Harden Guest Speaker At Dinner Meeting Of State Apollo Club

The North Carolina State College Apollo Club had as its guest speaker at a dinner meeting Thursday night John Harden of Greensboro, executive of the John Harden Associates.

The meeting was held in the State College E. S. King Religious Center.

Harden, who spoke on "Public Relations and Politics", is well known in North Carolina through his activities as a newspaperman, speaker, secretary to former Governor Gregg Cherry, author, and vice president and public relations director of Burlington Industries. He is presently head of his own public relations firm.

Last year the dinner speaker directed the North Carolina caravan to Europe for 68 state government officials and businessmen.

Harden was introduced to the State College Clubs by Watts Hill, Jr., a member of the North Carolina House of Representatives.

The gathering Thursday night was the second in a series of five meetings of the Apollo Club which is sponsored by the College Young Men's Christian Association.

The third meeting, to be held October 27, will feature Edwin Gill, State treasurer, as its speaker. "Political Foundations of Democracy" will be his topic. On November 3 Hugh Haynie, editorial cartoonist for the Courier Journal in Louisville, Ky., will speak on "Image Concepts in Politics".

The last speaker in the series will be Richard Murphy, assistant to the chairman of the Democratic Party. Murphy, who will talk on "The Presidential Election: An Analysis," will speak November 10.

Circle K Planning Political Campaign With Mock Election

The recently formed Circle K Club is planning to hold a mock political poll of the N. C. State student body. The poll will include candidates for the presidency of the United States and for the governorship of North Carolina. The poll will be held on Friday, November 4, and the results will be published in the Technician of November 7. The polling places will be announced later.

If you would like to express your opinion on any candidate for the above offices or on any issue in either campaign, please write a letter expressing your views and mail it to Ed Harris, Box 4500, State College Station. All letters must be signed. The editors of The Technician have agreed to print two of these letters in each issue between now and the poll. A member of the Circle K Club poll committee will select the letters to be published.

Pack Lengthens Win Streak By Downning Miss. Sou. 20-13

By Earl Mitchell
The N. C. State Wolfpack sent the hopes of a undefeated season for Mississippi Southern flying out the window with a 20-13 win over the Southerners. The Wolfpack also sent some of the Southerners' national ratings down the drain with their impressive win.

The Southerners were the number three team in the country in defending against running with an average of 58 yards per game. The Wolfpack ran up 166 yards on the ground against the home standing forces of Coach Pie Vann. The Southerners were averaging 375 yards of offense per game until they ran into State Saturday night. The State defense held MS to 200 yards.

From the opening whistle to the final gun the estimated 18,000 fans did nothing but marvel at the feats of Roman Gabriel. Gabe attempted 11 passes and hit on nine of them for 145 yards and two touchdowns. Gabriel added another trick to his growing list when he got off a quick kick for 54 yards against the Southerners.

Gabriel threw his first pass in the middle of the first period and it landed in the arms of George Vollmar 27 yards away for the first State touchdown. Gabriel's pass finished up a 66 yard drive on the tenth play to pull the Pack even with the MS team in touchdowns. The point after the touchdown was blocked and the State team trailed by one point, 7-6.

The Pack exploded in the second quarter for two touchdowns to give them what was to be the final winning margin. With Gabriel leading the way, the Pack took the ball on their own 31 and moved for four first downs. Of the 69 yards covered on this drive Gabriel's passing accounted for 38 of the yards. The Pack picked up a first down on the Southerners' one yard line. After two State backs had failed to score, Gabriel pushed into the endzone for the touchdown. Gabriel passed to Claude Gibson for two points to give the Pack a 14-7 lead.

On the first play following the kickoff, Gibson intercepted a pass on the State 14. With just a few minutes left on the clock the Wolfpack started a drive that finished up two and a half minutes later with the third Pack touchdown. Almost all of the distance was covered in the air with Gabriel leading the way. A Gabriel-to-Collice Moore pass covered the

Enlightening Weekend

Climate Of Learning Debated By Student, Faculty Leaders

By Bill Jackson

Sixty students, faculty members, and college officials traveled to New Bern, N. C., this past weekend to participate in The Conference on the Climate of Learning, which convened at the Governor Tryon Hotel Saturday and Sunday. The gathering was the culmination of an idea of Oscar B. Wooldridge, the Director of Religious Activities at the college, and was sponsored by the YMCA.

