Endorses Fluoridation

S. G. Votes New Parking Areas

By Waring Boys

The November 29 meeting of the State Student Government was called to order by Vice-president John Lane; the items discussed included the fluoridation program, parking problems, finances, and a new ruling for the selection of delegates to the N. C. State Student Legislature.

After the roll was called and three senators were found absent, committee reports began with the Investigations Committee. Chairman Bob Wilder presented and had passed a resolution opening the parking lot beside the A & P Store (located on the corner of Brooks Avenue and Hillsboro Street) to members of the new Holy Trinity Lutheran Church after school hours.

New Parking Areas

Wilder's committee had a second bill passed in which it was stated that there are no provisions for student parking in the immediate areas of the educational buildings on the campus, and, since many students find it desirable to visit with instructors in these buildings for a short period of time, two 15-minute student parking areas will be established in each of the five following locations:

- (1) Parking lot between Winston and Tompkins Halls
- (2) Parking lot in the quadrangle formed by Daniels and Mann Halls
- (3) Parking lot directly in front of the Student Center (See S. G., Page 7)

Syme Burglar Gets Eight Years

A youthful would-be thief learned a costly lesson from the students of State College early this week.

Three-time-loser Marvin Lee Mooneyham, 18, of Raleigh, went to prison Tuesday to begin serving a seven-to-ten-year sentence for burglary.

Mooneyham was sentenced in Wake Superior Court Monday afternoon by Judge Malcolm Seawell.

The youth was arrested here November 15 after complaints of State students in Syme Dormitory. Mooneyham entered two rooms and stole some $2 and a wrist watch while the occupants slept.

Although Mooneyham originally was charged with the capital crime of first degree burglary, Solicitor Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., accepted his plea of guilty to a second degree burglary charge.

The youth had only been off the roads five weeks when last arrested. He served a four-month sentence for stealing a case of beer in Zebulon.

He had been arrested previously for stealing hub caps from Raleigh autos, but received a six-months suspended sentence on that charge.

Annual Event On Saturday

Hundreds Expected For High School Day

Hundreds of high school juniors and seniors from throughout the State are expected to attend the annual "High School Day" observance here on Saturday.

Dr. Carey H. Bostian, chancellor of the college, has sent letters of invitation to the day-long event to all high school principals in North Carolina, who, in turn, have been requested to invite all juniors and seniors in their schools to attend.

Parents also have been invited to come to the college event with their sons and daughters.

WC Choir Will Present Christmas Program Sunday

The Woman's College Choir will present a program of Christmas music in the College Union Ballroom at 7 p. m. on Sunday, December 9th.

Under the direction of Dr. Robert B. Morris, the group of seventy-four students will present, among other works, the "Ceremony of Carols," by Britten, and "Jesu, Mein Fruede" by Buxtehede.

All N. C. State students and their guests are invited to attend this Christmas Concert.

The program is sponsored by the College Union Music Committee.

Judicial Board Finds Stu. Guilty

On November 29 the Judicial Board found a student guilty of plagiarism—copying a term paper from the encyclopedia without giving it as a reference.

The student was given an F on the course, placed on probation until June, and a letter sent to his parents explaining the incident.

Junior Class Resolution Calls for Change In Coliseum Rental Fee

George C. Cochran, President of State's Junior Class, presented a resolution of protest to the Coliseum Advisory Committee on behalf of the officers of the Junior and Senior classes Monday.

The resolution called for reduction or abolishment of the $300 base rental fee charged by the Coliseum for all student events in the Coliseum.

Cochran stated, when interviewed Tuesday, that he felt, "the fee is unfair. The building is part of the campus and the students should be given free use of it unless there are extra charges required to make changes in the 'setup' in the building or for extra labor or services."

"We have, so far, been unable to pin down the exact purpose and use of the $300, and we don't think the charge should continue unless it can be justified.

"We will probably be unable to hold the Junior-Senior in the Coliseum this year unless something is done."

The resolution read as follows:

"WHEREAS, we feel that it is a great burden on our classes and other organizations at State College to pay a base rent of $300 for the Coliseum,

"WHEREAS, we feel that the students at State College should be allowed the use of the Coliseum, paying only the actual costs involved,

"WHEREAS, it is a fact that the Coliseum is located on State College property and is considered a College building, we feel the students should not have to pay for the use of their own (See RESOLUTION, Page 10)

Headquarters of the day's activities will be the William Neal Reynolds Coliseum. Registration of the visitors will begin Saturday at 11 a. m. with an assembly at 1 p. m. Campus tours will be conducted from 2 until 5:30 p. m.

Students who register for the day's program along with their parents, high school principals, and teachers will be guests of State College at the Penn State-N. C. State basketball game in the Coliseum Saturday at 8 p. m.

