AF To Commission All ROTC Graduates

Colonel William J. Jowdy, Professor of Air Science at N. C. State College, announced today that the Air Force will appoint as Second Lieutenants in the Air Force Reserve approximately 10,200 Air Force ROTC cadets, graduating during the year May 1, 1955 to April 30, 1956, from 188 colleges and universities throughout the United States.

With the exception of about 100 graduating cadets who have had previous military service and those cadets granted deferments to continue their academic work, it is intended that all will be called to active duty with the Air Force.

Included in the group to be called to active duty are approximately 8,100 who have been accepted for flight training. Of this number 57 will be State College graduates. Also included and to assume non-rated duties, are 2,000 who have technical and administrative type skills needed by the Air Force, fourteen of which will matriculate from the Department of Air Science at N. C. State College.

Last year lack of vacancies within the active Air Force made it necessary to give certificates of completion, in lieu of immediate appointments as second lieutenants, to some 4,800 graduates. The certificate entitled the recipient to an Air Force Reserve Officer appointment upon completion of obligated military service in an enlisted status. Graduates scheduled to receive such certificates were given the opportunity, however, to accept appointments as Air National Guard second lieutenants. About 3,500 elected to accept the Air National Guard appointment and are being ordered to active duty for training with the Air Force.

standing work that he has done on the Student Supply Stores problem. Through Cheek's efforts the profits of the Mop-Up were raised substantially enough to allow $560 to be put in an academic scholarship fund and $67,890 to be set aside to be used to entice top-rate athletes to matriculate at State College.

In presenting the car to Cheek, L. L. Ivey, manager of the Student Supply Stores, said, "Although Cheek and I haven't always agreed

Attention Juniors

The representative of Josten Ring Company, Mr. L. C. Chiles, will be at the YMCA next Wednesday, April 6 at 10:30 to make any readjustments in rings that were shipped in defective condition or are the wrong size.

Not Much Time Till April 6 Deadline

"Time is fast running out for anyone who wishes to run for a campus office," declared Jim Frazier, chairman of the Elections Committee, today. "As of Tuesday the number of nominations were very small," he said.

The nomination book which is in Dean Talley's office will close next Wednesday, April 6. The candidate as well as one other person must sign the book although they are not required to do so at the same time.

Primary elections will be April 20 and the run-off will be April 27. To be eligible for any candidacy a C average is required and the student cannot be on probation.

Offices

Nominations will be open for Student Government officers: president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer.

Thirty-three seats in the Student Legislature as well as a head cheerleader, senior, junior, and sophomore class officers will also be open for nominations. The seats in the Student Legislature are apportioned according to the enrollment in the various classes in the different schools.

Two seniors, two juniors and three sophomores are to be elected to the Judicial Board.

Other elective posts are one two year membership and a one one year membership on the College Union Board of Directorate, and two senior members and one junior member of the Athletic Council.

David H. Barrett Outstanding Senior

DAVID H. BARRETT

David H. Barrett of Atlanta, Ga., senior in civil engineering here at State, Saturday night was named "the most outstanding senior" at State by Blue Key, national honorary leadership fraternity.

Announcement of the selection of Barrett for the honor was made at the intermission of the Junior-Senior Ring Dance by Bob Krook, president of Blue Key and a senior in textiles at N. C. State.

Krook presented Dave an engraved cup and read a citation honoring him for his scholastic achievements, contributions to campus life, and personal integrity. Approximately 2,000 persons attending the dance witnessed the presentation ceremonies in the Coliseum.

Highly active in extra-curricular affairs, Barrett is arch regent of Golden Chain, senior honor society here at State College; regent of Theta Tau, professional engineering fraternity; and is a member of a number of other honorary and professional organizations, including Blue Key, Tau Beta Pi, Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Eta Sigma, and the college chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

He is a former member of the Student Legislature, a leading figure in drawing up the new Student Government Constitution, and a former member of the Student Government Judicial Board, which he helped to establish.

