

THE TECHNICIAN

NORTH CAROLINA STATE COLLEGE'S WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

Vol. XI, No. 8

State College Station, Raleigh, N. C.

November 3, 1955

Covering Campus . . .

Movie Schedule

Beginning this week-end there will be two movies at the College Union on Sunday night. This is a permanent change. Remember two shows on Sunday evening, at 7 and 9 p.m.

Army ROTC

On October 27, the Army ROTC Regiment at North Carolina State College was inspected by Colonel Henry C. Settle, Chief, North Carolina Military District. Colonel Settle stated that he was particularly impressed with the awards program of the Regiment by which achievement is recognized and by the esprit of the Cadet Corp.

Off Campus Students

Any off-campus student who did not receive a Technician last week, or any off-campus student who has changed address, please leave your name and correct address at the Technician office, Room 138, 1911 Building or mail it to Box No. 5698, State College Station, and your name will be added to the mailing list.

Free Passes

The Ambassador, Village and Varsity theaters are sponsoring WVWP's Mystery Melodies. These Melodies are played every night between 6:00 and 12:00 p.m. For the correct name of the melody WVWP will send you two free passes to one of these theaters. Tune in the 580 spot on your radio dial each night.

Pullen Road To Be Paved

The Office of Student Housing has been informed that negotiations with the City have been completed regarding the paving of Pullen Road in the area south of Bagwell and Becton Dormitories and that the contract for this paving has been made by the City of Raleigh with the T. A. Loving Company. The

A Tradition Begun.....

Briley Presented Leadership Award

On October 20, before the assembled Army ROTC Regiment at State College, there took place a presentation which will, in all probability, become an annual ceremony and the birth of a tradition. As a link with ROTC at State College and as a symbol of leadership, Cadet Sydney E. Briley, Regimental Commander, was presented with a sword worn by one of the earliest Cadet Commanders of the Army ROTC unit at State College.

The sword was donated to the military department by Mrs. N. R. Stansel of Lumberton, N. C. Her husband, the late N. R. Stansel, was an 1898 graduate; and, in his senior year, a cadet major commanding the ROTC Battalion.

A native of Robeson County, Stansel (1877-1954) received his BS degree from State and served as commandant of cadets while doing graduate work and date this work will begin is not known, but a special request to the City engineer to put this paving on a high priority level has been made by College authorities.

Randolph-Macon Players To Present "Brief Music"

The drama group of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, of Lynchburg, Virginia, will present a three act play in Pullen Hall on Friday, November 11, at 8 p.m. The play to be given is Brief Music, by Emmet Lavery, a modern drama with a cast of seven women. This college drama company, which is called the "Sock and Buskin," is a group of young women who receive excellent technical supervision under the direction of Professor Harold V. Gould. Their work along experimental lines, as arena style productions—such as the group presented at State last December—and interpretations of foreign and contemporary playwrights, especially is well-known.

The traveling company for this play will include eighteen persons, which includes, in addition, instructing at the college. He was awarded a professional degree of electrical engineering at State in 1901, and obtained his master's degree at Cornell University.

He subsequently took a position in 1910 with General Electric Company; which he served until his retirement in 1946. At the time of his retirement, he was recognized as an authority on industrial electrical heating, was the author of two books and numerous technical articles on this subject, and had been elected a Fellow of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

H. W. (Pop) Taylor, Secretary of the Alumni Association made the presentation. The sword will be returned to a trophy case in the Military Department for viewing by the ROTC cadets and for presentation next year to the new Regimental Commander.

Miss Wolfpack Contest

For the first time in the history of State College, Miss Wolfpack will be one of the "Pack."

Any co-ed may be entered in the Contest. She may be sponsored by an individual or by an organization. Both the name of the girl and the name of the sponsor must be submitted to Dean Talley's office by November 16.

Judging will be November 18 at 7 p.m., when contestants will be judged on beauty, poise, and personality.

"Homecoming is not far off, so hurry over to Dean Talley's office and enter your favorite co-ed—with her consent, of course," says Ed Yancey, Chairman of the Miss Wolfpack Committee.

