CLOSE RACES LOOM AS ELECTIONS NEAR

SUF ENDS WITH 75% OF GOAL REACHED

The annual Student United Fund Drive ended last week with 75% of the goal raised. Fraternities reached 108%, with dormitories close behind at 75%. The off-campus campaign netted 8%.

Fred Houtz, chairman of this year's drive, said in a statement to The Technician, "Although we did not quite reach our goal this year, I believe the drive was a success. Never before has a wider participation been achieved. All fraternities and all dormitories reached better than 50% of their goals. This wider participation was achieved only by the dedicated work of the solicitors on each dormitory floor and in each fraternity. Their work, with the splendid cooperation of all students, is to be commended."

"I wish also to commend George Allen and Ed Law for their excellent job in organizing the dormitory solicitation. Hats off, too, to Phi Psi and Alpha Phi Omega for contributing to the active solicitation in the dormitories and off-campus."

"The greatest weakness of this year's drive was in our efforts to reach off-campus students. From our experience this year, we hope to make a better showing in that area next year."

Spencer Shaps Vies For Top Campus Office

Spencer Shaps, a rising senior in Textile Engineering, is a candidate on this year's slate for President of the Student Government. Spencer's campaign manager released the following announcement to The Technician.

"Spencer kept his interests cornered in the Textile School during his first two years at State College. This year he has taken an active part in the running of Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity. His interest shown and time spent in Kappa Tau Beta, a textile knitting fraternity, has brought him broad recognition. His work in Phi Psi, a textile professional fraternity, has also brought out his abilities to be a leader among his fellow students."

"Spencer has frequently voiced his views in The Octagonian, the national magazine of Sigma Alpha Mu, in reports about activities at State College."

"A hard and conscientious worker, as evidenced by his grades, he also finds time to take part in intercollegiate and intramural activities at school."

"Spencer's main objective in obtaining this office is to make sure that the State College student has some voice in the internal affairs of the school."

"It has occurred to him during his three years at State that everything goes on without the students hearing about it until it happens."

"Spencer asked, 'Wasn't it peculiar that when we returned from summer vacation, the parking fine had been elevated from two to five dollars? There is no reason why things such as this should take place without the students' approval.'

"Spencer feels that, if the right person is put into office, things like this will not continue to occur, and the faults will be corrected."

"Spencer also asked, 'Why is it that the students at State lack so many privileges that are given to students of other institutions? What is the reason for not having free date tickets or even a reduction on the price of them? How many times did students miss an athletic event because a date ticket costs too much? Why can't the games in the College Union be free to State College students? We pay a good-sized College Union fee.'

"Spencer feels that if he is elected President of the Student Government, these matters which are of interest to every student can be altered."

Stan Timblin Runs For CU President

Stan Timblin, a rising senior in Electrical Engineering from Durham, N. C., is a candidate for College Union President.

Stan has been Chairman of the Photography Committee for two years and a member of the Board of Directors for one year.

Timblin has released the following statement in an interview with The Technician.

"In the past few months many students have expressed dissatisfaction with the structure and program of the College Union. To correct this dissatisfaction and obtain the best possible program, I think more ideas should come directly from the students rather than by representation. To do this, detailed accounts of the budget, programs, and governing policies ought to be published and distributed to all students. They should then be invited to make suggestions for needed changes, and this should be followed by an extensive student interest poll. After the student body is given a better understanding of the operations of the College Union, each student will be more capable of making beneficial suggestions."

"With ideas for program and policy coming directly from the students, the functions can be better adapted to the wants and needs of the college community."

Campus-wide elections will be held this Wednesday to fill offices for the 1959-60 academic year.

Offices to be filled are in the Student Government, Inter-fraternity Council, Athletic Council, College Union, Tompkins Textile Council, The Technician, The Agromack, campus radio station WKNC, and the rising senior,

Nick Ardito Seeks Presidency of Union

Nick Ardito, candidate for College Union president, made the following statement to The Technician.

"I would like to take this opportunity to announce formally my candidacy for President of the College Union."

"As I seek this office, I am aware of the responsibility and the duty that the next College Union president has upon him. In the years that I have worked at the College Union, I have acquainted myself with the program, the activities and the working of it."

"Essentially the College Union program is very good and lives up to its reputation of one of the best in the nation. However, as it has been made clear recently, the Union does not attract a large enough portion of the student body, and does not enjoy the favor and consent of many sectors of the campus community."

"This is bad and has to be corrected, for a College Union is what it is because of the students and should bring the greatest benefit to the students—the source and goal of the Union idea."

"This task and the steady improvement in quality and variety of the programs are the key points that lie ahead. To these I shall dedicate the best of my time and my abilities if elected president."

