

Open Letter

Hunt Discusses Campaign Issues

Editor's Note: In an open letter to the student body, Student Government President Jim Hunt sets forth the ideas and policies which he will follow this year.

First, I wish to thank all campus leaders for their cooperation and excellent work with me and the orientation committee during the past two weeks. I believe this year's freshman orientation program was clearly superior to any of past years. My thanks and congratulations to Orientation Chairman Dick Ribakove, his committee, and all who had a part in this year's program.

Although I have not had time to complete my plans for the year, I am prepared to comment on a few of last year's campaign issues. I hope to later give you a more detailed report on Student Government activities and future policy.

Of primary importance, especially in view of recent incidents, is the plan formulated last year by Fred Houtz for promoting good will between the people of Raleigh, including local newspapers, and the student body of State College.

Undoubtedly some State College students have been guilty of irresponsible behavior at various times; however, events of last spring and this fall have been grossly misrepresented in newspaper accounts. As a student body we deeply resent this misrepresentation which has cast many shadows over our college in the eyes of our friends and our neighbors in Raleigh.

By monthly meetings of student leaders with officials of Raleigh and local press people, we are sure that good will can be restored and that such an understanding will be created as to make these people boosters of State College and restore the faith of our students in them.

I favor the present vehicle registration fee and pledge to do everything within my power to see that automobiles are not restricted to a particular part of our student body. Students at State are mature, and many of them need their cars at school because of family or business obligations.

I wish to say thanks to the Athletic Department for what I consider a good date ticket plan this year and also for providing the buses that took students to Chapel Hill last Saturday. Policies of the Athletic Department have often been misunderstood. Contrary to some belief, they have our in-

Bowers Assumes New Position

Editor's Note: Due to an oversight last Monday, The Technician failed to include Henry Bowers' name in the recent faculty and administrative appointments. We make amends with a fuller treatment here.

Henry Bowers, of Tampa, Florida, has been appointed Assistant Dean of Student Affairs at State.

A graduate of Carolina in 1952, Bowers later received his Master's Degree at Columbia in 1956. He served for four years in the U. S. Navy.

Before coming to State he was employed by the Aluminum Company of America in New York.

While attending Carolina, Bowers was President of the Student Body there, a member of the Golden Fleece, member of the Old Well, and a member of the Kappa Alpha Order.

Bowers is the faculty advisor to The Technician.

Followed By Rush Week

Eighteen Fraternities Begin Three Day Visiting Activities

Air Force ROTC Enrollment

At All Time High This Year

State's Air Force ROTC Cadet Wing has a record-breaking 1,127 men enrolled this year. The announcement was made this week by Colonel James F. Risher, Jr. Professor of Air Science here at State.

Robert P. Kennel, of New Bern, has been appointed to the position of Wing Commander; in this post will command the entire AFROTC corps.

Kennel is a Senior in Nuclear Engineering and has maintained a perfect 4.0 average for the past three years at State. He was recently offered $28,000 from a professional baseball team, but turned it down in order to continue his education.

Of the 1,127 enrolled in AFROTC this year, 588 are Freshmen and 405 are Sophomores. Advanced AFROTC students make up the remaining 134; of these, 63 are Seniors and 71 are Juniors.

The Juniors and Seniors will have charge of conducting the leadership training program for the Freshmen and Sophomores cadets. The academic instruction of all classes is conducted by the Air Force instructors of the college AFROTC staff.

Wing Staff

Serving under Wing Commander Kennel on the Wing Staff are John N. Birch, of Raleigh, Executive Officer; Pichard P. Westmoreland, of Thomsville, Director of Personnel;

Preparation for Rush Week begins in earnest tonight for State College's eighteen fraternities.

Lasting through Saturday the fraternity houses will be open to visitors from 6 'til 10 p.m. Following visiting days, Sunday and Monday will be used to sign up students for various social functions to be held during Rush Week.

Five days of Rush Week (Oct. 1-5) will be followed by a silent period which lasts until noon, Saturday, October 12. Bids which are sent out during this period must be either accepted or rejected between Thursday, Oct. 10, and noon Saturday, Oct. 12.