The Climate of Learning Conference was conceived as a step toward alerting the students at State College to the true nature of an academic community and how its creative influence could be enhanced. The basic purpose of the Conference was as stated in Focus, the conference program:

"The climate in which education is pursued is all important to both student and instructor. A college is one place where there must be curiosity, controversy, communication, commitment to a search of the unknown, and a reexamination of values and institutions.

"In the belief that these things are possible at N. C. State College to a degree greater than now exists, this conference is planned to include members of the student government, five representatives from each school, and seven concerned members of the faculty. Its aim will be to contribute toward the creation of an attitude and disposition among student leaders that will result in an appreciation of and loyalty to the college community. Out of this experience will come the desire, we hope, to return to the campus and encourage an establishment of the climate in which a sincere confrontation of academic discipline can take place."

The meetings were opened with remarks by Bob Cooke, Student Body President. Chancellor John T. Caldwell presented the opening address. The convention body split up into discussion groups which met before dinner and later in the evening. Small group discussions were continued Sunday morning before the general assembly was held to compare notes. Basic questions which entered into consideration were:

1. How can a climate for academic pursuit be created on a campus.
2. What are the strengths of the academic climate at State College?
3. What are the weaknesses, the impediments to excellence, of the academic climate at State College?
4. What should be the relationship of teacher and student if State College is to be a place of learning?
5. How can the campus be made more largely an academic community, rather than a series of smaller and separated communities?
6. What is the meaning of academic freedom, for faculty and for students, and how can it be fostered? How can such freedom be joined to responsibility?

7. What should be the role of the student in determining academic policy at State College?

8. What are the basic ingredients of good school spirit, and of a lasting loyalty to State College?"

The discussions were led by seven student group leaders; each group contained six or seven other students and one representative of the faculty or administration. In the near future The Technician hopes to publish articles by several of the conference leaders in an effort to acquaint the student body as a whole with the work accomplished.

The students attended repre-

N. C. Design Group Meets, Hears Expansion Plans

The North Carolina Design Foundation, in its annual fall meeting at North Carolina State College Thursday, re-elected W. H. Deitrick of Raleigh as its president and heard plans for the further advancement of the college's world-famed School of Design.

Directors of the foundation also reelected three other principal officers. They are J. Norman Peace, Jr., of Charlotte, vice president; L. L. Ray of State College, secretary; and J. G. Vann, also of State College, treasurer.

Six new directors were elected for four-year terms. They are Charles Laws, Charlotte; Roderick Adams, Durham; J. L. Bean, Cherryville; Kenneth Scott, Durham; R. H. Stephens, New Bern; and Anthony Loard, Asheville.

Stephens was named a member of both the foundation's executive and investment committees.

B. Atwood Skinner of Wilson was elected to fill the unexpired term of Romeo Guest of Greensboro, who resigned his position as a director.

Presenting the nominations committee's report was Conrad W. Wessell, Jr., of Goldsboro.

Speaking briefly at the meeting were Chancellor John T. Caldwell of State College and Dean Henry L. Kamphoefner of the college's School of Design.

In his talk, Dean Kamphoefner reported that the enrollment in the School of Design has reached an all-time high of 298, including 241 in architecture, 17 in landscape architecture, and 40 in product design.

Dean Kamphoefner reviewed plans to strengthen the school's faculty and teaching program. C. W. Hart, assistant director of foundations at State College, presented the treasurer's report which showed that the foundation has had a total income since it was organized in 1949 of $73,835.

The foundation supplements the State salary scale in retaining and attracting top-level faculty members for the college's School of Design.

Sportsmanship

Duke University was awarded the Atlantic Coast Conference sportsmanship trophy at halftime last week when we played them in Durham. It marked the second time in four years that Duke had captured the trophy. Maryland and Virginia were the other two teams to capture the trophy.

Much has been said about school spirit at State College. Included in school spirit is sportsmanship. How many times have you been to football or basketball games involving our school when our students were guilty of unsportsmanlike conduct.

It has been noticed by students, faculty members, and people not associated with the college, but fans of the team, that State College lacks school spirit and good sportsmanship towards their opponents.