"Better public relations—bringing the Union closer to the students and the students closer to the Union—will be one of my main activities if elected president. The students should feel that the Union is theirs, that they can help in shaping its programs, and that they should receive the benefits; because, if not—no matter how excellent the program is—the Union is failing in its philosophy and ultimate goal."

"I urge all the students to vote and to make their suggestions to the Union officers."

"Have a say in your social program by electing the officers whom you think will represent you best."

Eddie Knox Announces Candidacy for SG Prexy

Eddie Knox's candidacy for President of Student Government was announced today by Gene Butler and Waring Boys, campaign managers.

Eddie's past record as a student leader demonstrates his ability to capably fill the office of president. At present he is Vice President of Student Government and has served as Vice President of the Freshman Class, President of the Sopho-to the best of his ability, if elected.

"1. Honor System—He will strengthen the present system by periodically stressing the ideals of the system to all faculty and students."

"2. Student Cars—Eddie will support the continuation of the allowance of all cars driven by students regardless of class or grade standing."

"3. Date Tickets—All possible means will be used to acquire the date tickets that will be of the greatest advantage to the students."

"4. Fraternity Row—In an effort to support the proposed Fraternity Row, he will appeal to all possible sources to bring about its earliest construction."

"5. College Union—Because the College Union is an excellent means for student enjoyment, Eddie will work for more student participation in all Union events. Also, he will encourage College Union programs and policies that will both interest and benefit the largest number of students."

"6. School Spirit—Since it is apparent that much work is needed in this area, he will strongly urge more school pride, loyalty and student responsibility. Eddie has definite plans to promote better school spirit."

"We sincerely believe that Eddie is presently serving the best interest of the entire student body, and if elected, he will strive to perform an even greater service to the campus as Student Government President."

Greeks On Campus

Brought up before the IFC last week were a set of suggestions concerning pledges during "Help" Week. These suggestions were recommended to fraternities by their representatives and are as follows: During Pledge Week . . .

1. Pledges should be required to attend all classes.
2. Pledges should be neatly dressed and clean shaven when they attend class (perhaps they should even wear coats and ties).
3. Pledges should be allowed enough sleep so that they will be alert during class.
4. Pledges should be allowed enough time to study so that they can adequately do their homework and prepare for quizzes.
5. Pledges should not be allowed to do damage to public property or to engage in behavior annoying to the public.
6. Pledges should not be required to engage in any action or to dress in a way which will subject them to public ridicule or will reflect unfavorably on the fraternity system.

7. Pledges should not be subjected to any act which will offend their dignity as an individual.

Much to my sorrow and red face June Christy will not be able to sing with Stan Kenton. Reason: at doctor's suggestion, she is taking a two month's vacation. Arrangements are being attempted to have Joni James take Christy's place.

Campus elections are to begin on Wednesday (primary) with the final vote being taken on the 16th. For IFC offices there will be only one run-off necessary, and that is for the treasurer's position which has three men in the running. The offices will be decided in one voting unless, of course, in the case of a tie vote.

Greek Week plans are in full swing. Bill Sharpe has asked Dave Thomas and Tom Eck to be in charge of field day events and since this is the second year this phase has been included in Greek Week activities, I am sure that suggestion would be welcomed by Tom and Dave.

The fellow was putting up posters which said "Clyde Kallikak for President." I decided—quickly—that this candidate should be interviewed by The Technician. Just to acquaint everyone with a typical candidate. To discover motivation. To dispel apathy. To recreate interest in campus policy.

Here is the interview. The questions, of course, were very general and fundamental and basic to give a representative, typical picture. Very basic.

"What are you studying here?"

"Why, nuclear engineering, of course."

"Of course. Why do you want to become an engineer?"

(Pause) "... Why—why I never really thought about it actually. I guess just because everybody wants to be an engineer."

"Everybody?"

"Yes, of course. Except, of course, those people who can't—you know, they go to Carolina. It's much easier there."

"Oh yes. Any other reasons?"

"Well . . . it seemed to make my old man happy. Besides, for me personally, don't you see, engineers are respected. And the world needs engineers. Our world is a world of science, don't you know. Then too, engineers make handsome salaries. Yes indeed. We start rather high, you know. And then we're the only truly modern, progressive thinkers. Technical minds, don't you see."

"I see. What do you think of the Berlin crisis as being more than a minor incident in the cold war?"

"Berlin. Oh, yes. Yes. That's very good. Very good. I like it. However . . ."

"I see that you would rather talk about engineering."

"Oh yes. Engineering is my life."

"What will you do when you graduate?"

(Pause) "... Well . . . I never really thought about that either, actually. I guess, for me personally, that I'll go to work for some big company. Just some big company."

"I see. Why are you running for president?"