Hundreds of men students are expected to take part in the visiting days activities. On sign-up days each fraternity will have cards for rushees to sign for the various functions.

The social functions are planned to give the students a picture of each fraternity and its members. Typical events during Rush Week include picnics, dances, and smokers.

Rush Week Hours

Rush Week hours are 12 noon until 10 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday and 12 noon until midnight on Friday and Saturday.

During the quiet period no contact is allowed between any fraternity and any rushee. Bids must be accepted or rejected within the given hours by submitting the individual's choice to the office of Student Activities.

During Rush Week no rushee may sign up for more than a total of twelve hours during rush week or more than three hours on one day by any respective fraternity. Rushees must visit a minimum of four different fraternity houses during the visiting or sign-up period in order to be eligible to pledge any fraternity this semester.

Sign-up hours on Sunday and Monday are from 2 until 10 p.m.

No Cuts

Neither upperclassmen nor freshmen will be excused from their regular college duties to take part in fraternity activities. Freshmen are expected to attend to all their regular college duties during rush week.

All freshmen and other rushees, as well as fraternity men, are urged by Interfraternity Council President George Howard to abide by the Rushing Rules set forth by the IFC. A complete copy of the Rushing Rules may be found in the September 23 edition of The Technician.

Army ROTC Names Top Commanders

Appointment of senior cadets to the top command and staff positions of the Army ROTC Regiment at State College was announced Tuesday by Col. Charles P. Greyer, professor of military science and tactics at the college.