Judicial Board Has First Trial

The first judiciary case of the year was referred to the Judicial Board, Thursday, October 27.

The offense was that of theft to which the accused pleaded guilty.

The penalty was "that the accused be suspended from North Carolina State College for the remainder of this school semester."

Elections

Election day for freshman class offices and student government seats has been set for Wednesday, November 16. Freshmen will be able to cast their ballots at the Coliseum, College Union, or the YMCA.

All candidates who signed the nomination book are reminded of the meeting tonight in the College Union. Campaign rules and other issues will be discussed.

Casey Explains Ball Game Seats

by Derle Hagwood

State College is one of two colleges in the United States that has a student committee to work out ticket distribution arrangements for its athletic events.

Only one other school, The University of California, at Berkeley, has such an arrangement, according to Willis R. Casey of the Athletic Department here at State.

After the Wake Forest game when the staff of The Technician heard faint murmurings of disapproval on the way seat tickets were being given out, the newspaper decided to find out the real situation, and present it in an impartial way.

To begin with, sections 17, 18, 19, 20 and the even side of 21 are reserved for the students. If enough date tickets are sold section 24 is also reserved for students.

Tickets are given out on a first come first served basis. With permission from the president of the Student Government, Jim Nolan, it is possible to get tickets in groups. An example of this was at the Wake Forest game when Owen Dorm got four hundred tickets in a group. This is done only with Jim Nolan's permission and it must specifically state the section in which the tickets are to be granted.

The student has two alternatives on date tickets. He can buy the season date book for (See CASEY, Page 8)

Moser Presents Parking Lot Paving Report

by Jack Proescher

The Student Legislature heard two reports on future campus improvements and granted three budgets to campus organizations at their meeting last Thursday night.

Dick Moser gave a report on a dormitory parking lot pavement project. This project has a present backing of $5,700. Moser, heading the Campus Welfare Committee, stated that he hoped to see the program begun this fall or early spring.

Meanwhile, John Lane of the Investigations Committee, was thinking of a possible clean-up campaign beginning after the placement of trash cans at strategic points on the campus. Lane gave a short report to be followed at a later date by a more complete one.

The Student Legislature, with Vice-president Bob Gunn presiding, also heard budget appeals from Verville, the cheerleaders, and the Wolfpack Band.

Charles Hannah, Mayor of Verville, was quickly granted (See MOSER, Page 8)

Furman's Homecoming Upset By Wolfpack

by Fred Joseph

Furman's Homecoming celebration was interrupted by a determined Wolfpack football team supported by a roaring crew of caravaners from NCS last week-end.

A group of better than 100 students, bolstered by parents, Alumni, the Band, and Cheerleaders hit the "gayly bedecked" Furman campus Saturday and "rudely" interrupted the festivities by cheering the Wolfpack on to victory. As one caravaner put it, "The trip was a howling success," but you couldn't prove it by the Furmanites.

As one sad and forlorn SAE put it as he sat in dejection in front of fraternity row (which was all dressed up in anticipation of the slaughter which didn't materialize), "You don't have to rub it in."

It looks like the tide has turned and the "Battered Wolfpack" has emerged a proud band of warriors that will be able to hold their heads up high once again on the gridiron. This is the impression one got as the joyous and noisy Wolfpack fans departed from the Furman campus.

Cycle Ice Leads In Technician Poll

After a week of balloting, the trend has definitely swung to "cycle" ice in the poll conducted by the Technician in last week's paper.

Eighty-five and seven hundredths per cent of the ballots in (as of Thursday morning) preferred "cycle" ice over either crushed ice or flaked ice. Crushed ice ran a very poor second and flaked ice ran an even poorer third to "cycle" ice.

As Bunny Harris reported in the Raleigh Times Monday, "Holey Icism" ran rampant on the State College campus this week-end."

"It's just not nice to chew crushed ice."

"Flush the Crushed."

"Hey, Rube, Dig those cubes!"

"Holey, holey, holey!"

"OOOOOOOOO!!!"

These were the slogans, according to Bunny Harris, that were heard ringing through the campus the past week-end.

