Harry Golden To Speak

SSL Convenes Today

The State Student Legislature, after a week's postponement due to driving snow and high hurricane-like winds, convened today in the State Capitol here in Raleigh.

For all practical purposes, the same agenda has been arranged for this weekend as was prepared previously.

Students were welcomed today at 3 p.m. by Charles Johnson, president of the Interim Council of the Assembly. After his opening remarks, the 200 delegates from 22 North Carolina colleges and universities heard an address from Dr. John T. Caldwell, Chancellor of State College.

Following the address by Caldwell, the students immediately began the task of electing officers to serve at the various committee heads and speaker-ships for the three-day session. Following this procedure, the assembly broke up at 5 p.m.

Tonight, the first legislative meetings will be held and these will continue through Friday afternoon at 5 p.m., with several hours off for eating and sleeping.

On Friday night, the students from the various school delegations will attend a banquet here at the State College Cafeteria. Professor Lindsay Whichard of the English Department will speak to the aggregation. Professor Whichard is the advisor to the Blue Key Chapter here at State College.

On Saturday morning, the students will convene for the final session at 9 a.m. The morning will be devoted to a general assembly with the final address to the students being delivered by Harry Golden, journalist, lecturer, and author.

The final session will be dismissed at 12 Noon Saturday.

Parents' Register Upon Arrival

Registration for parents during Parents' Day will be held by the Order of Thirty and Three in the lobby of the College Union on Saturday, April 2 between 9 a.m. and 12 noon. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

The Order of Thirty and Three is the sophomore leadership fraternity at State College. Eleven members are tapped for this organization during the spring semester of their sophomore year and serve for one year as active members. The main prerequisites for membership are leadership and the interests of the college at heart.

Golden Chain To Sponsor Annual 'Parents' Weekend'

By John Curlee

Final preparations are being made for the annual Parents' Weekend, sponsored by Golden Chain, senior leadership fraternity. The weekend will begin Friday, April 1, with an official welcome given by Chancellor Caldwell at the opening exercises for the Engineers' Fair at Riddick Stadium. The campus "open house" will continue through Sunday, April 3, being concluded with a special worship service to be held in Danforth Chapel in honor of the parents.

The visitors will have an excellent opportunity to observe the activities and accomplishments of State students, while taking part in the variety of activities prepared for them by the Golden Chain and the many other campus organizations that are helping to make this event a success.

The Engineers' Council is sponsoring the Engineers' Fair on this weekend to introduce the parents to many of the academic projects and accomplishments of State students in the engineering field. The College Union is sponsoring Carnival Night both Friday and Saturday and a dance Friday night.

In addition to the many booths that will be operated at the carnival by State College organizations, booths from both Carolina and Woman's College will be sponsored by the Consolidated University Student Council. The Blue Key, junior leadership fraternity, will hold a tea for the parents from 3 to 5 p.m. Saturday at the College Union, providing the parents with a good opportunity to get acquainted.

At the opening exercises, to be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. at Riddick Stadium, the invocation will be given by T. Hartley Hall, minister to the Presbyterian students at State College and Meredith College. The principle talk will be given by Chancellor Caldwell. The Hamilton Award will be presented to the engineering senior who has successfully combined proficiency in his major field of studies with notable achievements in social studies and humanities.

Carnival Night at the College Union will take the second lead of events, being held continuously from 1 to 12 p.m. on both Friday and Saturday. The Carnival Night Queen will be crowned at the dance to be held from 8 to 12 at the College Union on Friday night.

Parents will have the opportunity to watch the State baseball team in action against Princeton at 3 p.m. Friday.

Registration for Parents' Weekend, which will be held from 9 to 12 Saturday morning at the College Union, will be sponsored by the Order of Thirty and Three, sophomore leadership fraternity.

The Engineers' Fair will be held in the engineering department buildings, with exhibits being operated from 2 to 9 p.m. on Friday and 9 to 5 on Saturday.

Saturday afternoon State's thirteen dormitories and eighteen social fraternities will leave their doors open to visiting parents.

On Sunday morning the regular service held in Danforth Chapel in the Y.M.C.A. building will be held for the parents. Coffee and doughnuts will be served at 10 a.m. in the North Parlor, followed by the service at 11. Reverend T. Hartley Hall will lead the worship.

Five thousand extra copies of The Technician will be printed and mailed to the parents of all State College students.

Caldwell Addresses Vets

Chancellor John T. Caldwell will be the guest speaker at the Veterans' Association Membership Drive Banquet which will be held at The Reinlyn House in Glenwood Village. The banquet date is Saturday evening, March 19th, and the program begins at seven o'clock. Dress for the banquet is semi-formal.

Other guests of the Association are Mrs. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Bomar, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Brooks, and Miss Margaret Allen. Mr. Bomar, from the Mechanical Engineering department, is the Association's faculty advisor. Mr.

