STATE COLLEGE TO HAVE MEETING OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

Southern Federation of College Students To Meet Here

DELEGATES ENTERTAINED WHILE AT ALABAMA MEET

State Delegates to Conference, Albright and Tucker, Report a Good Trip and Successful Meeting; Albright on Executive Committee, Reports Tucker; Delegates From Sixteen Colleges Attend Meeting.

The Southern Federation of College Students will hold its meeting at State College next year, as decided at its seventh annual convention staged at the University of Alabama, April 19, 20, and 21.

When the chairman asked for invitations from representatives of the colleges for a meeting place next year several came pouring in, but when C. S. Tucker rose to his feet and presented invitations from Dean Cloyd, Dr. Brooks, Mayor Culbreth of Raleigh, the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Raleigh, Governor McLean, and several other prominent men of Raleigh and the college, the assembly went wild with cries to have the meeting at State College.

Delegates from colleges throughout the South were at the University of Alabama for this very important meeting, including representatives of Birmingham Southern, Centre, Davidson, Emory and Henry, Emory University, Georgia Tech, Howard College, Mississippi Agricultural, N. C. State College, Mills College, Southwestern, Washington and Lee, and the universities of Alabama, Florida, Maryland, Richmond, and Tennessee. Petitions were received from ten other colleges to become members of the federation.

Delegates were entertained royally throughout the meetings by Blue Key, honorary organization; Scabard and Blade, and the junior class. Two dances were given by the Junior class and one by Blue Key. Climax of the entertainments came Saturday night, when all attended a banquet at Hotel McLeester, given by the Student body.

MECHANICAL SENIORS' TRIP HAS UNUSUAL AIR

Office Assistants Accompany the Party on Annual Inspection Tour to Newport News

A co-ed air was given to the inspection trip of the Mechanical Engineering seniors on their visit to Newport News last week-end, for this year the senior class and faculty members of the M. E.'s were accompanied by the office assistants, the Misses Frankie Bridges and Lillian Smith.

The trip was made in cars furnished by Frank Turner, R. M. Rothgeb, and Professor Foster. While at Newport News, the students were guests of the Tidewater Chapter of the State College Alumni Association, J. M. Foster and R. P. Kolb were the faculty members of the party.

The party left Raleigh Friday, April 20, and that night they were entertained in the homes of the various State alumni now living in Newport News. Saturday morning the group visited Langley Aviation Field. Several hours were spent in the research laboratories of the National Committee of Aeronautics, where extensive tests are carried on with all types of airplanes. The Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company, one of the largest in the United States, was also inspected.

Saturday night a banquet was given the party by the Tidewater Chapter of State alumni at the Colonial Inn. The return trip was made by way of Norfolk, at the request of Bill Metts. The seniors making the trip were: F. B. Turner, F. C. Davis, D. O. Pike, B. A. Preslar, R. M. Porson, C. P. Penny, M. J. Polk, R. M. Rothgeb, W. F. Metts, R. L. Wortham, and J. B. Darden.

AGROMECKS

For the senior class will be distributed Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the office in Y. M. C. A. building. BUSINESS MANAGER.

Jokers Pay Two Dollars To Cut Freshman's Hair

Because he was taken at his word proved to be the undoing of one freshman on State College campus last week when his hair was trimmed free of charge, and two one-dollar bills were slipped into the hands of J. A. Williams, 1911 Dormitory, as the outcome of a "bull session," which had finally become directed at him.

Shortly after the lunch hour Saturday, the students gathered for their "talk-fest" in one of the dormitory rooms, and Williams was told in a joking way that the others were going to cut his hair.

"I don't care," he said; "give me two dollars and you can cut it now." When the money was in his possession the scissors descended on his head and their work was soon done.

Clippers were sent for in order that a good job might be done for the "exorbitant" price, but before they were brought the salesman slipped from the grasp of his customers and disappeared.