One of the things that has bothered us is when somebody is giving a cheer, like "Go Duke, Go," we simply tell them where to go. This is in very poor taste and although we have many trophies in the cases in the Coliseum representing championship teams, it would be very nice if we had the sportsmanship trophy in one of these cases. The trophy is given on the student body's sportsmanship at football and basketball games.

We have not had any serious incidents like Carolina or Wake Forest have had in the past few years, but it is true that our sportsmanship has not been the best.

We admit that booing referees is part of the game, but booing the opposing players is another thing. They are playing just as hard to win the contest as our players are. There has to be a winner and a loser in every athletic contest.

Our home football schedule is already over. However, we have quite a few games at home during the basketball season. This is probably where we will be judged the most.

We are still very much in the running for the ACC football championship, and we'll guarantee you that Coach Everett Case will have his cagers very much in the running after suffering his first losing season in forty years.

But whether we win either the football or basketball championship this year, let's show the people that State College has the best sportsmanship of any school in the conference.

We don't have to be a winner each time we engage in an athletic contest. As was said before, there has to be a winner and a loser, and we will be the losing team on some occasions during the year.

Even if we are the losing team, let's make the public proud of our fine student body.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor of The Technician:

When I first came to State College, I heard an excessive amount of complaining about food served in the cafeteria. I knew that whenever there is a large group of people massed together, there would be complaining about one thing or another. So I took the complaining about the food served in the cafeteria in stride. I have eaten several times at the cafeteria and noticed that the food was not particularly appetizing.

I continued eating at the cafeteria, because I thought, that even though the food was not very appetizing, that it would be wholesome and nutritious. I even became inured to "powdered" mashed potatoes, canned vegetables, tepid milk, flat tea and hard cold bread.

I did not mind the instant mashed potatoes and the canned vegetables, nor the flat tea. . . but I WILL NOT TOLERATE ROTTEN MEAT.

I was not exaggerating when I said ROTTEN MEAT. When I started to eat the "country ham steak", I had to struggle to keep from vomiting, because of the putrid odor of the meat. It smelled like - - - ! ! ! ! !

Are the students of N. C. State going to tolerate this? ? ?
Ronnie Hearne

To the Editor of The Technician:

I wish to thank those freshmen who went to the polls last Thursday and voted, whether they cast their vote for me or for one of my worthy opponents. There are approximately 2,000 freshmen in our class and only 37.5% of our class went to the polls and voted. I ask myself why was this so. I believe that you, my fellow classmates, would have voted if you had known something about each of the candidates, therefore, I have decided to publish a pamphlet entitled "Information Concerning Your Candidates," which will contain the names of each candidate in the run-off; I also hope that there will be a write-up on each candidate.

Each candidate in the run-off is encouraged to submit an article on a voluntary basis. Candidates for president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer will be allowed one page (4 1/4" wide by 5 1/2") and each senator will be allowed one half page in this pamphlet if he or she so desires. The dead line was set for 5:00 p.m. Sunday; however, there were one or two candidates whom I was unable to reach; therefore, the final dead line is set for 8:30 p.m. Monday.

Those candidates who have not already turned in their article for "Information Concerning Your Candidates" may do so now by stopping by Room 260 Tucker with their article before 8:30 p.m. tonight.

In order that no one candidate will have the upper hand, I have asked Alpha Phi Omega, honorary service fraternity of scouting, to deliver to you your free copy of "Information Concerning Your Candidates", which they have volunteered to deliver to you on Wednesday night. I wish to encourage each of you to read the write-up by each candidate before going to the polls Thursday, October 27, to vote for the candidates of your choice.

JOE R. RIDGILL, JR.

Notice

I wish to thank those of you who voted for me in the primary election last Thursday. I wish to encourage each of you to take advantage of your privilege to vote in the run-off election, Thursday, October 27, for the candidates of your choice.

Because of your votes and because I feel qualified to give you the representation that you want, I am seeking, as a candidate for Freshman Engineering Senator, the opportunity to represent you honestly for the advancement of our school. If elected, I extend a cordial invitation to each of you to bring to me your ideas and suggestions so that you may have a voice in our Student Government.

Don't forget to go to the polls Thursday, October 27, and vote for the candidates of your choice.

Would all y'all like to see how all them damn Yankees live?

Do you long to walk through a crowd of people without seeing the same old familiar corn-and-potato-fed faces, and passing by the same old two story buildings?