Brooks is Chairman of the Board of Deacons of the West Raleigh Presbyterian Church.

This banquet marks the end of a successful drive which has increased the Association's membership to approximately three hundred veterans. The Veterans' Association is, or at least should be, the largest student organization on campus.

A limited number of tickets for the banquet are still available and may be purchased at the Association's regular meeting tomorrow night, March 18th, at 7:00 p.m. in the College Union.

Open Letter Caldwell Invites Parents

Dear Parents:

It will be a privilege for the College to have you visit the campus on Parents' Weekend. Many of you have been here, of course. If you haven't, you will find yourselves pleased and thrilled. I hope I will get a chance to meet you.

This is a vigorous environment. We have literally hundreds of this faculty and staff who are here to help your son or daughter. I hope we do a good job.

Please come for the weekend and let us know of anything you feel should be of interest to the administration.

Sincerely yours,
John T. Caldwell, Chancellor
N. C. State College

Men's Glee Club Wind-up Tour

The seventy-two voice State College Men's Glee Club will wind up its 1960 Concert Tour Friday night by presenting their Annual Spring Concert in the Ballroom of the College Union. The Concert is at 8:00 p.m. and is open to the public free of charge.

Although this group has had three performances on the campus so far this year, this marks the first full-length concert at State College by the Men's Glee Club. Television appearances, a recording engagement and lawn concerts will conclude this year's activities for this successful group.

Seventy-five Top Students Selected By Phi Kappa Phi

Phi Kappa Phi, honorary fraternity, has recently elected fifty-seven undergraduate students and eighteen graduate students to its society. The Initiation Service will be held in Williams Hall Auditorium at 6:30 p.m., followed by an Initiation Banquet at 7:00 p.m. in the College Union Ballroom. Dr. Hollis Edens, President of Duke University will be the speaker.

Phi Kappa Phi is the highest scholastic honorary society on campus, and it is equivalent to Phi Beta Kappa. Phi Kappa Phi is an honorary society for technical fields of study, which is parallel to Phi Beta Kappa, an honorary society for liberal arts schools. The standards of Phi Kappa Phi are the same as Phi Beta Kappa.

This award is the highest honor which can be awarded to a State College student for scholastic achievement. Those receiving membership and their averages are as follows:

Undergraduates: Charles Harvey Little, 3.95; Alvin Dillard Hooper, 3.89; William Baxter Michael, 3.87; Donald Larry Hester, 3.87; Arthur Bruce Hoadley, 3.84; Donald B. Carter, 3.84; Edward Samuel Oberhofer, 3.82; William Patrick Kolodny, 3.82; Wilbur Joseph Privott, Jr., 3.80; Thomas Lane Jones, 3.80; Philip Stephen Jackson, 3.79; Lawrence Carlton Moore, 3.79; James Harris Johnson, 3.76; Gus Perry Couchell, 3.74; Donald Ross Paul, 3.73; John Henry Isenhour, Jr., 3.72; James A. Hackney, 3.72; Frederick R. Jeter, 3.72; and Gary Alan Massel, 3.71.

Parents' Tea Planned Saturday

Parents are invited to attend an afternoon tea sponsored by Blue Key Fraternity on Saturday, April 2, from 3-5 P.M. in the College Union. The tea will provide an excellent opportunity for parents to talk with their sons and friends and to meet other students. Also it will be a good time to sit and rest a few moments before continuing on through the Engineer's Fair.

Blue Key, which annually sponsors the parents' tea, is the only campus-wide national fraternity that honors students for leadership on campus. It is one of the top honors at State. A student must be a junior or senior to be initiated.

Knox Extends Invitation

Dear Parents, Throughout this special edition of The Technician, you will find numerous articles on Parents' Weekend. As the name implies, this is your weekend. On behalf of the students at North Carolina State College, it is my sincere pleasure to extend a most cordial invitation to have you as our guests on this occasion.

The Golden Chain, senior leadership fraternity, and various other organizations are planning an exciting weekend for your enjoyment. As students, we are extremely proud of State College and its achievements. This weekend affords us the opportunity to acquaint you with the college's growth and progress. Moreover, we want you to share in a program designed to give you a better understanding of State College and its environment.

We hope that you will find time to visit our campus on April 1-3. This weekend cannot be a success without your presence.

Sincerely,
H. Ed Knox, president
Student Government

Lindsay Whichard

Dr. W. H. Bennett of the Navy Research Laboratory, Washington, D. C. will be the speaker at the Physics Seminar on Monday, March 21 in 242 Riddick at 3:00 p.m. Dr. Bennett's topic will be "Some Recent Work on the Origins of the Aurora."

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Parents' Weekend

On these six pages, we have printed several articles which are intended to convey the feeling that we the students of State College, have for Parents' Weekend, April 1-3. We have attempted to include articles that have specific plans for the upcoming weekend, and also articles that contain no mention of the planned events. In this latter form, we hope that we can convey the thoughts and actions of the student body here.

