Not the 3rd

The letter recently published in the letters to the editor column praising the student government was not written by George M. Meyer, III as it is his custom not to discuss campus politics, especially in print. George was very anxious that this clarification be made.

When

It's about time for Dean Cloyd and Dr. Combs to announce that classes will not be excused for anyone because of severe sunburn. We imagine, though, that the announcement will soon be made. (If the weather ever gets any warmer.)

Two State Students Receive NSA Posts

Two members of the rising Senior Class were elected to positions during the regional convention of the National Student Association which was held at State.

Jim Peden won the election for chairman of the region, while Bob Tanen was named chairman. Bob McNair of the University of South Carolina won the post of vice-chairman.

Approximately 100 delegates from colleges and universities throughout North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia attended the session which began with registration April 18 in the Union Thursday afternoon. Dr. Edward Kidder-Graham, chan-

THERE'S A DIFFERENCE—Roy A. Park, '31, of Ithaca, New York, president of Hines-Park Food Company, and former editor of THE TECHNICIAN, and L. C. Draughon, present editor of THE TECHNICIAN, compare notes.

The present student publication is about half the size of that in 1931 as evidenced by the comparison above. Park visited THE TECHNICIAN office recently when he stopped by the College en route to Florida.

Elliot Named As Outstanding Sr.

Frank Elliot, senior in Ceramic Engineering, was presented with a watch Saturday night at the St. Pat's dance for being the most outstanding engineering senior.

Dean Harold Lampe made the award.

cellor of the Woman's College in Greensboro, spoke on "The Philosophy of Student Government" that night.

Discussions on student governmental matters at institutions of higher learning highlighted the next day's meeting. The CU ballroom was the scene of a banquet on that night. The convention ended Saturday at 1 p.m.

Mary Lou Vaughan, of Greensboro College, presided over the sessions. Arrangements for the meeting were handled by Bob Gunn, a student at State and vice president of the NSA.

'Dollar-A-Year' Club To List Members

A list of the "dollar-a-year" members of the Class of 1931 of North Carolina State College will be released soon.

This was reported today by Roy Park of Ithaca, N. Y., head of the special gifts committee of the class and president of the Hines-Park Foods, Inc.

Park, a well-known alumnus of State College, is a partner of Duncan Hines and a former editor of The Technician.

Golden Chain To Hold Tapping Ceremony May 8

Golden Chain will hold its annual tapping ceremony Tuesday, May 8, at 12:00 noon, on the lawn behind the College Union. At this time the Chain will tap into membership twelve outstanding men from the rising senior class. Demonstrated leadership, character, and interest in the student welfare are only a part of the many things considered in the selection of the new members.

Nominations for membership have come from the student body through Dean Talley's office and from the members of Golden Chain. Final selection will be by Golden Chain.

Army and Air Force ROTC units will be in attendance at the tapping ceremony.

Golden Chain would like to take this opportunity to wel-

CU Summer Fee $4.00 A Student

By Derle Hagwood

The College Union summer school fee was set at four dollars per session by the Student Government last Thursday.

Bob Strother, who submitted the budget request, explained that $1200.00 was needed for the College Union summer entertainment program. The entertainment includes three watermelon parties, two trips to Buggs Island, art shows, concerts and dances. There is to be one dance and one concert per week. The balance of the estimated $8,000.00 that will be paid the College Union will be used to keep the Union in the black.

Most of the Senators, however, were reluctant to grant the four dollar levy on the grounds that it was over charging the summer school students. It was also pointed out that last year a $5.00 fee was charged with the stipulation that one dollar be put into a fund to buy air conditioning equipment, and that no one could account for that money now. After considerable debating and explaining, however, the legislature finally voted that the C. U. would get the four dollar fee requested. The legislature also agreed that since the budget request was so poorly presented and the explanations as to how the money was to be spent were so vague, that in the future the C. U. accountant should be present at any meeting that a fee increase is requested.

After the C. U. budget was finally settled Jim Nolan gave a report of his liaison meeting with the Chancellor. Nolan also stated that he would recommend to the Greater University that State College be allowed to handle their own traffic problems.

ASCE

The American Society of Civil Engineers will hold its annual picnic tomorrow afternoon. Tickets are $1.00 and are on sale at the ASCE office or from any ASCE officer.

Annual AFROTC Review To Be Held

Lt. Colonel Stanton C. Agnew, Acting Professor of Air Science at State, has announced that the 1956 Annual Inspection of the State College Unit of the AFROTC Training Program has been scheduled for tomorrow and Saturday, May 4 and 5.

