NORTH CAROLINA STATE COLLEGE'S WEEKLY NEWSPAPER
Vol. XL, No. 12 State College Station, Raleigh, N. C. December 8, 1955

Covering Campus . . .

Senior Interviews

Students graduating in engineering and science at advanced degree levels from North Carolina State College in 1956 will be interviewed on the campus December 14 by representatives of Humble Oil & Refining Company.

Graduate students in chemical engineering, physical and organic chemistry and physics will be interviewed for permanent employment with the Company.

Junior Class

There will be a meeting of the Junior Class, Monday, December 12 at noon in Pullen Hall. The main discussion of the meeting will be the awarding of the contract for the class rings. Members who have not paid their dues may do so at this meeting.

Trailblazers

The Capitol City Trailblazers, campus motorcycle club, will hold a 40-mile timed Map Run Sunday afternoon, Dec. 11. This is not a speed event; the object is to maintain scheduled speeds between various check points. The speed schedule will be low enough to allow both scooters and cycles to participate. The run will begin and end on the campus and will be entirely on pavement.

The run will start from the field between Verville and Dan Allen Drive (Surveyors' Paradise) at 1 p.m. All two-wheel riders are urged to come out and join the fun and try for a trophy. You do not have to be a club member and, best of all, IT'S FREE!

General Gard

Major General Robert G. Gard, Deputy Commanding General of Third Army, will inspect the Army ROTC Detachment of North Carolina State College on December 8.

Freshmen YMCA

The second in a series of discussions on "Understanding the Bible" will be held Thursday night, December 8, in the college cafeteria. Participants should go through the line between 6:00 and 6:30. This discussion will be led by Mr. C. H. Brannon, a student of the Bible for the past 20 years. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Need A Ride

Are you driving home for Christmas? Or do you need a ride? The College Union has available a Travel Log at Main Desk where you may register your name if you are seeking either a ride or riders.

If you would be interested in sharing expenses or giving someone a ride maybe the Travel Log service at the Main Desk is your solution. Come by or call the College Union Main Desk.

Student Directory

Extra copies of the Student Directory have been placed at the Main Desk in the College Union. If you did not receive a copy, you may obtain a copy at the Main Desk.

S. G. Recommends Bank, Postoffice

Chancellor Given Finance Resolution

At the last meeting of the Student Legislature, which was held on Wednesday night of last week, a resolution which will effect the student activities fee paid by every student, if accepted by the Chancellor, was passed unanimously.

Other business included the swearing in of new senators, the Treasurer's Report, a plea for Student Government support of an investigation of the Coliseum, a report on the newly acquired public-address system, the Interdormitory Council Budget, and the possibility of a new student bank and post office.

Budgetary and Finance Committee

The resolution which called for the formation of a five-man, student Budgetary and Finance Committee has been submitted to the Chancellor, as are all resolutions passed by the Legislature, for his approval. Such a committee would control the allocation of the student activities fee to campus organizations. Every organization requesting funds would be required to submit an itemized budget to be passed on by the committee. (See "Hear At State" on page two concerning this matter.)

New Bank and Post Office

The Promotions Committee has been asked to look into the possibility of having a new student bank and a student post office located in the Zoology Building at the same time the Students Supply Stores builds their new store in this building. It was pointed out that a post office and a bank in such a central location would be a great convenience to the students.

Interdormitory Budget

The Interdormitory Budget was submitted for the approval of the Legislature, but failed to receive this approval. Since the body called for a full explanation of several of the items on the budget, the matter was tabled until such time as a representative from the IDC could appear and present the budget.

Coliseum Investigation

The Investigations Committee requested the support of the Legislature on a proposed investigation of the Coliseum. After citing several "questionable" items concerning the present administration of the Coliseum, the wholehearted approval of the Legislature was expressed. An investigation will begin in the very near future.

Public Address System

The portion of the funds which the Student Government allocated for the newly acquired public-address system was granted earlier this semester with the stipulation that the speakers would be cared for properly and that they would, possibly, be mounted on a truck. It was reported that the M & O refused to take the responsibility of the speakers, so the College Union is being contacted in connection with this. The speakers have not yet been mobilized.

New Senators

The recently elected freshmen senators from the various schools were sworn in by Vice-President Bob Gunn. Sid Briley presented the Student Government Treasurer's Report, which included an approximated account of the remaining funds in the Student Activities Fund and the Student Government Fund.

Nine One-Act Plays To Be Presented

Nine one-act plays will be given during the Student One-Act Play Night, which will be held in Pullen Hall on Friday, December 16 at 8:00. Planning to present plays are Pi Kappa Phi, Farm House, the College Union, Becton, Pi Kappa Alpha, Owen, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Epsilon Pi, and Stadium. Their offerings will include a mystery, several comedies, a hillbilly farce, a drama, and one original play written by a competing group.