But, said Harris, "opposition was forming in another sector of the campus . . . who came across with the well-advised slogan:

"Where're you go through life, brother,"

"Whatever be your goal,"

"Keep your eyes upon the ice cube."

"And not upon the hole."

"Anyone who still has not cast a ballot it is still not too late," announced The Technician today. Bring ballots by The Technician office, 138 1911 Building or mail them to Box 5698, State College Station, Raleigh, N. C.

Fraternity Pledge Dance Slated For November 12

The annual fall Pledge Dance will be held at State College on Saturday, November 12. Sponsored by the Interfraternity Council, both the concert at 3:30 and the dance at 8 will be held at the Coliseum. The Claude Thornhill band will play for the event.

Thornhill has a setup that includes five reeds, six brass and three rhythm, paced by the leader's eloquent piano. Most unusual is the fact that in the six brass, there is a French horn. The horn, which is usually identified with symphonic orchestras, is being used to blend with the harmonious arrangements of the leader. A vocalist rounds out the group.

All arrangements are written by Thornhill, including the theme song of the orchestra, "Snowfall." The arrangements combine a classical background with the current trend of popular music. The result is music that bears a distinct Claude Thornhill stamp.

Thornhill has worked with such musical greats as Bing Crosby, Benny Goodman, Charlie Spivak and the late Glenn Miller. His Victor and Columbia records yield a continuous stream of successive hits and he was honored by "Look" when that magazine selected his organization as "The Band of the Year" in 1948.

Why?

The question that is baffling the Activities Committee of the Union is "why more students do not join the sixteen committees of the College Union?" What can the Union do to create interest for the students who are not active on the committees and to encourage them to join in the planning of the Union programs. If you are not active in one of the sixteen committees of the Union, could you please tell us why so that we may change our program to fit your needs.

Several of the College Union Committees are in real need of more members. The Publicity Committee and the Music Committee are the committees which are in the greatest need of members. However, the other committees can always use new members. The activities committee would like to hear from you. Other committees that you (See WHY, Page 8)

GUEST EDITORIAL:

The Coach & The Team -And Support

A long over-due word of praise is due Coach Earle Edwards and North Carolina State's varsity football squad. The boys from the West Raleigh campus, despite a rather discouraging start, have given each game every thing they have and then some. Most sport observers feel that the Wolfpack really only lost one game—had it not been for a few bad breaks the others could have easily ended up in the win column.

It has been but two short years since Earle Edwards and his staff migrated south to take over the faltering football fortunes of the Wolfpack. The close of last season saw a not too successful win-loss record go by the boards, but it left high hopes in the minds of the 'Pack's grid supporters for better things to come.

As the present season started back in September, everyone seemed to sense this feeling of better things to come. These thoughts were somewhat dampened as the 'Pack slipped in the mud at Florida State, were beaten by Duke, and edged by Carolina. It was during this time that the local lads never for once thought they were washed up. They never gave anyone a yard—what the opposition got was bitterly contested. The Wake Forest game was the mid-point of the schedule and the turning point of the season. After their inspiring tie with the Deacons, the 'Pack began to roll. First Villanova was clobbered 34-7, and then last week Furman fell victim to the "new" Wolfpack, 33-7. With four games yet to go there are high hopes for several more victories and the most successful season State has enjoyed in years.

The time is near when State's football teams will no longer take a back seat in the conference. The remaining encounters can make or break the season for the 'Pack . . . the squad has done more than their share . . . they've got the spirit and determination to go all the way . . . so what do you say . . . let's back them to the hilt—win, lose or draw !!!

I observed the article and ballot concerning the type ice to be tentatively used in the College Cafeteria with a great deal of "thoughtful" amusement. Certainly it is amusing that the cafeteria be so concerned about the students' opinion regarding this trivial matter. A poll of the students to determine opinion as to the general nature of the food (?) served in the cafeteria would be much more enlightening.

However, it is recognized that this might be a beginning and to that effect I herein submit my indifferently scored ballot.