"I didn't make but a dollar and sixty cents on it," Williams said, "because it cost forty cents to get it trimmed."

LEAZAR MEN BEAT PULLEN IN ANNUAL SOPH DEBATE

McKinnon and Green Debate for Winners on Governmental Questions

Leazar Literary Society defeated Pullen Friday night in the annual sophomore debate between the two societies on the subject, "Resolved, That democracy as a system of government should be abolished in the United States." Leazar upheld the affirmative and was represented by J. H. McKinnon and H. C. Green. E. L. Dillingham and J. E. Moore represented Pullen.

The affirmative argued that man in the past had not shown himself competent to rule by democracy, and that for this reason he did not have the inalienable right to rule himself. They further contended that the ideals of democracy were not consistent with the ideals of the masses, and that in times of peace it did not bring the great men to the front.

The negative based their arguments on the contention that democracy in the United States had been a success and that there was not a reason for discontinuing it.

The judges for the debate were Professors Meares, Cobb, and Ladu of State College. The decision was rendered three to nothing for Leazar, while J. H. McKinnon was chosen as the best speaker.

Dates Set For the Lambda Chi Alpha Bridge Tournament

Dates for the Lambda Chi Alpha interfraternity bridge tournament have been set for May 15, 16, and 17, three evenings, in order that semifinals may be played off in two evenings and finals on the evening of May 17.

Each fraternity will be allowed a team of two, to be selected by the respective fraternities in the manner which the group adopts. Some of the fraternities plan to conduct a tournament among its members to select the team which will represent them in the interfraternity tournament.

Instead of a loving cup, as stated in this paper previously, a large placard will be presented to the winner of the bridge tourney. The fraternity and the names of the representatives who win the trophy will be engraved upon the placard from year to year, since it is planned to make this an annual tournament.

The trophy will be placed on display at Huneycutt's London Shop as soon as it arrives from the jewellers, which probably will be within the next week.

SENIOR PRESIDENT

C. E. HIBBARD
Chosen Tuesday night to head the graduating class of 1929.

HIBBARD ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE CLASS OF '29 TUESDAY

Other Officers Elected Include Harshaw, Allgood, Burroughs, Vernon, and Harrill

Charles E. Hibbard, of New Bern, was elected president of the senior class at a meeting held Tuesday night. Hibbard is a student in the School of Engineering, specializing in civil engineering. He is also a member of the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity and is a student in the textile school.

Hubert H. Burroughs, of Bethel, was elected treasurer. Burroughs is a member of the Chi Alpha Sigma fraternity and is a student in science.

T. A. Vernon, of Sharpsburg, was elected class historian. Vernon is a student in business administration.

B. H. Harrill, of Lattimore, was elected poet. Harrill is also a student in business administration.

D. H. Hutchinson is president of the junior class.

STUDENTS' LEAGUE WILL PRESENT PROGRAM SUNDAY

League Composed of People From 21 Nations at Pullen Memorial Sunday

"The Students' League of Many Nations" will appear at Pullen Memorial Baptist Church on the evening of April 29 at 8 o'clock, according to a statement made by Rev. J. A. Ellis, pastor, last week.

They are coming with their entire equipment, special big six Larabee bus, many large, beautiful flags of different countries, standards, and platform scenery. "Nothing in the world like it," according to a great many who have seen it as many as five different times.

They represent twenty-one nations and are in charge of the great evangelist, Rev. J. A. Davis, and will render one service. Their home is at Practical Bible Training School, Bible School Park, N. Y.

At this service members of this noted group will dress in national costumes, speak or sing in their native languages, and translate, depict conditions of Europe and other countries, and give snatches of personal experiences that hold an audience absolutely spellbound. An attempt to describe it is futile, according to the Rev. Mr. Davis.

A noted governor remarked that it was the greatest service of its kind he had ever attended. Dr. Len G. Broughton, famous preacher of the South, said: "I wouldn't have missed the service for one thousand dollars."

