

Edwards Named Top ACC Coach

By Tom Lewis
Earle Edwards, now in his fourth year as Wolfpack football coach, has been named "Coach of the Year" by the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association.

Edwards scored 338 points out of a possible 390, winning 58 first place votes from the sportswriters and sportscasters. The next two highest were Frank Howard of Clemson with 159 points and Jim Tatum with 109 points.

Coach Earle Edwards

Last year's winner was Paul Amen of Wake Forest.

Edwards was named Tar Heel of the Week by the Raleigh News and Observer in their December 1, 1957 issue.

The 1957 Wolfpack squad is the first team that Edwards has worked with for four years at State College.

At Michigan State
Edwards assumed coaching duties at State College in the winter of 1954. Prior to that he had been end coach and chief scout for Michigan State. He was there when the Spartans had their 28 game winning streak and won the Rose Bowl game.

Before his Michigan stay Edwards was assistant coach at his Alma Mater, Penn State. As a player he was an outstanding end. He graduated in 1931 with a degree in Industrial Engineering. Several years later he got a masters degree in Physical Education.

Everyone who have ever worked with Edwards have nothing but praise for him, both as a coach and as a man.

Coach and Mrs. Edwards have three grown children. Jack, 25, is a Michigan State graduate and now works in Philadelphia; Mary Ann, 22, graduated from Carolina in 1956 and is now at home. Bob, 19, is a junior at Carolina.

Butler Appointed YMCA Treasurer

Gene Butler, an engineering senior from Wilmington, N. C., was appointed to the position of YMCA Treasurer by the "Y" Cabinet at their luncheon meeting at noon today.

The position was vacated last week when it was announced that former "Y" Treasurer Jim O'Connell had resigned the post because of plans to enroll at the University of Georgia in January.

Committee Chairman

Butler has been chairman of the Freshman Commission, one of the four "Y" commissions, since September and in this ca-capacity has been in charge of organizing the various freshman discussion groups on the campus. He will continue his freshman work along with his new responsibilities and "Y" Treasurer.

The YMCA Treasurer is usually elected by the student body in the general election in the spring, but in case of a resignation, the Cabinet of the YMCA can appoint a successor to serve until the next campus elections.

It was also announced at the Cabinet meeting today that Dick Newell and Joe Dixon have been named members of the YMCA Cabinet.

Over Two Thousand Attend State's High School Day

Last Saturday, over 2,000 persons from all over the state attended State's annual "High School Day". A day-long program was followed to show the visiting students the far-flung educational and research functions of State College and to entertain them at various events.

Among the facilities which the visitors toured were the Burlington Nuclear Laboratories, the College Union Building, and Reynolds Coliseum.

Saturday night, the students were guests of State at the Penn State—N. C. State basketball game in the Coliseum.

Ballentine's Address

L. Y. Ballentine, State commissioner of agriculture, delivered the principal address of the day; Mr. Ballentine in his speech said State College "is the most important single institution of higher learning to be found anywhere in North Carolina."

With an annual research budget exceeding four and one-half million dollars, the college, Ballentine reported, is now engaged in 365 separate research projects in its 48 departments, all of which relate

Mixed Choir Plans Chapel Appearance

At the Danforth Chapel service on Wednesday at 12:40, the regular chapel choir will be joined by the voices of several women from the Watts Hospital School of Nursing.

The selection to be sung by the joint choirs is "Oh, Thou From Whom All Blessings Come."

The speaker for the service will be Rev. John Cobb of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. He will speak on "The Parable of the Hidden Treasure."

'Y' Groups To Carol Tonight At 7:00

Members of freshman YMCA discussion groups will meet tonight at 7:00 in front of the "Y" to go Christmas caroling. The men will be accompanied by approximately 20 girls from Rex Hospital.

A bus will leave from the "Y" at 7:15 and will take the carolers to the Methodist Orphanage and the State Mental Hospital. A small pump organ will be taken along.