The efforts of The Technician to bring in focus the cafeteria food (here the word is used loosely) situation are sincerely appreciated by this reader.

Wash Rack . . .

Since the mission of The Technician is toward the improvement of State College, I'd like to put in my two cents' worth about what I consider to be a definite improvement in our campus with a small amount of expense on the part of the college.

Most students are attending school on a more or less limited budget. Also there is a high proportion of State students who own cars and keep them here on campus. Therefore it would follow that the added expense of keeping a car clean by having it washed every week or two at one of Raleigh's service stations becomes ridiculously high over a period of a few months, especially when the standard price is $1.75 per wash job in town.

I think the college would do a great service to the students by building a cheap concrete wash rack possibly on the lower part of the campus or in some other convenient place. Washing facilities of this type are common sight in the army, and certainly they are used to the fullest advantage by the men. Did anyone ever think of this before, or is there some restriction on it here?

Many a man who walks into our shop for the first time and examines one of our suits is surprised. He looks at the fit of the jacket with obvious satisfaction. Then he is likely to exclaim that he never realized the Varsity offered such exceptional clothing for students for such moderate prices. DOWN BEAT ON BRUBECK

Tall, physically powerful, and emotionally intense Dave Brubeck has become the most publicized modern jazzman in the country. His quartet, which also spotlights alto-saxist Paul Desmond in addition to pianist Brubeck, has received many jazz honors in the last two years—including the 1954 DOWN BEAT reader's poll as the finest jazz group of the year.

Dave continues to shatter the usual misconceptions about what a jazz musician is like. For example, the jazz musician is supposed to be a 20th century gypsy who loves to wander and hates the roots of home and community. Brubeck disproves this myth. After saving for years, he recently built a beautifully designed spacious home in Oakland, Calif. He loves to stay home with his family so much, as a matter of fact, that he arranges his bookings so that he spends at least six months of the year in the San Francisco Bay area.

Another frequent misconception about jazz musicians is that they have no set goals for the future. Brubeck again is the practical opposite of this. It has been his determined ability to plan and build a career that first led him to study assiduously at the College of the Pacific and, later, at Mills College with the renowned French composer, Darius Milhaud.

Although Brubeck himself doesn't often talk about his music, he is sensitive to criticism and has been hurt at times by magazine articles directed against him and by the attitude of many jazz musicians who regard him as outside the main tradition of jazz and accuse him of lacking the rhythmic quality of "swing" that is an essential part of the jazz feeling and way of playing.

Brubeck strenuously denies that he lacks "swing", and regards himself as very much a Warlick To Be New Pershing Rifle Com.

Cadet Joe R. Warlick, Jr., a senior in Civil Engineering at State College, has been newly elected to the command of Company L, Fourth Regiment of the National Society of Pershing Rifles. The National Society of Pershing Rifles is the oldest and largest military fraternity in the United States; a chapter of the Pershing Rifles has been in existence at State College since 1952. Warlick has been very active in the company since its organization; he has held the positions of Company First Sergeant, Company Executive Officer, and Commander of the Drill Platoon.

Cadet Warlick has been recognized by the Army ROTC as a Distinguished Military Student; he is also commander of the State College Chapter of the National Society of Scabbard and Blade. Aside from being commander of both military fraternities at State, Warlick was on the Military Ball committee last year and he now holds the rank of Major in the Army ROTC.

Hear At State

by Sidney Pureblood, Jr.

The views and opinions of this column do not necessarily represent those of THE TECHNICIAN.

Keep it up Wolfpack! That game in Greenville last week was great. Furman looked like a high school team against State.

It is a real good feeling to have a winning team, isn't it? Congratulations, Pack.

By the way, if David Tousingant can keep calling those "fumble-plays" and "touchdown-plays" like he did at that game, someone is going to want to draft him for a cheerleader.

Pencil Sharpeners

We're happy to report that those pencil sharpeners which the Tompkins Textile Council recommended be put into the classrooms in the Textile Building were ordered the day after the minutes of the meeting reached Mr. Dunlap's office. Let's hope the rest of the schools will follow suit—or that they already have.