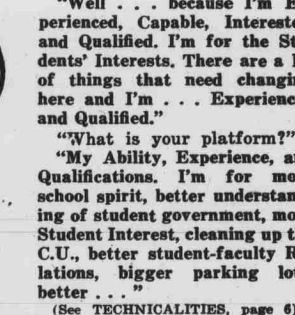

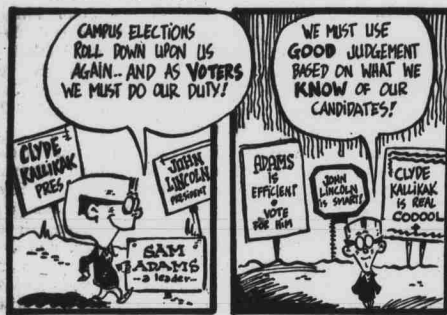

"Well . . . because I'm Experienced, Capable, Interested, and Qualified. I'm for the Students' Interests. There are a lot of things that need changing here and I'm . . . Experienced and Qualified."

"What is your platform?"

"My Ability, Experience, and Qualifications. I'm for more school spirit, better understanding of student government, more Student Interest, cleaning up the C.U., better student-faculty Relations, bigger parking lots, better . . ."

Campaign Talk in 'Letters to the Editor'

To the Editor:

I suppose there is no more important office at State than that of the Presidency of the Student Body. This office is one which requires of its occupant the utmost sincerity and qualification. In effect, the Student Body President is the official student representative and shoulders the responsibility of the actions of the students. He is responsible for seeing that the students are fairly represented at all times and that they are governed adequately.

Along with many other students here at State, I believe that Eddie Knox is the better qualified candidate for the office of President of the Student Body. I think I am entirely fair and truthful in making this statement because I have personally witnessed much of the experience that Eddie has gained in his Student Government activities since he enrolled at State three years ago. Certainly, I believe that his experience as a senator and as the Vice President of the Student Government qualify him for this office.

In addition to being vice president, Eddie was the Chairman of the State College Delegation to the National Congress of the National Student Association at Ohio and is also Chairman of the State College Delegation to the Consolidated University Student Council. Moreover, Eddie was a representative to the State Student Legislature last year.

Eddie is well thought of by his fellow students and the faculty and has gained recognition of his leadership abilities by having membership in such organizations as Alpha Zeta, Blue Key, 30 & 3, Kappa Phi Kappa, and others. In addition, his own class elected him Vice President of the Freshman Class and also chose him as their sophomore class president.

I mention all these experiences of Eddie's to point up to one very important prerequisite for the office of president—experience. Certainly, this is the most outstanding qualification for this office. I believe that after you carefully consider the facts of the leadership and actual experience qualifications of the two candidates, you will agree and vote accordingly on April 8 that Eddie Knox is the better qualified candidate for the office of President of the Student Body.

Fred W. Manley
President, YMCA

To the Editor:

Students of North Carolina State, our student government is supposed to represent all of us here. If we believe in a representative governmental system, we had better take stock of the situation that now exists in our present Student Government. This year all the ranking officers in our Student Government are enrolled in an agricultural curriculum.

The Student Government, along with other influential bodies here at State, have long been under the dominance of the agriculture students. There is no doubt that the agricultural student is an integral and necessary part of our college, but should this lead to the exclusion of the rest of the student body?

Engineers, education, design, textiles, and other majors, where is your representation? Do you want a voice in the organization that is supposed to represent you? This year a capable candidate, Spencer Shaps, is asking for a chance to represent you as Student Government President. If Spencer is elected it will serve to balance the now lop-sided picture that exists in our student government.

If we want a representative governing body, Spencer Shaps will need your support to become the President of your Student Government.

Herb Vitale

To the Editor:

I believe the student body is very fortunate that Bob Cooke has offered his services to the campus in the capacity of Student Government Vice President for the coming year.

Possibly no other elected position on this campus requires as much ability and just plain hard work as does the S. G. vice presidency.

Bob Cooke has impressed everyone in Student Government with his parliamentary knowledge and ability, his capacity for work, and his sincere interest and desire to serve students on this campus well.

The Vice President of the Student Government presides over the S. G. Legislature and is responsible for guiding and coordinating work of the all-important legislative committees. I can think of no man on this campus who can serve the student body in this capacity as well as Bob Cooke.

I will consider it a privilege to vote for Bob Cooke, a real worker for students' interests, for Vice President of Student Government. I urge every student to do likewise.

Jimmy Hunt
President Student Government

To the Editor:

In the coming campus-wide elections there are two races that I feel I ought to speak out about.

The first is for Secretary of the Student Government. This is a position that calls for the ability to understand well everything that goes on in the legislature meetings and for plenty of hard work recording and preserving records of all that your Student Government does. The man running for this position who has the necessary experience for the job and has shown many times that he is an exceptionally good worker on everything that concerns the welfare of the student body is Charles Russell. I sincerely think that Charlie Russell is the best man for secretary of your Student Government.

