IFC Announces Plans For "Greek Week"

By Lenny Lavitt
The Interfraternity Council of North Carolina State College is sponsoring its annual "Greek Week", which begins tonight, April 25th. The observance is designed to promote better understanding among the social fraternity groups and between the fraternities and the public.

Highlights of the week long program include a canned food drive for Wake County's needy families, a field day, exchange suppers among the fraternities, and the I. F. C. Banquet, which will be attended by the chapter advisors and the members of the Council.

Climax to "Greek Week" will come on Saturday when the I. F. C. will hold its annual "Spring Greeks" formal dance, featuring Maynard Ferguson and his Orchestra, and Ernestine Anderson as vocalist. Jimmy Capps of WPTF will emcee. An outdoor concert will be given on Saturday afternoon by Art Blakey and his Jazz Messengers.

The exchange suppers, which give the "Greek" members an opportunity to better know one another, will run from Monday through Thursday. The canned food drive shall get underway with the distribution of handbills on Monday and Tuesday, with collections taking place on Wednesday and Thursday. An award will be given to the Chapter which collects the most food. The winner will be announced at the formal dance.

Thursday night will feature the Interfraternity Council Banquet at the College Inn. The E. L. Cloyd Award will be given for the first time to two men who have done most for the fraternity system. Keys will be presented to the I. F. C. officers, Representatives, and fraternity presidents. Scholarship will come in for its share of attention at the Banquet. The I. F. C. Scholarship Trophy will be awarded to the fraternity whose members made the highest academic average during the past year. The Sigma Pi scholarship trophy will go to the pledge class which made the top scholarship marks.

The field day events will take place on Friday afternoon. It will consist of a variety of events, such as wheelbarrow races, sack races—a competition in which girl friends of the fraternity will participate, and a car push.

The Greek Week Committee is headed by Tom Eck, I. F. C. Activities Chairman. Other members of the committee are: Jim Gross, Banquet, Wess Perry, Bill Jackson, Food Drive; and Charles Hamilton, Morris Carroll, Field Day.

Campus Crier

All publications, both those college-wise and school-wise ones, are reminded to submit a list of all people who will attend the Publications Board Banquet this Friday night at Scandia Village to Mrs. Julia Lucas in the 1911 Building by 12 Noon on Wednesday, April 27. This move is imperative in order to allow the proper number of seats to be placed at the banquet.

A faculty or staff couple is needed to chaperon an outing-trip sponsored by the CU to hanging Rock State Park, April (See CRIER, page 3)

Profit Allocation

Currie Discusses SSS

Dick Currie, a candidate for President of the Student Government, recently made this statement concerning his platform:

The question of the equitable distribution of profits from the operation of the Student Supply Store has become a matter of increasing concern to the student body of N. C. State College. The main reason for this concern is the sharply increasing cost of textbooks and supplies. Students experiencing this increase in the cost of their college education are quick to blame it on excessive profits. This reason for concern coupled with an overall student dissatisfaction with the intercollegiate Athletic program and the Athletic Department's attitude toward student requests for better seating policies makes the profit split an important factor in student morale.

In addition to these reasons for student concern, there is the matter of principle involved. One of the primary aims of state supported colleges is to provide the best possible education at the lowest possible cost. It is obvious that the present operation of the Student Supply Store tends to defeat this policy. In fact, the present profit distribution policy places the student body in the position of actually subsidizing the school expenses of a limited number of students, primarily athletics. Thus, the student body, already paying a fee of $15 per year to support the intercollegiate athletic program is forced to contribute additional financial aid to the intercollegiate athletic program through a subsidy that few students can afford.

I would like the Student Government of N. C. State to support a proposal that would put the operation of the Student Supply Store on a cooperative basis. Under this system, the profits would be distributed to all students on the basis of the amount of the purchases made during the year. At colleges that now have this plan in effect a student's share of the profits generally runs from 8% to 10% of the amount that he purchased during the school year. This, then, in effect lowers the cost of textbooks and supplies by 8% to 10%.

Several questions that are raised by this idea should now be answered. One of these relates to the Umstead Act, which prohibits College operated stores from underselling local merchants. However, a careful check of this act reveals that the cooperative plan would not violate any State law. Thus, the distribution of profits becomes primarily an administrative policy decision. Second, how is the intercollegiate athletic program to find the funds now supplied by the Supply Store profits if this source is cut off? This is, of course, an important question. However, each student is already supporting this program to the amount of $15 per year. I feel that this is more than enough, and that it is time that the students were released from the double burden of the Athletic Fee and the Supply Store profits that go to the same program. Thus, the Athletic Department must find the funds needed from other sources, not from the students, who are already paying their fair share.