Just because this article appears in The Technician, we aren't so prejudiced against the other student publications that we won't mention them. In fact, we think they are doing a good job. Anyone who has worked on a publication is better off because of it. Such work teaches not only the specific points of a certain job, but also responsibility, cooperation, and many other qualities desirable in a well-rounded man.

Though this writer is not much of a humorist, he can certainly appreciate it—and the humor in the last issue of the Southern Engineer (the jokes as well as the "Lipstick" article) was enjoyed thoroughly. The Textile Forum came out last week with an issue which had some good articles in it. But why weren't there more of them? And I've heard (that) textile business men tell some pretty good jokes—they must like them too. About the Agromeck . . . let's just hope that they will reconsider their sports coverage.

Building Program

The Design Building, which is nearing completion, certainly is quite an improvement over the old "barracks." I'm sure the School of Design is happy over their new building.

Do you realize what an extensive building program State College has seen since 1947? It is really astounding. More than ten major buildings and many smaller projects have been constructed in the past eight years. The amount expended in this building program is amazing, and, by the way, something of which we should be proud. Approximately twenty million dollars has been spent on new facilities since 1947!

We do need parking lots, but don't let this make us blind to what has already been done for us. For those students who say that the money has not been spent directly for the students' benefit, I say: If better buildings and classrooms aren't for the benefit of the student, then for whose benefit are they? Twenty million dollars in eight years is an awful lot of money. We certainly ought to be grateful.

Just received a large, terrific selection of sport coats in dark tweeds. Unusually beautiful patterns to sell for

Case Starts Basketball Drills

North Carolina State's basketball team began practice last Tuesday, with 13 players on hand. The Atlantic Coast Conference champions are working out daily at 4 o'clock in Frank Thompson Gym.

State, with a 28-4 record last year, will open its season at home Dec. 1 against Florida State. The Pack will play a 21-game schedule not including three games in the Dixie Classic and at least one game in the ACC tournament.

State will play a practice game against the freshman at Reynolds Coliseum Thanksgiving night.

Coach Everett Case will be starting his tenth year at the helm of the State College quintet. He has compiled a record of 234 wins and 56 losses since 1946. His teams have won eight out of nine conference championships and five out of six Dixie Classic titles.

Assisting Case this year is Vic Bubas, who was promoted from freshman coach when Carl (Butter) Anderson resigned last year. Former State star Lee Terrill is the new freshman coach.

Leading the State contingent of stars is All-America center Ronnie Shavlik, a senior from Denver, Colo. Shavlik scored 707 points last year for a 22.1 average per game.

Guard Vic Molodet, a senior, returns to the backcourt and is a candidate for all-star team honors. The playmaker of the team, he averaged 13.5 last season.

State has Phil DiNardo, Cliff Hafer and Nick Pond, all lettermen, at forward along with Tom Hopper, a transfer, and George Stepanovich, who is up from the freshman squad.

Letterman Bob Seitz, a 6-11, 260 pound junior, teams with Shavlik at center along with Mike Miles, up from the frosh. Miles is 6-7 and weighs 215.

At guard the Wolfpack lists Molodet, John (The Clutch) Maglio, a junior letterman, and sophomores Marvin Kessler and Bucky Waters. Waters played for the freshman last year and Kessler is a transfer.

Frosh Grid Squad Meets S. C. There

North Carolina State's freshman football team returns to action Friday night in Columbia, S. C., against the strong University of South Carolina frosh. The game is at 8 o'clock.

Coach Bill Smaltz' Wolflets have a 1-1 record for the season with 32-19 win over Duke and 0-14 loss to Clemson. South Carolina led by the much-publicized King Dixon, has beaten Wake Forest and North Carolina and tied Clemson.

The State frosh have been idle since the Duke game four weeks ago because of two cancelled games with Elon's B team and the 82nd Airborne Division.

For the South Carolina contest, State will start Bob Pepe and Bobby Pope at ends, Frank Palandrani and Larry Dixon at tackles, Joe Rodri and Frank Marocco at guards and either Ronald Savage or George Scott at center.