A Russian, who suffered great persecutions, will thrill the audience with his experiences in escaping from the country of his birth under thrilling circumstances.

There will be an important meeting of Fresh class Tuesday night at 6:45 p.m. in Pullen Hall. Election of officers for next year will take place. Be there, sure!

May 16 Named By Council As 1928 Scholarship Day

German Professors To Inspect State College on May 26

North Carolina State College has been selected by the International Institute as the only agricultural institution in the United States to be visited by a group of thirty German educators now touring this country. This party will be at State College Saturday, May 26.

The itinerary of these German educators, who represent the Zentral Institut, of Berlin, has been arranged by Dr. Thomas Alexander of Teachers College of Columbia University. He has written President E. C. Brooks of State College and State Superintendent A. T. Allen relative to the visit of this group to North Carolina during the week of May 21-27.

The group comprises twenty men and ten women, and includes a superintendent of education, professors from the German universities of Berlin, Leipzig, Jena, and Konigsberg, principals of secondary schools in that country, and principals and supervisors from elementary schools.

The party will visit, while in North Carolina, the city schools of Asheville, Salisbury, Winston-Salem, and Raleigh. They will also visit the colleges for Negroes at Greensboro and Durham.

While at State College they will be the guests at a special luncheon, at which time Dr. E. C. Brooks will tell the purposes and aims of the college. Miss Mildred English, assistant superintendent of the city schools in Raleigh, will have charge of the details of the day's visit.

STATE MEN SPEAK IN TWO ORATORICAL CONTESTS

Rogers at Elon and Finch at Duke Represent Alma Mater

Of considerable importance in intercollegiate activities were the two oratorical contests held simultaneously at Duke University and Elon College last night. The one at Duke was the State Oratorical Contest on the Constitution, and at Elon the state-wide peace contest was held.

Henry H. Rogers, of the senior class, represented State College at Elon, having as his subject, "Peace Through Fellowship." Rogers is well qualified, having been a debater for three years, and having attained the degree of special distinction in the order of debate in Pi Kappa Delta.

He won the right to represent State College by capturing first place in the local contest between Pullen Literary Society, of which he is a member, and Leazar Literary Society.

At Duke, State College was represented by M. C. Finch, who had as his theme, "The Citadel of Freedom."

Colleges represented, in the order of speaking, were High Point, Lenoir-Rhyne, Davidson, Duke, Wake Forest, N. C. State, and University of North Carolina.

The contest was under the direction of Professor C. C. Cunningham, who acted as chairman, and the judges were Ray S. S. Boat, Rector of St. Philip's Church, Durham; William B. Umstead, commander of Durham Post of the American Legion; Mrs. M. H. Jones, commander of the D. A. R. of Durham; Robert M. Gantt, and Victor S. Bryant.

Some of the most vital problems concerned with registration and other things vital to registrars of the colleges were taken up and discussed by some of the leading educators of the country.

"Some steps in Humanization of Education," by C. C. Little, took up the problem that the colleges face in helping the freshmen adjust themselves to their new surroundings. The association has been vitally interested in this problem for the past two or three years, and it was made a special topic this year. Dr. Little proposed a plan of assisting in this adjustment of freshmen, which consisted of having an adviser selected from the faculty members for approximately each twenty freshmen. These advisers were to stay in close touch with the freshmen under them and assist them with their problems. The University of Michigan is using this method with considerable success.

This speech was followed by "A Critical Adjustment—The Freshman With His College," by W. M. Lewis, president.

Future Observations Set For March 27 on College Calendar

A. D. MOORE, U. OF MICH., WILL BE CHIEF SPEAKER

Sponsored by Campus Honorary Organizations—Name of Honor Students To Be Read and Awards Presented—Cloyd Writes of the Gold Medals.

Scholarship Day at State College will go down on the college calendars of the future as March 27, as a result of action taken April 17 by the Faculty Council, which met and fixed the date this year as May 16, the third annual observation of scholarship work here. A. D. Moore, University of Michigan, will be the principal speaker at next month's celebration.