SSS Manager of Year

Lonnie L. Ivey, manager of the palatial new Student Supply Store in the heart of the North Carolina State College Campus at Raleigh, today was significantly honored as the 1960 NACS Manager of the Year.

Mr. Ivey—president of the National Association of College Stores from 1942 to 1944—received the bronze plaque during one of the Association's 37th Annual Convention Luncheons at Chicago's Hotel Sherman.

The formal presentation was made by Ray W. Vanderhelf—owner of the Iowa Book & Supply Company at Iowa City, Iowa, and 1959 Manager of the Year—in presence of some seven hundred College Store, Manufacturing, Publishing and guest personnel. He was assisted by Mrs. Mary Johnson Tweedy of Time, Incorporated, New York City, New York, sponsor of the plaque.

The NACS Manager of the Year Award was introduced two years ago when E. Lyle Goss, manager of the University Book Store, University of Washington, Seattle, Washington, was honored. Both former recipients are past presidents of the Association. Mr. Goss having served that office in 1955-56, and Mr. Vanderhoef in 1956-57.

Mr. Ivey's tenure as president was in a trying period when the membership was little more than a hundred—contrasting sharply to today's official count of 1,002 College Stores and nearly three hundred Associate Member Manufacturers and publishers.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Pay Your Money

This Thursday, approximately thirty to thirty-five per cent of the students of this college will go to the polls here on this campus to elect the officers that will lead one hundred per cent of the student body during the coming year.

That this is relatively certain to happen (one-third of the students voting) causes a person to wonder about the quality of this present student body in regard to what it really knows or cares about one of the most sacred possessions of the American people.

We look back to the Spring of 1957. That year, on this campus, over sixty per cent of the students went to the polls and voted, showing an overwhelming desire to elect the person who they respected greatest.

In the last presidential election, over fifty per cent of the registered voters in the United States let the world know that President Eisenhower was the person most able to lead this nation of ours.

And then, we look at the results of the last general election on this campus and see that barely thirty-two per cent of the students bothered to cast a ballot for the president of the Student Government.

Of course, these figures are not completely conclusive, but they do cause one to wonder in this time when college graduates are becoming the very backbone of the economic, social, cultural, and religious affairs of this country, whether about two-thirds of State's graduates measure up to what the average U. S. citizen is today.

Greeks On Campus

By Bill Marley
Recently the men of Theta Chi fraternity installed new officers for the coming year. They are Tom Eck, president, Bob Redmond, vice-president, Jim Moss, secretary, and Charlie Sparrow, treasurer.

Also from Theta Chi is the news of their Mason-Dixon Jubilee, held the weekend of April 9. At the Jubilee, the chapters of North Carolina and Virginia started Saturday with a business meeting which was followed by workshops.

That evening a banquet was held, followed by a dance at which Miss Amy Lu Bell, representing the State College chapter, was awarded the title of Regional Dream Girl.

The Interfraternity Council has published their dates for Greek Week. It began today and will continue through Thursday night with exchange suppers each night. The annual food drive will take place on Wednesday and Thursday nights and the I.E.C. Field Day will be held on the track field on Friday afternoon. Of course, the concert will be Saturday afternoon and the dance will be Saturday night.

day and Thursday nights and the I.E.C. Field Day will be held on the track field on Friday afternoon. Of course, the concert will be Saturday afternoon and the dance will be Saturday night.

Now for my annual attempt at incentive-filled phraseology. The Canned Food Drive is the one time fraternities at State do something for the Raleigh community, excluding the Christmas party. This drive is an annual event which benefits the needy people of Wake County and Raleigh.

This is not a "Mickey Mouse" publicity stunt! We have set the Drive up to help these people in all sincerity, and the combined efforts of nearly eight hundred men have made it quite successful in the past. All I will say is that it deserves our fullest and most able cooperation, Greeks, so let's make it bigger and better in its strong tradition again this year.

To the Editor of The Technician:

Will someone please instruct me in the significance of the large red square, the small red rectangle, the four-lined empty music staff, and the eight vertical bars of the College Union symbol? The inner psychosexual meaning of this profound symbolism escapes me.

Eugene H. Lehman, Jr.

To the Editor of The Technician:

Since the campaigns started for officers on campus, the candidates have attempted to do their best in informing the students of their candidacy.

In an effort to do this I placed two thirty-foot cloth banners in view; one in front of the cafeteria, and the other on the wall of Gardner Hall.

Sometime Saturday night or Sunday morning, someone decided they had a better use for them than the purpose for which they were designed. In an effort to fulfill their decision they removed the banners by cutting one down and taking it with them and by cutting the other one in half.

This shows that someone doesn't like some of the things I have promised to straighten out if elected Treasurer of the Student Government. It also points toward my opponent, who is one of the best fellows I have ever known. The person or persons cutting the banners did as much harm to him as they did to me.