Football

State's fraternities begin their second round of football action this week and most of the division champions should be decided soon. Last week's actions saw six games scheduled.

PKA - 7, SAM - 6 - Johnny Goodman fell on a loose kick-off in the end zone for a TD as the Pika's came from behind to edge out the SAM's in an important battle last week. Steiger's hit Rudikoff on a pass play for the SAM's tally, but the PKA's added a score on a seldom seen play and Bassett's extra point meant the difference.

Kappa Sig - 53, T. Chi - 0 - The Kappa Sig's displayed a powerful offensive as they completely walloped Theta Chi's undermanned squad 53-0. Jack Turney and Miser were the offensive leaders scoring 24 and 14 points respectively. Tripp, Gunn, Johnston, and Thackston also (See FRAT INTRAMURALS, Page 5)

Wolfpack Meets Boston U. There Saturday State Looks for Win No. 3, Kickoff at 2

"Boston University will be a big test for us," North Carolina State football coach Earle Edwards told the Wolfpack after Saturday's 33-7 win over Furman.

"I think we're on our way toward a good football team," Edwards said, "but we've still got a long way to go. I liked our running against Furman but our passing was way off and our reserves didn't play as well as I expected."

Edwards said he didn't think State's 67 points in the last two games was any indication of a new-found offensive attack. "Our competition wasn't as good as it has been," he explained.

"I saw some things I liked and some things I didn't like in our win over Furman," the Wolfpack mentor continued. "I liked our running, especially the work of Dick Christy, Dick Hunter, George Marinkov and Mike Miller. Miller is a newcomer who will help us."

"But we didn't pass very well against Furman and our reserves didn't play up to par. We'll have to play better than that if we expect to beat Boston University," Edwards said.

Christy remained atop the heap in the rushing department and boosted his average to 6.3 in 52 attempts. He has scored three touchdowns. Hunter is second in rushing with a 4.6 average on 201 yards for 42 carries. He is the Wolfpack's leading scorer with five touchdowns.

Edwards is concerned over the lack of depth at fullback now that Harrison Makeever has quit the team. Makeover, a junior, started the season as the number one fullback but was replaced by Tony Guerrieri after three games.

Guerrieri, a sophomore, has only one experienced replacement. He is Jim Meadlock, a senior who has seen limited action.

Veteran halfback George (Wagon Wheels) Marinkov has brought a smile to Edward's face with his performances in the last two games. "He has improved considerably after a slow start and I think the team has gotten better accordingly," commented Edwards.

State will leave for Boston Friday by chartered plane and will set up headquarters at the Kenmore Hotel. The Wolfpack is now 2-3-1 for the season with Boston University, Virginia Tech, William and Mary and West Virginia coming up.

Taylor Intercepts to Win
Taylor of the Tucker No. 2 team intercepted a pass in the last few seconds of the Tucker-Syme game to win 13-6. He ran the interception back fifty yards to the eight yard line before he was stopped. Then Cole passed to McCall for the TD. Syme scored earlier on a pass from McCarter to Lineberger. But Dye of Tucker returned their kickoff all the way for Tucker's first TD.

Burgess and Fox Pass to Victory
Burgess and Fox passed to Tweed, Casteen and Huff to score the majority of the points for the Tucker No. 1 team in their game with Owen No. 1. The final score was 19 to 0 in favor of Tucker. Scott was the outstanding defensive player for Tucker.

Deal and Carton Led for Vetville
Carton the halfback for Vetville and Deal were the outstanding offensive players for their team, while Green and Moss led the Turlington team. On defense were Clark and Poindexter for Vetville and Cagle for Turlington. The final score was 33 to 12 in favor of Vetville.

Little Passes to Victory
Little passes what turned out to be a shut-out with 32-0. He passed to Barnhart, Clement, and Pearson. The half time score was 13 to 0. The line work of Bagwell No. 1 was enough to stop any advances tried by Turlington No. 1.

GREENVILLE, S. C., Oct. 29 — Sophomore halfbacks Dick Christy and Dick Hunter put on a brilliant offensive show here today to lead North Carolina State College to a 33-7 win over luckless Furman before 5,500 homecoming fans.