Interest in play night is increased by rivalry for the prize (See PLAYS Page 7)

Beck To Speak To Woman's Club

The State College Womens Club invites all foreign students to be special guests at its meeting on International Friendship which will be held on Friday evening, December 9, at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of Williams Hall. Dr. Clifford K. Beck, head of State College Physics Department, will speak on the subject "Where is Our Atomic Program Taking Us". A social hour with refreshments will follow the program.

Xmas Square Dance Tonight At the Union

"Swing your partner and promenade home" will be the familiar chant tonight at 8:00 p.m. in the College Union Ballroom. The College Union Dance Committee is sponsoring the Christmas Square Dance for the entire campus.

"Big George" Maddrey will be on hand to call the figures for all the guys and gals attending. Girls from our neighboring schools have been invited to attend.

Ernie Mangum, committee-man in charge, and Jim Newman, College Union Dance committee chairman, urge all students to come and to expect a good time.

Collegians To Play For IDC Dance

The annual IDC Ball will be held on January the 7th at the College Union. The Collegians of East Carolina College will play and refreshments are planned to be served. Tickets and bids will be available at each dormitory within a few weeks and all students are urged to get a date for the dance before the Christmas holiday.

Owen Dorm To Have First Christmas Ball

The first annual Owen Christmas Ball will be held in the College Union Ballroom Friday, Dec. 16. It will be open only to the occupants of Owen and their guests with no admission being charged.

Girls have been invited from Rex Hospital, State Hospital, YWCA, and the girls' schools in Raleigh. Norman's Quintet will furnish the music for the dance, which will last from 8-12. Refreshments will be served. Dress will be informal.

Arnold Air Society Has 63 Pledges

The Arnold Air Society had a meeting last Thursday night, December 1, in the C. U. Ballroom. The Society had as guest speaker Major Oliver Smith, past commander of the National Legion of Valor.

The Legion of Valor is an honorary military organization which has a prerequisite for membership one of these awards: Distinguished Service Cross, the Navy Cross, or the Congressional Medal of Honor. Major Smith, who served in both World Wars, talked on the advantages and personal satisfaction that can be gained by men who choose to make the service a career.

The pledge activities of this semester's pledge class are in full swing. There are 63 pledges participating in the activities. Pledge week ends Friday, December 9.

C. U. Distributes Student Directory

The C. U. distributed the new student directory for the 1955-1956 year early this week. The publication has been in preparation since soon after school started and contains complete names, campus addresses, campus telephone numbers, curriculums and home addresses for almost five thousand students. A list of frequently used off-campus and emergency numbers, including the all-important numbers at Peace, St. Mary's, and Meredith, are included on the inside of the front and back covers of the Directory.

The physical layout used for this year's issue is entirely different from last year's edition. Instead of the bright red cover used last year, a black and white photograph of the aluminum staircase in the College Union Building has been substituted. The size has been reduced also to approximately six inches by nine inches.

HIP-HIP HURRAH

Holidays To Begin Saturday Dec. 17

President of the Student Government Jim Nolan announced definite and final plans for the rumored change of the Christmas holidays scheduled late Tuesday night.

Nolan stated that the holidays will begin at noon, Saturday, December 17 and that classes will resume Tuesday morning, January 3.

The idea was initiated several weeks ago by several members of the Student Government and was brought to Nolan's attention. He continued, "I took the matter up with the Chancellor's Liaison Committee. Dr. Walter J. Peterson, Chairman of the Faculty Senate, was present at the time and suggested that it be brought to the Faculty Senate for consideration on December 6. I did this, of course, and they approved the idea."

"I explained the points that had been discussed by the students, such as the limited time before the holidays for Christmas jobs, the necessity for returning to school on New Year's Day and the fact that the other Consolidated University schools are getting out December 17."

"Final approval was delayed Tuesday afternoon for the Chancellor's blessing after the Faculty Senate meeting," Nolan stated, "but a call was placed to Chancellor Bostian and he gave it the final 'O.K.'"

Nolan concluded, "we are still uncertain as to how and when the four days will be made up. It depends on the decision of the Administrative Committee, but we do have to meet class a certain number of days each term and we may be short now. Some statement will be made in the near future about this. We all owe the faculty a big thank you for their cooperation in the matter."

Laundry Comm. Reports To IDC

At its last meeting the Interdormitory Council was presented the report of its Laundry Investigating Committee. After discussion of the report by the IDC, it was recommended that a summary of the discussion and the committee report be turned over to Dean Stewart for further action.

According to Ted Jones, Chairman of the Investigating Committee, the laundry must operate at a profit to be forced to go out of business. The only answer to operating at a profit is to have a monopoly.