Refreshments

After their Christmas caroling, the group will go to the home of Rev. O. B. Wooldridge, YMCA Secretary, for refreshments. All members of the freshman "Y" groups are invited to join the carolers.

Members of the ten active "Y" freshman groups include the men who attended the annual Freshman YMCA Retreat held before school opened in September. These groups have been meeting in dormitories for informal discussions since September.

New Agriculturist Out Wednesday

Distribution of the second issue for the school year of The Agriculturist, student publication of the Agriculture School, will begin Wednesday.

Jim Hunt, editor of the magazine, announced that it will be distributed to all dormitories, and will be mailed to off-campus agriculture students, as well as other persons in the agricultural field throughout the state.

The magazine is supported by Ag Club dues, as well as through advertisements.

The Rho Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity at State has announced plans to purchase the Colonial Pines Hotel as a fraternity house.

The price of the former tourist hotel has been set at $71,000. This includes the 35-room hotel, all furnishings and fixtures, and seven acres of land. The purchase is to be made by a group of fraternity alumni.

Visitors Welcome

Delta Sigma Phi President, Bob Kennel, has said that visitors are welcome to the new house anytime after January 1. Kennel told The Technician last night that "we realize that we have assumed a large burden in paying for such a house, but we feel certain we can meet this challenge."

The house has private baths and showers for all rooms and is approximately three and one half miles from the campus. It will house 60 men.

Delta Sigma Phi Purchases House

The Rho Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity at State has announced plans to purchase the Colonial Pines Hotel as a fraternity house.

The price of the former tourist hotel has been set at $71,000. This includes the 35-room hotel, all furnishings and fixtures, and seven acres of land. The purchase is to be made by a group of fraternity alumni.

The Rho Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi was re-activated at State about four months ago.

The Colonial Pines Hotel was begun in 1929 as a part of a resort development and, due to the depression, was not completed until 1933. It had been operating on a seasonal basis since 1947.

The new cut plan calls for (1) the Attendance Office to excuse students for sickness and college approved trips, (2) professors to have the power to excuse a student for any other reason, (3) students to be excused by professors for family deaths, critical illness in family, and appearance in court, (4) professors to have the privilege of retracting a cut previously turned in.

The resolution urged that the plan be adopted for the spring semester.

In other action the legislature passed a resolution recommending that the administration provide a woman's dormitory as soon as possible. The resolution stated that a women's dormitory would attract more coeds to enroll at State.

The legislature was told that the faculty evaluation project, which is administered through the department heads, would begin on January 13.

A report was also heard on the National Student Association Convention which is to be held on the campus on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Modified Cut Sys., Woman's Dorm Win Student Legislature Approval

A modified cut system and a woman's dormitory were endorsed by the Student Legislature at its meeting Thursday night.

By Rob Farrell
A State College freshman drowned in the swimming pool in Frank Thompson Gymnasium yesterday afternoon.

The victim was Charles Louis Murphy, 18, a freshman in Engineering from Zebulon, N. C. He was a resident of 105 Bagwell Dormitory.

According to N. B. Watts, Director of Housing, the drowning occurred during a period when the gym facilities are open to all students. It was reported that at the time of the drowning there was a life guard and 15 or 20 others in the area of the pool.

Four Feet Deep

Watts stated that no one observed Murphy going into the water. He was first noticed on the bottom of the pool in about 4 feet of water. The stricken student was brought to the edge of the pool and attempts to revive him were begun.

In the meantime, the Raleigh Rescue Squad was summoned to the scene, but their efforts were of no avail. The rescue unit received the call at 3:21 p.m.

Bump on Forehead
Murphy had a bump on his forehead, and it is believed that he might have dived into the pool and struck bottom.

The student's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Murphy, agreed to an autopsy to determine the exact cause of death.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Off-Campus Paper Mailing Cancelled

The Technician no longer mails papers to students living off campus.

These students may pick up their copies either the night they are published or the following morning. The pick-up points are the College Union, the Textile Building, Winston Hall, and outside The Technician office in the 1911 Building.