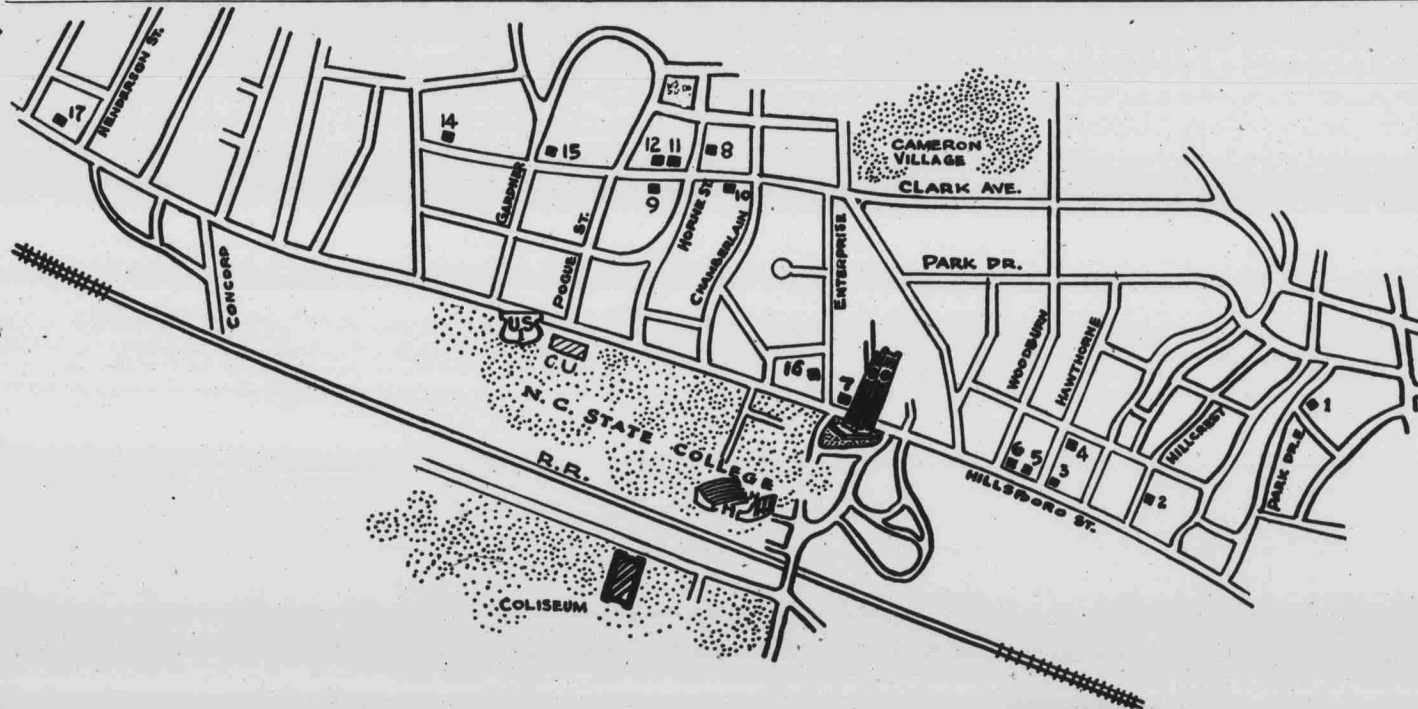

Cadet Col. Theo C. Pilkington of Durham was named regimental commander with Cadet Lt. Col. George R. Howard of Charlotte as executive officer.

Appointed to the Regimental Staff were Cadet Majors Richard J. Cashwell of Lumberton, Robert S. Williams, Jr. of Erwin, Paul W. Bailey of Everetts, and Robert L. McGarr of Lenoir.

The three battalions of the regiment will be commanded by Cadet Lieutenant Colonels Robert C. Lyne of Richmond, Va., Teddy G. Allen of Farmville, and Charles W. Stephenson of Oxford.

ROTC officials said the cadets "were appointed to these responsible positions because of their demonstrated leadership ability and high academic standing in college."

LOCATION OF FRATERNITY HOUSES

Shown above is a map of the locations of the seventeen fraternity houses which the rushees will be visiting during the next ten days. All locations are shown and are identified by the key to the numbered blocks given below.

1. Sigma Alpha Mu; 2. Lambda Chi Alpha; 3. Sigma Nu; 4. Phi Epsilon Pi; 5. Kappa Alpha; 6. Pi Kappa Alpha; 7. FarmHouse; 8. Phi Kappa Tau; 9.

Delta Sigma Phi will have 103 Owen as its headquarters during the visiting and rushing days.

Covering Campus . . .

Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega, the campus service fraternity, will meet next Tuesday, October 1, at 9:30 p.m. in the College Union Theater. All students are cordially invited to attend and to help perform services for the campus and community.

A Fraternity For You

Fraternities have often been called a home away from home; but the tremendous advantages enjoyed by those belonging to a fraternity cannot be summed up in such an over-used expression. It is important that you who have not yet had the experience of fraternity life realize what fraternities here at State can offer you.

Every year during the rushing season the same question comes up, "Isn't a fraternity pretty expensive?" Let us briefly answer that question here. A fraternity can be expensive or inexpensive as you want to make it. Naturally, since fraternities are primarily social in nature, there will be many activities taking place during the year which will cost money.

You can choose freely whether or not you will take part in any of these activities; however, there are many more things offered which are taken care of in your low monthly dues. Each fraternity varies somewhat in dues, and you can ask about this at the different houses during rushing. The main point is, don't stay away from fraternities because of money . . . because you think it is necessary to be slightly "rich" to belong—it just isn't so. Feel free to ask about the financial end when you visit the various fraternities.

With finances behind us, let's see how a fraternity is viewed by those who belong. To most, the "House" is a sort of base for operations, a place to meet and enjoy the fellowship of your friends, a place to help each other in anyway imaginable (studies, dating, personal problems, anything), a place to learn to get along well with all kinds of people, and a place to work as a friendly team toward a common goal—getting the most out of life.

Compared to a lot of schools, State's fraternity system is still rather small, but it is growing steadily and strongly. Those of you who are freshmen and sophomores have a lot to work for and look forward to in fraternities; plans for a workable fraternity court are closer to becoming a reality, and you are the ones who must work toward that goal and the ones who will benefit the most from it.

It can be honestly said that there is a fraternity here at State for almost any man who sincerely wants to belong. Those who are already members are completely sold on fraternities; visit the fraternities and let them try to sell you too . . . it might be the best "buy" of your life.