Dr. Bostian also announced that all principals and school superintendents are invited to a meeting Saturday at 2:30 p. m. in the auditorium of the Riddick Engineering Laboratories Building, where problems of common interest between the schools and the college will be discussed.

LeRoy Martin of Raleigh, vice president and trust officer of the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, will make the principal address at the assembly program. He will be introduced by H. W. (Pop) Taylor, director of alumni affairs at State College, who has been designated by Chancellor Bostian to serve as chairman of the "High School Day" Committee.

The visiting students, parents, school officials, and teachers will be welcomed to the campus by Chancellor Bostian.

Others participating in the program will be Charles Law of Pelham, president of the College YMCA; James M. Nolan of Shannon, president of the student body; and John Lively of Tampa, Fla., chairman of the student "High School Day" committee.

Among the points of interest on the conducted tours will be the 12,400-seat Coliseum; the Burlington Nuclear Laboratories, first college-owned atomic reactor in America; and the College Union, one of the most modern student-faculty centers in the nation.

Also on the tours, the visiting students will have a chance to see State College's seven major schools—the Schools of Agriculture, Design, Education, Engineering, Forestry, Textiles, and General Studies and to observe the teaching and research facilities now available to N. C. State's 5,573 students.

World Service Drive Nears End

State College students will close their annual United Fund-World University Service fund-raising drive tomorrow night.

This year the funds from the drive will be split on a 90%-10% ratio with 90% going to the World University Service to be used as direct relief for Hungarian Students. The remaining 10 per cent will go to the United Fund of Raleigh.

Student solicitors for the campaign have visited dorm rooms during the week and booths have been set up in the YMCA and the College Union for the contributions of off-campus students. Campaign solicitors have also been appointed in each of the fraternity houses.

Kick-off Banquet

Kick-off for the drive, the only one to be held on the State campus each year, was a banquet held in the Cafeteria last Thursday night. Speakers keyed the drive, with an audience comprising students leaders invited to hear the remarks.

The drive is being sponsored by the Student Government, the College Union, the State College YMCA and other campus organizations.

"Happy Journey" will be one of six plays to be presented at the one-act play festival on Friday night, at 7 p. m. at Pullen Hall. Here the cast of "Happy Journey," presented by the Pi Kappa Phi fraternity, gets all set for a trip to Camden and Denton. (Photo by Bellis)

Who's Got The Report?

State's fraternities are again wound in administrative red tape as they endeavor to borrow money from the University escheats fund to serve as principal on the hoped for loan to build new fraternity houses.

In brief review, the social fraternities on campus over two years ago, began planning a new fraternity row for the hill behind Thompson Gym, hoping to borrow money from some source to erect the houses. All concerned, students, faculty and administration, agreed that the houses are needed. The present houses are over-filled private residences with poor feeding and toilet facilities and were, in several cases, fire hazards. At that same time, the city of Raleigh had rezoned much of the city, confining the fraternities to undesirable neighborhoods far distant from the college or limiting them to the sites they presently occupy.

Following several fruitless attempts to borrow money, several insurance companies agreed to back the plan if approximately one-third of the amount could be raised first by the fraternities. Again, after several possibilities were exhausted, the fraternities turned to the Administration and the Escheats Fund.

The initial request for the loan was made last year. It lay somewhere quietly until agitation this fall brought it before the Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees. They looked at the proposal, discussed it with Dr. Bostian, Mr. Vann and Mr. Stewart, and asked for more concrete facts, promising to act quickly to give it its first and most important approval.

The report was revised and returned to Mr. W. D. Carmichael in Chapel Hill. Mr. Carmichael, Comptroller of the Greater University, promised prompt action and voiced his personal interest in the plan.

This happened slightly over one month ago. Know what has happened since? Nothing! !

There are reasons. As State knows only too well, there has been a royal mess over athletics. But that has struck a lull. Many had hoped for action this week, but none has been forthcoming. There has been some question of linking the fraternity proposal to the married student housing. But that is out of the question, as the fraternities are seeking a loan, to be repaid, and the married student housing will, we hope, appear in the Advisory Budget Commission's report to the legislature in January.

Is it too much to hope for consideration? Frankly we see no big stumbling block to the fraternities. The action necessary lies not primarily with the Consolidated office at Chapel Hill, but with the Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees, who must make the decision, yea or nay, for the loan.

What has happened, and where or what is holding up the works?

Coliseum Fee?

George Cochran, President of the Junior Class, presented a resolution to the Coliseum Advisory Committee this week asking for a reduction or "doing-away-with" of the three hundred dollar base rental fee charged student groups for the use of the Coliseum.

This fee is applied as an initial charge for all student events in the Coliseum.