C U Day In April

The Consolidated University Student Council met yesterday at State and decided that the next Consolidated University Day would be held at State College on April 19.

The decision to hold CU Day at State is a change from the plans made last month to hold the event at Woman's College in Greensboro.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

A Terrible Shock

The tragic death of Charles L. Murphy yesterday afternoon while swimming at the Gymnasium comes as a terrible shock to the campus.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Murphy in this, a time of sorrow and suffering for them.

The drowning came at a time when there were 15 to 20 other students in the pool and while a life-guard was on duty. It is superfluous to say that the life-guard obviously was not mindful of the grave responsibility entrusted to him and was not really "on duty."

Further loss of human life might be prevented by adopting the "buddy system" for all students while swimming at the gymnasium. Whether it be the "buddy system" or some other plan, a recurrence of such death must be prevented.

Student Deathtraps

Tragedy in one area points to possible tragedy in other areas.

Hillsboro Street and Dunn Allen Drive are potential death traps for students at State College.

Just last week a student was struck on Hillsboro Street by a motorcycle. Had it been an automobile rather than a motorcycle, another human life might have been taken.

Dunn Allen Drive runs the length of the campus and separates seven dormitories—housing hundreds of students—from the main part of the campus. All of these dormitory residents must cross this street daily to attend classes.

The speed limit on this street is 20 mph. This speed limit, however, is not enforced.

And on Hillsboro Street, either caution signs should be posted, or the 35 mph speed limit reduced. As it is now, it requires a quick eye and light foot to cross this potential death-bed.

Both of these streets should be studied carefully by the Traffic Committee or the Raleigh Police, or by both . . . before another tragedy occurs.

High School Day

Last Saturday over 2,000 high school students got a brief glimpse of our college while attending State's annual "High School Day."

The visit to our school will undoubtedly help "sell" State to many of the high school students who were here.

To those who were responsible for the day, therefore, The Technician would like to extend a word of congratulations.

Chairman of "High School Day" was H. W. (Pop) Taylor, our director of alumni affairs. Student chairman of the day was Chris Tabor; and Nancy Mumford, a coed, was chairman of the registration committee.

Others who gave of their time to help make the day a success were the many guides who showed the visitors around the campus and the several men who spoke at the assembly program.

To all of these people we owe our appreciation and a well-deserved congratulations.

Goal Posts And School Spirit

Editor's Note: The following letter was written before the editorial appeared in this paper on the Goal Post situation but was received after this editorial was written. Although now two weeks old, we hope the letter will spur the Student Body President to take action on the situation.

To The Editor:

As everyone is well aware, thanks to the Raleigh News and Observer, there was quite a scandal regarding the goal post incident at the State-Carolina football game at the beginning of the season.

Perhaps we were wrong in attacking the goal posts, but I certainly don't think so.

Specifically, at the end of the Duke-Carolina game, Carolina students encountered no opposition from police or anyone else when they tore down the Duke goal and carried it away.

The TV announcer made several comments as the goal post strained, swayed, and hit the dirt. The announcer stated something to the effect that this is an old tradition that is upheld at all college football games. Perhaps he should have added, "EXCEPT WHERE STATE COLLEGE IS CONCERNED."

In regards to our college spirit being so low in comparison to that of other local colleges, I'd like to say that I believe it is right where the responsible departments of this college have put it. Everytime the State students try to show a little college spirit and support their team, they are accused of every crime that can be applied to the situation, and are consequently condemned for their actions. As a result, the students are forced to guard their actions, fearing that "Big Brother" is watching and may not like what he sees.

ACP Polls Student Opinion On Integration, Other Matters

Every year the Associated Collegiate Press conducts a series of student opinion polls at a number of colleges throughout the country to obtain a representative cross-section of the views of college students on controversial subjects.

Below we are presenting the results of the first series of these polls this year.