This day is sponsored by the honorary organizations of the campus: Pine Burr, local scholarship society; Phi Kappa Phi, honor society of national scope; Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity, and Alpha Zeta, national honorary agricultural fraternity. Classes will be suspended May 16 from eleven to one o'clock.

Procedure this year will be something like that of the past occasions. Names of those making honors and high honors during the first two terms will be read, and those winning other special honors during the year will be presented their awards before the student body. Observation of scholarship honors has been delayed this year because of pressure of other things.

Writing of one of the prominent features of the awards and going into detail of facts about the Elder P. D. Gold Medal for citizenship, E. L. Cloyd, dean of students here, extensively discussed leadership.

"A few years ago," Mr. Cloyd writes, "the writer began a study of the employment of college men by large manufacturing concerns. Press of other duties made it impossible to complete that study, but we did carry it far enough to see that almost without exception the application blanks of a large industrial enterprises contain a number of questions the answers to—Continued on page 2.

FRESHMAN ADJUSTMENT TOPIC ASSOCIATION TALKS

Owen Returns, Reporting Successful Convention of Collegiate Registrars

The sixteenth annual convention of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars, which convened in Cleveland, Ohio, last Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, was the most successful in its history, according to E. B. Owen, college registrar, who returned from this convention last Friday.

Some of the most vital problems concerned with registration and other things vital to registrars of the colleges were taken up and discussed by some of the leading educators of the country.

"Some steps in Humanization of Education," by C. C. Little, took up the problem that the colleges face in helping the freshmen adjust themselves to their new surroundings. Paragraphics

We most sincerely thank all our supporters in the recent election.

With this issue we break water. Hope we don't land flat on our back.

This year's Agromek is a likely-looking book. Wait till you see it.

What's going to happen? We heard a senior actually begging his history professor to send him a flunk slip.

We are sorry the advertising dropped out our initial paper down to the pocket size. Next week there'll be the usual size again.

There are plenty of jobs open on the staff. Anyone interested please come around and we'll find something for you to do.

Anyhow, the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has a booster in the local chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha.

OUR POLICY

Supposedly it is the best thing to do to outline one's policy before plunging into the job ahead. Before we go deeper into the work before us, then, we wish to lay down the "platform" upon which the TECHNICIAN will stand for the next nine months.

We hope to put this paper behind anything that will work for the betterment of State College in any line. Of course, it is sometimes hard to drop personal viewpoints and assume a neutral standpoint, or to swing over to the other side. Be that as it may, we shall take the standpoint of the side we think leading to the best results.

Politically, this weekly hopes to be absolutely nil. Whether the Democratic or the Republican party wins out we care not; we wish only to see the best man in the office, whatever his party affiliations.

On our own staff there are several positions that are open to the best man. The best man for the job will get them and hold them as long as he keeps that record.

Come to think about it, a policy is hard to define, but we'll do the best we can in the future to serve State College.

SCRATCHINGS

For years students on this campus have been anxious to see a system of walks running in different directions. Yet after these walks are down, and before the concrete has had time to set well, some one comes along and mars the surface with his class numerals or his initials and name.

Last Thursday Mr. Kennedy, superintendent of grounds, was having two blocks of the walk near Pullen and Primrose halls taken up and replaced at a cost of about ten dollars, and only because some thoughtless student had scratched three thirty-ones on one block and one numeral on another.

If the originator of the trouble had stopped for a moment to think what trouble and expense he was causing he would perhaps not have done his work.

On another walk appeared the initials "J.M.H.", on still another the name of "W. H. Lang," and on yet another the signature of "Lawrence Thompson." And these are only a few examples of the whole number cited by Mr. Kennedy.

Listen, men; do you think it fair to ask for these improvements to the campus, belliak for them almost, and then destroy their beauty before they are completely finished?