It has been protested before. In the fall of 1951, after the Junior-Senior had been forced to move to the city auditorium because of a Coliseum rental fee of $1100, The Technician and Student Government requested investigation of the fee.

We can find no further recommendation of changes or any other discussion in that year's Technician. And the fee then, as now, was three hundred plus extras necessary to stage the event.

Cochran maintains in his proposal that students should be given a break . . . and we wholeheartedly agree. It is a part of the State campus. Sure, it is an independent operation and receives no money from appropriation, but the classes at State don't either.

All Cochran asks is that the base fee be removed, or lowered, and that students be charged only for services rendered.

What are services rendered? Better than that, or at least, easier, the three hundred bucks covers unlocking the doors, cutting on the lights and heating the Coliseum. Everything else is extra . . . there is a neat itemized list available at the Coliseum and other places on campus, and we have little quarrel with it.

But we do think the students and student organizations should get a decent break on the base fee. If the Coliseum isn't there for student use, it would be a lot handier on Western Boulevard where it wouldn't knot up the campus with traffic! !

Ducks, Ducks

Walking along the cross-country track on the edge of Western Boulevard last Saturday afternoon near Pullen Park, my roommate and I heard a shotgun blast in the woods to our left. Not being particularly brave by nature we waited a minute before going to see for what possible reason anybody would be firing a shotgun on State College property so close to Pullen Park—it didn't take long to see why. When we went through the woods and came out on the other side, we saw a person walking rapidly across the fenced-in area used by the School of Forestry for a nursery . . . he had a dark-feathered duck in his right hand—quite dead.

Well, several thoughts passed through our thick heads: 1) Who could be such a fool as to be firing a gun on State property in an area where there well might be students using the cross-country track? (Advice to track men . . . it might be wise to send a freshman runner ahead with a tom-tom to warn any hunters in the area—they say that shotgun pellets hurt some); 2) Why would anybody want a duck bad enough to take that risk, unless they were about starving to death; 3) and how could anybody get any enjoyment whatsoever out of shooting a tame bird—evidently he shot one of those ducks that usually stay on Pullen Park Lake . . . a real sportsman.

After climbing the fence on the far side of the nursery, the sportsman hunter got into a waiting car and drove off. There is good reason to believe he is, or was, connected with State College . . . of course one can not be absolutely sure. Anyhow, maybe he was authorized to shoot that tame duck on State College property near the cross-country track; maybe that duck was trespassing or had been a wicked bird. But he was sure walking fast . . . maybe he was in a hurry to get home for supper. Yes, he was sure walking fast.

The Talent Among Us

Currently playing at the Raleigh Little Theatre is the well-known play "A Streetcar Named Desire." The play itself is smelly presented, but there are (in a minority) some fine actors in the production that every once in a while pull the play off the floor. One of those who does a particularly fine job a member of the faculty in the Civil Engineering department here at State—Charlie Kahn, who says State College is technical?—this is not the first time a faculty member or student has appeared in these plays.

Most of the plays have been really good, and the acting talent displayed has been near professional; a lot of you who haven't seen any of these productions would get a lot of enjoyment from them—plays of moods and types are given each season, from tragedies to comedies. Students get a special price which is equal to the charge on two second-class movies and it is well worth it.

Delegation Chairman Reports On NSA Meeting

(This meeting took place at the University of Chicago in August of this past summer. The following is a portion of the report prepared by the delegates and presented by their Chairman.)

Every summer for the past nine years, the National Student Association has held a Congress. Many of the advantages and worthwhile experiences of a National Student Congress are gained through the exposure of potential campus leaders to other potential leaders and those who are more experienced leaders.

There are six (6) representatives from State who attended the 9th. Congress, which was held at the University of Chicago (Aug. 21-31). (1) John Lane—Student Government Vice-President; (2) Bob Lane—Student Government Secretary; (3) Joel Parker—Student Government Treasurer; (4) Terry Lathrop, Editor of The Technician; (5) Bob Tanen—Vice-Chairman of Educational Affairs for the Carolinas-Virginia Region, and (6) Jim Peden—Chairman of the Carolinas-Virginia Region. Some 900 delegates were attending from the 48 states, and 12 foreign countries. Discussion groups were held in the mornings and afternoons. At night, larger discussion groups, assemblies of all delegates, and regional meetings were held. The keynote address was delivered by Dr. Harold Taylor, President of Sarah Lawrence College. Other significant speakers were the President of the University of Alabama, the Student Body President of the University of Alabama, and Autherine Lucy, a now famous ex-student of that same University.

The Carolina's-Virginia Region had 45 delegates that attended the Congress. Some of our delegates were busy working with the national officers some composing resolutions, and some were in meetings lasting until five or six in the morning. Even with all this work, our Region was again able to live up to its reputation of sponsoring the most fabulous party of any Region at the Congress.