Barrett also has served as chairman of the Freshman Orientation Committee, the Civil Engineering Departmental Honor Committee, and the Executive Honor Committee of the college's School of Engineering. In addition, he is a past secretary-treasurer of the Consolidated University Student Council.

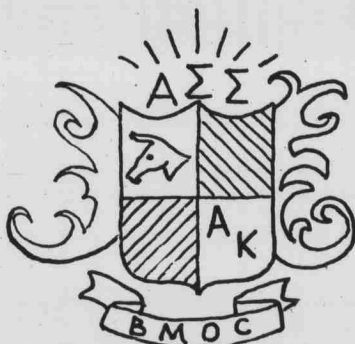

In making the presentation to Barrett, Krook said "Dave has proven his capabilities by the number of activities he has participated in during the past four years. He is a man who is unselfish in the time he has spent for the improvement of college life. While his extra-curricular activities have been pressing and numerous, he has maintained a point average of 3.43."

Cadets Observing Court Martial

Major Russell D. Whitmore, MS IV instructor of the State College Army ROTC, accompanied MS IV cadets on a trip to Fort Bragg Monday to observe court martial proceedings in connection with their current course in Military Justice. Before the first trial, the cadets were briefed on military justice by the Staff Judge Advocate of the XVIII Corps. When the court was in session, the cadets were also permitted to question the Law Officer who is comperable to a civilian judge.

The splendid cooperation accorded the cadets gave them an excellent opportunity to see military justice in action and to better consolidate their classroom work through actual experience.

EDITORIAL COMMENT:

A Student Government Problem

Reviewing some of the accomplishments of the past year that have been brought about through the efforts of the Student Government one can easily see the active roll that has been played by committees. The committees haven't been publicized very much but without the committees ironing out the details it's obvious that the legislature would have become bogged down. Good work! Here is a suggestion for some SG committee to seriously consider, "How can State's school spirit be raised?"

The problem of school spirit is one with several roots. Most students are proud of the school. Most students enjoying pointing out campus sights to parents or friends and are proud of the teams engaged in sports but just don't actively express it through cheering.

The biggest problem seems to have been a definite lack of leadership. Very few things happen spontaneously. Most have to be led. There were a few good pep rallies during the football season but very few. Since that time there have been none and little effective effort for cheering has been made at games either in the Stadium or the Coliseum. Students are sick and tired of hearing "the spelling cheer" and "Hip! Hip! Hooray!" These are very fine cheers but they're worn out. With a little variety cheering would have been more interesting. More times than once students tired of waiting for a cheerleader-led cheer and started to cheer and yell by themselves.

Considering this and looking over the past year and the year before one wonders if cheerleaders should be elected. Should they be picked through tryouts? Perhaps let the Student Government judge tryouts and select the head cheerleader and his staff but more than likely the best bet would be to let the head cheerleader choose his own helpers on merit. It's true that few men would be interested in the job but if it were dropped as a political job and reworked as a service based on merit then the boys taking time to go before the SG to be looked over would be the most talented. These men would probably make good leaders.

Don't forget this, though! It's not all the cheerleaders's fault because of poor cheering. Cheerleaders have often voiced disappointment at student response. Again this can be hurled back with the question "wouldn't cheering be better if backed by some novelty and originality?" Even though this is true remember that few State men feel that they have time to go all out for the old "rah, rah" spirit. They feel that the heavy load of classroom and lab hours plus heavy outside assignments keep them tied down.

What can be done to build up school spirit? A question for the Student Government. Maybe everything should be put under "Operation Spirit" and maybe this committee should be given a stronger position. At any rate the problem should be considered as the downward slide of spirit should be stopped and be guided on an upswing.

The majority of us think of a guitar as an instrument belonging to hillbilly and folklore musicians. This is not in error either. Occasionally, we find a guitarist in the jazz world, and in this case, a very fine one—name—Johnny Smith.

Johnny became a top jazz guitarist after his first album hit the stands. Before then, his career was as varied as his musical abilities. It has only been in the last few years that he has achieved such prominence. His career took him to New York, one of the world's greatest jazz centers. Since then, he has appeared as a member of all the NBC groups, has conducted various television and radio shows, has appeared with symphony orchestras, and has composed an arrangement for many modern jazz groups along with appearing with them.