The inspection team, headed by Colonel Audley C. McDonald, arrived at State today and will remain "on Campus" throughout their inspection tour in order to observe and discuss the Air Science program with members of the Cadet Corps during informal hours as well as during the period of formal inspection.

The Inspection will be highlighted by a parade and inspection of the Cadet Corps. Prior to the parade Friday, Colonel McDonald and his assistants will inspect the one thousand man Cadet Corps which will be formed in wing formation on Doak Field.

The Cadet Corps will be presented for inspection by the Cadet Commander, Cadet Colonel (See AFROTC, page 6) come all students and faculty to attend the ceremony and issue a particular invitation to all rising seniors to be in attendance.

In event of rain, the tapping will be held Thursday, May 10, at the same place.

Mitchel with Ed Mitchel, Invitations; Miss Janet Maynard with Roger Morrow, Dance Committee; Miss Mary Alice Melvin with John Oland, Refreshments; and Miss Eileen Brown with Hugh Lindley, President.

Where Were They?

Saturday night the Engineering School held their annual St. Pat's dance.

Outstanding engineering seniors (upper scholastic ten per cent of each department) are tapped into the order of St. Patrick at the St. Pat's dance.

Also, outstanding freshmen (top two scholastically in each department) are tapped into the Order of St. Pat as companions.

The companions were supposed to be the cream of the crop in the engineering school—both in their studies and extra-curricular activities—but most of these outstanding freshmen did not attend the St. Pat's dance although they had been previously notified that they were to be tapped.

Can it be that the top freshmen—not only in the Engineering School—are all study and no play.

Those - - - - Cinders!

From lack of better to do, M & O continues to put truck loads of cinders on the paths on campus. Walking on, or rather in these cinders is as bad as walking in sand. There is nothing like getting to class and having to empty a couple ounces of cinders out of your shoes. Of course the janitors complain but . . .

When it's rainy the cinders are almost as bad as mud—when it's dry cinder dust is black instead of red—a real gain over clay.

Let's do away with this silly farce, and use the labor to something more advantageous—like tearing down the old barracks.

What's In A Name

For almost three entire years, we have been under the completely erroneous impression that the official name of this august university was "The Greater Consolidated University of North Carolina." A rather lengthy conglomeration of words it must be admitted. We were under the impression that we were enrolled at "North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering of the Greater Consolidated University of North Carolina."

"It ain't so, though!" This is "North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering of the University of North Carolina." The University of North Carolina is over at Chapel Hill—at least a heck of a lot of people think so. Analogous to our situation is "Woman's College of the University of North Carolina." No consolidation there either.

Hail to Chapel College—since we seem to be a unit of that institution 29 miles west of Raleigh (as the crow flies).

Elected president of the Phi Psi for next year is John Pharr from Concord, N. C. Phi Psi is the largest textile fraternity in existence and the chapter at State is the largest active one.

Duke's Blue Devils fell before State in a baseball game here last week. This placed State in first place among the Big Four.

In its initial game of the year, the State golf team lost to Carolina by a score of 24 1-2 to 2 1-2.

 State's campus publications walked off with several high honors when the North Carolina Collegiate Press Association met in Raleigh last week. Lindsay Spry, circulation manager of the Technician, was elected vice-president of the association. The paper itself won a first prize for Class A newspapers. The Technician took a second place in editorial competition, and a second in news writing. The Agriculturist won firsts for a technical feature story and for magazines editorials. IDGAD

By Bob Kirkland

"What in the . . . It's hot enough to bake a cake in here!"

"Maybe they are trying to find out if we'll become anhydrous like some of that oxide stuff. I feel like a guinea pig in this class anyway."

"Don't kid yourself. All this heat came from the hot air!"

"Not that I really care, but how do they expect us to stay awake in a room like this?"

"Kwitchebitchin! You have not been awake in class this year."

"Who can with that guy droning on down there? 2,3,4,5,6,9, umpteen hydropentahezaglamarine and such for a whole hour! Why on earth did I have to be an engineer?"

"Don't worry about it, bud, you aren't yet."

One of the off-campus students tells the story of a fire that didn't attract the usual crowd. Just off Forest Road, someone left his car locked up for the night. A passing driver noted that the front seat of the car was in flames, raced to the Oberlin Road fire station, and returned with the city's fire fighters. The blaze was soon extinguished, and the aroused owner explained that earlier he had dropped a cigarette and had forgotten to look for it. One of the four onlookers muttered, "Smoking gets pretty expensive, don't it?"