Secondly, there are a few things that I think ought to be known concerning one of the candidates for President of the College Union. Nick Ardito has consistently tried to get more student representation into the government of the College Union this year, and he has done very well at it. He has also pointed out several events in the Union's social program in which excessive amounts of money were spent on programs in which very few people participated, such as the prize money spent in the photography committee contests for the last two years, and he has assured us that, from now on, more money will be spent on activities for more of the students.

I am going to vote for Charlie Russell and Nick Ardito. I hope that enough others do likewise to get them elected.

Dick Burgess
S. G. Senator

To the Editor:

Having been here at State College for almost four years, I have kept a close watch on both the activities and deficiencies of the College Union, and thus feel qualified to comment upon the qualifications for the office of C. U. President.

Nick Ardito seems to be the wiser choice for this job; he has been active in C.U. work and, at the same time, has headed an investigation as to ways in which the Union might be altered in programming, structure, representation, etc. He is also in contact with many other phases of college life and is in a good position to represent an accurate sample of student opinion.

Electing Mr. Ardito will be a definite step away from the "in the family" sort of thing that now exists at the Union, and I am afraid that if he is not elected this condition will persist for still another year. Again, it is his broad campus experience that recommends him in this respect.

Mr. Ardito has proved to me many times in the past that he is a hard-working, enthusiastic person, and I am sure that these characteristics will carry over into his presidential duties. Moreover, he knows the various types of people now working at the Union and how to deal with them. And, as his record shows, he possesses an extensive knowledge of the Union's organization and its programs.

Ardito's opposition for C. U. President has shown little or no willingness to take a firm stand in changing C.U. policy for the betterment of the students.

Thus, it is with great pleasure that I recommend Nick Ardito for College Union President.

John Cooke

To the Editor:

I feel that the coming IFC election will affect the whole student body as well as the individual fraternity man. This, as well as my strong interest in fraternity, has prompted the writing of this letter.

In the past, relationships between fraternity men and the rest of the student body have often been strained. This has frequently served to weaken or hinder IFC policy. Lenny Lavitt, believing very strongly in fraternity, also knows that the fraternity cannot separate itself from the rest of the college and community. He realizes that the fraternity system is an integral part of college life and can operate most effectively only when good relationships exist between the fraternities and other student organizations.

Lenny realizes that the fraternity is often in the public eye and that better public relations mean a stronger IFC. Through his work as the Publicity Chairman of the IFC, Lenny Lavitt has the "know how" and the determination to carry through his policies without sacrificing or weakening the position of the fraternities.

IFC Hopefuls Announce Candidacy

President: Bob Davis

Interfraternity Council Secretary Bob Davis has announced his candidacy for the office of President of the IFC. Bob, a rising Senior in Geological Engineering, is a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity and the Phi Eta Sigma Honorary Scholastic Fraternity. Bob worked for two years on the Student Government Orientation Commission. In his own fraternity, he has served as secretary, pledge master, rush chairman, and Vice-President. During his sophomore year, Bob was junior representative to the IFC from Pi Kappa Alpha. He has worked on the IFC Social Committee and he is presently holding the office of Secretary of the Council. Bob was elected by the IFC to be one of the two representatives from N. C. State at the National Interfraternity Conference.

Concerning the election, Bob states, "I feel that my IFC experience qualifies me for the office of President. Having been a member of the Social Committee, and ex-officio member of the Executive Committee, and chairman of the Office Committee, I have worked in every field of IFC activity except finance. I am very interested in continuing my work in the IFC and if elected I will strive to do everything within my power to help transform the dream of 'Fraternity Row' into a reality."

Lenny Lavitt

Lenny Lavitt has announced his candidacy for President of the Interfraternity Council. Lavitt has been active in IFC work for the past two years, serving on the Office Committee last year, and as a member of the Executive Committee in the capacity of IFC Publicity Chairman this year. He is President of Sigma Alpha Mu, where he has been editor of his fraternity annual and assistant treasurer. A rising senior, Lavitt has also distinguished himself scholastically. He has maintained a 3.1 average in industrial engineering. He is also a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Alpha Pi Mu, and A.I.I.E.

Concerning his plans for the future, Lenny says, "I have learned much by working in the IFC during the last two years, for in this time the IFC has greatly expanded the services it renders to its member fraternities, and I have gained invaluable training as publicity chairman through the opportunity of meeting influential people. It is from this experience that I have drawn my platform. I would continue enthusiastically all present IFC programs and go into any other activity that would strengthen our fraternity system.

"I will take the opportunity to encourage scholarship by creating a functioning scholarship committee, which would provide financial aid to needy fraternity men, and publish a pamphlet, 'A Guide to Effective Study,' to be given to all freshmen.