Are you an intellectual; do you want to further your education? Have you visited the United Nations, the Hayden Planetarium, Museum of Natural History, or the Bronx Zoo?

Do you want to go on a four day blast, meet students from all over, who consider New York their natural home over Thanksgiving vacation? Night life, day life, neon lights, filter tips, "on the rocks", and party, party, party!

Are you deep-in, Ben; spherical, neat beat like to view the blue art, "expresso" plus-o, and "avant-garde"?

Do you enjoy being strictly "high-brow"? Broadway, MacDougal Street "The New Yorker" Abercrombie & Fitch, Guggenheim, and the Met.

Are you interested in SAVING MONEY (aren't we all)? Do you know a bargain when you see one? Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, the Automat, the New York Stock Exchange, — a $24 island, now worth $21,000,000,000.

It really make no difference where your special interests lie; for in New York City, there's something to please the Southerner, the Jazz Fan, the Nigh Clubber, the Bohemian, the Culture Fiend, the Mispaced Yank, and YOU.

CU Tour Scheduled

The College Union Travel Committee has announced plans for a trip to New York City during the Thanksgiving holidays, while classes are not in session. All State College students, other College Union members, their wives, mothers, husbands, brothers, girl friends, and other guests are eligible to participate. Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson will be tour leaders. All persons going on the trip will stay at the Hotel Edison, which is located on 46th Street, a few blocks west of Broadway. There will be three in a room, with special arrangements made for married students. Also, fellows, WOMAN'S COLLEGE has been invited to participate; this is your big chance.

Transportation and tickets to the Hayden Planetarium, Rockefeller Center, and the United Nations are included in the cost of the tour. Tickets to Broadway shows may be ordered individually; each person will order tickets sent to his address, and will enclose a check or money order with his request. Members of the Travel Committee or the College Union Staff will gladly aid individuals in ordering tickets. There will be plenty of free time for individual sightseeing, shopping, visiting museums, art galleries, Greenwich Village, Chinatown, The Empire State Building at midnight, the Statue of Liberty, the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Pennsylvania Station, Fulton's Fish Market, the Bowery, Wall Street, Grant's Tomb, Coney Island, and the Brooklyn Bridge.

The Financial Part

The cost—$45.00. That's right, only $45.00, and it includes (1) round trip transportation (2) hotel room for three days and four nights, including check-in and check-out fees (3) tours within the city. Reservations will be accepted as long as there are spaces open on the tour. A deposit of $20.00 is required, and is not refundable. The balance of $25.00 must be paid no later than November 10, 1960. The schedule for the tour is as follows: Northbound: Leave the College Union at 1:00 p.m. Wednesday, November 23, 1960, by Greyhound bus; arrive New York City at 1:00 a.m., Thursday, November 24. Southbound: Leave New York, Sunday, November 27, at 9:30 a.m.; arrive in Raleigh at 10:00 p.m., Sunday. The exact schedule may be altered slightly.

So, rush to the College Union Activities Office; sign up now as there is a limited amount of space available. Whether this will be your first visit to the Big City, or whether you're going to see all those places you missed before, or whether you're only interested in getting to know your fellow students; this trip, which was planned by students, for students, is the best and cheapest vacation you'll ever have.

final six yards. The point after the touchdown attempt failed and the Pack went in at intermission with a 20-7 lead.

State took the second half kickoff and marched to the MS 25 before the drive was halted. In addition to driving to the Southerners' 25 yard line in the second half, the Pack also drove to the 37, 33, and 33 yard lines without scoring.

After the drive following the kickoff was halted, the Southerners marched 71 yards for their final score with a pass from Morris Meador to Andin McCloud covering the final four yards. Jim Fitzgerald broke through and blocked the attempted kick to halt the MS scoring for the night.

The fourth quarter was played up and down the field with neither team getting much of a drive started. In the statistical end of the game, the Wolfpack showed up very well. The Pack edged the Southerners in first downs 18-14, but the MS eleven picked up 171 yards rushing to 166 for State. In the passing department, State had 145 yards to just 30 for Mississippi Southern. Moore got off four boots for an average of 41.8 yards per kick. The Pack was penalized 66 yards to only 35 for the home team.