Congratulations

The Technician congratulates Carolina's Student Government President, Sonny Evans, and Chancellor Aycock on the recently announced proposal concerning goal posts in future State-Carolina games. (See page 6 for story.)

The aftergame "riot" on Saturday was regrettable. However, instead of simply bewailing the fact and forgetting it, Evans and Aycock presented a sound proposal which should prevent the recurrence of such an incident.

We commend the positive approach taken in this matter by the men at our brother school.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

TYPICAL NEW TEACHER PROBLEM—SHE'S WORRIED ABOUT HER ABILITY TO HOLD THEIR ATTENTION FOR A WHOLE HOUR!

Letters To The Editor:

Editor's Note: I received the following letter from Fred Houtz yesterday. He did not say anything about printing it, but I am doing so because I think the Student Body should share the contents of the letter.

Dear Dave:

I address this letter to you as my friend, as editor of our campus newspaper, and as a means of conveying my thoughts both to you and the student body. There are several things, including both facts and sentiment, that I wish to express.

First, my relinquishing the position of Student Body President must be explained. While my overall scholastic record has been satisfactory, I failed to meet the minimum scholastic standards for the past spring semester. I was therefore refused readmission to State College this fall.

This, of course, has put me in a most embarrassing situation. The most encouraging part for me, however, is knowing that the student government leadership is being turned over to capable hands. I speak with the deepest sincerity when I say that under the leadership of Jimmy Hunt, who will move from Vice President to President, the N. C. State College student body will be well represented. Jimmy has indicated to me a deep devotion for the problems our government are faced with today. I have the utmost confidence in his ability to provide the leadership for our student government.

Finally, I have spoken here of the campus in the first person. State College will always be my Alma Mater, and I hope to return next spring to finish my education. The fine friendships and relations I have made shall never be forgotten. In my home I will always remember State College, and in my heart I will always hold the spirit of these wonderful experiences.

Good luck, Dave, and all the student body, in making 1957-58 the best year for N. C. State College.

Most sincerely,
Fred Houtz

Greeks On Campus

Editor's Note: We are presenting this week for the first time a column for and about fraternity men. The column will appear each week. We welcome your comments about it and hope you will find it of interest.

by Oscar Grant

Greetings and welcome to the first column of "GREEKS ON CAMPUS".

Before beginning the arduous task of writing this column for the year, it seems only natural to this writer to give fraternity men some idea as to what they might expect to find in the column throughout the year.

First, issues of a somewhat controversial nature may appear here from time to time. While opinions will be expressed by this writer on most of these issues, it is hoped that these opinions will serve not to create ill-will but rather they will serve to stir the thinking on you, the fraternity man, on these issues.

Also, it is hoped that a little more light may be shed on the all-important question of the proposed fraternity row. Along the lighter side, some of social functions of the "18" will be found here.

As can be seen on page one of this paper, the next few days will be busy ones for both fraternity men and prospective fraternity men. Many fraternity men consider Rush Week to be the most important week in the entire year, and so it is only fitting that the words found here this week be directed towards the people who make this week so important—the prospective rushee.

There are many words of wisdom that might be written here to encourage you to join a fraternity. However, this is not my purpose here—simply because I believe each individual must make this decision for himself. Most of you have just three or four short years of your life to devote to college life, and it is up to you to get everything out of these years possible. To do this, you must leave no stone unturned in seeking the advantages that a college education has to offer.

It is my belief that being a member of a fraternity offers advantages that may not be obtained in any other way. For this reason, it is up to you to investigate these advantages during the forthcoming Rush (See GREEKS, page 5)

Veteran's Corner

By Bob Lane—Club Reporter

Don't forget the big picnic sponsored by the Veterans' Association at Pullen Park Saturday, September 28. They are serving barbecued chicken and it is free for members and their wives or dates upon presentation of a current Vets' Club membership card. Dinner will be served from 12 Noon until 2:00 P.M. I would like to see all of our members there, so come on out and join the party.

Seventy Freshmen

Join State's Bands

From more than a hundred Freshmen who auditioned for the State College bands during orientation week, seventy have been accepted.

