-55. Both are members of the staff of the Department of Social Studies of the School of General Studies.

Dr. McKean, who holds degrees from Williams College, The University of Chicago and the University of Michigan, joined the State College faculty as an Associate Professor in 1949. He plans to use his fellowship to study the general education program at Yale University and to continue work in the relation between the philosophy and history of science and literature.

Dr. Lowenthal, a graduate of the New School for Social Research in New York City, has been a member of the Department of Social Studies since 1950 and now holds the rank of Assistant Professor. He plans to spend the ensuing year at Harvard University and M.I.T. (Continued on page 5)

Wolfpack Capers

By John Parker

Politics! You can sure tell it's spring now with the campaign posters blossoming out. Monday night WVWP sponsored a 30 minute program with the platforms of Parrott, Barrett, and Cheek being discussed as candidates of the Student Government. These three sat on one side of the table and John Wyles, Bill Odin and I sat on the other asking questions with Sam Harrell moderating. We could have talked another hour.

George H— really got a cut the day over the "Mill." This happened before he shaved off his goatee which strongly resembled its namesake. He started in the "Shuttle Inn" when someone warned him that he couldn't go in— they've stopped serving tin cans.

I'm rather expecting some sly comments on decorations for the Jr-Sr Ring Dance tomorrow night. We're doing something different and with the help of some of the Design Students it'll be a bit of okay. Some of the boys helping me plan and get the decorating rolling are: J. Pearman, P. Myott, J. Puckett, C. Sides, T. Newberry, G. Page and D. Blanchard. We'll probably all be so tired we wont enjoy the dance.

A group of Arnold Air Society boys are going to fly up to Wright-Patterson A.F.B. Sunday to look the place over. It should be a pretty good trip. Anybody want a picture post-card?

If things look kind of dead next week, here's the poop. About 3/4 of the Textile School is going to the Textile Machinery Show in Atlantic City. I don't know what there's doing in the "City" this time of the year but knowing the boys out there in the "Mill," I'd say there'll be pul-lenty doing. A lot of fun but the boys going should get some good information out of it. It's only held every 4 years so guess some of us won't get to go.

By the way, did you notice that steps are being built down beside Riddick Bldg? It's about time considering the unknown number of students who have slipped down that clay hill. Last time it rained it approached a frictionless, inclined plane. For that statement I should pass Physics even with my 36. Oh well, some days you're rained out. See you around.

THE COXSWAIN WHO WANTED TO BE A NUDIST

The coxswain of a leading university crew didn't like to be tossed in the water after a victory. He didn't like it so much the crew started tossing him in the water any old time they saw him near it.

He complained bitterly that it was ruining all his sportshirts. He liked nice sportshirts, but all he owned had either shrunk or streaked or spotted. He was not a happy coxswain. With no more sportshirts, he contemplated joining a nudist colony.

He told the whole wretched tale to the Dean of Men.

The Dean said, "You like really good sportshirts, eh? Something like a fine gabardine?"

"Uh huh," the coxswain beamed.

"Try this—take $5.95 down to the nearest men's store and get a Van Heusen Van Gab. It's the best-looking gabardine sportshirt you've ever owned and it's completely washable—any kind of water. What's more; it's got real pick-stitching on the collar, pockets and cuffs...it's got a Sportown collar that looks as smart with a tie as without. Van Heusen really knows how to make 'em."

Said coxswain is now sportshirt king of the campus. Owns Van Gabs in all smart non-fade colors. Called best-natured coxswain on east coast. Doesn't wait to be dunked by crew. Jumps in, Van Gab and all.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

A man who smokes a Lucky Strike is really on the ball. So round, so firm, so fully packed—The cigarette for all!

Bob Vickery, Jr.
University of Missouri

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason... enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco... light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better... always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky; Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

What brand is grand throughout the land? From Maine to old Kentucky—With smoothness, mildness, better taste? Why, yes, you're right, it's Lucky!

Sue Pittman
University of California

I puffed and puffed the whole day through, just trying every brand, until I smoked some Lucky Strikes. And found they tasted grand!

Joel Allison
Queens College

Where's your jingle? It's easier than you think to make $25 by writing a Lucky Strike jingle like those you see in this ad. Yes, we need jingles—and we pay $25 for every one we use! So send as many as you like to: Happy-Go-Lucky, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y.