In completing nine passes in eleven tries, Gabriel moved his completion mark to 58% for the season. So far this season Gabriel has completed 59 passes in 102 attempts. He has had only four intercepted in six games. The win for the Pack had no bearing on their standing in the ACC. They are still in second place with a 3-1 mark behind the Blue Devils with a 4-0 mark. The win moved the Pack's season mark to a 5-1 and assured

Coach Earle Edwards of having his second best year since coming to State. Should the Pack win three more games it would be the best season that Edwards has had here at State.

The next outing for the Wolfpack will be Saturday night when they journey out to Los Angeles to do battle with UCLA. Last year the UCLA team dropped the Wolfpack 21-12.

The football fortunes at State continued to be the best with the freshmen winning their game on Friday afternoon. The State frosh dropped the Virginia freshman team by a 29-8 count; Tony Koszarsky led the way for the State team by picking up 148 yards of the 300 that the Pack racked up. The win left the Pack freshmen with a perfect 4-0 mark with just one game left on the slate.

Scoring:

State	6	14	0	0	20
MS	7	0	6	0	13

MS: Sklopan, 5 run (Morrow kick)
 NCS: Vollmar, 27 pass from Gabriel (kick failed)
 NCS: Gabriel, 1 run (Gibson, pass from Gabriel)
 NCS: Moore, 6 pass from Gabriel (kick failed)
 MS: McCloud, 4 pass from Meador (kick failed)

Track And Football Top Card

By Richie Williamson
 The intramural track championships were won by Tucker #2 in the dormitory division and Delta Sigma Phi in the fraternity division in surprisingly easy victories for both teams. The boys from Tucker collected 36 meet points while runner-up Owen #1 had 29½ points. Third place in the dorms went to Watauga with 20 and Syme and Tucker #1 tied for fourth with 12½. Delta Sig rolled up 38½ points in easily outdistancing Sigma Chi who had 22½ points. SPE was only a half point out of second while fourth place went to Sigma Nu with 14 points.

Tucker Takes Three Firsts
 Tucker #2 was paced to their win on the strength of three first place finishes by Daugherty in the high jump, pole vault, and discus; and by Eaton who won the 440-yard dash and was second in the 120-yard low hurdles. Owen #2 captured second place mainly on the strength of Goodwin's first places in the 100-yard dash and the 65-yard high hurdles and a victory by Peele in the 220-yard dash.

 Delta Sig proved to be very strong in the running events which accounted for their large margin of victory. Gilbert took first place in both the 100- and 220-yard dashes, and Wolfer was first in the 120-yard low hurdles and second in the 65-yard high hurdles. Sigma Chi boosted themselves into second place in the evening's last event, the 880-yard relay, where anchor man Finnegan pulled out the first place.

New Records Set
 New participation records were set in both divisions in the very successful track meet. The 14 dormitories sent 137 participants into the thirteen different events. There were 229 entrants in the fraternity with SAM having the most with 22 while Theta Chi had 21 men entered in the meet.

Berry and Bagwell Tops
 Playoff berths were almost decided as the outcome of last Wednesday's dormitory football games pushed both section leaders far into the lead, leaving the runner-up spots to be decided. Once again the strong Berry and Bagwell teams rolled up impressive high scores to defeat their opponents.

Berry stopped second-place Tucker #1 by a 27-0 count to leave themselves undefeated and a sure first-place finish in their section. Establishing themselves as co-favorites for the dormitory championship were the gridders from Bagwell who romped to a 53-0 win over Watauga. This win virtually clinched the top spot in section two for Bagwell.

Other action included a battle for their first win of the season between Alexander and Turlington which Alexander won 19-0. The scores came on runs by Cartwright and Breedin in the first and third periods and a pass from Harper to Eason in the fourth quarter. Tucker #2 edged Owen #1 by a 6-0 score and Bragaw S. beat WG4 by the same margin. Becton and Owen #2 fought to a 6-6 tie which Becton took on yardage of 85 to 80 yards.

questionnaire that the secretary will hand to you before Tuesday, October 25th. Please announce this to your off campus friends. Dr. Menius.

The Forestry Club will meet in 159 Kilgore Hall on Tuesday, October 25, 1960 at 7:00 p.m. Sandy Davidson, consultant forester, will be the speaker. Past students of summer camp have commented that Mr. Davidson is one of the first to openly state his views on forestry as a business and feel that their time with him was well worth while. All members are urged to attend this last meeting before the rolleo. Any prospective members are reminded that this is their last opportunity to be initiated during the fall semester.