Main Objections
The main objections brought to the attention of the council were: (1) any form of a monopoly is not wanted; (2) there is the feeling of many students that better service can be found elsewhere; and (3) personal attention is not emphasized in our laundry, i.e. choice of whether starch is wanted or not, sport shirts not returned on hangers, buttons not replaced, etc.

The report of the committee implied that the students in general are willing to support the college laundry if the service will improve to comparably match that of available commercial establishments.

Aware of Shortcomings
A letter from Dr. L. B. Rogers, which Jones read to the council, stated that the personnel of the laundry were aware of its shortcomings, and that efforts are being made to improve its service. Also, the letter stated (See LAUNDRY, Page 10)

These Army ROTC Advanced Course cadets of North Carolina State College are admiring their new tailor-made winter uniforms. These uniforms were obtained under a new plan instituted for Army ROTC training here this year; whereby the College contracts for and furnishes the uniforms and is reimbursed by the U. S. Army. The student retains the uniforms upon successful completion of the Army ROTC course. Shown here are, L to R, Cadet Major Creighton L. Calhoun, Cadet Regimental S-3, Cadet Colonel Sidney E. EDITORIAL COMMENT:

Why Not?

Next week the Junior Class will hold a class meeting. Out of six or seven hundred Juniors there will be less than one hundred present at the meeting to vote on one of their most important tasks—choosing a company from which to buy class rings. And in the end, it is choosing a company, since all the rings are identical. Difference in workmanship is extremely hard to find and prices are just rated differently. If the base price is slightly cheaper, anything else costs extra—even a guarantee that the 10 carat gold in the ring will actually be 10 carat gold.

To the company that receives the contract, it will mean $25,000 worth of business, and to the salesman, it will mean a nice commission (20-30% or more). Yet, with this size of purchase the Junior Class as a whole or individually will not receive any monetary benefit—not even a 2% discount for prompt payment.

In another unit of the Greater Consolidated University, an honorary leadership society handles the sale of class rings and receives a buck for each one sold in return for doing the same bookkeeping, etc., that the Junior Class here at State does every year.

Why shouldn't our Junior Class this year and Junior Classes for the years to come receive a similar commission? The Junior Class does the work—why shouldn't they receive something for it?

The Juniors should press the ring companies and the administration for positive action to gain a commission. Competition should be strong enough between the jewelry companies to be able to work a deal with them but the Junior Class must have the backing of officials in the administration.

The Junior Class treasury can use the money, and they are entitled to it.

Holidays Should Be Earlier

To all who do not know, Christmas holidays begin at State on December 21 at 6 p.m.—three working days before Christmas. Carolina, Meredith, WC, and St. Mary's begin their holidays on December 16 or 17—six or seven working days before Christmas.

In 1951, BG-BS (Before Gray and the Semester System) State students made an exodus from the campus on December 14—ten working days before Christmas.

For a student to even be able to obtain a part time job (not to mention the monetary lost) before Christmas, he must be available more than three days before Christmas. Part time jobs with the Post Office begin December 15, as an example.

It is too late for anything to be done this year, but next year this should be taken into account when the calendar is being made up.

Letters to the Editor must be signed. If it is requested that the name be withheld for a good reason, the letter will be printed and the name withheld. Letters WILL NOT be printed unless they are signed.

To the Editor:

What is the underlying cause of the low spirit and morale at State College? This is a question that should be uppermost in the minds of all State students, for there is nothing that is a bigger asset to an institution than the pride and admiration of those that belong to it. Without this feeling a college is a dead hollow of darkness and dampness through which its students tread dreading every step of the way.

The causes of such a situation are complacency, lack of initiative, and taking the easy way out. Many good and worthwhile projects and ideas which seemingly had whole hearted backing have fallen by the wayside and have been buried in the ruts because when it gets down to carrying these "big ideals" it seems there is some work to be done and it is a lot easier to turn back on to the beaten path than to cut a new one, on which the pitfalls can be many. But success and reward come only to those who put forth the effort to build these new byways and aren't afraid to face and overcome these pitfalls which will be encountered on the road to success. It seems that the old rutted road at State has been worn out, and it is way past time to construct a new one which leads to warmer, more friendly and prouder relationships for all. Anyone can follow the beaten byway, but it takes character,

The views and opinions of this column do not necessarily represent those of THE TECHNICIAN.

Why don't n. c. State college require more english courses for them people that come to learn hear and jus since that we have a couple of two grammer schol courses in hour freshmen clas is that al we need to learn two right rite; wel maybee it is all what we need to write right themes but theirs mor to english than that.

Back to the Trite, Proper Style State, admittedly, is a technical school, and its students have come here principally to get an education in a technical field. But each of us will, undoubtedly, have many occasions to read, write about, and/or speak on subjects which are not limited to a specific field. Courses in public speaking, creative writing, and especially literature should be included into the curriculum of each technical student for the personal benefit derived.