You will be proud to know that State College's Student Government ranks along with the best in the country. Granted we have room for improvement, and there always will be modifications and changes to be made concerning our Student Government, we do have a Student Government that is steering towards the top files of American College Governing Bodies.

Topics that were discussed at the Congress concerning us most were in the following areas: Elections, Judicial, and Integration. In the discussion of elections, we found that our own elections would tend to run more smoothly if either voting machines were used or if a second series of ballot boxes were put out at noon of Election Day and the partially filled boxes picked up to be counted.

We found that many colleges have faculty members on the Judicial Boards. So long as we, the students, can keep our Judicial Board on this basis, we can feel that we have learned the integrity that is required of us. Integration naturally occupied a large portion of the discussion. The main outcome of the discussion reached by the entire Congress was: (1) integration schools (grammar, high school and colleges) must be a smooth procedure; (2) integration must be by the fastest feasible method.

It should also be brought out that many resolutions were discussed in the plenary session of the Congress. Just a few of the sixty-some resolutions were on: (1) Student Health, (2) Leadership Training Conferences, (3) Student Union Conferences, (4) Faculty Raises, (5) Rushing in Orientation. About half of the resolutions were not even brought on the plenary floor for either approval or disapproval. Although these resolutions failed to reach discussion, each delegate had a copy and was cognizant of the work that had preceded the resolution.

Speaking Engagements & Meetings Keep Professors Busy Traveling

Physics and nuclear engineering professors at North Carolina State College plan a round of speaking engagements and meetings during this month in addition to their teaching and research activities.

On December 9 through 12 Arthur W. Waltner, J. T. Lynn and Raymond L. Murray have been invited to attend the national meeting of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers in Boston. They will present a paper on "Laboratory Experiments in Nuclear Engineering at North Carolina State College."

When the American Nuclear Society holds its winter meeting in Washington on December 10, Arthur C. Menius, Harold A.monds, Charles Terrill, Joseph Lundholm, Waltner and Lynn will attend.

Dr. Murray will speak in Havana, Cuba, on December 17 and on the invitation of the Nuclear Energy Commission of Cuba. His talks entitled "Research with a Nuclear Reactor" and "Factors in the Design of Nuclear Reactors" will be presented before the 1st National Forum of Peaceful Uses of the Atom.

Dr. Menius recently returned from Eglin Air Force Base in Florida where he made an address on "Trajectory Measurements" to the Interservice Commission on Technical Facilities.

Ag Ed Junior Wins Tobacco Scholarship

Elmer Eugene Capps of Selma, a junior in agricultural education at North Carolina State College, has been selected as the recipient of the Jas. I. Miller Tobacco Company Scholarship for the current school year.

Announcement of the award was made by Thomas D. Miller, president of the Jas. I. Miller Tobacco Company, Inc., and Dr. Lyle B. Rogers, financial aid officer of State College.

Capps is a 1954 graduate of the Selma High School where he had an excellent record in scholarship and activities. His scholastic record at State has qualified him for scholarship recognition.

Coach Case & Company have started the season in a style that everyone thought had left the West Raleigh campus. . . . But wins over Pitt and powerful Wake Forest has caused Wolfpack fans to sit up and notice. . . .

A thought to remember: As long as there is a maroon Cadillac parked in front of the Coliseum, the sign on the basketball office door will read "business as usual."

John Wessels, 6-7 freshman cage star, has left State College for undisclosed reasons. His loss plus the ineligibility of Jackie Moreland, leaves State's freshmen lacking in much needed height.

Close to two thousand orders for $14.00 seats to the Dixie Classic had to be returned because of lack of seats. Some 8,000 season books have been sold to the holiday classic. Tournament officials hope for a sell-out before opening day on December 27th.

The editors of Sport, chosen to judge the photos taken by college publicity departments, picked the posed shot of Guerrieri as the best in the contest's punting category.

ACC to Study Pack's Request for Probe Today

DURHAM — The Atlantic Coast Conference will consider today North Carolina State's request that the ACC investigate the Jackie Moreland basketball recruiting case and resulting four-year probation slapped on the college by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

Dr. Charles E. Jordan of Duke, ACC president, said he had invited chancellor Carey H. Bostian of North Carolina State to appear before the faculty chairmen of athletics at Greensboro, today the day before the annual winter meeting of the conference opens.

Moreland, a 6-8 freshman from Minden, La., has not been approved for athletic eligibility by ACC commissioner Jim Weaver. The NCAA last Nov. 13 charged State with violation of recruiting regulations in Moreland's case and suspended the school from all NCAA activities for four years.