In most articles in this newspaper, however, there is an undercurrent that reflects the pride that students hold for State College. This feeling can be seen in the article concerning the plans for the Engineers' Fair, the article concerning the Parents' Tea, and many others.

Because we feel this pride, it is only natural that we want others to see State College—the basis for our feelings. The Students plan this weekend so that this aim can be realized.

Many events are planned for the weekend, April 1-3, and, without doubt, there'll probably be some event at each hour of the day that will be interesting and enjoyable to every group. On Friday, the opening session will be held, and, for all the sportsmen, a baseball game between State College and Princeton University will be played at 3 p.m.

And then, on both Friday and Saturday nights, Carnival Night will take place at the College Union, which should be both informative and entertaining to all present. All Saturday, the Engineers' Council will sponsor the annual Engineers' Fair, which contains exhibits, models, and other examples of modern engineering technology. In past years, a great percentage of visitors to this affair have been completely amazed at the thorough effort that had been made to make the exhibits interesting.

A great amount of time has been put forth by nearly every organization on this campus in order to make this Parents' Weekend one that will show the true spirit that exists here. The pride that students feel for State College will be evident.

This invitation is a sincere one to all parents of State College students. We have something that we are proud of, and we want our parents to see this also. Come and see that your sons and daughters do spend some time constructively!

—JM

It is interesting, even gratifying, to note that State College is fast coming to be considered the cultural center of Raleigh. While Friends of the College, Inc. is instrumental in bringing a few large presentations to the city, it is the College Union, which incidentally subsidizes the former organization to a relatively large degree. That is catching the eye of Raleigh's citizens.

Last weekend, for instance, several people told me at the College Union's presentation of Players, Incorporated that they were quite impressed, not only with the plays they had just seen, but by the sheer weight of numbers of the programs the Union presents. Their admiration did not diminish when they found out that OUR Union and program series were completely in the hands of the students. (Many schools let a faculty committee do this sort of thing.)

Indeed, I only heard one complaint at the plays last weekend—and that came from the performers as well as the audience: We need, and shall continue to need to an ever-increasing extent, some kind of theater or auditorium on this campus! And we don't need it ten years from now! Every person who has tried to watch a play in the College Union Ballroom knows exactly what I mean when I say that it is an absurd place to watch a play and certainly does not have the facilities to present one adequately. Maybe if we invited the state legislature to the next performance they would give us the money.

I have been told that at least one student's wife awakened him during the lunar eclipse last Saturday night to "come see what the Russians have done to the moon!"

Congratulations, fellows, I knew you could do it! I don't know if the same good Samaritans who earned the thanks and good will of many Raleigh drivers during the first snow were also the birdbrains who exasperated the drivers and endangered themselves by hanging on to the bumpers of cars so they could slide down Hillsboro Street during the second snow; but at any rate, the latter succeeded in alienating all the friends the former gained for the college.

I hadn't intended to bring up the subject again, but while forced to walk to classes during our recent 'blizzards,' I discovered a very interesting fact about that new street they cut through next to the Textile Building: while it is true that the three bushes they planted block the street rather well, you can still get across campus by taking a long detour through a series of parking lots. What I want explained is this: why in the world did they block off the short way instead of the long way? Does M and O get a kickback on gasoline sold in Raleigh to college students?

Dear Freshmen: Doesn't it make you feel good to know that you are allowed to drive cars on campus (unlike Carolina Freshmen) because your permit fees are needed to pay for the paving of parking spaces and streets? Seems like I read something like that in a previous issue of The Technician.

The Word

Do you conform?
Are you an integral member of the group?

These are questions that every student must answer for himself. Each individual must have standard characteristics and mannerisms which are acceptable to the group, if he expects to maintain an active social status within his circle of acquaintance. It is evident, of course, that some form of individual identification must be maintained so that the student may distinguish between one associate and the other. With these things in mind, it behooves me to set forth a few requisites of conformity for State College students.

The first of these requisites is the slide rule. Regardless of the student's field of study, he must have a slide rule. This identifies him as a technician, whether he knows how to use it or not. This rule should be of the most popular brand, although cheaper or better rules are available.

Awakening

This ball bounced up, forever down
From its peak descending to infinity's least.
Many impacts its shape would alter
Into flatness.
Though grasping a hope on each ascent
Lesser, a subsiding excursion when compared With the one before.

Rise and fall
Little ball
But never lie
And wait to die.

A moment's brooding pause at many heights
And then a thimble of force took leave
For it could not prosper.

I must wake soon
But no matter,
The sphere will never stop
Its endless pounding, though
Disturbs my dreams.

A ray of lightning was that?
And I am falling, humpty dumpty down
Earth reaches upward to help Bam!
Suddenly perched on a ball
Which climbs with strength untold
To its highest crest
Never to drop again.