Each student was selected according to his ability and interest and placed in the band of his choice. The four bands at State are the Symphonic Band, the Fan Fare Band, the Marching Band and the ROTC Band.

The Marching Band this year is the largest State has ever had. With the Freshmen and a large percentage of returning members of last year's bands, the new 1957-58 Marching Band contains well over one hundred members.

Planning for the new year have been by Robert A. Barnes, the director of the bands, and his assistant, Nels Leonard, who has recently come to State College from the faculty of the University of South Dakota. Working with the directors are the student officers elected to serve this year. They are Hobart Whitman, president; Bill Byrd, vice president; Bob Thornburg, secretary and treasurer; Mark Schiff, business manager; and Maurice Autry, public relations.

After Tuesday's contest, the N. C. State team travels to Waterloo, Iowa, where it will compete in the National Intercollegiate Dairy Judging Contest to be held there next Monday.

Enroute to Waterloo, the team will visit top dairy herds in Missouri.

Coached by Dr. W. R. Murley of the Animal Industry Department, the State College team is composed of Felton Davis, Goldsboro; Donald Hopkins, Gardner; Lynn Plyler, Waxhaw; and Wiley F. Ritter, Jr., Robbins.

All the team members are seniors in dairy husbandry, except Ritter.

We had nearly 600 veterans join the Club during registration. If you are one of these men, come on out and participate in the functions that are sponsored for you.

This column will appear regularly on Thursday in The Technician and will carry information that should be interesting to the veterans on campus. Sources of information will include the Veterans' Administration weekly bulletin, the Veterans' Secretary on campus and any other available source. If you have any items that you think would be of interest to the veterans on our campus, please call me at TE 4-0216 and these can be included.

"On Campus With Max Shulman" Now Beginning Its Fourth Year of Humor

Max Shulman, one of America's outstanding humor writers, will resume for the fourth year his "On Campus With Max Shulman" column for the college press. This year it will be sponsored by the Philip Morris Company's Marlboro filtered brand and is appearing weekly in The Technician.

Shulman, whose highly successful writing career began on the campus of the University of Minnesota, devotes his columns to such diversified and pertinent subjects peculiar to all college campuses as: "What Every Young Coed Should Wear," "Science Made Simple: No. 1," "Science Made Simple No. 2," "Love in Reverse," "How to Be a BMOG," and "Home, Sweet Homecoming." Following a survey of college editors and readers not long ago, their enthusiastic responses for the columns prompted the cigarette company to compile a souvenir booklet titled, "Max Shulman Revisited."

Author of New Book

"Rally Round the Flag, Boys!" is hailed by literary critics as "the funniest book of the year" and within a few weeks following publication moved onto the nation's top ten best selling book list. Movie rights were sold, pre-publication, to 20th Century Fox. While originating the book, Shulman was invited by the cigarette company to visit its currently touring "Philip Morris Country Music Show." His lively interest in the Show's entertainers and their music inspired the creation of a colorful young country music singer, "Opie Dairymple," who figures prominently in the zany antics of "Rally Round the Flag, Boys!"

Notes From The Pack

Ron Shavlik to Rejoin N. Y. Knickerbockers

At least one freshman griddier will be looked up to this fall. He's Dick (Tiny) Reynolds, a tackle, from College Park, Md. A 6-foot 6 ex-marine, he weighs in at 255.

Reynolds played service ball at Camp Lejeune and Parris Island and at that time tipped the scales at 330. But that was a little too heavy, so "Tiny" is dieting and will suit up around 250 this fall.

Now that Tom Katich has made the grade scholastically, Bernie Latusick has been shifted from quarterback to halfback where he can use his speed more advantageously.

A transfer student who sat out last year, Latusick is a speed demon who can go the distance. He's from McKees Rocks, Pa.

Former Wolfpack great Howard Turner, the touchdown whiz from Rocky Mount, holds two school records which will be hard to beat. He has the longest kickoff return (98 yards against Clemson in 1946) and the longest run with an intercepted pass (105 yards against Duke in 1946).

What's My Line Department: Ronald Savage, junior center from Chincontague, Va., was a bouncer at a Rock and Roll dance pavillion in Ocean City, Ron Shavlik, twice All American here at State, has been signed for a second time by the New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Association.