Even if State did beat Carolina in a tight game, and with a tight score, is that more important than the beauty of the college campus? Had you rather see the score written in concrete than to see the grounds, which are yours for the time you stay here, marred by walks filled with scratchings of athletic contests?

Think, men—freshmen and everybody—you want these walks and they are put here to beautify YOUR campus. Now don't go about destroying them with your class numerals, your initials, or the game scores. There is a place for each.

If you want to see your name in writing, or if you want to have it where other people will take notice of it, turn it in to THE TECHNICIAN and we shall gladly give you a front-page space, rather than mar our college sidewalks.

If you want your class numeral on the walk, Mr. Kennedy says he will be glad to insert a place; and really it would look much better that way.

Just remember, men, State College is ours for four years. Let's treat its property like we would the walks in front of our own homes.

EXAMS

About this time of the year there are a few seniors on the campus who are beginning to rejoice that they have taken their last examination on some subjects. Through the courtesy of the college authorities, they have been allowed to drop the "privilege" of third-quarter exams if they make a grade of a certain percentage on the work for the year.

It would seem that after a man has worked at his studies four years he should be allowed a bit of freedom during his last three months in school. If his grades show him up to the standard in his college work, there is no reason why he could not be allowed to miss the last term exams.

But what of the other three classes? If they are fairly regular in class attendance, and if their grades are also up to the required standard, why shouldn't they also be allowed a little leeway the third quarter?

Of course, some professors say they need the final examinations to aid in determining the students' grades for the term. Yet, with the large number of daily or weekly quizzes some of them hand out, it would seem that they would have a pretty fair idea what a student was doing on the course.

So, if they have a sufficient number of grades during the term and for the year—and if they don't it is perhaps their own fault—why couldn't they compile all the rest of the grades they need from comparative work with the grades they have given the students during the quarter?

In our opinion it won't be long before the three under classes, and certainly the junior and sophomore classes, will be exempted from final exams in the third quarter if their grades are up to a certain standard.

Why won't the college authorities take such an action now and let the incoming sophomore and junior classes be free of examinations the last week of the third quarter in 1929? How about it, professors; won't you consider it?

which will enable the employer to form an estimate of the qualities of leadership possessed by the applicant. In other words, the people who employ men, particularly college men, are concerned about their qualities of leadership.

"Realizing the value of leadership, and wishing to commemorate these qualities possessed by his father, Mr. Charles W. Gold, an alumnus of State College, offers each year the Elder P. D. Gold Citizenship Medal.

"The award of this medal is based on four qualities of citizenship in State College community—scholarship, student leadership, athletics, and public speaking. These four qualifications are certified to by the college registrar, the student council, the faculty athletic committee, and a committee composed of the ranking junior officer in all college societies in which public speaking is practiced.

"The name of the winner of this medal is announced and the medal presented at commencement each year. "Commencement is almost here again. Who is the outstanding man on State College campus in scholarship, leadership, athletics, and public speaking?"

"Seniors, which of your members is entitled to this medal?"

"Juniors, sophomores, and freshmen, how many of your members will qualify for this award in your senior year?"

"This medal can't be won by luck. "The four men who have won this medal since it was first offered have demonstrated in their freshman year the qualities laid down in the provisions of the award.

"Here is an award which ought to challenge the best in every State College student.

"Are you cultivating those qualities?"

dent Government Association of Alabama.

"Dr. George H. Denny's speech at the banquet Saturday night was worth the whole trip down there."

W. P. Albright stated when asked how he enjoyed it all. Dr. Denny is president of the University of Alabama, and his speech was along the subject of the ideals that college students should live up to and demand in their student government offices.

The big speech of the meetings was "The Outlook for Student Government," by Dr. Charles H. Barnwell, dean of the University of Alabama. Albright and Tucker state that it was one of the most inspiring speeches that they have ever heard. Dr. Barnwell is very optimistic about student government, and feels that great opportunities are waiting for it in the future.