Any student, faculty member, or staff member who is interested in having a better student body will not tolerate the actions of those performing an act of this type.

To the Editor of The Technician:

At this time in the election campaign, I feel that enough has been said concerning the experience qualifications of my candidate for the presidency of the Student Government, Bob Cooke, so that anyone can see that he is the best qualified. Therefore, I would like to turn the attention of this letter to some of the personal characteristics that I have observed in Bob Cooke.

My first contact with Bob came in his freshman year when we worked together on the S. G. Orientation Commission, which initiated the small group orientation program. I was very impressed and at times amazed by sincere interest in and breadth of understanding of the problems confronting State College that the freshmen possessed.

This past summer I had the opportunity to be a member of the six-man delegation, headed by Bob, that represented State College at the National Student Congress. If I ever had any doubts as to the abilities of Bob Cooke, they were erased at that time. I found him to be honest, conscientious, enthusiastic, understanding, well-informed, personable, and, above all, outstanding as a leader in every aspect of the Congress in which he worked.

He was ever mindful of the obligations of the delegation to State College. His enthusiasm for the benefit which could be derived from such a conference was so intense that all who were associated with him were affected with his intelligence and personableness. Bob stood out from the beginning as a leader in the southern delegation. It was evident to me that all who came in contact with Bob left the Congress with the utmost respect for him and for State.

Viewing the experience that he has had in Student Government affairs, the enthusiasm and tireless efforts that he exhibits, and the natural leadership abilities that he possesses, I feel that Bob Cooke is by far the most outstanding candidate for the Student Government presidency.

Bob Davis, president
Interfraternity Council

To the Editor of The Technician:

This Thursday many of you (I hope all of you) will vote for the candidate of your choice in the campus elections. There will be a small group of you who are for one candidate and another small group who are definitely for the other man. This is all well and good, but there is a much larger group that I am interested in. This group is one which has not decided who or who not to vote for. Are you one of these people? If so, I would like to help you make up your mind.

Dick Currie, a rising senior in Industrial Engineering, is a candidate for Presidency of Student Government, and I would like to list just a few of Dick's qualities and ideas along the lines of this position.

Dick's interests are your interests. He is intensely interested in any and all activities that concern the students. Pre-registration to better student-faculty relations have all been included in Dick's platform, and if elected, you can count on long hours of hard work in his attempts to fulfill his promises.

Dick has been business manager of the Southern Engineer, is in 30 & 3, is on the Engineer's Council and has served on the Consolidated University Student Council.

Whether you vote or who you vote for is strictly up to you, but I hope that these few sentences will help you to make up your mind. Consider Dick Currie strongly, and this Thursday do yourself a favor and vote for him for President of Student Government.

Scoofer Jordan, Editor
The Agromeck

To the Editor of The Technician:

There is a candidate for Vice President of Student Government that I feel I must speak for. He is Wesley McGee. Wesley and I are from the same hometown, and I have known him for a number of years. In all of my dealings with Wesley he has displayed a true sense of responsibility, and I am sure that if he is elected, he will work diligently for the students' interests here at State College. His leadership ability was recognized this year when he was tapped into 30 & 3.

As most of you know by now, 30 & 3 is a sophomore leadership fraternity and is the highest honor a sophomore can receive. For the past two years Wesley has served as senator in Student Government where he has gained a working knowledge of the problems and functions of this very important organization.

To sum up my feelings about Wesley's reliability, I offer this as a very important criterion. When there is a job to be done, Wesley will get it done. This one fact cannot be overlooked. I urge each of you to vote for Wesley McGee for Vice President of our Student Government.

Scoofer Jordan, Editor
The Agromeck

To the Editor of The Technician:

Charles Russell, a junior in the School of Agriculture, is a candidate for the office of vice-president of the Student Government in the coming school elections. It is the duty of the vice-president to lead and direct the Student Government Legislature. This is an important job requiring an extremely capable individual.

Charlie Russell's continual participation in campus activities and interest in the proper functioning of the Student Government give him the background needed by the vice-president. Charlie is presently secretary of the Student Government and president of 30 and 3. He is a member of Blue Key, Alpha Zeta, Kappa Phi Kappa, and the Consolidated University Student Council, of which he is chairman of the delegation.

During the past three years Charlie has been a Senator on the Student Government legislature and this year he is chairman of the Investigation Committee.

Charlie Russell states that he is very interested in the office of Vice-President. If elected, Charlie will discharge all duties entailed by this office to the best of his ability.

