Udall sees changes

“...students and university officials are concerned that the proposed changes will weaken the university's commitment to academic excellence. They fear that the changes will lead to lower standards and a decline in the quality of education. The university administration, however, argues that the changes are necessary to ensure the financial sustainability of the institution. The debate continues as the changes go into effect in the fall semester.”

The atmosphere at Mastro Grass is friendly and informal. Upkeeping with this, the Management has open jazz on Monday nights for local musicians to entertain as well. There is a cover charge on Monday nights.

Television will play Montaldo's. It is open every day for lunch and dinner except Sunday. The phone number is 282-4259. The specialty is seafood and the atmosphere is casual.

Wolfpack ready for rematch with Carolina

by David Carroll
Associate Sports Editor

Normally, a team that starts the season with four rookies would be lighter on experience and less experienced than the Wolfpack. But, in the eyes of head coach Butch Reynolds, the Wolfpack is a very experienced team.

"We've got a lot of guys who have played a lot of basketball," Reynolds said. "We've got a lot of guys who have been in the ACC for a long time. We've got a lot of guys who have been in the ACC for a short time." Reynolds is referring to the Wolfpack's four seniors, who are dominating the ACC this season.

This Thursday, Friday, and Saturday will see the Wolfpack swimmers setting records and breaking personal bests in the pool. The Wolfpack will compete in the ACC championships at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

"The ACC is a tough conference," said Reynolds. "We've got to be ready to get our feet wet." The Wolfpack is looking to win the ACC championships for the first time in school history.

State take indoor track

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Maryland's dominance in the indoor track and field events was evident on Saturday as the Terrapins swept the ACC Indoor Track & Field Championships.

"Our focus was on winning the ACC Indoor Championships," said Maryland coach Joe DeFrancesco. "We knew that if we performed well, we would have a good chance at winning." The Terrapins won six of the 13 events, including the men's and women's 800 meters, men's and women's 1,500 meters, men's and women's 3,000 meters, and the men's and women's 4x400 relay.

S'laware, Md. — The Wolfpack swimmers set a new school record of 1:35.6 in the 800 meters, with freshers than Bob Carter's best time of 1:36.9. The Wolfpack swimmers also set new NCAA records in the 800 meters, 1,500 meters, and 3,000 meters.

Through our work in the past as student senators, and most recently in an attempt to extend our influence to the campus, we have worked closely with Student Body President Bob Reynolds and have been dismayed by the questionable changes raised by student senators, particularly those of Student Senate President Todd Merchant.

It is also a fallacy to say Carter's sweaters and blue jeans are nothing for a gentleman. Like it or not, Jimmy Carter's background is as a rural Georgia boy. He went to the Atlanta News in 1971.

We like the students being shamed on athletic events also. I'm speaking of DFL. I have already paid for my ticket and want to give it to someone else, that should be my prerogative and no one else's concern. If the Athletic Dept. so obsessed about student apathy, then why not let people from other schools in to see the game on a student ticket (it's obvious that all students can't go to all games, so they should be able to give tickets to friends to whom they get to go.)

In my closing statement, I feel the two issues from above concern all students and hope to get some feedback in the Technician.