Officers of the Southern Federation of College Students are as follows: Walter James, president, Georgia Tech; John Bulloch, vice-president, Kentucky; Boyce Martin, secretary-treasurer.

C. S. Tucker, president of the student body this year, and W. P. Albright, president for next year, were the representatives of State at these meetings.

dent of Lafayette College, which went into the same problem.

The chief aim of the association at present is to reach a standardization of forms and requirements in the colleges which are members of this organization.

Mr. Owen reports that the most enjoyable feature of the whole program was a complimentary luncheon given to the members of the association by the Case School of Applied Science of Western Reserve University. In addition to this entertainment, the group was taken over the city and out to the lakes in autos Wednesday afternoon.

Last year the meeting was held for the Southerners at Atlanta. This year the Northern and Middle States had the privilege of having it in their section. California will probably have the honor next year.

Representatives of North Carolina were: T. J. Wilson, North Carolina University; Miss Mary Taylor Moore, North Carolina College for Women; Grady L. Patterson, Wake Forest College, and E. B. Owen, N. C. State College.

CARPENTER WILL LEAD LOCAL BRANCH A.I.E.E. SAYS ELECTION RESULT

State College Branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers met Thursday night in the Electrical Building and held an election of officers for the coming year. The following students were chosen: O. M. Carpenter, president; C. H. Harshaw, vice-president; W. C. Mosely, secretary-treasurer; J. A. Taylor, reporter. W. B. Kilgore was elected second representative to the Engineers' Council.

Jeff C. Davis, who represented the chapter at the A. I. E. E. Student Conference in Atlanta, made a brief report of the meeting.

One of the interesting things that he learned was that the State College Branch of A. I. E. E. was the first branch to be established in the South. Professor C. W. Ricker also made a short talk, urging the members to get behind the local A. I. E. E. and make it the best in the South.

Blindfolded in scientific test of leading Cigarettes, James Montgomery Flagg selects Old Gold

Photograph of JAMES MONTGOMERY FLAGG, taken in his studio while test was being made

How Test Was Made

Subject was blindfolded, and, in the presence of two responsible witnesses, was given one each of the four leading cigarettes to smoke. To clear the taste, coffee was served before each cigarette...Mr. Flagg was entirely unaware of the identity of these cigarettes during test. After smoking the four cigarettes, Mr. Flagg was asked to designate by number his choice. He promptly replied, "Number 2," which was OLD GOLD.

JAMES MONTGOMERY FLAGG—Nationally known artist and creator of the famous Flagg girl.

Old Gold

After this test, Mr. Flagg wrote:

"Most of us smoke names and think we are smoking cigarettes! The blindfold test proved that to me. It proved also that it is difficult to tell one cigarette from another... except in the case of OLD GOLD... I spotted that... it suited me best even blindfolded. In fact, the man who said 'not a cough in a carload' knew whereof he spoke. It's the smoothness that identifies OLD GOLD. It needs no other trade mark."

SMOOTHER AND BETTER—NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD

State Diamond Artists Win 5-4 Victory From Carolina

Coach Chick Doak's charges staged a ninth inning rally and came through with a 5-4 victory over the University of North Carolina Tuesday afternoon on Riddick Field. Tallying three runners in the ninth inning was responsible for the upset. To some it really was an upset after the two-run lead Carolina had maintained throughout the game. This victory places the State lads on the top of the Big Five championship race.

Carolina started things off in the first by scoring two runs, the only two scored for five innings. Larry Allgood tightened down on the hits and Westmoreland, too, was pretty stingy with the bingles. Both teams battled scoreless until the sixth, when Maus, Carolina catcher, lifted a long one out into left-field bleachers. In the seventh "Bunion" Snipes smacked out a three-bagger and Mayfield's long fly scored him. Then came the eighth, when Woodworth and McDowell got on first and second and Outen came to bat. Westmoreland purposely walked him to get a chance at Charlie Eatmon.