Shades of things to come: EXAMS ARE JUST 25 DAYS AWAY!! Oh horror! Oh pain! Oh agony! Oh my aching brain! Not again! So sad, too bad, but true! Let's hit those books and get ready!

This week's picture: Unfortunately, I don't know who this lovely one is. Her name wasn't on the photograph. (I did see the movie which this picture advertised. Mmmmmmm BOY!)

What's the matter with you people anyway? No wonder this column is titled IDGAD! All I ask from you guys is a few minutes of your usually wasted time, and you won't even give me that! Do you realize that we didn't get a single limerick this week? That's State spirit for you; a guy works his "head" off writing a column which he hopes will live on things around this mausoleum, and his readers aren't even energetic enough to compose a little poem. How about it?

State visitor this week-end was a fat, lazy opossum. Do not fear! He was slayed by a certain fearless civil engineer who's only weapon was a car jack.

Sign posted on the door of a certain dorm room during the recent campus campaigning before elections: "I'm going to kill the tenth damn politician who comes into my room, and the ninth just left!" (What'd you have in that room?)

We wonder when the efficient parties of the C. U. are going to change the records in the snack bar's juke box. "The Barefoot Contessa" has developed a fine set of bunions by this time. Maybe they'll be changed by column time next week. 'Til then, take it easy. B. K.

"Angels" To Play In Pullen Friday

"My Three Angels," a comedy about a trio of convicts in a French penal colony, will be given in Pullen Hall at 8:00 p.m. on Friday, May 4. Bob Thorburn, of Mobile, Ala.; Karl Rawicz, of Hollywood, Calif.; and Howard Simon, of Chicago, Ill., will portray the three likeable rogues who intrigue to set a bad world to rights.

A smash hit for 43 weeks in New York, and in many other cities where it subsequently toured, "My Three Angels" was written by Sam and Bella Spewack, based on an original French comedy which was a great success in Paris where it was performed for over two years.

The locale of "My Three Angels" is Cayenne, French Guiana, in 1910, a penal colony where prisoners are allowed the freedom of the island. Three of them, doing repair work on the community's modest general store, become vital influences in saving the shaky destiny of the shopkeeper and his family.

Two of the helpful criminals are gentlemanly murderers serving life terms, and the leader of the group is a cheery embezzler of high resourcefulness.

When on Christmas Eve, the store and the finances of the honest merchant, to be played by Sam Hummel, are threatened by the arrival from France of his hard-hearted relative, whose intent is to swindle the tradesman, the convicts quickly rally to their own ideas of justice.

By accomplishing "A perfect crime" these beneficent criminals succeed in neatly doing away with the evil menace, and also his most unpleasant nephew, who is dangerous to the happiness of the daughter of the house. It is an ingenious double erasure that the "angelic" threesome devises, including the forging of a will of the murdered villain. In the end, everyone is happier for the interventions of the three convicts.

Dott Morton and Marty Preston, along with Sam Hummel, play the family which is aided by the convicts' efforts; Jerry Lillouche and Bob Strother will be seen as the menaces whom the convicts deal with; and Murray Penney and Carol Cofer make up the remainder of the cast. George Thomason is the director for the production.

There will be one performance only; and no admission will be charged. A coffee hour will follow the play. The play cast are all members of the newly formed State College Drama Club, which is sponsored by the College Union Theater Committee.

Matter of fact, I hadn't. So the next day, I looked over some of those After Six jobs. Man, they really "come on." Make you look slimmer, taller, handsomer. And, look at those colors! DOAK MEMORIAL FUND

In honor of the college's beloved former baseball coach, Charles (Chick) Doak, who died last week, the Doak Memorial Foundation has been set up to accept contributions for a trophy case in the coliseum to be dedicated in his honor.

Dr. Bostian appointed athletic director Roy Clogston, Mr. Tom Hines, and Jim Edwards to a special committee to organize such a foundation.

All funds collected will go towards a long-needed trophy case and any additional funds will be set aside for a baseball scholarship in his honor.

Mr. Doak gave over 32-years of his life to the sports program at State College and it is only fitting that his many friends and former students honor him in some way.

All contributions, whether large or small, should be addressed to the Doak Memorial Foundation, c/o Athletic Department, N. C. State College, Raleigh.