"In addition, I would like to see the immediate establishment of Fraternity Row and a good rush and pledge training program developed through a Rush Workshop. I believe in furthering good relationships between fraternities and the community and between fraternities and the student body. This program will strengthen the overall fraternity system and, by doing so, strengthen our college."

Vice-Pres.: Gary Schultz

Gary Schultz announces his candidacy for IFC Vice-President.

He released the following statement concerning his candidacy: "For the past year I have had the privilege of serving you as treasurer of the IFC. In that time I have made every effort to completely familiarize myself with the operations of our fraternity system, and by careful analysis of our financial activity in the last year I have gained a thorough understanding of the council's workings. Last December I was elected by the IFC to represent State at the National Interfraternity Conference in Atlanta. While there I gained valuable leaders and information from IFC leaders from all over the country.

"I am now running for Vice-President of the IFC. If elected it will be my duty to execute your wishes as to our concerts and dances. I pledge that I will continue, and try to surpass, the excellence of our social activities, and present for the council's decision only that entertainment which is of high calibre and financially sound.

"Remember, Gary Schultz."

Dave Thomas

Dave Thomas announces candidacy for IFC Vice-President. In a statement to The Technician, Thomas said:

"Probably the greatest asset in being able to do a job well is to have had previous experience in that type work or having held a similar position. I have gained valuable experience by being chairman of the Fr.-Soph. Concert Committee in my freshman year, chairman of the Fr.-Soph. Dance Committee in my sophomore year, and President of the junior class this year. Also, through these offices I have learned to negotiate with 'deal-less' agents in securing a contract which is favorable financially and binding.

"If I am elected Vice-President of the IFC I will definitely favor continuation of big name entertainers for the IFC dances, attempt to secure a package deal (including all other dances held next year) with Browder Displays in order to obtain a better price on decorations, and will look into the possibilities of a series of concerts in conjunction with other major colleges in the southeast. These concerts could be set so that the entertainers would appear at State and several other southeastern colleges in a short span of one or two weeks. This would greatly lower the expense and would provide more concerts at a lower cost to each fraternity man."

Secretary: Frank Davis

Frank Davis has announced his candidacy for IFC Secretary.

He released the following statement concerning his candidacy to The Technician.

"The office of Secretary of the IFC may seem small when compared to other offices. After close examination one can see that the importance of the office is limited only by the person holding that position. Since I have worked as a freshman and senior representative to the Interfraternity Council and served on the Social Committee for a year, I feel that I am educated to the principles, ideals, and aspiration of our fraternities.

"The office of secretary entails, at present, only a few, but not unimportant, responsibilities. Most of the correspondence of the IFC is carried out by the other offices and Holladay Hall. I would like to propose as a change a system whereby all correspondence is taken care of by the secretary, so that a permanent reference and filing system would eliminate trouble and worry for future officers.

"Since Fraternity Row is still a very good possibility, and our IFC is often sent questioning letters from other IFCs, I would also like to propose that the Secretary add to the minutes, whenever possible, information which might not be brought up at the IFC meetings.

"As you can see, my interest in the IFC is not one of continuing on a static road. Our IFC is the governing body of our fraternities and with a spirit of leadership over every phase of college life it is the most important organization on this campus.

"If you pledge to me your support, I shall in turn pledge to you as triumphant a job as possible!"

Bob Meadows

Bob Meadows announces his candidacy for IFC Secretary. In a statement to The Technician, Meadows said, "Having been Kappa Alpha's IFC representative for the past year, I have become well acquainted with the operations of our IFC.

"Also, for the past year, I have held an office in my fraternity, and, at present, I am secretary of my fraternity.

"In the coming elections, I am a candidate for the office of IFC Secretary.

"I will sincerely appreciate your consideration for this office; and, if elected, I pledge myself to keep accurate and precise records, and to efficiently handle IFC correspondence. In addition, I will be pleased to handle any other duties which may be assigned to me."

Spring Sports Schedule Set For Active Week

Four baseball games, three golf matches, two tennis matches and one track meet comprise North Carolina State's spring sports schedule for this week.

Coach Vic Sorrell's baseball squad is the busiest of the spring teams. The Wolfpack is at Columbia, S. C., Monday for a double header with South Carolina, at Clemson Tuesday for a single contest with the Tigers, and at Durham Saturday for a tilt with the Blue Devils.

The baseball team begins the South Carolina invasion with a 3-1 record, all against non-conference opposition. The Pack won a three-game series from Dartmouth by 7-5, 9-6 and 2-1 scores. The loss was to Ohio University, 5-8.

Sorrell said he would start righthander Wilson Carruthers and southpaw Jim Overby in the two seven-inning games against South Carolina. He was undecided on a starter for the Clemson game.