I do not advocate a major change in the educational practices of the college, but I do suggest that at least one or two literature courses be required of all students. I would be willstamina and "bigness" to throw off the dead past.

Wisdom and not folly should be used as a guide, for haste makes waste but idleness breeds stagnation and apathy.

Fred I. Joseph

ing to bet that the majority of those responsible for setting the graduation requirements of N.C. State students have had more English than they are now requiring (or letting) us to take.

Finances of State

Why is there so much talk about where the students' money goes? We would have to pay the same fees even if we didn't know how they were being spent, wouldn't we? Well, I'll speak for a good number of students and say that we talk about it because it is we who are paying the money. As to the second question, maybe we wouldn't have to pay as much if there were some elimination of waste.

My pet "peeve" for some time has been the lack of public financial statements by a number of organizations and clubs. Big businesses publish statements of their budgets which are inspected by those authorized and interested in doing so. Certainly State College is a big business and each student is entitled to know where his money is going. Financial reports should be made a rule around State rather than an exception.

The Student Legislature took a major step at its last meeting in this direction. A resolution was passed (and has been submitted to the Chancellor) to set up a Budgetary and Finance Committee. This five-man committee would control the student activities fee—$64,000 this year.

VETS CORNER

By Fred I. Joseph

At last week's meeting, the members of the Vet's Club decided that their annual Christmas party will be held at Gresham's Lake, Saturday, December 17, at 2:00 p.m. All those who will drive out are urged to drop by the Coliseum on the way and pick up a few of the folks who don't have a ride.

The possibility of having a Christmas Party for a needy group of children was brought up and will be discussed further at the next meeting.

All Vets who have not signed the petitions concerning the new pay-raise bill that will be brought up in the next session of Congress are urged to do so in the near future.

They would review the itemized budgets of each organization that requests student activities funds, and allocate these funds in what they believe to be the best interests of the students. There is much to be desired in the financial policies at State, but I believe that the formation of this committee is a definite step in the right direction.

And then there are the "secret" financial records of the Athletic Department, M & O, the Cafeteria, the dormitories, etc. The students are entitled to a report on how their money is being spent. Those in charge of campus organizations should see to it that these reports are forthcoming.

Christmas Vacation

Numerous students have expressed their opinions on the length of our Christmas vacation. Getting out three days before Christmas (too late to get a job) and having to come back on New Year's Day... well we simply ask, why? THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Plans, Progress, and Policies Outlined By Gordon Gray

By Billy Evans

Plans, progress, and policies of the Greater University of North Carolina were covered by Gordon Gray in the last of his reports as the University's President to its Board of Trustees and to Governor Luther H. Hodges.

Of high importance to students are his comments on permanent improvements, joint undergraduate degree programs, graduate fellowships, athletics, the testing of Freshmen, and the superior Freshmen Program at Chapel Hill.

Post-War Building

Gray reports that the post-war building programs at each of the three institutions are almost complete. At the time of the report, work at State College was still being done on the Pulp and Paper Laboratory, the Agricultural Engineering Building, and the renovation of the old Library, a wing of Polk Hall, and Winston Hall.

Listed by Gray as vitally needed at State are a gymnasium and a classroom building.

The General Assembly has authorized State to issue up to $2,000,000 in bonds for dormitory construction, Gray states. These bonds are to be redeemed from room rents, the result being an increase in room rents throughout. State has a total of $145,000 remaining in self-liquidating buildings. They are Bec-wise, possibly, to excuse school one more day to avert the possibility of someone having a fatal automobile accident while driving back to school on New Year's Day—after a very few hours sleep that morning—and on an undoubtedly congested highway?

ton, Berry, Clark Dormitories, $47,000; Alexander and Turlington Dormitories, $68,000; and Riddick Stadium, $30,000.

Integrated Degree Plan

Proposals for integrated A.B. and B.S. degrees among the three institutions are being studied by the University Council on Undergraduate Education. The plan calls for three years of study in liberal arts at Chapel Hill or the Woman's College followed by two years in a specialized field at Raleigh. Concerning this, Gray said, "I believe that, in principle, this is a desirable and logical step in our situation. Certainly the student will benefit from such a program, and it offers one way of combining in full measure liberal arts and specialized education."

Gray also proposed that the question of five year programs in all of the professional schools should be opened because the demands on curricular time for specialized work are increasing.

Graduate Students

Stating that North Carolina may gain the advantages of science and technology through the training of graduate students only at the highest levels, Gray called for the increasing of the number of graduate fellowships and raising the value of those which the University now has. Such students would fill the faculties in the advent of a rapid expansion of higher educational facilities and they can serve as part time laboratory and classroom instructors, which are badly needed.

Regarding the influence of intercollegiate athletics in the University, Gray asserts, "The demands of athletics, often become pervasive throughout the institution and have adverse effect on other and more central parts of our program. . . . The pressures supporting athletic activities in seeking to determine athletic operations create a threat to the morale and effectiveness of administrative and faculty action."