Very few musicians are able to cross the stepping stones between the studio musician and the jazz musician, but Johnny Smith is one of the few who has. He is completely at ease in any form of music. Regardless of the type of the number, he brings in the inclination for simplicity. With these two important elements, he adds a third—communicating sincerely with his audience and the members of his group. Communication is the cause of the pleasure of listening to Johnny. He puts the song itself ahead of the performance in line of importance—thus the basis for his simplicity is the foundation upon which all solos must have their origin.

From Johnny Smith comes this, "Simplicity is beauty and it communicates to the listener. It doesn't drive them to frenzy. It creates a quiet responsive audience which is highly preferable to a noisy performing audience."

Johnny feels he must clearly portray the thoughts of a song while keeping the melodic sense. Just as an experiment must be completed to reveal the true results, the song will have meaning only if completed. Just as a picture must be completed to remain in the mind, a song must be completed if the audience is to gain complete understanding of it.

If you're interested in hearing Johnny Smith, you might try the album In A Melody Mood. In it you'll find "Lover Man," as improvised by Johnny; "Stranger In Paradise," a number also featuring the drums of Donfi Lamond; "SWonderful," with Perry Lopen on rhythm guitar; "Our Love Is Here To Stay," a slow, melodic line shared by Arnold Fishkin on bass; "Sophisticated Lady," a well known number to fans of any jazz artist; and "I'll Remember April," "What's New," and "Easy To Love," are also among the selections.

Another album, and perhaps a better one, is Johnny Smith Quintet. A few of the selections are "The Terry Theme" (from Limelight), "Stars Fell On Alabama," "I'll Be Around," "Yesterdays" and many others.

Regardless of whether you are a jazz fan or not, you will like the music of Johnny Smith. His music appeals not only to jazz fanatics but to the people who like any form of music played on a guitar, from the soft, sweet, dreamy music to the more modern type of contemporary jazz.

C U Election Procedure

Last Tuesday night the College Union Board of Directors chose two candidates to run in the spring election for president and vice-president of the College Union. These persons were chosen by a system which is set up in the Constitution of the College Union. This Constitution was written by students with three main ideas in mind.

The first is the College Union budget. Many of the students are not aware of the size of the budget. The budget for next year will be $250,000. This is big business. The students who wrote the Constitutions were well aware of this fact. They knew that the office of president could not become a political office to which someone interested only in the prestige could be elected. It is to be remembered that one bad year cannot be made up in a short period of time.

The College Union here at State College is one of the few in the country in which the students have any voice in the business of the Union. This is the second idea that writers of the constitution had in mind. It is hoped that this sort of working arrangement will be continued. It is the duty of the president and vice-president to work directly with the director and management of the Union. This means that they must be people who have spent time working in all aspects of the Union. They must be able to help communicate ideas and policies which will not only be entertaining to the students, but will also be sound business for the Union.

The last main point to be considered is shown best by examining the ruling bodies of the College Union. The lower body is the Board of Chairmen. This group is composed of the chairmen of the 16 committees in the Union. The other group is the Board of Directors. This is the top most ruling body of the Union and is made up of the different campus leaders along with four faculty representatives plus the dean of students. It is the duty of the officers to work with and to correlate the working of these two bodies. These officers must have the respect of everyone concerned.

The best unions around the country use the board selection system. It has been found that too frequently weaker personalities become elected when the top Union officers become political footballs.

Dixie Classic Baseball Tournament April 7-8-9; State Meets Ohio Univ.

Pairing for the first annual Dixie Classic Baseball Tournament to be held in Durham April 7-8-9 were announced recently.

The tournament, patterned after the Dixie Classic basketball tournament, has four intersectional teams, Rollins, Ohio University, Yale University and Notre Dame to oppose North Carolina's Big Four schools—Duke, North Carolina, Wake Forest and N. C. State.

N. C. State is scheduled to meet Ohio University on Thursday afternoon followed by Duke against Notre Dame. That night Carolina will meet Rollins University and Wake Forest squares off with Yale University all in first round action. The losers will meet the following afternoon and the winners that night.