Several sizeable contributions have already been received.

Defoor and Woodside are Heavy Hitters for Alexander

Alexander No. 2 got off to a good start in the first when Liden, Turner, and Woodside hit triples. After that it was a one sided contest, Basinger hit a triple for Syme with two on, but that wasn't enough to win. The final score was 13 to 8 in favor of Alexander No. 2.

Beaver and Absher do the Honors for Turlington

Tucker No. 2 couldn't get started in their game with Turlington No. 2 and only three players of Tucker No. 2 got on base. Beaver started off the second inning with a homer, then Absher in the third homered with bases loaded. The final score was eleven to nothing. Becton Wins in Close Contest (See DORM CORNER, page 5)

Wake Forest at Duke
Vic Sorrell's State Wolfpack diamond crew, currently riding high, wide and handsome atop the Atlantic Coast Conference heap, prepare to meet second place Duke Blue Devils Saturday afternoon on the local campus.

The game was originally set for April 26th, but was moved by agreement to this week-end. The game will highlight the college's annual alumni week-end and takes the place of the usual Red-White basketball contest.

The Pack sports a 8-1 conference mark and a full-game lead over the Blue Devils, who are 7-2. State defeated Duke earlier in the season at Durham.

A win over the visitors from Durham would be a big boost for the Pack's championship hopes, as they only have weak Clemson and S. Carolina to contend with before closing out the season against UNC next Saturday.

The schedule favors the Pack as all remaining contests will be staged on home grounds, while Duke is traveling the rest of the way including yesterday's battle in Baptist Hollow.

State walloped Wake Forest last week 6-2 to all but kill any hope of the Deacons repeating as conference kings. Monday's scheduled contest with strong Virginia was called because of rain and will not be replayed unless it has bearing on the final standings. Tuesday the Pack ripped into Maryland for the second time this season by a 12-1 score.

Hargrove Unbeaten
Tommy Hargrove is but one of two undefeated pitchers in the conference and sports a 3-0 record. This coupled with the power at the plate of such stand-outs as Dud Whitley, Bill Peed and Eddie West. Big Norm Norris still leads the conference in home-runs with four, while Peed heads the important RBI's department for the third straight week.

Jones Stars
Sophomore Joe Jones was the main reason for the Pack's big victory over Wake Forest. The slender righthander from Wilson, racked up his second win of the year against one loss as he limited the defending champs to five hits. He fanned 10. Sonny Santoli had four for five at the plate and drove in two runs, while collected 3-5 and Casteen 2-4 to lead the 13-hit attack.

Va. Ahead
Monday's contest only lasted about a half an inning with the visitors from Virginia leading 4-0 going into the bottom of the first with two men on and one out.

Two Losses
The Pack's only two losses thus far this season have been against Wake Forest in the finals of the Dixie Classic and a 3-2 decision to South Carolina on a freak play at home. Their over-all mark stands at 11-2-1.

TENNIS
State's varsity tennis team played three matches last week and came out with a 1-1-1 mark. The Pack lost a 1-8 match to powerful Duke, beat Eastern Carolina, 5-4, and tied Wake Forest, 4-4, in a match called due to darkness.
The varsity netters now sport a 3-10-1 over all record.

Dacron and cotton

. . . suits with that wonderful Norman's styling!