The Wolfpack will open with Stacy Wells at first base, Glenn Sparrow at second, Jim Cox at shortstop, Neal Eason at third and either Lathan Smith or Ron Savage catching. The outfield will have Bernie Latusick in left, Don Hafer in center and Jim Lancaster in right.

Coach Al Michaels' golfers play host to Maryland Monday, South Carolina Wednesday and Wake Forest Friday. The matches will be played at the Carolina Country Club.

The linksters won their first two matches of the season, beating Ohio Wesleyan 17 1/2 to 3 1/2 and Virginia 22-14.

Michaels will choose a six-man team from Jimmy York, Pete Patton, George Allen, Gene Smith, Chuck Smith, Bob Smith, John Isenhour and Bob Barnhardt.

The tennis team, coached by John Kenfield, Jr., entertains South Carolina Friday and Wake Forest Saturday. Both matches will be played on the College courts.

The netters opened the season with a 2-5 loss to Ohio State and had a Friday match against MIT.

Coach Paul Derr's track team has only one meet on tap this week. The squad goes to Clemson Saturday for a triangular meet against Clemson and Davidson. The runners dropped their opener to North Carolina 34-96.

YMCA Candidates:

Norm Owen

Ben Sugg

Norm Owen, junior in Civil Engineering, has announced his candidacy for President of the YMCA. Besides his work in the Y for the past two years, he has also been active in other campus activities while maintaining an excellent scholastic average.

He is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Tau Beta Pi, and Phi Kappa Phi. During the first two years at State, he played in the College Band. For the past year he has served in the office of chaplain in Tau Kappa Epsilon. His service to the Y was in the capacity of chairman of the freshman commission during the year.

Owen released the following statement to The Technician concerning the Wednesday election, "I feel that the YMCA has a great potential on this campus in the area of spiritual and moral leadership. Through a dynamic program, including such things as the Apollo Club, the Y can help students relate their Christian faith to the problems and conditions around them.

"I have become disturbed over the surprisingly small percentage of the student body involved in the Y program. It is my desire that we in the Y can develop a program that would interest a majority of the students."

A rising senior in Math. Education, Ben Sugg, has been nominated for the office of President of the State College YMCA.

Sugg has been very active in the "Y" since entering State as a freshman in the Fall of 1956, serving as a Cabinet member for the past two years. He served on the Freshmen Orientation Commission last year as a leader, and on the "Y" Executive Council this year as Chairman of the Personal and Campus Affairs Commission.

In his statement to The Technician, Sugg said, "I am very much willing to serve as President of the YMCA, here, at State College because I sincerely feel that I have, both, the ability and the experience which is necessary to broaden the "Y's" program to reach every student on our campus in a manner which will be beneficial to, both, the individual student and the "Y".

Sugg is also active in the Student Government, The Blue Key, and is Vice-President of this year's Junior Class. He is a member of Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity.

In closing, Sugg urged all students to be sure to vote in the coming elections April 8th. and 18th.

Two Aspire For SG Vice-President Post

Robert Cooke

Robert (Bob) Cooke, a rising junior in Agricultural Engineering, is a candidate for Vice President of the Student Government.

Bob has been very active in the Student Government since he entered State and, therefore, is familiar with the responsibilities of the Vice President. Having been elected to the Legislature for the second time, Bob has served as Chairman of the Rules Committee. This committee has been active under Bob's leadership, particularly in revising the by-laws and the standard operating procedure of the Legislature. Since the Vice President presides over the meetings of the Legislature, he must have a working knowledge of parliamentary procedure. Bob has received adequate experience in this field, having served as parliamentarian of several organizations.

Bob has been recognized for his scholarship and leadership abilities by having been elected to membership in Alpha Zeta, The Order of Thirty and Three, the YMCA Cabinet, and has served as an officer in the ASAE. He has been awarded an Alpha Zeta scholarship and is on the Dean's List. He has been a member of the Orientation Commission for the past two years and is at present a state FFA officer. Bob has represented State in several intercollegiate conferences including the National Congress of the National Student Association.

president of the Student Government, has released the following statement to The Technician concerning the coming election.

"As a sophomore in Engineering Physics, I have served in Student Government as well as being a class officer. I feel that experience gained in these positions and other activities qualify me for the office of Vice-president.

"There are certain objectives I have in mind for the improvement of our life here at State College. These are: to obtain better student seating at athletic events; to obtain better functioning of the Academic Affairs Committee of the Student Government; to obtain a Hason committee to handle contracting arrangements for large school dances; to encourage more student participation in projects for the entire student body sponsored by the Interfraternity Council and other organizations; to encourage Student Government committee chairmen to promote initiative in their members; to see if anything can be done (See SECRETARY, page 6)

IT'S WHAT'S UP FRONT THAT COUNTS

This filter, be it e'er so pure and white
Must needs give flavor too, full clear and bright
Else would the trusting smoker, filled with hope
Again be dashed, dejected be... and mope.