Plans call for the tournament to be run-off in three days with a total of 12-games. Doubleheaders will be played at two parks in Durham each day, opening on Thursday, April 7 at Durham Athletic Park in downtown Durham and at the Coombs Stadium on the Duke University campus. A Big Four team will oppose an intersectional squad in each of the first round contests and pairings will be announced at a later date, Casey said. Games will begin at 1:30 p.m. with the second game of the doubleheader scheduled at 3:45 p.m.

Following the Dixie Classic pattern each team will play three games, win or lose with a champion being crowned in both the winner's and consolation brackets.

The Big Four schools would act as joint hosts to the tournament, which is hoped will become an annual affair.

Frat Intramurals

The fraternity intramural program started its spring season last week as nine softball games were played with several teams establishing themselves as strong threats for the crown.

SAE-15, T. Chi-4—Defending champions SAE's took up where they left off last season and swept to a 15-4 victory over the T. Chi's. The game was called after the 3rd. With Yarbrough and Stuart the big men at the plate the SAE's pushed across 13 runs in the first inning to clinch the win.

Lambda Chi-18, K.A.-5—With Rhoads blasting a homer and two singles, the L. Chi's crushed the K.A.'s 18-5 in a contest that was called after the third. Hill homered for the K.A.'s.

PKA-9, F.H.-3—The Pika's, with Perry and Buchanan hitting homers, defeated the F.H. 9-3. Griffin had 3 for 4 and Perry 2 for 3 for the Pikas while Gray connected on 2 for 3 for the F. House.

SAM-14, SPE-2—The SAM's showed plenty of power at the plate (Continued column 5)

Wolfpack Loses To Wake Forest, 19-6 Beat UNC, 7-5; Meet Clemson & S. C.:

N. C. State's baseball squad, with a win over Carolina and one loss to Wake Forest, take off to South Carolina today for a two-game road trip against two ACC foes.

The Pack will meet the University of South Carolina Friday afternoon and then journey over to Clemson for a contest on Saturday.

Southpaw Tommy Hargrove, the only letterman hurler returning from last year, has been named for the starting mound chore. Hargrove, a junior from Graham, N. C., had a 2-3 record a year ago, but is due to be improved.

The rest of the State lineup is pretty well set, although just what they'll do in competition appears indefinite. The infield will be led by All-America Second Baseman Jack Turney of Gastonia, a .368 hitter last year. Turney will pair with Shortstop Dudley Whitley for the keystone combination. Whitley was out of action last year with a torn cartilage in his right knee, but is back in shape and should be a big man for the Wolfpack. Two other lettermen, Bill Peed at first and Joe Barringer at third, round out the infield starters.

In the outfield State will have two lettermen, Centerfielder Sonny Santoli and Leftfielder Norman Norris. Sophomore Russell Casteen of Wilmington is a newcomer who'll be in rightfield and will be in the lead-off batting slot.

Behind the plate State will rely on Eddie West, a junior from Alexandria, Va.

"Shore is a great place, the city," commented Elmer on his return from his first visit to Salt Lake City. "Spent my first night with a naked woman, too; and if I'd played my cards right, I guess I could have kissed her."

FRAT INTRAMURALS

as they handed the SPE's a 14-2 defeat behind Cassuto's 3 hits for as many times at bat.

AGR-20, Sig Nu-8—The AGR's raced 13 runs across the plate in the 3rd inning to break a tied score and go on to defeat Sigma Nu 20-6. Hopkin, Ipock and Koone were the big wheels for the victors while Honeycutt collected the lone hit for Sigma Nu.

PKT-8, Sig Pi-7—The PKT's tallied six runs in the second and then held off a last inning rally to edge the Sigma Pi's 8-7. Hawkins had 3-3 and Barnes homered for the PKT's, while Jones hit 2-2 for the losers.

PKP-9, PEP-7—The PKP's pushed five runs over the plate in the top of the last inning to gain a 9-7 victory over the PEP's. Avent, Bagwell, and Newell each had 2-3 for the PKP's while Saffer's 3-4 was tops for the PEP's.