Waring Boys

To the Editor of The Technician:

The attitude of so many students-towards the Student Government and other campus activities seems to be indifferent and apathetic. It is indeed refreshing and reassuring to see men that are interested and capable running for Student Government offices. One such student is Ronald Shearon, candidate for treasurer of the S. G. I am happy to support Ronald for this office and would like to offer some of my reasons for doing so.

First of all, Ronald's record of service to State College is very outstanding. In many areas he has shown that he is willing to do the extra amount of work and put in the extra amount of time so necessary for a job well done. He is president of Alpha Zeta and a member of Phi Kappa Phi.

Ronald's work in the Student Government is of particular interest in this campaign for Treasurer. He has been a Senator for the past two years during which time he has worked on the Budgetary and Finance Committee. I know he has gained much experience that would be helpful to him as Treasurer of the Student Government as he has had a big hand in preparing the budget for this year and for the coming year.

Ronald has prepared himself for the duties of Treasurer of the Student Government and has proven that he is able to handle the job well. I urge every student to give him his support and vote.

Pack Beats Virginia, 15-4, For Fourth Consecutive Win

The Wolfpack knocked out seventeen hits Saturday, as they defeated the Virginia Cavaliers, 15-4, to move into a second place tie with Wake Forest and Clemson in the Atlantic Coast Conference baseball race.

Eight of the seventeen hits were doubles. Wayne Edwards and Stacy Wells had two doubles each. Edwards also collected a single to have three hits for the afternoon. Jimmy Cox, the ACC's third leading hitter in the ACC, also had three hits to raise his season average to .444. Jim Lancaster, Jim Story, and Wells had two hits apiece, while driving in three runs.

Joel Gibson had little trouble registering his fifth victory of the season. Gibson gave way to Jim Overby after pitching seven innings.

The Cavaliers scored two of their runs in the first inning to lead the Wolfpack 2-0. However, this lead was not for long, as the Wolfpack stickers came to bat in the second inning, and cut loose with a barrage of hits against Virginia's pitcher, Reusing.

Cox and Adjar Perry hit back-to-back singles. Wells and Edwards then hit doubles to plate three runs. The fourth tally came home on Lancaster's double. The Wolfpack was never behind after this.

They scored single runs in the fourth and fifth, and then put the game on ice in the sixth by scoring eight runs. The Wolfpack sent 12 men to bat in the sixth inning.

The Cavaliers had trouble in their outfield all day as the fielders time-and-time again mis-judged fly balls. Two fly balls in leftfield, the sun field, were dropped by Cavalier leftfielders.

Wilson Carruthers was scheduled to pitch the contest, but a leg infection put him in the infirmary.

State's next game is against the Carolina Tar Heels this coming Saturday at home. The Tar Heels lost their first three ACC games, but they are a better ball club than their record reveals. Gibson or Carruthers will be the pitcher for State, while the Tar Heels will probably throw go with their tall right-hander, Wayne Young.

The victory over the Cavaliers was the fourth straight for the Wolfpack, as they make their drive toward the Atlantic Coast Conference pennant.

USC Defeats Wolfpack And Virginia

Sophomores Charlie Bradshaw and Paul Masem led South Carolina to a sweeping victory Saturday over North Carolina State and Virginia in a three-way Atlantic Coast Conference track meet.

South Carolina scored 73½ points, Virginia 60½ and N. C. State 29.

For Masem, it was a comeback. He had been boomed as a future Olympic prospect early this year, but hard luck has kept him out of the winners' circle with an injured leg.

He won both the mile and two-mile runs in apparent ease and was almost 75 yards ahead of his nearest competitor at the finish line in both events.

Bradshaw, a transfer from Wofford, won both the 120 high hurdles and the 220 yard low hurdles.

Tony Sepp, a second year man at Virginia, posted a 9.8 time in the 100-yard dash for Virginia. The time was not a record, however. The record is 9.4 set by Duke's Dave Sime in 1958.

Hillsboro at State College

This airplane is actually a flying classroom. The course taught in it is Air Navigation, under real conditions. The students are young men who have been selected as possible future leaders of the Aerospace Team. Graduation after 32 weeks of training will win each of the students the honored silver wings of an Air Force Navigator and an Officer's Commission.

For certain young men, this training can open the way to a bright career of executive potential. Right now the Air Force is scoring impressive technological advances in the fields of navigation, guidance and tracking, electronics and radar. And here is where its highly trained and experienced Navigators will be expected to take over command positions of increasing responsibility.

To qualify for Navigator training as an Aviation Cadet, you must be between 19 and 26½—single, healthy and intelligent. And you must want to build an exciting, interesting career in the Aerospace Age. If you think you measure up, we'd like to talk to you at the nearest Air Force Recruiting Office. Or clip and mail this coupon.

There's a place for tomorrow's leaders on the Aerospace Team.