Athletics Subsidized . . . At Libraries Expense

Over his stated opposition, the General Assembly, in effect, subsidized athletics by not requiring out of state scholarship students to pay the general increased rates, although it was cutting appropriations for libraries and revenues and raising student fees.

The appendix of Gray's report contains a detailed report on a special instructional program for a group of freshmen of superior preparation. Classes were begun at a higher level than regular freshmen courses, and, generally, a higher standard of performance was expected. All participating came through well. The program is being repeated during the 1955-56 school year with changes recommended by the instructors and the students who participated.

Two important respects in which this experiment has significance are cited by Gray:

- 1. It is a major step toward a broader program of providing adequate work for the better prepared students.
2. The program promises to raise the general level of the University's instruction.

Purposes of Freshmen Tests

Gray defines the purpose behind the giving of placement tests to freshmen as a better indication as to the likelihood of (See REPORT, Page 9)

Wolfpack, Ranks Third In Nation, Meets Eastern Ky. Sat. Here; Clemson, S. Carolina Next Week There

North Carolina State's third-ranked Wolfpack goes after its fourth win of the season and 15th consecutive victory over a two-year span Saturday night against Eastern-Kentucky, champion of the Ohio Valley Conference.

with 41 are close behind. Molodet made 16 straight free throws against the Deacons to run his streak to 28 without a miss. He made four for four against Florida State, and eight against Eastern-Kentucky for eight against Penn State. The Pack hit 29 consecutive charity tosses before missing in the Wake Forest game and had 36 of 40 for the game.

said, "but our lack of rebounding size will be a handicap." Coach Everett Case will start Capt. Phil DiNardo and Hafer at forwards, Shavlik at center, Molodet and John Maglio at guards. State officials announced that tickets for the game will be on sale at the Coliseum Box Office.

Frat Intramurals

Football

The first rounds of the football championship play-off got under way last week on Doak field where the major upset of the season was produced.

AGR-20, SAE-0

With Bill Jasper scoring on touchdown passes of 15 and 40 yards the AGR's dumped the defending champions SAE into the losers bracket with a 20-0 licking. Strickland added the other TD and Hipps the extra point. Thus the AGR's have established themselves as a dark horse in the championship race. The SAE's have won the title for the past six years. AGR is undefeated in competition to date with only a forfeit to mark their record.

Sigma Chi-6, PKA-0

Sigma Chi's strong team advanced into the semi-finals by edging the PKA's last week 6-0. Gene Cocke tallied the lone TD for the victors while Johnson, Cockran, and Weisser all stood out for the Chi's. Vaughn, Martin, Elliot, and Broom were the big guns for the PKA's in the hard and close battle.

The AGR's and Sigma Chi were scheduled to square off last night under the lights of Riddick Stadium in the winner's bracket. SAE met PKA earlier in the loser's division with the loser being dropped from the play-offs.

Volleyball

The SAE's fought their way into the finals of the volleyball play-offs Tuesday night as they sneaked past Sigma Chi 14-16, 15-4 and 15-5. Brailly was the big factor in the SAE's win while Cocke stood out for the Chi's.

PKA eliminated Sigma Nu as they downed the latter 15-7 and 15-8 behind the performance of Broom, Perry and Woolard, Mowery, Hall, and Heinbockel were the main threats for Sigma Nu.

PKA and Sigma Chi meet tonight with the victor earning the right to meet the SAE's for the championship.

Bowling

The following are the bowling standings through November 30th. League play is scheduled to end this week. Championship matches between the two top teams in each division will begin next Tuesday night.

Martin Bucks and Passes for Alexander

On a one yard buck Martin scored the first TD in Alexander's game against Syme No. 2. In the last few seconds of the first half he threatened a second TD in a 25 yard run. Williams and Deforth were the receivers of Martin's passes and they made the final score 18 to 0. Browning and Robinson were in the backfield for Syme.

Brown and Fox Take to the Air

Fox of Tucker No. 1 took to the air for two 20 yard and one 40 yard passes. Tweed and Casteen were the receivers and they scored three TDs for their team. Brown threw a 40-yard pass to Absher and scored for Turling- (See DORM CORNER, Page 5)

GRAND PRIZE - 1956 TV

State-88, Florida State-63

N. C. State opened its basketball season with an easy 88-63 victory over Florida State before 9,000 fans in the coliseum.

It was the 13th consecutive win for the ACC defending champions, counting 12 straight triumphs at the end of last year.

State's 6-11 center Bob Seitz and forward Nick Pond were high scorers for the Wolfpack with 16 points each. Shavlik was held to 10 points.

State-78, Penn State-42

State walloped outclassed Penn State 78-42 last Saturday night in the coliseum.