Both the school and Moreland have protested they are innocent of the charges.

Bostian said the college feels the best way in which to appeal to the NCAA is "through our own conference." He called for "an independent and complete investigation by the ACC."

Jordan said that after Bostian appears before the faculty chairmen on the eve of the annual meeting to state his case the matter will go before the ACC executive committee for study.

The final decision may come tonight, although an announcement may not be made until Friday at the conference meeting, Jordan indicated.

High Riding Wolfpack Meet Penn State Saturday In Coli.; ACC Battles Next Week S. C. & Clemson

Surprising North Carolina State, 73-63 winner over Atlantic Coast Conference co-favorite Wake Forest, seeks its third win of the season Saturday night when Penn State invades Reynolds Coliseum.

Game time for the inter-sectional contest is at 8:15, following the 6 o'clock preliminary between the State freshmen, also 2-0 for the season and Com-ServLant, a Navy team from Norfolk, Va.

The Wolfpack's win over the Deacons caused a lot of eyebrow raising throughout the ACC, despite the fact that State had won nine straight over Wake Forest dating back to the 1953 Dixie Classic.

Coach Murray Greason's experienced quintet had been rated a co-favorite with North Carolina to replace State as conference champion.

Three players have carried the 'Pack through its wins over Pittsburgh and Wake Forest. Center Bob Seitz, a 6-foot-11 senior, and guard John Maglio, also a senior, each has 38 points in two games to share the scoring lead.

Seitz hit 16 against Pitt and 22 against the Deacs. Maglio reversed those figures, getting 22 in the opener and 16 against Wake Forest.

foot-8 forward-center from Philadelphia, trails the leaders by four points. The smooth-working rookie bagged 24 points to lead the win over the Panthers and came through with 10 against the Deacons.

Other two-game totals have guard Whitey Bell with 22, forward Cliff Hafer with 20 and forward Nick Pond with 14.

Saturday's game with Penn State will be the sixth between the two teams with State winning the previous five. Last year the Wolfpack triumphed 78-42 in a runaway.

John Egli, had a 12-14 record last year but view this year with optimism. Chief reason for the hope is 6-foot-8 center B Ramsay who improves with each game. He was 7.3 score last year.

Penn State is expected to star Bob Leisher and Ron Rainey forwards, Ramsay at center. Steve Baidy and Carmen Palmiero at guards. All are lettermen except Palmiero, a sophomore.

BOB SEITZ . . . 6-11 . . . 263 . . . 22 . . . Senior . . . Oaklyn, N. J. The biggest man on the team, Seitz steps in to take over for Shavlik this year. Bob is a strong pivot man who is a good shooter and a top notch rebounder. He lacks aggressiveness but has shown flashes of brilliance and is considered as excellent prospect. He was a sensational basketball star at Collingswood High School and paced his team to the Group 4 championship in 1953. He also played baseball and was a weight man in track. Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Seitz and lists art and fishing as his hobby. He is majoring in Textiles and hopes to design fabrics in a textile mill after graduation. He once scored 20 of his team's 23 points in a high school game under coach John McCluskey. He saw considerable action last year behind Shavlik.

Wolfpack Downs Pitt 97-85; Dumps Wake Forest 73-63

Seitz, Maglio Pace State in Openers

North Carolina State's Wolfpack, a team that was supposed to be on the decline, swept to two straight and impressive wins last week at the hands of Pittsburgh, 97-85 and arch-rival Wake Forest, 73-63.

Wake Forest

Behind the 22-point scoring effort of 6-11 center Bob Seitz, State overcame a 5-point half-time lead to hand Wake Forest its 10th straight loss at the hands of the Pack. Wake Forest, abbed by many sports observers as one of the teams to beat in the ACC, just couldn't get started after the half and fell before a Wolfpack on-slaught.

The half-time score was 27-22 in Wake's favor, but it required only two and a half minutes for the Pack to net the score at 38-28. From here on out it was all State College as they widen the gap to 14-points with six minutes left.

A last minute Deacon spurt failed to cut the margin.

Maglio was the second high scorer with 16 points. Hafer got 3.

Pittsburgh

State College opened its 1956-57 season with a 97-85 victory over weak Pittsburgh last Saturday night. Reserve center John Richter hit for 26 points to lead State's scoring attack. Seitz had 16.

The Pack was never in too much trouble as they commanded a 15-point halftime lead. State's lads hit on over 50 per cent of their shots from the floor.

Frosh Cop Two

State's freshman opened its season with two wins, a 90-85 victory over Camp Lejeune Marines and a thrilling 79-72 Big-four win against Wake Forest's frosh.

Bob Cole tallied 29 points against the Baby Deacons to clinch the win.