—I. G. Stein

Reminder

Just a reminder that The Technician still has deadlines for each issue, even though some other requirements have been dropped. Deadline for all articles to be printed in each Monday issue is seven o'clock on Sunday night. For the Thursday issue, all news must be received in these offices by seven o'clock on Tuesday night. Articles received after these times stand little chance of making the issue for which they were intended.

Thus the case will look like that of everybody else. The slide rule in its case is to be worn on the hip.

Now we come to the subject of dress. The prime requisite of students' dress is of a well-worn pair of Levis. The waist band, unadorned by belts or other such paraphernalia, is to be located exactly two inches below the navel. The cuffs should be rolled twice in two-inch widths and should break just over the top of the shoe. All belt loops except one on the left hip should be removed, the remaining loop to be used for supporting the slide rule case. Variations of this theme may be employed in shirts, socks, coats, etc.; but the basic impression will always be made by the Levis.

Shoes are never worn by State College students. They must wear boots. Engineer's boots are the only acceptable kind, and they should be of a dull, wrinkled finish. The boots complement the ideal created by the Levis, and also serve to make the student noticed as he walks (?) down the halls.

Finally, students are expected to have their hair combed or brushed in some distinctive fashion. This provides the aforementioned mark of individual recognition. The most distinctive form of haircut is the ducktail style. The style is created by allowing the hair to grow to a length of three inches on each side, then combing it back and down over the nape of the neck. A cooler style is the flat-top, wherein the wearer levels the top of his head with a very precise short cropping. A variation of this theme is to remove the hair completely, eliminating work and trouble and typifying the practicality of the engineer.

We have, then, the requisites of student conformity, and we strongly urge that you examine yourself for any differences. If they are evident, correct them immediately or run the risk of expulsion from your dorm.

W.C. Dorms 'Open House' To State College Students

By Lad Daniels
The Consolidated University Student Council is sponsoring W. C. Day, Saturday, March 19, at the Woman's College in Greensboro.

All the students of the Greater University have been invited to participate in this year's event. Each dorm at W. C. has invited a dorm or fraternity at State to an open house which will start at 7:30 at night. Following the open house at eight thirty there will be a dance featuring a well known combo in Elliott Hall.

Cost for the entire day is one dollar. The girls have indicated their interest in getting together with the State College students. Need it be said that a State student is not one to turn down an opportunity to improve relations with a girl.

-Notice-

All candidates for the Varsity and Freshmen Golf Teams should report to the Football Office on March 18—Friday night at 8 p.m.

Top Ice Show Opens In Coliseum

"Holiday on Ice," one of America's top ice shows, will be presented in the William Neal Reynolds Coliseum at State College April 12-16.

In reporting this Tuesday, Coliseum Director Roy B. Clogston said the opening performance of the show will be staged in the Coliseum Tuesday, April 12, at 8:30 p.m.

In addition, other evening performances will be presented Wednesday, April 13, through Saturday, April 16, with special matinee shows scheduled on Friday and Saturday, April 15 and 16. A total of seven performances will be given here.

Right down the alley

of America's second largest telephone system

Never before has America known such sustained growth and expansion. New industries, new plants, new additions to old plants—each day reveals dramatic changes on the industrial horizon.

And to help provide the new and greater communications systems for this building boom is our daily work at General Telephone.

You'll find a good example of what we mean in Muskegon, Michigan. Here Brunswick-Balke-Collender has just completed huge new facilities to keep up with the demand for its world-famous automatic pinsetters. In the same area, foundries, oil refineries and three new chemical plants are going round the clock.

And as Muskegon grows and prospers, its communications requirements become more complex and compelling. That's why Gen Tel, in the past three years, has spent more than $36 million in its Michigan operating areas alone—improving, increasing, expanding its telephone services.

This is a typical example of how we strive—not only to meet today's communication needs, but to answer the needs of tomorrow, too.

Entertainment Unlimited

Alton Lee

The ever-popular Kingston Trio can be seen tonight on the "Pat Boone Show". Always a popular group on campus, the trio will sing a number of their favorites. Incidentally, we'll be featuring The Kingston Trio's third album tomorrow night on "Entertainment Unlimited" (WKNC-8:00). The fourth and final album will be spot-lighted on our show for March 25.

The single, "Home From the Hill" "El Matador", is also moving up the charts for this popular group.

Also, on the radio show tomorrow night, we'll discuss "A Farewell to Arms," one of Hemingway's greatest novels. Our entertainment topic will be "Are Comedians Dying?" Of course, as always, there will be lots of music.

One letter this week directed toward the radio show.

"I happened to hear the program where you talked about the book, "Sister Carrie". You told just enough to get me interested; I don't think you discuss books enough." J.G.H.

Answer: The whole purpose of the book review is to awaken your interest in some literary masterpiece. Unfortunately, time does not allow a lengthy interview.