And thus we come to Winston's obvious truth
It's what's up front that counts—and 'tis, forsooth
In that the fine tobaccos, in the end
Are by exclusive process—Filter-Blend—
Become the tastiest taste that e'er hath played
Across your dancing taste-buds, man or maid!

Be ye not slow, therefore, to test the wit
Of what we say: that Winston, friend, is it;
For that with ev'ry smoke ye do delay
Ye are not gath'ring rosebuds while ye may!

Secretary: Charles Russell

Charles Russell announces his candidacy for S. G. Secretary to The Technician.

"I am very happy to have this opportunity to speak to you, my fellow students, on a very personal basis. I am very proud of our Student Government and if I am elected, I shall strive to uphold its high standards and ideals.

"I have had two years' experience in Student Government as a Senator. This year as chairman of the Investigation Committee, I have had an opportunity to meet and work with many of the outstanding and important men on campus. By working on the Student Orientation Commission for the past two years, I have gained a deeper insight in this College as well as Student Government. I feel that having been selected for 30 & 3 should prove to you my qualifications for Secretary of Student Government.

"The success of Student Government and the progress of N. C. State College depends on your vote. If you decide to give me your support and your vote, I assure you that I will support your INTERESTS."

Bill Sessoms

Bill Sessoms has released the following statement concerning the election this Wednesday.

"I am taking this opportunity to solicit your support in my campaign for the office of Secretary of the Student Government. If you, by your votes and your influence in my behalf, will elect me to this important position, I give you my solemn pledge that I shall render the very best service of which I am capable. With the other Student Government officers, I shall cooperate fully at all times and seek, with their aid, to give you a government of which you can be justly proud and one upon which you may depend for service in every phase of activity.

"In a word, it shall be my concern to justify in every aspect the confidence which you repose in me by your votes."

Treasurer: Ben Kittrell

Ben Kittrell has announced his candidacy for Treasurer of the Student Government.

He has served as treasurer, secretary, and is at present the president of the Ag. Ed. Club. He has served as vice-president of the Ag. Club. He is at present the president of Kappa Phi Kappa, the professional honorary fraternity in the school of education. He served as corresponding secretary of the Order of Thirty and Three, the sophomore leadership fraternity and was selected into Blue Key this past semester. Besides this he has served in the Student Legislature and has served on the Budgetary and Finance Committee.

Ben, in announcing his candidacy, releases the following

President: Phil Carlton

Phil Carlton, rising senior in Agricultural Economics, announces his candidacy for Senior Class President with the following statement to The Technician:

"I covet very highly the opportunity to serve my fellow classmates as their class president. Instead of the traditional lengthy platform, I should prefer to limit mine to a rather simply worded one of enthusiastic service to the class in all areas with which a class president is confronted. I pledge my time and other resources in dedicated service to next year's senior class should you see fit to elect me to office."

Carlton has served as Senator to Student Government for two years and is presently serving as Student Government Secretary. He is Scribe of the Fraternity of Alpha Zeta and a member of the Order of Thirty and Three and Blue Key.

Also, he is President of the State College YDC. He is a former President of the N. C. Methodist Youth Fellowship.

George Lester

George W. Lester announces his candidacy for Junior Class President.

In a statement to The Technician, Lester said, "I am running for the President of the Junior class because I would like the opportunity to serve my school and my classmates. I have taken an active part in extra-curricular work at State. From my campus activities I believe I have the experience necessary for the office of the Junior Class President.

"The primary job of the Junior Class President is the annual Junior-Senior dance. If I am elected, I shall strive to make next year's Junior-Senior the best possible. I shall also zealously work with all other campus organizations to promote the interests of the State College student.

"I hope that you, the members of next year's Junior class, will give me the opportunity to serve you as your next president."

Vice-Pres: Larry Baxter

Larry Baxter today announced his candidacy for Vice-President of the Senior class.

In directing a statement to the rising seniors, Baxter stated, "I am seeking this position because of a vital interest in welfare of our class as well as State College as a whole. Realizing that the duty of the class officers is to coordinate class activities as well as to represent the views of the class members in other phases of campus government, I offer myself as an experienced candidate with the desire and willingness to give you complete representation in all matters concerning any of the members of our class.

"I feel that my interest in addition to three years of experience in campus government qualify me to hold this important position of Senior Class Vice-President."

Charles Shackelford

Charlie Shackelford, rising senior in the school of engineering, is a candidate for the class vice-presidency.

Shackelford is from Aurora and is currently manager of the baseball team, a member of the student legislature, and Alpha Pi Mu, Industrial Engineering honor society.