The frosh squad is playing without the services of star-center Jackie Moreland.

There has been at least one laugh in this whole business concerning Jackie Moreland. One source said he had been scouted as a football prospect. Moreland never had a football in his hand during four years of high school.

Throw that in with a ridiculous story such as his family not knowing where he was going when he left home headed for State and it makes for some poor and misleading reporting.

The loss of Bob MacGillivray figures to hurt the Wolfpack plenty. The leading scorer on last year's freshman team with a 20.1 average, the 6-foot-4 lefthander was being groomed for a starting role. He'll be back in January for another battle with the books.

IS THIS THE MAN WHO STARTED IT?

There are some who dispute the fact that President Chester A. Arthur was the first man to wear the Oxford Button-Down shirt. They are right, he wasn't. Van Heusen has discovered that its originator was actually Arthur A. Chester, who, oddly enough, used the button not to keep his collar down, but to keep his shirt up. Whatever its purpose, the Oxford Button-Down (or Button-Up) shirt wowed Mr. Chester's crowd on sight and has been a staple of fine wardrobes ever since.

Today, Van Heusen's Oxford Button-Down is still in the authentic Chesterian tradition

... but with a wonderful difference. The cloth, woven of fine long-staple cotton, is as soft as a co-ed's smile, yet exceptionally long-wearing. Superbly tailored in the smart Van Heusen way, this Oxford Button-Down enhances your looks, whether you're involved in class, tugs of war or midnight brawls. $5.00.

Nuclear Energy In Industry To Be Discussed at Union

"Plans for Development of Electric Power from Nuclear Energy in North Carolina" will be discussed by Raymond Talton of Carolina Power & Light Company at the College Union on Tuesday, December 11, at 8 p.m. The event will be sponsored by the CU Forum Committee.

In his talk, Talton will present the part the newly formed Carolina Virginia Nuclear Power Associates, Inc., will play in the nuclear energy picture here in the state. He will also discuss the contributions this corporation hopes to make to nuclear development on the national level.

A native of Smithfield, Talton received his B.S. degree in mechanical engineering from State College in 1936. A year later he joined Carolina Power & Light in substation design work. He left after a short period to work with the Civil Service Commission in Mare Island, Calif., returning to CP&L in 1939 as a mechanical engineer. In 1943, he was placed in charge of maintenance at the company's Cape Fear Plant at Moncure, and in 1948 was promoted to production engineer with headquarters in Raleigh. In 1956 he became superintendent of power. In this capacity he is supervisor of power generation, system operations and communications.

Talton also is serving as a member of the engineering board

Alpha Pi Mu Initiates Ten Men from State

Raul Edwardo Alvarez, a graduate student from Buenos Aires, Argentina, was also accepted as a new member.

Robert Warren Llewellyn, associate professor of industrial engineering at the College was made an honorary member of the fraternity. Alumni who were tapped were Floyd Isam Harper, president and general manager of Albright Boot and Marine Company, Inc. in Charlotte; and William Vogedes, Jr., who is an employee of the Roberts Company of Sanford.

The engineering society chooses its active membership from students who have distinguished themselves scholastically. Membership is considered one of the highest honors that an industrial engineer can receive.

Oran Ritter asks:

Does Du Pont hire men who have definite military commitments?

Oran A. Ritter, Jr., expects to receive his B.S. in chemical engineering from Louisiana State University in June 1957. He's now editor-in-chief of the "L.S.U. Engineer," local president of Tau Beta Pi, and senior member of the Honor Council of his university. Oran's question is on the minds of many men planning a technical career.

Don Sutherland answers:

Donald G. Sutherland graduated from Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1953 with an M.S. degree in chemical engineering and an R.O.T.C. commission. He was hired by Du Pont's plant at Victoria, Texas. After two years in the service, Don returned to his career in engineering, and is now doing plant-assistance work in the technical section at Victoria.

YES, Oran, we certainly do! We've employed quite a number of college graduates with definite military commitments, even when we knew they could work no more than a few weeks before reporting for duty. Take my own case. I was hired in November of 1953 and worked for only four weeks before leaving for the Army. Two years later I returned to Du Pont.

You see, we're primarily interested in men on a long-range basis. The fact that they're temporarily unavailable, for a good reason like military service, isn't any bar to their being considered for employment. After working only one day, an employee is guaranteed full re-employment rights—that's the law. And if a man works for Du Pont a full year before entering the service for two or more years, he receives an extra two months' salary. If he goes into the service for six months, he's paid a half month's salary. When he's entitled to a vacation but doesn't have time to take it before leaving, Du Pont gives him equivalent pay instead.

Even if present employment is impossible, Oran, we definitely recommend your talking with Du Pont's representatives as well as those of other companies. The very least you'll gain will be valuable background and some contacts of real benefit to you when you leave military service.