Center Ronnie Shavlik paced the one-sided triumph with 20 points.

The visitors were held to 16 points the first half and were only nine points off from setting a new coliseum record for low score.

Molodet tallied 16 points to help State in its winning efforts.

The Wolfpack hit on 42 per cent from the floor while Penn State had 21 per cent.

State-91, W. F.-80

State's Wolfpack racked up its 3rd straight win of the season and first ACC victory by downing Wake Forest 91-80 Tuesday night in Winston-Salem's new coliseum.

The Deacons made it hot and close for the first three quarters before the Pack finally pulled away for the victory.

ton No. 2. The final score was 18 to 6.

Houston Scores for Becton No. 2

Houston scored the only TD in the game when he scored in the fourth quarter. Allen, Watkins, and Phillips were outstanding players for Becton No. 2. Wamack in the backfield, and Sutton in the line were the outstanding players for Turlington No. 1 but they were unable to score. Becton won 6 to 0.

Sneed and Vastano Score for Tucker No. 2

Sneed scored in the second quarter, then Vastano ran for the extra point. Taylor also played a good game for the Tucker squad. The Owen No. 2 squad was supported by the line work of Fuller and by Hassell in the backfield. Unfortunately for Owen they were not enough of a match for Vastano, Sneed, and Taylor who won 7 to 0.

Warren and Freeze and Peterson Too!

Warren scored in the first quarter and also ran the extra point. Then Freeze got a safety for two points. Finally in the last quarter Peterson—a Becton end—made the final TD. Faust, Kee and Potter were in the backfield for the Syme-Stadium team but they were unable to score. The final score was 15 to 0.

Becton No. 1 Still Undeclared

In a hard fought battle which was accented by heavy line action, Murray, Stencil, and Poole were outstanding in blocking for Becton. Scoring was by Eudy, Barger, and Whitley with the extra point by Warren. Arm—strong, the Becton athletic director believed that this was the best game of the season. This game still left Becton unscored on. The Tucker team was highlighted by the outstanding playing of Casteen. The final score was 20 to 0.

Student Loan Fund To Benefit From Cookbook

Women at State College have been doing just that since the college opened its doors in 1889. Most have cooked only in their own homes; some have had, in addition to natural talents, home economic degrees from maybe the same schools that their husbands have had their degrees; some today are Home Economists at State College! some just (just?) fed the inner man and earned their Ph.T. (Putting Hubby Through) when he won his Ph.D.

Here at State College it was 1919 when the Faculty and Staff wives and Women Employees organized The State College Woman's Club. Joined "to unite State College Women in common interests and to promote the welfare and advancement of the College", they have in the past 36 years done many different things to help the ever increasing number of students. This is a story of what they are doing now.

COOKING SOMETHING?

Yes, you guessed it! They are now cooking from their own recipes in their own cookbook, Foods That Rate at N. C. State. Corny title? It sure is, but nothing better describes how Faculty and Staff feel about their wives' recipes and cooking.

The Cookbook was published for two main reasons: to get a lot of very good recipes into one, compact, attractive, easy-to-read book; and then to sell 1,000 of these books (after the printing costs were paid) at $1.00 each and raise $1,000 for The Student Government Loan Fund.

The Loan Fund was started in 1932 when C. R. Lefort, now Raleigh manager of The Atlantic Life Insurance Company, was president of the Student Council. At that time the college had a loan fund, limited almost entirely to members of the senior class; and in order to secure a loan, a student was required to give a negotiable note with at least two co-signers.

At the suggestion of Mr. Lefort, the men of the faculty and their wives gave a minstrel in Pullen Hall, the proceeds from which were placed in the Business Office of the college to be loaned to underclassmen in emergencies. To this small beginning, the Student Government has added amounts from time to time. The State College Woman's Club has, also, contributed to it and the College Union has, in recent years, made several contributions to the fund. The Dean of Students was made chairman of a committee to administer the fund.

During the 1954-55 school year the total fund was $1600. Loans were made to 422 students in amounts totaling for the year (See COOKBOOK, Page 10)

John Kennedy asks:

How much travel is there in technical sales work?

JOHN T. KENNEDY is working toward his B.S. degree in chemical engineering from Notre Dame University in June 1957. He's a member of the student branch of A.I.Ch.E. and is active in the Young Christian Students and in the Chicago Club. Because John feels one should make employment plans early, he's starting his investigations during his junior year.

A. Hicks Lawrence answers:

A. HICKS LAWRENCE, JR., earned his B.E. degree from Yale in June 1940 and joined Du Pont in the following month as an analytical chemist. He progressed steadily at various plants, from line foreman to shift supervisor to senior supervisor. In 1949 he applied his technical training to sales work. Today Mr. Lawrence is a sales manager in the "Kinetic" Division of Du Pont's Organic Chemicals Department.