Through The Keyhole

LEONARD A. BINDER Sports Editor

Lynwood Holt, catcher for the Deacons of Wake Forest Deacons, saved his team from a certain defeat at the hands of the Wolfpack by hitting a home run with two strikes on him in the top of the ninth inning in a game played at State College this past Monday.

This hit by Holt turned out to be the only extra base blow of the contest as each team left a total of ten runners on the bases. Time and time again the hitters of both sides failed to come through with the big blow which would have clinched the victory for one team or the other.

Lowell "Lefty" Davis started on the mound for the Deacons. This slim portsider kept the big bats of State College down to low ebb until he was taken out for a pinch hitter in the top half of the ninth inning. Jack Yvars started for the Pack and the big sophomore pitched a very good game until he was forced to leave the contest in the fifth frame, after complaining of a sore back. Tommy Hargrove, the little lefty from Graham, really put the shackles on the Deacs until the fatal ninth inning.

This frame opened with Hargrove walking Bruce Hillenbrand, the pinch batter for Davis. Billy Lyles, another pinch hitter, forced Hillenbrand at second base. Harris then popped to Peed for the second out of the inning. At this point it really looked as if State had notched its third Big Four victory of the season. However, Luther McKeel lashed a solid single between first and second to keep the chances of his team alive. Then came the now famous homer by Holt. This was the second straight time that Holt pulled a game out of the fire for his team. He also hit the game winning single to beat Maryland last Saturday.

Bevo's Rio Grande Apologizes

Rio Grande College, which sprang into basketball prominence through its star, Bevo Francis, has sent apologies to Kansas City "for all regrettable situations in which our team was involved," during the East-West shrine games here last month.

The letter expressing "sincere regret" for the incidents was sent to Ernest Mehl, sports editor of the Kansas City Star by Charles E. Davis, president of the college, on behalf of the executive committee of the board of trustees.

Rio Grande, playing Rockhurst College of Kansas City in the first game of a double-header, was twice ordered off the court by Coach Newt Oliver in the last minutes of the game after technical fouls had been called on the coach. The third time it happened the team left the court amid mixed boos and cheers.

President Davis said "We do not condone unsportsmanlike activities," and added: "The executive committee is certainly desirous of being fair, just, and insuring that our athletics are operating on a most wholesome and ethical basis."

Badminton was the major sport of interest this week with the first round of teams finishing up and the start of the semi-finals scheduled for the first of next week. Horseshoes also got off to a fast second round of play with softball moving along in the sectional round of action in somewhat of a background role.

Horseshoes

Becton No. 1 took a 2-1 decision from the "ringerboys" from Burlington No. 2. Frankos and Cress won the doubles for Becton with Trulove taking the deciding singles match after Dudley Whitley lost the only Becton match by "a hair." Brown took the only match for the Turls.

Causby's "Ringmen" from Syme No. 2 split their last two matches winning one from Berry by a 2 out of 3 decision over the "Sportsmen" and dropping the other one to Tucker No. 1 by a confused forfeit. Their victory over Berry came with Gill winning the singles match, Stainback and Russiselle taking the doubles and the only loss was the decision match Vinson gave to Harold "Butter" Jones of Berry.

Badminton

The Bagwell No. 1 "Dragnets" started off their season by defeating Welch-Gold-Fourth with a 2-1 victory. Bagwell's Fred Williams won his matches by the scores of 15-10, 15-10, and Ronnie Keen took his matches 16-14 and 15-3. Bagwell's doubles team was defeated in the other matches 6-15, 15-7, and 15-10. Hughes, Pippin, and Barnhardt composed the doubles team for Bagwell and Waynick and Farber for Welch.

Syme No. 2 continued to remain the "jinx team" against Berry as they took another victory over them by a 2 out of 3 score and in their second game were able to keep a

Big Four Sports Day At Wake Forest May 11; 7 Teams From Each School

By Jerry Armstrong

The Big Four (4) Sports Day will be held at Wake Forest this year on Tuesday, May 11. All classes missed by those participating in the event will be excused at 11:00, Tuesday morning, for the balance of the day. Teams will be organized in table tennis, tennis, horseshoes, volleyball, handball, golf, and softball.