Jack Paar is back and wild as ever, of course.

New Music: There's a bright musical star in the heavens for Kay Starr's "You Always Hurt the One You Love." Speaking of the heavens reminds us of "All Through the Night", a tune by the Mystics; and don't forget Johnny Mathis and "Starbright". The recording world is finding a number of astronomical successes.

Because Jesse Belvin was killed some weeks ago, his tune "Something Happens To Me" isn't moving too well; but it's a very good waxing.

Television: For the sake of we told you so, it was in a January column that we mentioned a possible split between lovable Lucy and devastating Desi. Such has come about. The last Lucy ever to be made will be shown early next month.

"Twilight Zone" has scheduled "Long Live Walter Jackson" for tomorrow evening. The program is consistently different and entertaining. Perry Mason fans will probably be interested in the story on the show's cast in this week's TV GUIDE.

Watch for a new column in this paper soon on outstanding and different—but very interesting people here on our campus.

Pat Boone plans to move to the coast after this season where he will concentrate on movies. He'll have a competitor—remember that fellow who swings his hips? Mr. P. plans a few flicks, too.

North Carolina's Andy Griffith has sold his TV series; it will go on the air in the fall.

What with the recent writer's strike—among others who also went on strike, a number of Hollywood shows and movies have been virtually put at a stand still. Many actors and actresses are going in for night club and road show work.

Look for the Alton Awards coming on Friday, May 5, 1960.

Finally, this idea: This is merely a suggestion; but as summer nears, TV stations and networks start thinking of summer reruns. Of course, with this being an election year, the summer should be a little more lively; but why don't the networks take the suggestion of a number of famed TV publications and either try fresh, live shows, films of shows in question for the fall—or this idea, which we've seen no publication mention. Why not delve back into the files and get some of those first shows that TV ever used.

College Union Calls For Committeemen

Veteran's Corner

By Wayne Philbeck
What is the NEW LOOK? Some veterans are still asking "What is it?" and "Where is it?" The answer to the first question is rather simple. The NEW LOOK is a transition to an organization with a dual purpose: to extend benefits to its members and to offer services to non-members.

Where is it? Well, it's all around you! Last year the Veterans' Association sponsored a very successful family picnic. Plans are being made for another one this spring. At the Carnival last year the Veterans' Association was second only to a fraternity in financial gains from their sponsored booth. Last semester the Veterans' Association gave Thanksgiving and Christmas food baskets to a needy family in Raleigh. In the early part of the current school year, the Association elected a new faculty advisor, Mr. Clarence B. Bomar of the Mechanical Engineering department. Since his election, Mr. Bomar has ably assisted and advised the Association.

During the Freshman elections last semester, the Association manned one of the Polling Booths. Association members were given the opportunity to earn extra money by serving as traffic directors during a recent convention on campus. Those who worked earned over $50.00 among themselves. At our last meeting the Executive Committee presented a new, revised Constitution and By-Laws to the Association. Both were ratified.

This semester the Association began a series of informative programs in conjunction with the regular meetings. The first was a telephone demonstration on Direct Distance Dialing presented by Southern Bell. The succeeding program was an informal discussion of life insurance plans for college students and was presented by Fidelity Life.

The Association is currently conducting a Membership Drive which has increased the membership to approximately 40% of the eligible student population. This is compared with last year's membership which totaled only 15% of the veterans on campus. This membership drive ends Saturday, March 19th with a banquet at The Reinlyn House in Glenwood Village (see story on front page). A project just completed and to be reported on at the March 18th meeting is an arrangement to correspond with a Soviet technical student. The ground work has been laid; the content of the letter from the Association to this Soviet student awaits suggestions from members of the Association.

Things to look for in the future from the Veterans' Association include: active participation in the Campus Chest Drive (April 1-8); manning of a Polling Booth in the general campus elections (April 28 and May 5); a new first in Carnival night booths (Engineers' Fair); establishment of a Federal Credit Union within the Association whereby members may obtain signature loans; veterans seeking elected offices and positions on campus may receive favorable support from the Association; any worthwhile project suggested by YOU, the veterans at N. C. State.

If you would like to become a member of the new Veterans' Association, make it a point to be at our meeting tomorrow night, March 18th, at 7:00 in the College Union. You owe it to yourself! This is an important meeting as the Nominations Committee for next year will be elected. This committee will nominate one eligible member for each office in the Association. Upon election said member

The College Union now has two new committees that are badly in need of committeemen. These committees are the Travel and Special Events Committees. The Travel Committee is in charge of trips such as the Nassau trip this Easter. The Special Events Committee is in charge of unscheduled events that do not fall into the programs of the other committees.

Any student who is interested in being on either one of these committees, please leave your name and address in the College Union Activities Office or talk to one of the staff members.