The two rookies gained 203 yards between them in sparking the Wolfpack to its second straight win. The victory gives the Pack a 2-3-1 record for the year. The loss was the seventh straight for the Hurricanes.

Each of State's sophomore backs on the first team, Christy, Hunter and fullback Tony Guerrieri, scored touchdowns in the easy win. Junior Mike Miller, a transfer from Mars Hill, and tackle John Bagonis got the other TDs.

Christy was the game's big ground gainer. The Chester, Pa., native piled up 126 yards on 13 carries. Hunter had 77 yards to his credit on 11 carries.

The Wolfpack got its first touchdown after Furman had given the Pack a scare early in the first quarter. State took the opening kick-off and failed to advance. Guerrieri punted to the Furman 40 and halfback John Popson returned 22 yards to the State 37.

N. C. State's Dick Christy was caught in an apprehensive mood yesterday, and his thoughts seemed to be focused on Eddie West as the two star Wolfpackers went about their dual business of classroom study and preparation for Saturday's tilt with Boston University. Christy and West, both Officer Candidates in the N. C. State Air Force ROTC program are proving to be as agile on the subject of Air Science and in the intricate maneuvers of Air Force drill as they are in executing the plays of Coach Earle Edwards multi-offense. West who directs the play of the Wolfpack eleven has been recently appointed a Cadet Officer. A senior, West has qualified for flight training as an Observer, and will enter the Air Force as a Second Lieutenant following graduation and commissioning. Christy, who seems to be pondering the plays that West might trigger against Boston University Saturday, is a second year Basic Air Force Cadet and is competing for selection as an advanced AFROTC student. Dempster-Dumpster To Include Vetville

Assistant Comptroller J. G. Vann announced plans this week for extension of the "Dempster-Dumpster" method of garbage collection to Vetville.

Vann traced the history of these efforts back to the inception of Vetville when it was a project of the U. S. Government. At that time collection of garbage and trash was handled by the government.

Vann continued, "Soon after that, the initial 'Dumpsters' were acquired for the College itself. However, Vetville was not included at that time.

"It looked like a good proposition, but we were tied up by the fact that it was necessary to buy a new truck in addition to the one the College had.

"The equipment is now on order", Vann stated, "but it will not be here until about the first of the year.

Vann said that the plans for placing of the pickup bins in Vetville were going along with those that the Dempster firm recommended.

A SHORT STORY "You oughta see the new altar in our church," he said proudly.

Beat And Blow Corps Gets New Commander

The commander for the State College Army ROTC Drum and Bugle Corps for the 1955-56 school year is Cadet Major P. Fletcher Murray. Major Murray, a senior in chemical engineering, has proved himself an outstanding man during his college career.

While a freshman, Murray was elected to Phi Eta Sigma, a freshman honorary society, of which he served as treasurer. He is now a member of Theta Tau, a professional engineering society and also a member of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers and the Society of American Military Engineers.

Last year Murray was athletic director and floor manager for Becton No. 1. His team won the dormitory football championship, while he won a position on the all-campus football team.

Cadet Murray has demonstrated his leadership ability while performing in the Drum and Bugle Corps. He was an assistant squad leader his freshman year, a squad leader his sophomore year, and the executive officer his junior year. He was awarded the Armed Forces Chemical Award during his junior year.

Major Murray stated of this year's Corps: "I think the Corps has the potential of being better than at any time in my three years association with it; but the mere potential is not enough. It will take the cooperation and hard work of each individual member of the Corps."

The social activities of State's seventeen fraternities are beginning to get back to normal after rush week. However, a look at this week-end schedule seems to show a rather quiet one since the I.F.C. dance and Homecoming follow right after each other. The social calendar finds the majority of the frats, conserving their energy for the following weeks while the rest of them will have functions like the following this coming week-end.

The KA's will be host to the chapter at Duke in a interfraternity football game Friday afternoon with the usual refreshments following. Pi Kappa Alpha has a dance and combo at the house Saturday night. While the SPE's will also be found at a dance on the same evening for the enjoyment of their brother, pledges, and dates. The SAE's pledges are having a party at Trubby's Saturday night to which the brothers have been invited.