In his statement to The Technician, Shackelford stated that "the major standing duties of the vice-president are concerned with the class gift and graduation details. In the past there has been very little or no sampling of student preferences concerning this. I believe that most students do have some interest in these matters and I will work to represent these interests."

Shackelford is also a candidate for Senior Representative on the Athletic Council.

Ben Sugg

Ben Sugg, a rising senior in Math Education, has announced his candidacy for re-election to the position of Class Vice-President.

HOW TO BE A THUMPING BIG SUCCESS ON CAMPUS

While up in the attic last week hiding from the tax man, I came across a letter, yellow with age, that dear old Dad had sent me when I was a freshman. I reproduce it below in the hope that it may light your way as it did mine.

"Dear Son, (Dad always called me Son. This was short for Sonnenberg, which used to be my first name. I traded it last year with a man named Max. He threw in two outfielders and a left-handed pitcher... But I digress.)

"Dear Son, (Dad wrote) "I suppose you are finding college very big and bewildering, and maybe a little frightening too. Well, it need not be that way if you will follow a few simple rules.

"First of all, if you have any problems, take them to your teachers. They want to help you. That's what they are there for. Perhaps they seem a little aloof, but that is only because they are so busy. You will find your teachers warm as toast and friendly as pups if you will call on them at an hour when they are not overly busy. Four a.m., for instance.

"Second, learn to budget your time. What with classes, activities, studying, and social life all competing for your time, it is easy to fall into sloppy habits. Set up a rigid schedule and stick to it. Remember, there are only 24 hours a day. Three of these hours must be spent in class. For every hour in class you must, of course, spend two hours studying. So there go six more hours. Then, as we all know, for every hour studying, you must spend two hours sleeping. This accounts for twelve more hours. Then there are meals—three hours each for breakfast and lunch, four hours for dinner. Never forget, Sonnenberg, you must chew each mouthful twelve hundred times. You show me a backward student, and I'll show you a man who bolts his food.

"But college is more than just sleeping, eating, and studying. There are also many interesting activities which you must not miss. You'll want to give at least three hours a day to the campus newspaper, and, of course, another three hours each to the dramatic and music clubs. And let's say a total of eight hours daily to the stamp club, the debating club, and the foreign affairs club. Then, of course, nine or ten hours for fencing and bird-walking, and another ten or twelve for ceramics and three-card monte.

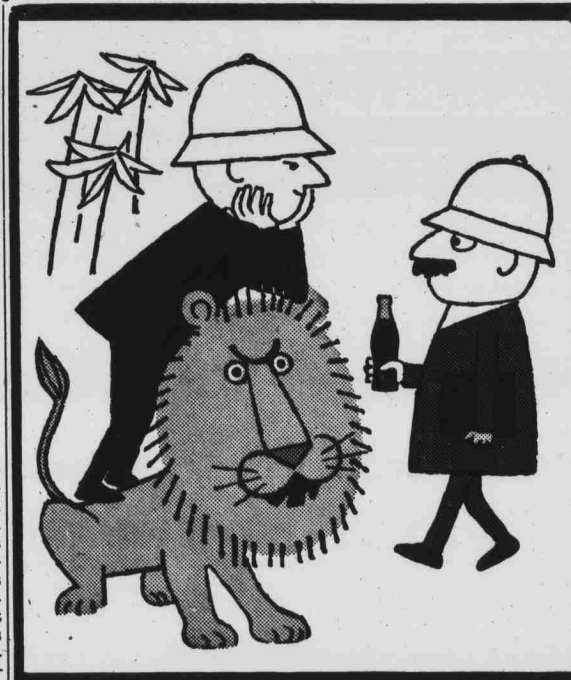

"Finally we come to the most important part of each day—what I call 'The Quiet Time.' This is a period in which you renew yourself—just relax and think great thoughts and smoke Marlboro Cigarettes. Why Marlboro? Because they are the natural complement to the active life. They have better 'makin's'; the filter filters; the flavor is rich and mellow and a treat to the tired, a boon to the spent, a safe harbor to the storm-tossed. That's why.

"Well, Sonnenberg, I guess that's about all. Your kindly old mother sends her love. She has just finished putting up rather a large batch of pickles—in fact, 350,000 jars. I told her that with you away at school, we would not need so many, but kindly old Mother is such a creature of habit that, though I hit her quite hard several times, I could not dissuade her.

Keep 'em flying,
Dad."

© 1959 Max Shubman

Here's more advice to freshmen—and upperclassmen too. If non-filter cigarettes are your pleasure, double your pleasure with Philip Morris, made by the makers of Marlboro.

Dr. Livingstone?

What a happy man he would have been if his man Stanley could have brought along a carton of Coke! That cold crisp taste, that lively lift would certainly hit the spot with any tired explorer. In fact, after your next safari to class—wouldn't Coca-Cola taste good to you?