Sigma Chi won a forfeit from the Kappa Sig's.

Applications should be filed very soon, at least for the Law School Admissions Test to be given at Chapel Hill, April 23, required of all scholarship applicants. For further information inquire at the Student Aid Office, 9 Holladay Hall.

GRADES FOR GRADUATING SENIORS—By action of the Administrative Council, examinations will be optional for all graduating seniors in those courses in which they have a passing grade. Examinations will be scheduled and be required for all graduating seniors in those courses in which they do not have a passing grade.

The following procedure for reporting grades for graduating seniors has been adopted by the College Admissions Committee:

1. Graduating seniors will pick up their envelopes containing final grade blanks for each course from their departmental office beginning Friday, May 20. (The Registration Office will check the names of students on the graduating list and send the correct number of cards in the addressed envelopes to the departments.)

2. Seniors must get a grade blank to each instructor not later than Tuesday noon, May 24. This is the senior's responsibility.

3. Faculty will get grades to the Registration Office as soon as possible and all grades must be in the Registration Office no later than Friday noon, May 27. If grades are mailed they should be in the campus mail in time for the Thursday morning pickup.

4. Any arranged senior examinations must be scheduled in time to conform to the above dead lines.

NOMINATIONS FOR STUDENT OFFICERS—Would you like to make this a better campus? If so, run for an office in the campus elections. Nominations for Student Officers, Union, Athletic Council and Head Cheerleader, will be open from March 25 through April 6. These nominations will be made by open nomination. This method consists of signing the nomination book in Dean Talley's Office, 13 Holladay Hall, and having it countersigned by an interested friend. Take part in the campus government by nominating a candidate or signing up yourself.

Jim Frazier, Chairman,
Elections Committee

NOTICE TO VETERANS UNDER PUBLIC LAW 550: All Monthly Certifications of Training for March should be brought to the Registration Office on March 31, April 1, and April 2. It is important that these forms be turned in promptly on the indicated days.

Foreign Students Tie
1-1 In Soccer Scrap—

Heavily favored Latin-American was fought to a standstill by European-Middle Eastern soccer squad in a fierce family brawl at the track field last Saturday afternoon.

Sponsored by the campus Cosmopolitan Club the contest was an intracub affair.

Led by varsity soccer players Agirreuretta, Fraghof, and Yamamoto, Latin-American took early command with a 1-0 lead and dominated play through the first half except for fine defensive play by EME around its own goal. Courflos scored LA's lone point on a short boot close in.

Making the most of his bench strength EME Coach Rouold Bell kept the cover on the dangerous LA squad when play moved deep into EME territory and successfully stifled its bids for goals.

A twenty-yard kick by EME's Aly knotted the score with less than a minute left to play.

Hill ASCE Speaker

"Back in the very early days of North Carolina a girl was considered a spinster at the age of 20" according to Colonel R. L. Hill who spoke before the ASCE meeting Tuesday night.

Hill showed color slides of the new Sunny Point Munitions Terminal at Wilmington and briefly touched on the points of historical interest close to the location of the terminal.

And then there was the moron who ran off the streetcar backwards because he heard the lady passenger say she was going to grab his seat when he got off.

Truancy in SG: Student representatives who played hooky from 1954-55 legislative sessions with any degree of consistency will discover their attendance records to be political millstones should they seek election to other campus offices during the upcoming primaries.

Along Primrose strip: Local homicide addicts have adopted a new pastime. Actually it is nothing more lethal than merely having early morning time trials along Primrose Avenue. Object of the game is to see how soon a scratch-off from Memorial Tower can come to a screeching halt at the Dan Allen Drive dead end.

Today's ho-hum: Sports staff of the College of William and Mary Flat Hat, student newspaper, elected Wolfpack basketball Ron Shavlik to its Flat Hat All-American. Other choices were, LaSalle's Gola, San Francisco's Russel, Duquense's Dick Ricketts, and St. Francis' Stokes.