WANT TO KNOW MORE about working with Du Pont? Send for a free copy of "The Du Pont Company and the College Graduate," a booklet that tells you about opportunities for work in all departments of the Company. Write to the Du Pont Company, 2521 Nemours Building, Wilmington, Delaware.

YMCA Intercollegiate Conference Attended By Raleigh Colleges

Military Science Department and Army ROTC Sponsor TV Program

The Department of Military Science and Tactics and the Army ROTC Cadet Regiment of N. C. State College will sponsor a 30 minute TV program, "The Big Picture," on WRAL beginning on Saturday, December 15, at 2:00 p.m. and each Saturday thereafter.

The program depicts subjects of general military interest. This particular program will be the first scheduled program after the opening program on WRAL which begins transmitting for the first time on December 15. WRAL-TV will broadcast over Channel 5.

Last week-end State College played host for an Intercollegiate Conference for the colleges in Raleigh. The conference lasted from Friday to Sunday and was sponsored by the YMCA and Lory Wubbena, the Danforth Graduate at State.

The principal speaker was the Reverend Theodore Romig, D.D. Mr. Romig was born in Tsing, China, the son of Presbyterian missionaries, and spent the early years of his life in that country.

Educated In U. S.

Romig came to the United States for his college education and was graduated from Wooster College in 1931, from Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Chicago, in 1934, and received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Dubuque University.

The theme for the conference was "Our United Witness in the College and University." Subjects discussed included (1) "Spiritual Unity of Christian thinking on Campus, (2) The change of policy in Christian Missions throughout the World, (3) "How Educational, Medicine, Industrial and Agricultural Missionaries are Implementing the Christian Mission's Work Throughout the World," and (4) "Methods of Developing Tolerance in Reconciliation of Spiritual and Ethical Differences."

Broader Outlook

Ralph Siewers, Vice-president of the "Y," said, "the YMCA feels there is a need for an awareness of college students to just what must be the Christian students' witness on the campus. We felt that a co-educational and inter-racial approach to this question would be much more productive than a rather narrow approach we at State alone could give the question."

All Raleigh colleges were represented in the Intercollegiate Conference except St. Mary's. State and Shaw had the largest number of delegates.

Fluoridation

Most important on the agenda for the Investigation Committee was an endorsement of the fluoridation program. It has been proven that fluoridation means better teeth for children, is safe, and is economical. By endorsing the proposal, the Student Government is voicing the opinions of the students at State, whom they represent. In effect, the endorsement tells the City of Raleigh that State College is in favor of fluoridation.

IDC Gets $2,618

A summary of finances allotted to various campus organizations was presented by Joel Parker, Chairman of the Budgetary and Finance Committee. The Air Force Drill Team received $68.00, and an operating budget of $2,618.60 was appropriated to the Interdormitory Council. The final and total cost of the parking lot beside the A & P store amounted to $7,465.16, it was reported.

Senator Brooks had a resolution passed to pave the entire area behind Berry, Becton, and Bagwell Dormitories. Argument followed on the merits and practicality of strip paving vs. complete paving. Strip paving can easily deteriorate and dust still remains; so, if funds are available, the area will be completely paved.

New Ruling on Delegates

George Cochran initiated a new ruling for the selection of delegates from N. C. State to the N. C. State Student Legislature by resolving that two-thirds of the allotted delegates come from the Legislature of the Student Government and the remainder from the students at large. All delegates will be selected one month prior to the meeting of the State Student Legislature.

It is vitally important that there be a proper means of selecting delegates to this Legislature because it was initiated by State for the education of students and for the betterment of the citizens of the State of North Carolina. Many delegates from N. C. State have been sent on a voluntary basis and have attended for reasons not in keeping with the spirit of the Legislature. However, these conditions can be stopped and new standards set up by the passing of this new ruling.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

He puts communications on the go

Martin Jepson, E.E., Purdue, '53, is an Engineer in the Radio and Special Services Section of Illinois Bell Telephone Company.

"I help design mobile radiotelephone systems," says Martin. "We have a wide variety of customers, including trucking firms, railroads and marine traffic of all kinds. Many businessmen, too, want these systems for their private cars. Each customer has his own communications problems, and these are a constant and stimulating engineering challenge."

"Another part of my job is to help set up facilities for conventions, sports events and the like. Last summer's Democratic National Convention, for instance, used enough circuits and facilities to serve a small city. There were special circuits for broadcasting, teletypewriters, the press, and for inside communications. It was our job to set those facilities up and keep them operating."

"The increase in demand for telephone and related services is phenomenal. It's this growth that's creating real career opportunities in the telephone business. Add to this the fact that it's a stable business, and you've really got something!"