Tuesday, April 27, has been set as the day for organizing the teams and also the first practice time. Softball, horseshoes, and tennis will meet on the softball field on Oak Field and tennis will meet on the tennis court at 4:00. Volleyball, table tennis, and handball will meet in Thompson Gym at 7:30. Anyone who can shoot in the 80's in golf report to Mr. Miller either on April 27 or before from 2:00 to 4:00 in the afternoon.

The goal this year is for every student to participate in some way either by actually playing on one of the teams or notifying Mr. Miller, or one of the Physical Education staff members of some person or persons, who would be a good addition to one of the teams.

Every student in school who has participated before and students who have been named to any All Campus teams are especially urged to contact Mr. Miller in the Gym about getting on one of the teams by April 27 or before.

If you know of any extra good golfers, tennis and table tennis men, sharp volleyball players, softball "aces" or any good men with those pieces of metal called "horseshoes" then let's get these men out for these different teams and win this year's Big Four Day title.

State's Golfers Defeat Maryland

in their half of the first inning on walks to Babyak and Carl Wyles, and a single by John Yvars. Wake Forest tied the score in the fourth frame on walks to Cole and Livengood and a single to Ben Tatum.

State went into the lead again in their half of the fourth on a bagger by Sonny Santoli. This same Santoli stole second and then went to third on an error by the Wake Forest second sacker on the throw from the catcher. Santoli then scored on a roller to the third baseman.

State, as a result of this game, fell to the 500 mark as far as their A.C.C. play is concerned. Anyone who wants to leave a ball game before the last out should look back on this game and learn a very instructive lesson. State did!

clear record with another 2 out of 3 victory over Alexander No. 1.

Softball

Welch-Gold-Fourth won its first game in two outings by taking the heavy side of a 11-7 game with Tucker No. 1. Welch's runs came on 11 walks and 7 hits off the hurler from Tucker. Troutman pitched for the Golders allowing six hits and three walks. Bob Fore was the leading hitter for Fourth with three for three. Taylor was the losing pitcher. The fielding and hitting was reported by the Athletic Director, Pittman, of Welch-Gold Fourth to be greatly improved since their first game with, as he states the word, BERRY.

The "Dragnets" of Bagwell No.

1 defeated a hustling crew of players from Owen No. 2 by a forfeit.

Outstanding for the week's play was the no-hit, no-run and "set 'em down" victory the "Upper Becton No. 2" nine put on the boys from Verville in a 4-0 rout. Bill Teague pitched the perfect contest for Becton and was aided greatly by the two hits collected by the big bat of Skip Gentry. Verville loaded the bases in the third inning on a walk and two errors, but failed to get the clutch break as the sides were retired by a "popup fly ball" and a grounder to the shortstop.

Union Sponsors Book Talk By Rick Walser

On Monday night, April 26, at 7:30 p.m., Mr. Richard Walser, of the State College English Department, will give a book talk on "George Moses Horton, North Carolina's Forgotten Slave-Poet," in Peele Hall Lounge.

George Moses Horton was born in Chatham County and grew up in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. He worked as a janitor while living in Chapel Hill, and to make extra money he is said to have dictated love poems, which students paid him for the privilege of copying as their own.

Horton could neither read nor write until he was about thirty years old, and so he had to dictate these poems of the first part of his life. He is claimed to have sold these poems for from $.25 to $.75, thus becoming North Carolina's first professional poet.

His poems on slavery were used in the North as Abolitionist propaganda; Horton himself was set free after the Civil War, and died in Philadelphia about 1833. His work has been published in three volumes, an unique copy of one of which is to be found in Boston today.

An informal coffee hour will follow the talk in Peele Lounge and during this time the audience may meet Mr. Walser.

Year-Book Hopeful Thorne Says

After my statement in last week's TECHNICIAN, someone asked, "What is your platform?" All I can answer is that my platform is a good annual. It takes a lot of money to publish a yearbook—a lot; and it stands to reason that if the staff is not properly directed, much of that money will be spent in penalties for not meeting deadlines. To make up for this unexpected expenditure of funds calls for cutting somewhere else. Sacrificing a page that could have been retained is unnecessary if the initial amount of money remains unchanged. Expenses can be cut without cutting the yearbook. In fact the yearbook may even be enlarged. But to manage a yearbook properly requires experience. You have read my record—three years of active participation on the Agromeck staff. Upon this stand my qualifications. I honestly believe that I am the best man for the job.