Convincing: Professor Lindsay Whichard swears it happened. Raleigh-bound bus from Chapel Hill had very few passengers aboard. Two Carolina coeds sitting directly behind the driver didn't believe him when he told them that his first stop would be a wide place in the road called "Pearl Harbor." A few moments later when the driver stopped the bus at said "Pearl Harbor," and old colored man came down the aisle from the rear of the bus to get off. As he descended to the ground the bus driver said, "Uncle, tell these young ladies the name of this place."

"It's called 'Pearl Harbor,' ma'am," the old man replied.

"See? What did I tell you?" the bus driver asked the girls.

To which the old colored man added this note of finality, "Now you got it in black and white, ladies!"

State Graduates 28 Truck Drivers

James E. Civils, chief of the Records and Driver Improvement Section of the State Highway Patrol, was the main speaker at a graduation luncheon for the 70th class of State College's Truck Driver Training School in the ballroom of the College Union Building last Friday.

Driver violations and attitudes were discussed by Civils in his talk.

Certificates of graduation were presented to the 28 students in the class by Claude Schlagenhauf, director of safety and personnel for Akers Motor Lines, Inc., of Gastonia. J. Tom Outlaw of Raleigh, executive vice president of the N. C. Motor Carriers Association, will preside. Two students from the graduating class also took part in the program.

ARE YOU METICULOUS about your choice of cigarettes?

Do you want exactly the right taste? Then take a hint from the Droodle above, titled: Ash tray belonging to very tidy Lucky smoker. Luckies taste neat—and for excellent reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better.

"It's Toasted" is the famous Lucky Strike process that tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better . . . cleaner, fresher, smoother. So enjoy yourself thoroughly whenever it's light-up time. Light up the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.

CAMPUS HEADLINES

A recent edition of the University of Maryland's Diamondback carried this bit of interesting intelligence on page one: "Coeds get free leaves at prom tonight." Let's hope they were big ones.

The Proscript up at Richmond Professional Institute (of the College of William and Mary) had a three-column head the other day which stated simply that: "Practice teaching keeps DE teacher busy." But not half as busy as it keeps de stooudent!

From over in Durham the Duke Chronicle recently announced that Dook: "Seniors choose Glass queen of coed ball." Well, she could be a China doll.

The University of North Carolina's Daily Tar Heel front-paged the news that over in Chapel Hill it had been decided to: "Leave Frats to IDC, Says candidate." THAT will be the day.

And another typical item from the Carolina Daily Tar Heel's editorial page makes known the fact that: "1970 is just 15 years away." Aw, somebody told.

Phi Epsilon Pi Sponsors

The Alpha Phi Chapter of Phi Epsilon Pi Social Fraternity is having its annual "Phi Ep" week-end Friday and Saturday. The week-end will begin with the One Act Plays at Pullen Hall and a cabin party at Beacon Lake after; there will be a formal get-together Saturday evening at the house, and a formal banquet, installation of officers, and initiation of new members at Scandia Village In The Pines afterwards. Following the banquet there will be a party back at the Phi Ep house with the music of the "Three Duces" to dance to. This is the sixth annual "Phi Ep" week-end since the N. C. State chapter received its charter in 1949. The sponsors for the week-end are pictured above. They are top row left to right: Miss Diane Greenberg with Don Rosenbaum, Miss Myrna Kaplan with Don Calderon; bottom row left to right: Miss Crae Naylor with Dave Cvaniga, and Selma Harnick with Herb Kaplan.

Army ROTC Releases Commission Figures

Colonel Richard R. Middlebrooks, PMST of the State College Army ROTC, has announced that the Department of the Army has released the number of General Military Science cadets to be commissioned in the Third Army area and the branches in which they are to be commissioned.

North Carolina State College Army ROTC cadets are receiving 109 of the 929 commissions to be given to Third Army area. A break-down of the numbers reveals that fifty per cent of the State Col-cluded a formal inspection of cadets at 11 a.m. today, followed by a formal review at which the "Soldiers Medal" was awarded to Sgt. First Class Clifford K. Potter and a platoon drill competition will be held tomorrow at noon.

lege Army ROTC cadets are being commissioned in the technical services of the Army.