Well, John, as the Old Man of the Sea told Sinbad the Sailor, "The quantity of travel varies with the specific situation encountered." Of course, you'll never be shipwrecked or encounter the other travel problems that Sinbad did, but a man shouldn't seriously consider a career in sales work unless he really enjoys travel. Most of our sales personnel do just that, because the work itself provides so many rewards and satisfactions. It's not unusual for a representative to be away from home base 30 to 60 per cent of the time.

You see, John, for a good salesman, every trip means meeting new people, new situations, and new challenges. Every one of these offers a chance to display individual initiative. Perhaps the customer will need technical advice on applying our product to a specific item he's developing. The Du Pont salesman may choose to use his own experience and "trouble-shoot" on the spot. On the other hand, he may refer the problem to "home base," where he knows he'll be backed up by a strong technical organization. This knowledge naturally stimulates a salesman and heightens his interest in his work. He knows that he never travels alone.

HI! JOIN ME FOR A LUCKY DROODLE?

WHAT'S THIS?

For solution, see paragraph below.

HERE'S A DROODLE THAT PACKS A PUNCH. It's titled: Lucky smoke rings blown by prizefighter with tooth missing. It packs a moral, too: Why knock yourself out looking for a better-tasting cigarette when all you have to do is light up a Lucky? Luckies taste better, first, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is TOASTED to taste better. So light up a Lucky. It's the winner—and still champion—for better taste!

Glee Club To Give Christmas Concert

The State College Glee Club and Orchestra, which were well received in their recent joint concert in Pullen Hall, are planning a similar venture, featuring a variety of Christmas music.

As a result of their performance two weeks ago, the Glee Club has received an invitation to sing at a banquet next March, and has received invitations from three television stations to present their program on television, as soon as mutually convenient schedules can be worked out.

In view of this sudden renewal of interest in the State College Glee Club, it is likely that there will be a demand for other out-of-town engagements during the course of the school year. Additional singers interested in joining the Glee Club at this time should see Loddie Bryan, President, or report for the next rehearsal.

Highly-Tighties Of Virginia Tech Are Selling Albums

The Highly-Tighties of Virginia Tech announce that their album is now available for order by mail. It may be obtained by writing to: Virginia Tech Regimental Band; 102 Squires Hall; Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Virginia.

By agreement with RCA Victor, the album is not to be sold anywhere except on the Virginia Tech campus. The album, available on 33 1/2 and 45 rpm discs, costs $4.50 by mail.

In the album are: "Tech Triumph", "V.P.I. Alma Mater", Duble's "Bravura", Sousa's "Sabre and Spurs", Fillmore's "Americans We", Osterling's "The Nutmeggers", Anderson's "Bugler's Holiday", Hall's "New Colonial March", and "Independencia."

The record cover contains a pictorial history of the band which gives such facts as where the name, Highly-Tighties, originated, how the band acquired the famous white citation cord that they wear on their uniforms, etc.

Outstanding Military Students Go Regular

Sixteen of the 114 Army ROTC cadets of State College who will complete ROTC training in May 1956 are now anxiously waiting for a letter from the Department of the Army. These are the 16 Distinguished Military Students who have applied for commissions in the Regular Army from the total of 18 Distinguished Military Students.

Those whose applications are approved will receive notification early in December. The commission in the Regular Army will be effective at the time the student graduates from college and receives his degree. They will then begin their lifetime career in the Army.

Selection

Only those Army ROTC students who have demonstrated outstanding leadership and scholastic ability and have shown military proficiency achieve the coveted designation of Distinguished Military Student. Only Distinguished Military students are allowed to apply for a Regular Army commission while still a student. The selection by the Department of the Army for those to receive these commissions is from Distinguished Military Students of all the Army ROTC units in colleges and universities in the United States, Hawaii, Alaska, and Puerto Rico.

In addition to these sixteen applicants, three other Distinguished Military Students of four who finished Army ROTC last year, but who have not graduated, have applied for Regular Army commissions.

'Ezra Pound Lunatic' To Be Presented By Charleen Whisnant

The College Union Library Committee is sponsoring an informal book talk to be given Tuesday, December 13, at 7:30 in rooms 256 and 258 of the Union, by Charleen Whisnant.

The talk is entitled "Ezra Pound, Lunatic". Ezra Pound has recently been called the greatest poet now writing in the English language. His illustrious contemporaries, T. S. Eliot, W. B. Yeats, James Joyce, and Ernest Hemingway, long ago acknowledged his great influence upon their own thinking and writing. At the present, Pound is impounded in a ward for the criminally insane. He has been there for nine years, waiting to be tried for treason. Is he insane? Is he a traitor? Is he their success in college. Some 700 high school seniors were given tests by State College in the spring. All three institutions gave a thorough test program in the fall. The giving of the tests early helps the students to take remedial steps early to correct deficiencies.