Burton's Fashions for Spring will be presented Thursday, March 17, at 8 p.m. in the CU Ballroom. The fashions will be modeled by States Mates, girls from the various girl schools, and State coeds. All are invited to attend this Hospitality Committee sponsored event. The PANORAMA for this week will be "Segregation in the South, A City Decides." It will be shown at 8 p.m. in the CU Theatre. A Square Dance, sponsored by the CU Dance Committee, is to be held in the CU Ballroom Monday, March 21, at 8 p.m. All students are welcome to come stag or drag. "Sands of Iwo Jima" will be the movie, starring John Wayne, John Agar, Adele Mara, and Forrest Tucker. It is the story of the United States Marine Corps at their finest hour. The film, sponsored by the CU film committee, will be shown in the CU Theatre at 1, 3, 5, 7, & 9 on Saturday and Sunday. The Starlight Club will be held in the CU Ballroom Saturday, March 19, from 8 til 12 p.m. There will be live music at this night-club style dance sponsored by the CU Dance Committee. The dance is for couples only. The N. C. State Glee Club will present its Annual Spring Con-will serve until the Annual Meeting in April of next year. Nominations will also be taken from the floor prior to the elections. Several interesting reports and introduction of new projects will be an integral part of this next meeting. Members are requested to turn in all new membership fees collected during the current membership drive. This must be done by Friday night so that the three winners may be determined. A limited number of tickets to Saturday night's banquet were still available at this writing. Do you have yours?

cert in the CU Ballroom Friday, March 18, at 8 p.m. The concert is sponsored by the CU Music Committee. JAZZ—JAZZ—JAZZ—JAZZ—Sal Salvador will present a Jazz Concert Friday, March 25, at 8 p.m. in the CU Ballroom. If you like jazz (and who doesn't?), come to the concert. It's free to State students and their dates. The CU Theatre Committee is inviting members of the student body who are interested in participating in the production of the three act play that is given every spring to come to the committee meetings. The meetings are held every Thursday at 5 p.m. in the CU. The room number will be posted on the CU bulletin board at Main Desk. New chairmen have been chosen by the CU Board of Directors for each CU committee. A picture of the new Board of Chairmen and a story will appear in a later edition of the Technician (either next Monday or Thursday). Glaze decorating will be discussed in the Ceramics Class that is held every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the CU Craft

Shop. The lessons are sponsored by the CU Hobby Committee.

The Carnival Kickoff Dance will be held in the CU Snack Bar Friday, April 1, from 8 til 12 p.m. Live music will be furnished by the Chorvettes. There will not be a Platter Party that night.

Now is the time to sign up for an overnight outing to Mantoe scheduled for March 26 and 27. Friday, March 25, at noon is the deadline for signing up for the trip. The trip is sponsored by the CU Outing Committee.

Social dance lessons are given every Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in the CU Ballroom. The lessons are provided by the CU Dance Committee.

College Candidates Must Plan Ahead

If you are planning to go to college you had better be prepared to face a tough, often frustrating problem. Unless he is willing to accept the challenge with resolution, the average high school senior may well become what one educator calls "a bundle of nerves in a rat race."

In a countrywide survey of college admissions problems appearing in the March 7 issue, Time says that never before have so many Americans coveted a college degree—and never before has the competition been stiffer. "By all the evidence," Time reports, "Americans will soon consider at least two years of college a socio-economic necessity . . . This June the nation's high schools will graduate 1,803,000 students. In 1964, according to the U. S. Office of Education, the crop will billow to 2,309,000. The prediction; by 1970, college enrollment will nearly double to roughly 6,400,000, and it may go as high as 9,000,000."

In the circumstances, Time says, real planning (and saving) for college is essential. Gone are the days when an Ivy League dean could mutter: "If the check is good and the body is warm, he's in." Today's aspiring freshman is weighed and tested for academic content, percentiled for promise by electronic gadgets, harried by word that average admission standards will soon rise. Much worse, his cost for four years at a residential college may soon double to the price of a couple of deluxe Cadillacs—$16,000 or more. Little wonder that in his panic to get into college—and in his wild search for a scholarship—his mind boggles. Result: 60% of those who do become freshmen drop out of college. These chose the wrong school—for them—and have to start all over again. The cost to everyone is incalculable.

When should college planning begin? Some educators feel that parents should start thinking about the problem during the child's early years—the earlier the better. Today, formal college preparation should begin by twelve at the latest. A college-capable child should begin focusing on his goal in the eighth grade. This is none too soon to visit campuses and to glance at application blanks.

While enrollments are on the rise, there is still room at many colleges—at least until 1964—and no one should assume that there will be no room after that. New dormitories are rising, new forms of education are on the way. Actually, the country's 1,900 colleges and universities had room last fall for perhaps 10% more freshmen than the 820,000 they took. What the Ivy League pileup means is that there are simply not enough big-name colleges to go around—for those who seek big-name colleges. To colleges just below the big-name level, this fact brings joy. They get the good students that favored campuses cannot handle, and so raise their standards.