The six feet eight center was on the squad last year but was dropped after seven games.

Former gridiron captain John Szuchan has been dropped by the Pittsburgh Steelers of the NFL. Szuchan was the only State player picked in the 1956 draft.

Duke Named Ninth; ACC Places Three

In the first weekly college football poll of coaches, conducted by the United Press, ACC favorite Duke ranked ninth in the nation, with one first place vote. Also mentioned were Clemson and Virginia, receiving one vote each.

Tough Assignment

State vs. Terps on Saturday

State's Wolfpack fresh from a 7-0 shelling of the North Carolina Tarheels, will invade College Park, Maryland, for a conference game with the ever-tough Terrapins this Saturday afternoon.

Although the Terps have a 0-1-0 record for the season, this does not mean in any way that they are to be taken lightly. In their opener last Saturday, they played hard-to-get before going down under the onslaught of second-ranked Texas A&M, 25-14.

Last season, Maryland ended a dreary year for the Pack by taking them, 25-14, on Thanksgiving Day, and so the West Raleigh brigade will be out to get them this time.

Standing out for the Terps will probably be Center Gene Alderton, Tackle Fred Cole, and Backs Dickie Lewis and Fred Hamilton.

Probable starters for the Pack will be Pepe and Collar at Ends,

Captain Dick Hunter of the State Wolfpack has been named the first United Press Tar Heel Athlete-of-the-Week for 1957.

This honor came to the left halfback for his outstanding play and team leadership during the Carolina-State game last Saturday. No. 22 was the one who scored the first and decisive touchdown late in the first quarter to nail down the win for the Wolfpack. He also kicked the extra point and played brilliant control ball with teammate Dick Christy toward the end of the contest.

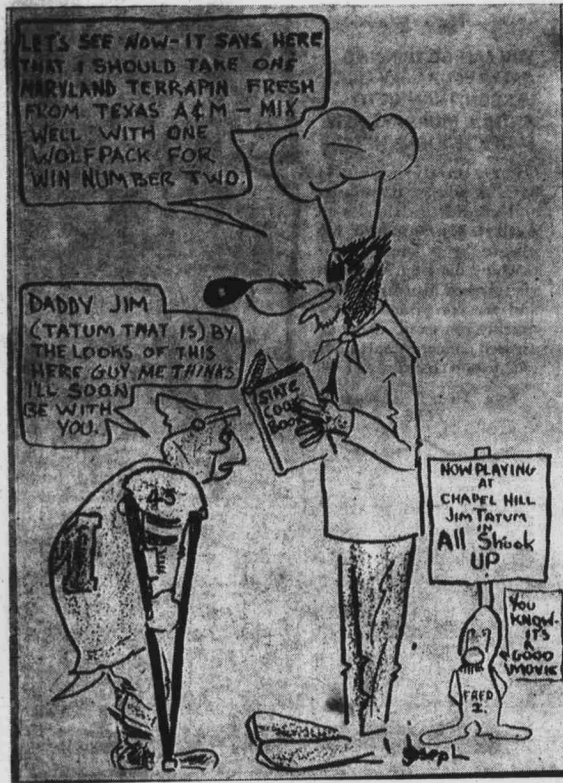

Making it a clean sweep for the Pack were Christy, who set a new record for career rushing yardage at 1248 yards, and Frank Cackovic, Junior QB. Both were given honorable mention.

Dess and DeAngelis at Tackles, Rearick and Tokar at Guards, and Oddo at Center. In the backfield will be Cackovic at QB, Hunter and Christy at Halfs, and Guerrieri at Fullback. This line-up is subject to change before game time.

Maryland has played State only thirteen times and holds a 6-4-3 edge over the Pack. The last win by the Red and White was in 1950 when they got by the Terps, 16-13. The series started in 1908.

After the Maryland game State will continue its road trip in Clemson, Florida State, and Miami. On October 26, the Pack will open at home with the Blue Devils of Duke.