Question: "There has been a lot of discussion lately over the issue of integration of white and Negro students in public high schools and grade schools. Do you feel that white and Negro students should be integrated in these schools, or do you think they should not be integrated?"

The Results:

	Men	Women	Total
Think they should be integrated	69%	78%	73%
Think they should not be integrated	29%	22%	26%
Undecided	2%		1%

Question: "Every so often a new controversy arises over the subject of radioactive fallout from tests of nuclear weapons, and at such times there are usually two sides expressed—those who believe all testing should be stopped, and those who feel it should continue. Do you think testing of nuclear weapons should be ended, or do you think it should be continued? Why?"

The Results:

	Men	Women	Total
Think it should be stopped	3%	17%	8%
Think it should be continued	94%	78%	88%
Undecided	3%	5%	4%

Question: "There seems to be a growing trend among students toward going on to earn graduate degrees after receiving a bachelor's degree. Barring any unforeseen circumstances, do you plan to continue on to graduate school after you finish college? Why?"

The Results:

	Men	Women	Total
Yes, plan to continue	53%	54%	53%
No, do not plan to continue	38%	46%	41%
Undecided	9%		5%

Among those who do not intend to continue on with graduate school, the outstanding reason given for their decision seems to be lack of money. Marriage was also given as a reason for not intending to continue studying, and it was not only coeds who decided they would not go on for that reason.

Question: "Do you think the Public Health Department was wise in widely publicizing the possibility of an Asian flu epidemic, or do you think it should not have given the issue so much publicity?"

The Results:

	Men	Women	Total
Think it was wise	71%	59%	66%
Think it shouldn't have been given so much publicity	24%	39%	30%
Undecided	5%	2%	4%

Question: "Not long ago a midwest educator said he feels that not enough emphasis is being placed on a liberal arts education today. Do you agree with this statement, or do you disagree with it?"

The Results:

	Men	Women	Total
Agree	47%	41%	45%
Disagree	41%	49%	44%
Undecided	12%	10%	11%

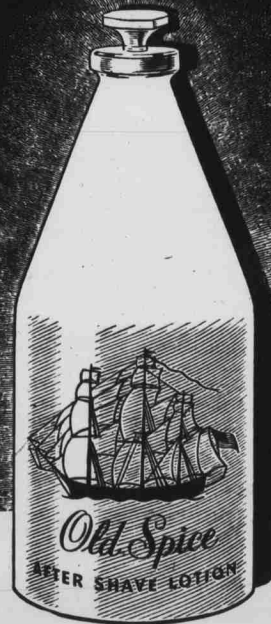

Why can't we have a little support and consideration from all departments concerned? It could do a lot for our college spirit; after all, spirit can not be forced on a person, it must come from within him.

State Wins Third Straight

Now that one week of the basketball season is history, it looks like the Wolfpack cage crew is attempting to keep up what was started this year by the football squad, namely, that of being a championship team.

With three games behind them, the Wolfpack has a perfect record, the wins coming at the expense of Atlantic Christian, Wake Forest, and Penn State.

Last Saturday, the Pack took their third straight victory with an 80-62 win over the Nittany Lions of Penn State. State continued their phenomenal shooting percentage as they dunked 51.8% of their shots from the floor.

For the third straight game, forward Bob MacGillivray was big scorer with 19 points, with guard Lou Pucillo taking runner-up honors, with 16. Another forward, George Stepanovich, led both teams under the boards with 14 rebounds.

Pack Hits Half of Shots

In the first ACC game of the year, last Thursday night, the Red Men from West Raleigh outclassed the green Deacons of Wake Forest as they won 62-51. The Pack hit on 48.8% of their shots from the floor.

Again MacGillivray was outstanding as he hit for 20 points to lead both teams. Close behind was center John Richter with 15 markers. Under the boards, it was MacGillivray again with 13 rebounds.

State ventres to Palmetto State. This week, the Wolfpack will travel to the Palmetto State for games on Tuesday and Wednesday nights with Clemson and South Carolina.