Choosing the right college goes beyond making sure that a department is topnotch, and that the school's diploma is welcome in graduate school. At today's prices, the best college is had if a freshman feels miserable and drops out. Every prospective campus should be visited, even if it takes a cross-country plane trip.

Actually, choosing a college is as educational as anything a high school student is likely to undergo. To make a right decision, he has to analyze his own abilities, temperament and aims. He has to find a campus that makes him feel at home, socially as well as academically.

For thousands of youngsters this is the goal to work toward. College should mean much, and one that does can be found. What it takes, Time concludes, is early preparation, steady saving, wise choosing, and resolution not to be stampeded in the rat race.

Basketball Proves To Be Most Popular Sport

By JAY BRAME
Sports Editor

Without a doubt, basketball is the most popular of all the sports at State College. Whether it be the varsity, or intramurals, basketball is the sport at State College.

In the intramural program, Art Hoch, Director of the intramural program, supplied this writer with the following information on the basketball season just concluded.

In the Fraternity League there were 63 games played without a forfeit. In the Open League there were 101 games played with only 12 forfeits. The Dormitory League played a record 62 games without a forfeit.

There were two teams that went undefeated in the Fraternity League. They were Phi Kappa Tau and Kappa Alpha. Both of these teams lost in the semi-final round of the playoffs. The losses were to the Lambda Chi Alphas and the Sigma Chis. These two teams met in the finals with the Sigma Chis winning the playoff crown with a 34-25 victory. Other teams to make the playoffs this season were Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Nu, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

A total of eighteen teams participated in the Fraternity League.

In the Dormitory League Watauga captured their second consecutive basketball championship.

Tucker and Watauga went undefeated during the regular season of play. Watauga had to come from behind in the finals to defeat Bragaw South, 43-38. Sixteen teams participated in Dormitory League action this season.

There were 32 teams in the Open League this year, and Tri-State as expected emerged as champions. Tri-State defeated Recreation 5 in an overtime for the championship. The victory gave Tri-State the honor of winning every intramural game that they played this season. They won out over 62 teams in the intramural Dixie Classic. They then went on to win out over the 32 teams that participated in the Open League. Their overall record for the season was 16-0.

The round ball had been bouncing every night since November in Frank Thompson Gym. There were 288 contest played out of possible 301 scheduled. Thus, just 13 games were forfeited. This is a remarkable record in view of the fact that games were scheduled from 5:00 p.m. until 11:00 p.m. at night. The athletic directors did a fine job in organizing and fulfilling their schedules.

A great amount of the work was done by Art Hoch, John Brady, assistant to Hoch, and the officials and everybody concerned with the intramural basketball program at State. This writer expresses his thanks for all the ones on campus that played sports in the intramural program this season to the select group mentioned above.

With the basketball season over, all that is left on the winter schedule is the swimming meet that starts next Monday night. With the completion of the swimming meet the winter sports program will be over.

Hoch and Brady have already outlined the spring sports program. Softball will start on March 28. Tennis and badminton begin April 4, with horseshoes beginning April 11.

There will be an Open League (See SPORTS, page 6)

Last Year's 'Carnival Night'

C. U.-Sponsored 'Carnival Night'—Highlight of Parents' Weekend

The College Union's contribution to the festivities of Parents' Week-end and Consolidated University Day will be the Annual Carnival Weekend, April 1 and 2. This is a major project involving all campus organizations of Woman's College, the University of North Carolina, and State College.

Activity will be the order of the day as the Kick-off Dance begins in the College Union Snack Bar at 8:00 p.m., Friday, April 1. Music will be furnished by the Chorvetts.

One of the highlights of the Carnival will be the Queen Contest. A preliminary judging will take place in the College Union Theater on Friday night with contestants from campus organizations of the Greater University. All of the contestants will be introduced during intermission of the Kick-off Dance. The Queen will be presented and crowned on Saturday, April 2.

Another exciting feature will be the Carnival Booths which will be sponsored by organizations from the Greater University as well as the student nurses from Rex Hospital. Booths will feature such items as Penny Pitch, Cake Walk, Lost and Found Auction, and Dime-A-Dance. Approximately ten booths will be in operation on Friday night, and twice that number will be open from 12 noon until 12 midnight on Saturday. Ninety per cent of the net profits from booth operations will go to the sponsoring organization and ten per cent will go to the N. C. State College Student Loan Fund.

To add to the gaiety and laughter of the occasion, a German Band will tour the building during the evening.

Applications for Carnival Queen contestants and Carnival Booths are now available in the College Union Activities Office.

—NOTICE—

Student parking in front of the former Students Supply Store building was suspended on January 21, 1960. All students are reminded that they may no longer park in this area, and that, if they do so, parking tickets will be issued for "parking in a restricted area"; fine—five dollars.