Other conference games this weekend will find UNC at Clemson and Virginia at Duke. South Carolina will meet Wofford at home and Wake Forest will invade Florida.

At the end of each semester, the average of all fraternities is figured along with the average of the entire student body. The average of State's fraternity men has consistently been above all-men's average.

The fraternity system has proven itself to be of great value to college men in that it not only offers such benefits as social life, lifetime friendships, and scholastic advantages, but it also gives these men the benefit of special guidance in adjusting to college life. Why not see for yourself? Visit several fraternities during Rush Week. The men you will meet there will welcome you!

Infirmiry Adds Second Doctor

A new physician, Dr. Harry Fagan, is now on duty at the infirmiry in the afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Dr. Fagan brings to two the number of physicians available at the infirmiry.

Dr. J. J. Combs is also on duty at the infirmiry. His hours are from 9 to 11 a.m.

Dr. Fagan grew up in Raleigh although he later moved to Rocky Mount. The past few years were spent by Dr. Fagan in the Naval Service in Florida before coming back to Raleigh to open a practice on Clark Avenue.

Concerning the Asiatic flu vaccine, Dr. Fagan stated that the vaccine has been on order since August, but it still has not arrived. He hopes a full shipment of the vaccine will be available by the first of October.

Dr. Fagan said, "I like being in my childhood home of Raleigh for many sentimental reasons. Also I enjoy meeting and talking to the students I have been treating since school opened."

New Core Placed In Nuclear Reactor

The State College nuclear reactor is back in operation following installation of a new core by Atomics International, a division of North American Aviation, Inc.

Atomics International manufactured only the new core for the NCS reactor, along with other items connected with the core assembly.

The reactor core, a water-boiler type using uranyl sulfate in solution as the fissioning fuel, was selected because of its inherent safety and ease of operation.

Located in the Burlington Nuclear Laboratories on the college campus in Raleigh, the reactor was designed and placed in operation by the college in 1953. It was the first research reactor facility to be constructed by an American college.

A proposal that the goal posts be presented the winning team after future State-Carolina football games was approved by both State and Carolina earlier this week.

The proposal came as a result of the mob that gathered after the game last Saturday in an attempt to tear down Carolina's goal posts after State's 7-0 victory over Carolina.

Under the new proposal, the President of the Student Body of the losing team will present the goal posts to the President of the Student Body of the win-

IDC Dance Headlines

Charlie Barnet

The first major dance on campus this year will be the Inter-dormitory Council Dance, which will be held on October 19 at 8:00 p.m. in the Coliseum.

Furnishing the music for the dance will be the Charlie Barnet band. This is the first time that the IDC has contracted a band of this size for their dance.

Charlie Barnet, now a veteran of 20 years in the band business, has produced many top recordings. His music varies in style from the great swing classics, like "Cherokee" and "Skyliner," to such melodies as "Over the Rainbow."

ning team immediately after the contest is over.

Sonny Evans, President of the Student Government at UNC, and William Aycock, Chancellor, made the proposal. It was approved by State Student Government President, Jim Hunt, and Chancellor Carey H. Boston on Monday.

Evans termed the riot "a regrettable affair." Hunt and Boston said in a statement that they also regretted the incident but said they were convinced that "press reports of the incident were highly exaggerated."

"Carmen" Is Feature of "Ice Capades"

Jose Greco, world-renowned Spanish dancer, has been signed to do the choreography for George Bizet's "Carmen," one of the big productions of "Ice Capades of 1958" to be staged in the William Neal Reynolds Coliseum at State College October 25-30.

Producer John H. Harris announced that Greco and Milton Cross, noted operatic commentator, both will take part in the Ice Capades' presentation of Carmen.

Music will be provided by the Norman Luboff Choir.

Seven performances of Ice Capades will be presented in the State College Coliseum during the five-day stand here.

Evening shows will be given Friday, October 25, through Wednesday October 30, at 8:30 daily, except for Sunday, October 27, when no performances will be presented. In addition, there will be matinee shows on Friday, October 25, at 3:30 o'clock and on Saturday, October 26, at 2:30 o'clock.

School children will be admitted to the Friday matinee at half price.