Commenting on the Cresap, McCormick and Paget management survey of the Greater University, Gray said that of the 360 significant recommendations those affecting the consolidated office of the University have been adopted, submitted to the Board, and have been, or are being, put into operation. At State all relevant recommendations have been under study by appropriate faculty groups. Discussion and final action on the recommendations are expected to be completed during the current year.

Changes in Accounting System Needed

In preparation for establishing the position of Business Officer and Treasurer of the University, as approved by the General Assembly of 1955, Howard Norcom Smith has served as consultant, reports Gray. Having studied the general accounting and reporting system, he has made recommendations for the establishing of a central accounting office, along with recommendations for changes in accounting and reporting procedures on each of the three campuses.

Caroling Party Planned by BSU

There will be a General BSU Meeting, 6:00 Wed. Dec. 14, in the basement of Pullen Memorial Baptist Church. Program emphasis will be on Student Night at Christmas. This is a program whereby college students home for the holidays take over one of the church services in their home churches and tell the people at home about BSU. A memo sheet containing information and aids which might be useful to those participating will be given out. A Caroling Party will follow this short meeting. Refreshments will be served at the State College BSU Center afterwards.

even a poet? You are invited by the College Union Library Committee to come and hear what Charleen Whisnant has to say about this remarkable man.

In order for the accounting procedures to keep pace with the expanding budget and ways in which it is used, Gray advocates the installation of new machine methods. The machines could also be used for other University activities. He considers this perhaps the most important current need in administrative arrangements.

During the year ending June 30, 1955, the University received $106,721.33 for the Escheats Fund. Gray places the total current value of the fund at $2,000,000 with a current annual income of $70,000. This income is used for scholarships to defray the costs of tuition, and they are awarded by the Scholarship Committee on each campus. The number of scholarships is apportioned on the basis of the number of students.

"WUNC-TV is increasing service to the State," states Gray. The educational content of the programs has increased both in quantity and quality. Courses for college credit have been begun.

A manual relevant to the faculty and University employees, including such matters as terms of employment, promotions, retirement system, faculty government and the like, is expected to be completed during the present year. The work is proceeding carefully, points out Gray, so that on completion it will be both complete and definitive.

Why the editor of a great newspaper reads The Reader's Digest

"The Reader's Digest publishes controversial and important articles, regardless of the pressures that may prevail. This is a valid reason for the respect with which The Reader's Digest is read by millions like myself, not only in the United States but throughout the free world."

Ogden Reid, President and Editor, New York Herald Tribune, Inc.

In December Reader's Digest don't miss:

CONDENSATION FROM THE $4.50 BOOK: "THE MIRACLE OF LOURDES." The cures at this Catholic shrine—cures of the hopelessly sick and crippled—have stirred controversy for years. Now a Protestant (who lived in this French town, questioned doctors, nurses and patients) verifies facts about Lourdes and its miracles.

NOTICE

IMPORTANT NOTICE — The last date for withdrawing from State College without a grade of F in all courses is December 31 (see College Catalog, page viii). Any student who withdraws from State College after this date will automatically receive F for all course work scheduled. The college offices will be closed during the week of December 26; therefore, students should plan to withdraw officially before leaving the campus for Christmas holidays.

The main trouble with the straight and narrow is that there is no place to park.

Frat. Announces Plan To Encourage Pledge Scholarship

Rho Chapter of Sigma Pi Fraternity announces plans to award a Pledge Scholarship cup to the fraternity whose pledge class has the highest scholastic average at the end of the first semester of each school year. The rules that shall apply to the awarding of this cup are as follows:

1. No fraternity is eligible which requires any minimum scholastic average of its potential pledges.
2. Only pledges which are freshmen, being enrolled at N. C. State College for the first time at the beginning of the school year, will be eligible.
3. No pledges who are transfer students are eligible.
4. There must be a minimum of ten eligible pledges in the pledge class.
5. The grades of all eligible members of the pledge class must be tabulated for the pledge class average.
6. The cup will pass from winner to winner each year. If one fraternity should win it for three consecutive years, the cup will become a permanent possession that the monopoly was instigated only as a last resort to keep the laundry operating. Rogers also included in his letter a statement from J. R. Gowers, manager of the laundry, which reads; "I feel that with full cooperation and patience from both the laundry and the students, that we can soon have a laundry at State as good as the best in this area."

Further Actions

After a discussion of the committee report and Rogers' letter, it was suggested by Watts that the letter and a summary of the discussion be turned over to Dean Stewart for further action.

Other business taken up at the meeting was Dads' Day suggestions and an appeal by N. B. Watts of the Dormitory and Housing Office for all dorms that had floats in the Homecoming parade to turn their bills in to his office in order that reimbursement checks might be drawn up.

of the said fraternity.

7. The award will be made sometime after the first semester grades are posted.