WKNC 'Late Hours' To Begin Soon

As this paper goes to press, the final "bugs" are being taken out of WKNC's new automatic programming unit. This unit, which is officially called the "WKNC Tape Control System," was designed and built by the WKNC engineering staff at a cost considerably under that of a similar commercial unit. When this device is completed and put into operation, WKNC listeners will be able to enjoy good music ("the music most people like most") well into the wee hours of the morning. Also there is a good possibility of a morning show being started.

Residents of Watauga Dormitory, please be patient. You will get your own private transmitter when and if M & O gets on the stick and fixes up a closet for the unit. As was mentioned in the editorial column of this paper on Monday night, M & O is inclined to be slow and costly on such items—so be patient.

The 14 new members of the WKNC staff are progressing nicely in their orientation and instruction about the station. They will be given a final test within the next week to analyze their knowledge of the station. If these apprentice members make a passing grade they will become active members with all the rights, privileges, and headaches.

Chaplains Lead Chapel Service

Reverend T. Hartley Hall, Presbyterian chaplain to State College students, will lead the 11:00 a.m. service at Danforth Chapel, Sunday, April 3. Preceding the service at 10:00 a.m. coffee and doughnuts will be served. A discussion period will be held in the north parlor of the E. S. King Religious Center (Campus YMCA) following the service.

The Sunday Danforth Chapel services are interdenominational and were instituted by the students here at State. The services are unique in that they are directed to the student and enable him to ask questions during the discussion period. All parents, students, and guests are invited.

Rev. Rod Reinecke, Episcopalian Chaplain to State College will serve communion at 9:00 a.m. at Danforth Chapel on April 3.

THE SEARCH FOR BRIDEY SIGAFOOS

It was a dullish evening at the Theta house. The pledges were down in the catacombs; the actives were sacked out upstairs, not doing much of anything. Mary Ellen Krumbald was sticking pins in an effigy of the housemother; Evelyn Zinsmaster was welding a manhole cover to her charm bracelet; Algelica McKeesport was writing a letter to Fabian in blood. Like I say, it was a dullish evening.

Suddenly Dolores Vladnay stood up and stamped her foot. "Chaps," she said to her sorors, "this is too yawn-making! Let's do something gay and mad and gasp-making. Anybody got an idea?"

"No," said the sorors, shaking their little sausage curls.

"Think, chaps, think!" said Dolores and passed Marlboro cigarettes to everybody, for if there ever was a smoke to start you thinking, it is mild and flavorful Marlboro! Things come clear when you puff that good, clean smoke through that fine filter—knots untie, dilemmas dissolve, problems evaporate, cobwebs vanish, fog disperses, and the benevolent sun pours radiance on a new and dewy world. Oh, happy world! Oh, Marlboro! Oh, soft pack! Oh, flip-top box! Oh, get some already!

"I have brown eyes and I weigh 3200 pounds"

Now Geraldine Quidnunc, her drooping brain cells revived by a good Marlboro, leapt up and cried, "Oh, I have a perfect gasser of an idea! Let's hypnotize somebody!"

"Oh, capital!" cried the sorors. "Oh, tingle-making!"

At this point, in walked a young pledge named Alice Blue-gown. "Excuse me, mistresses," said she, tugging her forelock, "I have finished making your beds, doing your homework, and ironing your pleats. Will there be anything else?"

"Yes," snapped Dolores Vladnay. "When I count to three, you will be hypnotized."

"Yes, excellency," said Alice, bobbing a curtsy.

"One, two, three," said Dolores.

Alice promptly went into a trance.

"Go back," said Dolores, "back into your childhood. Go back to your fifth birthday, back to your birth, to before your birth, to your last incarnation... Now, who are you?"

"My name is Bridey Sigafos," said Alice. "The year is 1818, and I am in County Cork."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"How old are you?" asked Dolores.

"I am seven," said Alice.

"Where is your mother?" asked Dolores.

"I don't know," said Alice. "She got sold at the fair last year."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"Tell us about yourself," said Dolores.

"I am five feet tall," said Alice. "I have brown eyes, and I weigh 3200 pounds."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"Isn't that rather heavy for a girl?" said Dolores.

"Who's a girl?" said Alice. "I'm a black and white guernsey."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"Moo!" said Bridey Sigafos.

We, the makers of Marlboro, have our doubts about this story. About cigarettes, however, we hold these truths to be self-evident: Marlboro for filter smokers. Philip Morris for non-filter smokers. Try some.

Sports

gue for softball this year. It will begin April 1. It will be the first season for Open League softball.

Other special events on the intramural program are the Big Four Sports Day at Chapel Hill this year on May 2. There will be a Pitch and Putt golf tournament starting May 3. The Rod and Gun Meet will be held March 30. Thus, you can see that the Intramural Department has outlined a good spring sports program for the students this year.