Principal production numbers, in addition to "Carmen," include "Madame Butterfly"; Walt Disney's Fantasia as interpreted from Tchaikowsky's "Nutcracker Suite"; "Salute to George Gershwin" featuring the new "Rhythmic Waters"; "The Schupplattlers," a number imported from the Bavarian Alps; and "Jet from Hollywood to Broadway in 300 Minutes."

Skaters performing starring roles in the production of "Carmen" will be Cathy Machado, who will portray Carmen (Gypsy Girl); Bobby Specht, who will play the role of Done Jose (Corporal); and Ronnie Robertson, who is cast in the role of Escamillo (Toreador).

Miss Machado was twice the national winner of the most artistic skater award, and Specht is a former U. S. skating champion. Robertson, one of today's greatest skating sensations, is a former world's and Olympic skating champion.

Among the other star performers of Ice Capades this year are Jimmy Grogan, the Old Smoothies, Eric Waite, Freddie Trenkler, Labreque and Gray, Diane and Bobby Maxson, Joan Penwarn, Herb Cowman, and Helga, Germany's national champion.

Tickets are now on sale at the Coliseum Box Office.

FOOTBALL THROUGH THE AGES

The football frenzy is upon us. But let us in the midst of this pandemonium call time. Let us pause for a moment of tranquil reflection. What is this great American game called football? What is its history? Its origins?

Let us pause for a moment of tranquil reflection

First of all, to call football an American game is somewhat misleading. True, the game is now played almost exclusively in America, but it comes to us from a land far away and a civilization long dead.

Football was first played in ancient Rome. Introduced by Julius Caesar, it became one of the most popular Roman sports by the time of Nero's reign. The eminent historian, Sigafoos, reports a crowd of MMCLDDXVIII people at the Colosseum one Saturday afternoon to see the Christians play the Lions.

With the decline of the Roman empire, football fell into disuse. The barbaric Huns and Visigoths preferred canasta. Not until the fifteenth century A. D. did football emerge from its twilight and rise to its rightful place in the firmament of European sports.

Which brings us to September 29, 1442, a date dear to the hearts of all football fans. It was on this date, according to the eminent historian Sigafoos, that a sixteen-year-old lad named Christopher Columbus tried out for the football team at Genoa Tech. He failed to make the team because he was too light. (He weighed at the time only twelve pounds.)

And why, you ask, is this date—September 29, 1442—so dear to the hearts of all football fans? Because young Columbus was so heartbroken at not making the team that he ran away to sea. And if that hadn't happened, he never would have discovered America. And if Columbus hadn't discovered America, the world would never have discovered tobacco. And if the world hadn't discovered tobacco, football fans never would have discovered Marlboro—which, as every fan knows, is the perfect companion to football. And why shouldn't it be? Look what Marlboro's got... Filter... Flavor... Flip-top Box... You can't buy a better smoke. You can't smoke a better buy.

The end of football in Europe came with the notorious "Black Sox Scandal" of 1857, in which Ed Machiavelli, one of the Pisa mob, paid off the University of Heidelberg Sabres to throw the championship game to the Chartres A. and M. Gophers. It was a mortal blow to football on the continent.

But the game took hold in the American colonies and thrived as it had never thrived before. Which brings us to another date that remains evergreen in the hearts of football lovers: December 16, 1773.

On that date a British packet loaded with tea sailed into Boston harbor. The colonies had long been smarting under the English king's tax on tea. "Taxation without representation," they called it, and feelings ran high.

When on December 16, 1773, the British ship docked at Boston, a semi-pro football team called the Nonpareil Tigers, coached by Samuel (Swiftly) Adams, was scrimmaging near the harbor. "Come, lads," cried Swiftly, seeing the ship. "Let's dump the tea in the ocean!"

With many a laugh and cheer the Nonpareil Tigers followed Swiftly aboard and proceeded to dump the cargo overboard in a wild, disorganized and abandoned manner. "Here now!" called Swiftly sharply. "That's no way to dump tea overboard. Let's get into some kind of formation."

And that, fans, is how the tea formation was born. © Max Shuman, 1957