The School of Forestry will have their annual rolleo at Hill Forest on Saturday, October 29, 1960. The rolleo will consist of competitive forestry events among the four classes throughout the day. A barbecue dinner will be served at noon. In order to have an accurate count intending to eat dinner, each person is asked to sign the list which is posted on the bulletin board in Kilgore Hall. Busses and rides will be furnished to those desiring them.

Y.M.C.A. Search Party 1, "What Christians Believe and Why," will meet in room "B" of the cafeteria on October 24 at 6 p.m. Its topic will be the use of religious symbols and rituals in politics and government.

A discussion of church architecture and religious symbolism in art will be the subject of the "Christianity and the Arts" search party. A panel discussion between two clergymen and two architects will be followed by informal discussion. This meeting will be held in the Y.M.C.A. conference room at 7:30 p.m. on October 26.

The Apollo Club will meet Thursday, October 27, in the Grill Room of the cafeteria.

CU Sends Delegates To Regional Meet

Nine representatives of the North Carolina State College Union attended the Region Four Conference of the Association of College Unions held at the University of Florida in Gainesville.

The delegation, consisting of six College Union committee chairmen, one officer and two staff members, left Raleigh Tuesday (October 18) and returned Sunday (October 23).

The delegates to the conference were: Dodie Clark of Garner, forum committee; Bob Binna of Siler City, dance committee; George Heeden of Wilson, music committee; John Stone of Greensboro, gallery committee; Bill Guion of Charlotte, activities committee; Ray Perryman of Lexington, special events committee; Alan Eckard of Hickory, vice president; Archie Copeland and Frances Caudle, administrative staff.

The fourth region, of which the North Carolina State College Union is a member, is composed of the College Unions in the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

The conference is a meeting ground for the various Unions to get together and discuss problems concerning programming.

LUCKY STRIKE PRESENTS:

DEAR DR. FROOD:

DR. FROOD'S THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Early to bed and early to rise is an excellent way to avoid people.

Dear Dr. Frood: What should I look for first when I look for a wife?

Searching

DEAR SEARCHING: Her husband.

Dear Dr. Frood: Our son has been in college three months, and we haven't heard a word from him. Not even a post card. I don't want him to think I am too demanding or overprotective, but frankly I am worried. What should I do?

Worried Mother

DEAR WORRIED: Why worry after only three months in college? He's still learning how to write.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am six foot five, 225 pounds, handsome, tanned, muscled, a good athlete. But I can't get along with girls because I can never think of anything to say. What do you suggest?

Brawny

DEAR BRAUNY: "Me Tarzan, you Jane."

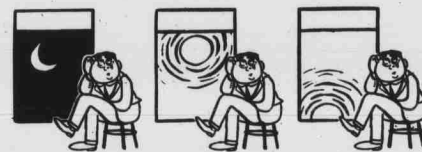

FROOD FAD SWEEPS COLLEGES! They laughed when Dr. Frood started the new college craze of enjoying a Lucky while hanging from a coat rack. But now everybody is doing it! Smoking Luckies, that is. Today college students smoke more Luckies than any other regular. Reason: With or without coat rack, Luckies deliver the greatest taste in smoking today.

Dear Dr. Frood: Don't you agree that every college man has the right, in fact, the duty, to stand up and speak out for the things he believes in? Tomorrow I am going straight to the college president and tell him, politely but firmly, what is wrong here—the inferior teaching, the second-rate accommodations, the bad food. My friends think I am wrong to do this. What do you think?

Determined

DEAR DETERMINED: I applaud your spirit, young man! Had I been able, I would have commended you in a more personal letter. However, you forgot to leave a forwarding address.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am puzzled by the Lucky Strike slogan: "Remember how great cigarettes used to taste? Luckies still do." I've been sitting here for hours, thinking, thinking, thinking, but for the life of me I can't remember. What should I do about this?

Forgetful

DEAR FORGETFUL: I suggest you lean back, relax, and light up a Lucky Strike. I'm sure it will all come back to you—who you are, what you were, where you lived, everything.

CHANGE TO LUCKIES and get some taste for a change