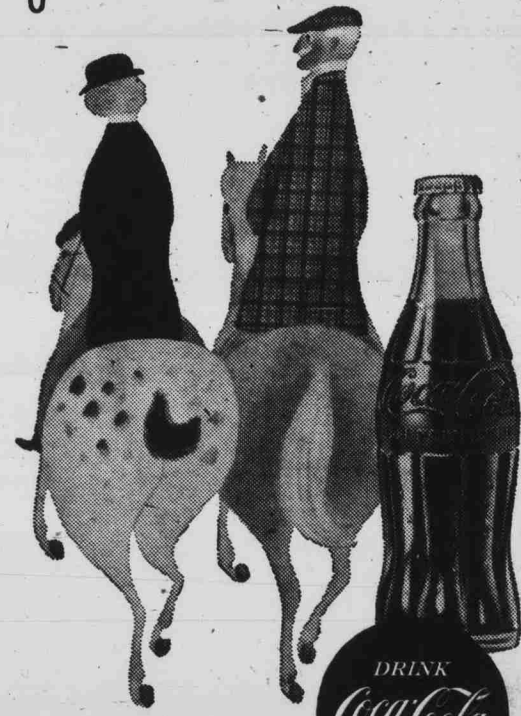

Nowhere . . . but nowhere . . . could you match the crisp styling of these wonderful norman's dacron-and-cotton suits; nor can you find a cooler suit on the market. From the moment you slip it on, you'll know that this is the suit you'll just live in on those hot summer days. The fabric, Cambricloth, is a balanced blend of 50% Dacron (resists wrinkles, but holds your crease like mad) and 50% combed cotton (for wearability, coolness and fashion). And of course it has the smart tailoring that norman's is famous for . . . the long tapered look with narrow masculine shoulders; the no-pleat, belt-in-back trousers. Best of all, it's washable . . . only needs an occasional touch-up with an iron . . . always looks fresh. Come in now . . . you'll love the dark blue, charcoal and brown colors . . .

Frosh Tennis Squad Fields Strong Entry; Solomon Standout

Things are looking up for North Carolina State's 1957 tennis team.

The Wolfpack netters, who have found it hard to break into the win column, will get help next year from a red-hot freshman team which has been defeated only once this year.

Coach John Kenfield, Jr., is all smiles when discussing the prospects for next year. His broadest grin has resulted from the play of Mickey Solomon, a smooth-stroker from Brooklyn who hasn't lost a match or set all year.

Other team members are Bill Campbell, Charlotte; Steve Yionoulis, Wilson; Bill Garris, Goldsboro; Johnny Driggers, Charlotte; and Billy Hooper, Richmond, Va.

The frosh defeated Duke and Carolina for the first time in many years. The only defeat was to the powerful Myers Park High School team of Charlotte.

and fielders choice. The game was accented by a lot of walks and singles. The final score was nine to seven in favor of Becton No. 1.

Gore and Farrell Led the Berry Team

Syme-Stadium got off to a good start when they scored three runs off three hits in the second. Then Berry came back in the third with a homer folloher by Abbott, and singles by Gore. Then in the fifth Clark singled then Gore homered to make the final five to four.

Approximately 115 athletes will be guests of honor Saturday night as North Carolina State College plays host to its lettermen in all sports.

The annual Lettermen's Banquet will be held at the College cafeteria at 6 o'clock, athletic director Roy B. Clogston announced. Members of the various coaching staffs and their wives will attend.

The banquet is a feature of Alumni Week and alumni returning to the campus are invited.

Each letterman will be given a certificate showing the sports participated in and the letters earned during his college career. Clogston will make the presentations.

Highlight of the evening will be the awarding of trophies to the outstanding performers in each sport. The outstanding players are picked by members of the various teams and the awards made by the Monogram Club.

—Golf—

The Wolfpack senior golf team finished its regular scheduled action last week as they won two matches and lost only one to conference competition. The Pack took a 16-11 win over Duke, a 15-12 victory from Clemson, but were set back 4½-22½ by an undefeated Wake Forest team.

The team is now practicing daily for the up and coming conference tournament on May 10-12 at Winston-Salem.

ROTC Band To Give Concert Sunday

Our college ROTC Band is planning to give its second concert of the school year next Sunday afternoon at the College Union. Under the direction of Christian Kutschinski and Herbert W. Fred, the band will play both classical and popular music. Among the chosen selections, the band will accompany a baritone solo played by Winfred Farthing. His solo is the popular "Carnival of Venice."

The band elected its new officers last week. Plans have already been made to strengthen the band's discipline, marching technique, and appearance. More emphasis will be put on the issuing of merits and demerits, and inspections will be held more frequently.

YMCA Sponsors Old Clothes Drive

The annual YMCA drive for old clothes on the State College campus will be carried out during the month of May, Y President Charles Law announced this week.

An appeal was made to the students to remember the clothing drive as they are packing for home and to leave any outgrown or worn clothes in the boxes stationed in the dormitories for that purpose.

A box will be placed in the Y building so that students living off campus and Raleigh citizens might make their contribution.

The clothes collected will be given to the American Friends Service Committee for distribution in needy countries throughout the world.

Why Sen. Estes Kefauver reads The Reader's Digest

"A magazine like The Reader's Digest takes up where school leaves off. It touches on an impressive array of significant subjects. It throws a white light on the issues that confront us. It educates as it entertains."

In May Reader's Digest don't miss:

CONDENSATION FROM BEST SELLER: "HOW TO LIVE 365 DAYS A YEAR." Half of those seeking medical aid can blame badly handled emotions, says Dr. John Schindler. THE CURIOUS CUSTOM OF GOING STEADY. Cameron Shipp describes the elaborate rituals and taboos of modern teen-age social life.