PKP held a successful Halloween Party last week-end and this Saturday night finds the Sigma Nu's having a hay ride with the usual refreshments, also the PKT's will have a dinner and dance at the house for its brothers. Reports from State's other fraternities shows the usual parties and get together at the respective houses.

Grad. Dames Club Begins Vending Ser. For Baby Equipment

The Graduate Dames Club of State College has as one of its projects a baby equipment loan service. It is designed to help all married students, both graduate and undergraduate, with children.

This project, adopted in October, 1954, has proved to be a very valuable aid to students, in that it isn't necessary for them to purchase the larger-pieces of baby equipment for the short time they are needed. As time goes on and more equipment is added, the club will be able to serve even more couples as a result of this project.

$200 to see his town through the year.

Bill Garrabrandt, head cheerleader, asked for $335, and, after a bit of debating on the part of several representatives, was granted a budget of $305.

Because the Wolfpack Band did not go to Villanova, representative Edward Avent was back to ask for $500 to see his group through the rest of the year and to travel to the State-Furman football game. Recalling that a grant of $1,000 to carry the band through the year (and including the trip to Villanova) had been returned, the Legislature unanimously approved Avent's appeal.

The College Union Theater Committee, with Dave Bagwell of Raleigh as chairman, is sponsoring the event. Bob Strother is chairman of the Union Social Committee, which will hold a coffee hour immediately following the event in the first floor lobby of Pullen Hall. Students will be admitted to the production by registration card—dates free. Admission for faculty and staff will be by College Union membership card.

In a recent letter the director of the group, Professor Gould, said "We are delighted to have your invitation to return to North Carolina State College. Our experience with your student audience for our last year's production of The House of Bernarda Alba was a very pleasant one." "It sounded good to me"

Charles Poole, B.S. in Business Administration, Boston University, '52, is working for New Jersey Bell Telephone Company as a Traffic Superintendent. For a young man he has a lot of responsibility. And responsibility is what he likes. He has three New Jersey exchanges under his supervision—Dover, Madison and Washington—which total nearly 16,000 customers, and he manages a force of some 160 operators, including nine chief operators and fifteen service assistants.

"It's the type of job," says Charlie, happily, "where you can never say you're caught up. There's always something to do." Each day brings Charlie new problems, new experiences. And with every passing day his grasp of the telephone business is getting stronger, his value to the company is growing.

That spells the kind of future that Charlie wants: the opportunity to take an ever-increasing part in an ever-expanding business.

"It sounded good to me," Charlie says, remembering what he thought when the telephone interviewer had finished telling him about the company and its future. And, as you might expect, it still sounds good to him.

Charlie Poole is typical of the many young men who are building careers in telephone work. Similar opportunities exist today with other telephone companies, and also with Bell Telephone Laboratories, Western Electric and Sandia Corporation. Your placement officer has the details.

The Student Committee does not dictate any specific policy to the Athletic Department, but it does work in conjunction with them to iron out the differences and offer the most feasible policy to both factors.

Both the Student Committee and the Athletic Department realize that their solutions are not ideal and are open to suggestions. Any constructive idea that anyone may have will be greatly appreciated and can be turned over to the Technician office, the Student Athletic Committee, or Jim Nolan where they will be considered and presented to the Athletic Department for discussion and possibly put into effect.

Reid Speaks At AG Club Meeting

Dean W. N. Reid of A. and T. College presented an account of Russian agriculture at the AG Club Tuesday night in the College Union Theater.

Dean Reid, a member of the U. S. Agricultural Delegation which visited the Soviet Union this past summer, gave many facts about the large collective farms of Russia. He also showed several colorful and informative films which pointed out some of the striking similarities of the present day Russian farms and our farms of twenty years ago.

The visit of Dr. Reid was co-sponsored by the YMCA and the AG Club.

Visitor (at asylum): "Do you have to keep the women inmates separated from the men?"

Attendant: "Sure. The people here aren't as crazy as you think."