State College has long been a source of technical personnel for the Army; therefore, it is not surprising that forty per cent of Third Army's Ordnance Corps Quota and thirty three per cent of the Corps of Engineers quota will be filled by State College Army ROTC cadets.

WE'D LIKE YOU TO MEET -

William S. Enloe, of the outstanding Seniors in the School of Agriculture, and on the campus, this year.

Bill has had a very active life on the campus here at State in the last four years. The majority of his work has been in the School of Agriculture where he has filled a number of top positions. He has been on the staff of the Agriculturist for several years, serving as Managing Editor last year and as Editor this year. He was Secretary and Vice-President of the Horticulture Club last year and Secretary-Treasurer of the Ag Fair. In recognition for his work he has been elected to Alpha Zeta, the honorary Ag Society, and Golden Chain, the Senior Honorary Fraternity. He is also active in Alpha Gamma Rho social Fraternity and is serving as their Vice-President this year.

Bill is a native of Edneyville where he was born in 1932. He attended the public school in Edneyville and entered State in the Fall of 1951. He was at that time, the recipient of a Sears Roebuck scholarship and entered his major of Horticulture. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie J. Enloe, still maintain their home in Edneyville. Bill has one older brother and a younger sister, who is a Freshman at Meredith.

Enloe's plans for the future are in the hands of the Army for the next few years. He is in the Army ROTC and will receive his commission this summer in the Artillery. Following his Army service he plans to return to Edneyville and help run his father's farm.

Bill has done an excellent job here on the campus and deserves every sort of best wishes for the future. If he does as well as he has in college he will be one of North Carolina's finest Farmers.

Edward S. King, the General Secretary of the State College Y.M.C.A.

Mr. King came to State in 1919, as the General Secretary of the YMCA, when it was a much smaller organization than it is today and he has watched and guided its growth for 36 years.

He is a native of Archdale, N. C., having been born there on June 1, 1887 and lived there until he was twelve. At that time his family moved to High Point in order to take advantage of the city schools. Mr. King went on to Guilford College and finished there in 1910. Following his graduation he immediately went to work for the YMCA. His first assignment was at Auburn, Alabama. This was followed in the next few years by jobs at Vanderbilt and the University of South Carolina climaxed by a position at the Blue Ridge Assembly grounds at Swannanoa, N. C. training Army YMCA workers during the first World War.

During his stay at U.S.C., on August 15, 1917, Mr. King married the former Miss Eunice Baldwin of Columbia. They have two grown children and three grandchildren. There home is in Raleigh at 121 Chamberlain St.

Mr. King pointed to several things the YMCA has accomplished in his stay here, of which he is particularly proud. He mentioned the West Campus branch of the YMCA, the increased staff and activity of the YMCA, the Freshman Pre-College Retreat and the marriage and religion courses added to the curriculum as a direct result of the YMCA's agitation.

This is Mr. King's last year here at State. He is closing a long and very distinguished career here on the campus. He says he plans to improve his golf game out at R.G.A. and also will continue doing part-time work with the First Presbyterian Church. Every student here at State wishes him the best of luck in his years of retirement. He has given long and distinguished years of service as the leader of Religious affairs on the Campus.

give 60 per cent to athletic scholarships and 40 per cent to Grants-in-Aid. Through a three per cent raise on the price of slide rules and a two per cent raise on soaps, notions, razors, and other non-essentials, profits were raised by $6,969. Through close work with the Watauga Book Stores, Cheek pushed reduction of the price of second-hand books. To make up the loss incurred through the drop in prices, operating expenses were investigated and shaved. With a necessary one per cent raise in new book list prices, a profit of $5,468 was realized. If you've read this far and haven't realized that this is all a lot of malarky and an April Fool's joke, then you'd better sign up for a course in logical analysis next semester. "The students who should run are the ones who are interested in making for a better school and campus. If anyone feels that there is need for improvement and that he is capable of doing it, why not run for a position in which improvement could be worked for," he challenged.