Martin Jepson is one of many young men who are finding interesting careers in Bell Telephone Companies, and also in Bell Telephone Laboratories, Western Electric and Sandia Corporation. See your placement officer for more information about Bell System Companies.

Future Freshmen Must Take Exam

All prospective North Carolina State College freshmen who expect to enter the college at the beginning of the winter semester in February or the fall semester in September are required to take entrance examinations.

This was reported today by Kenneth D. Raab, director of admissions and registration at State College, who released a list of examination centers and urged prospective freshmen to take the examinations at the sites nearest to their homes.

In line with action taken by the Consolidated University's Board of Trustees, all freshmen entering either State College in Raleigh, Woman's College in Greensboro, or the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill are requested to take the entrance tests before being admitted to either institution.

"All students remotely considering attendance should take the examination," Raab said.

He explained, "This year the entrance examination scores will be used in the distribution of most scholarship awards including State College's unique 'Talent for Service' scholarships."

He said the three institutions involved have agreed on dates and places for the examinations as a convenience to students seeking to enroll at either school.

The first examination was held at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, December 1, at the following sites:

Murphy High School, Murphy; Shelby Senior High School, Shelby; Myers Park High School, Charlotte; Elkin High School, Elkin; Hickory High School, Hickory; College Union, Woman's College, Greensboro; Henderson High School, Henderson; Textile Building Auditorium, North Carolina State College, Raleigh; Clinton High School, Clinton; Grainger High School, Kinston; Williamston High School, Williamston; and Morehead City High School, Morehead City.

Tests will be given at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, December 15, at the following places:

"When I said get your cards—I meant your class cards!"

Dr. B. F. Skinner, noted experimental psychologist of Harvard University, lectured in the auditorium of the Riddick Engineering Laboratories Building Tuesday at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Skinner spoke on "The Experimental Analysis of Behavior." He has done research on this and related subjects, working with rats, pigeons, and humans. He invented a "mechanical baby tender," an air-conditioned crib in which he raised one of his own children.

Issues Campus Stores Report

A report on the findings of the Campus Stores Advisory Committee has been released by Mr. Walter H. Pierce, Chairman of the Committee.

Other faculty members are Mr. Gerald B. James and Mr. D. G. Thompson. Student members appointed by the Student Government President are E. L. Forbes, T. B. Hawkins and F. E. Minter.

"The campus stores system represents a composite of student service centers composed of the following units: Watauga Book Shop, Student Supply Store, The Technical Press, Quad Canteen, Syme Coffee Shop, Country House, Tucker Snack Bar, Shuttle Inn, and The Dug Out.

These units are owned and operated by the North Carolina State College Scholarship Fund. The campus stores were purchased in 1944 with a view to providing efficient and economical service to students and staff of the college community in the purchase of books, academic supplies, and sundries; and for earning income to be used for educational grants-in-aid to worthy students.

The Campus Stores are operated under the supervision of the college administration, including the Office of the Chancellor, the Business Office, and the Management of the Store System as employed by the College. All employees are paid a regular salary as agreed upon by the administration and approved by the Board of Trustees. They do not receive any share of the profits from store earnings.

The Chancellor and President have been granted authority by the Board of Trustees for allocating profits to the different kinds of grants and awards. The Chancellor has adopted a policy of following the recommendations of the Student Government of State College in making his recommendations for allocations regarding divisions of scholarship funds between athletic and non-athletic grants-in-aid. In 1956 this amounted to $42,939.45 for athletic awards and $28,626.30 for non-athletic grants. These funds have been supplemented heavily in recent years by additional award funds from other sources. In the preceding years the allocations were as follows:

- 1952-53—$30,000 for athletic scholarships — $15,000 non-athletic
- 1953-54—$25,000 for athletic scholarships — $20,000 non-athletic
- 1954-55—$33,000 for athletic scholarships — $22,000 non-athletic

The campus stores are an integral part of the function and activities of State College. Although sometimes referred to as the "Mop-up", it is being operated efficiently and every penny earned is being turned into some good cause for State College and its students. In cases where dissatisfaction arises on the part of the students, the matter should be investigated, not just "talked about". This is the purpose of, and one way in which the Campus Stores Advisory Committee can be of service.

Students on the State College campus are fortunate in having the services provided by the campus stores. They should be proud of the contributions being made to scholarship and athletics on the campus. Past, present, and future students should recognize that they are, indirectly, the real owners of the stores and take pride in the fact that it is an integral part of the activities of a great institution."

The teams will return to Raleigh today.

The N. C. State team, coached by T. N. Blumer of the college's Animal Industry Department, made a total of 2,547 points as compared with the University of Wisconsin's 2,572.