THE ART OF UNDERSTANDING OTHER PEOPLE. Before we judge another, we should ask: "Might I not be as bad or worse if faced with his troubles?" Clarence Hall shows how amazingly our souls are enlarged by searching out the best in others.

Class Attendance Regulations
The Faculty Senate approved the following recommendations regarding class attendance regulations:

(1) That no change be made in the present rules in regard to attendance requirements.

(2) That the penalty for exceeding 15 unexcused absences be changed to the following: "Any freshman or sophomore who incurs more than 15 unexcused absences during a semester shall not be permitted to register for courses at North Carolina State College for the immediately succeeding regular semester."

Selective Service College Qualification Test—We have just received word that there will be an extra Selective Service College Qualification Test scheduled at State College on Thursday morning, May 17. Some students missed the test which was given on our campus on April 19. In order to take this test, students must obtain application blanks at the Local Selective Service Board located in the Odd Fellows Building. The application blank is to be filled out and mailed before May

7. If you have already taken the test, you cannot apply for taking it a second time. Students who do not plan or who are not qualified to take the Advanced Military courses or students whose academic standings are below the requirements set up by Selective Service System (upper half of Freshman Class, upper two-thirds of Sophomore Class, or upper three-fourths of Junior Class) should plan to take the test. The student has everything to gain and nothing to lose. Col. Thomas H. Upton, North Carolina State Director of Selective Service, urges that eligible students avail themselves of the opportunity to take the test.

Graduating Students—The invitations which were ordered by Seniors and Graduate students will arrive on May 8 and will be given out at the YMCA on the porch from 12:00 noon until 6:00 p.m. that day and also on May 10.

Job Opportunities—Apply at 9 Holladay Hall.

(1) Odd jobs. We have a number of these lately which we have been unable to fill. Particularly Saturday jobs. Yard work, lawn mowing, window washing, etc.

(2) Wanted student who can tutor in Statics.

(3) Summer school job in infirmary. Room and $1.50 per day for evening relief of orderlies.

Adjustments on Class Rings may be made Friday, May 4, at College Union. A representative from the ring company will be present.

Bids for Junior-Senior Dance may be picked up in the Main Lobby of College Union, from 1-6 p.m., May 2,3,4. Class dues receipt is mandatory.

A.F.Ch.E. Spring Picnic will be held Fri., May 11, at Umstead State Park from 2-10 p.m. Tickets are $1.00 and can be purchased from chapter officers and in 113 Riddick. Please get your tickets by Tues., May 8.

All Students—On Friday, May 4, at 8 p.m., a full-length play, MY THREE ANGELS (from the movie "We're No Angels") will be given in Pullen Hall by the State Drama Club. No admission charge and the public is invited to attend. A coffee hour will follow the play; both events will be sponsored by the College Union.

Registration For Primary

Primary contests for Democratic and Republican nominations for public office will take place on Saturday, May 26.

To be eligible to register to vote in North Carolina, a person must be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the State for at least one year and of the precinct in which he seeks to register for at least 30 days next preceding the general election. He must have reached the minimum age of 21 years by the date of the general election which will occur on November 6, 1956. He must also be able to read and write any section of the State Constitution in the English language. No one is entitled to vote in a party primary unless he is enrolled as a member of that party. This enrollment takes place at the time of registration or during a subsequent registration period.

State College students who meet the above requirements are eligible to register where they reside. The following rule guides registrars in determining whether a student is a resident of Raleigh: "That place shall be considered the resident of a person in which his habitation is fixed, and to which, whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning." This rule will generally bar students residing in the dormitories, or merely rooming in town, from registering here, although they may be eligible in their home communities. Students residing with their parents in Raleigh or having their own families established regularly here may be eligible for registration here.

Registration throughout the State is now in progress and will end on Saturday, May 12 at sunset. Registrars will be at the polling places in their precincts from 9 a.m. to sunset on Saturday, May 5 and May 12, and will register voters at their homes on week days through May 11. Another period of registration will occur before the November general election.

The State College Campus is in Raleigh Precinct 23 and the polling place is in the Armory on the east side of the Campus. Mr. E. D. King, 845 West Morgan Street, Raleigh, is the registrar. A precinct map of Raleigh appeared in the News and Observer on Sunday, April 29.