Although the Tigers have lost all three of their games thus far this season at the hands of Georgia, Duke, and North Carolina, they cannot be taken lightly. Forward Vince Yockel, last year's leading scorer with 19.8 points per game is back along with guards Tom Cameron and Ed Brinkley. Forward George Krajack and 6-7 center Walt Gibbons, both sophomores, make the team a definite threat.

USC Expected to Be Tough

The Gamecocks of USC will enter the State game with a perfect 2-0 record, holding wins over Georgia and Georgia Tech. South Carolina was expected to suffer a bit when Grady Wallace left, but followers of the Gamecocks believe they have a replacement in Ray Pericola, who has averaged 23.5 points per game.

On Saturday night, State will return home to face intersectional foe Eastern Kentucky.

Shorts From The Wolfpack

The Wolfpack has plenty of lefthanders on its varsity basketball team. Everett Case could really foul up the opposition if he started Bob MacGillivray, George Stepanovich, Willett Bennett and Marvin Kessler at the same time.

The Wolfpack has a 71-21 record against Big Four teams for the past 11 years. State is 25-8 against Wake Forest, 24-5 against North Carolina and 22-8 against Duke.

New faces on the Wolfpack this year belong to Dan Englehardt, a sophomore transfer from Butler University, and Emerson Glenn a junior college transfer from Mars Hill. Englehardt is from Seymour, Ind., and Glenn is from Durham.

Notice the new uniform numbers this year? The home team wears even numbers and the visitors wear odd numbers (in ACC play, that is). Also, no number can be larger than five. That's to enable the officials to signal the scorekeeper easier... since most hands have only five fingers.

Dick Christy, who broke all but one of Alex Webster's school records, missed the other mark by only nine yards. During the 1951 season, Webster gained 634 yards rushing. This year, Christy netted 626 yards.

June is the month of birthdays for North Carolina State's freshman basketball squad. Six of the frosh cagers celebrate anniversaries that month with two of the players having the same birthday.

Bruce Hoadley and Lanny Vann Eman were born June 2. Mark Reiner celebrates his birthday on the 7th, Stan Niewierowski the 13th, Larry Ranta the 15th, and George Wise the 23rd.

March claims two other cagers. Gordon Neville was born on the 11th and Dickie Culler on the 14th.

A final look at the 1957 football season:

State's longest touchdown run from scrimmage was 58 yards by Dick Hunter against Virginia Tech; the longest non-scoring run was 70 yards by Don Hafer against William and Mary; the longest TD pass was 52 yards from Tom Katich to Dick Christy vs. Duke.

Pack Victorious, 80-62

Freshmen Win 2nd Over Andrews AFB

The Wolflets under the able direction of coach of Lee Terrill added to their victory slate with a win over Andrews AFB, 99-76. The Pack freshmen displayed a decided superiority with a 46.5% of shots to 31.6% by the AFB.

Niewierowski led State's scoring with 20 points while Larry Lakins tallied 18 points in 16 minutes of play. Bob DiStefano with 17 and Reiner with 12 followed in scoring honors. For Andrews AFB it was Caldwell with 17, Kindell with 14, and Jensen with 12 doing the honors.

Bruce Hoadley, 6-6 forward, was king of the backboards pulling down 14 rebounds. He was closely followed by Niewierowski and Bob DiStefano with 13 and 10 rebounds respectively. Caldwell of AFB was the only opposer to come close to equaling the Pack's backboard ability with 13 rebounds.

Pop Concert Presented

About 325 students attended the first concert presented by the new State College Symphonic Band at the College Union Friday night.

The "Pops Concert" was the first of this type to be presented by the band and seemed welcome by the number who attended. The selection of numbers provided a variety of music from Rumba rhythms to light overtures.

The many solos, a thing lacking in past concerts, appealed to everyone, particular the woodwind solo by James Decker, of Raleigh Public Schools, playing "Adagio-Tarantella" by Cavallini.