It seemed to Walker, umpire, that the first three offerings at the plate were balls, although Westmoreland thought otherwise, and started protesting, as the result of which the Tar Heel pitcher was put on the bench.

Coach Ashmore did a little protesting, but between Walker's decision and the fans' jeers he went back to the bench in disgust. The bases were loaded and Ball, the new pitcher, was faced with one man out. Then Ball

In the ninth the Techs loaded the bases. An error on McDowell's grounder at first let in a run and kept all the sacks full. Outen's fly scored Allgood and the score was tied. Then pinch-hitter Wester knocked a grounder to Luffy at third, who let it go through his legs to score the winning run.

Coach Chick Doak's Red Terror baseball team will leave Sunday morning for a week's trip, returning to the campus Saturday. The team will play five games on this trip: Maryland, V.M.I., V.P.I., Washington and Lee, and Virginia.

At the first of the season Maryland handed us a licking and the team is out for revenge. Washington and Lee and V.M.I. both fell victims to the slugging of the Terrors and the Statesmen are going to repeat that performance. Let's send the team away with a lot of spirit.

The baseball team is going along in fine style and the students have helped in this by cheering at the games. It will help the cheer leaders a great deal if the men will all sit in the concrete stands behind the State bench. More than a third of the students present at the games sit directly behind home plate or on the other side of the field. This splits the yelling and works a hardship on the cheer leaders. We can put out a better grade of cheering if the students will cooperate a little and do their part. Today when we meet V.P.I., if every man will go over behind our bench and give those yells with some power the baseball team will really know that we are behind them.

Intramural

SWIMMING

The intercompany swimming meet preliminaries took place Wednesday night at the gym. This is the first meet of this kind that has taken place at State, and the whole affair went off in fine style. The military lads are taking a lot of interest in this sport, and it looks as if it will

Finds Right Tobacco for the Tropics

October 6, 1926

Larus & Bro. Co., Richmond, Va., U. S. A. Gentlemen:

Most all well-known tobaccos smoke well in a cold or temperate climate, but very few in a tropical climate. They are mostly too heavy, don't seem to be blended right—at least that is my opinion gained from practical experience.

However, Edgeworth is the same in any climate. Again that is my opinion gained by practical experience.

I cannot get the same pleasure out of any brand of tobacco that I can out of Edgeworth, and I have tried many—and paid fancy prices, too. It costs real money to smoke imported tobaccos here; the import duty is very high.

Anyway, we cannot have everything we would like in these countries, so we hold on to all the little pleasures possible. Now you know why I smoke Edgeworth.

Yours respectfully, R. C. Riggs Cartagena, Columbia, S. A.

SOPHOMORES STAGE HOT CONTEST IN SELECTING CHOPLIN AS PRESIDENT

Unquestionably the hottest class election ever held at State College was staged in Pullen Hall Wednesday night by the sophomores when they selected J. P. Choplin president of the junior class for next year.

W. T. "Bill" Garibaldi was elected vice-president; E. W. "Buck" Buchanan, secretary-treasurer, E. H. Roberts, historian, and M. R. McKenzie, poet.
 The meeting fought an hour before the assembly could come to a definite decision as to who should be president for the coming year. Eight men were at first selected, and the two receiving the highest number of votes from this number were voted upon again. On the first vote Choplin was elected, but some of the men contested the election and demanded a new vote. The meeting voted three times, and the final outcome was the selection of Choplin by a very small majority.

STATE NET MEN LOSE IN STATE TOURNAMENT

The State tennis team, composed of Stokes White, Bob Fletcher, R. G. Johnston, and Bailey, met defeat in both the doubles and singles matches held at Carolina last Friday. All of the "Big Five" colleges were represented.
 Coach Hugh Lefler expressed himself as pleased with the showing the team made against such stiff opposition, considering the fact that they have no tennis courts to practice on.

Quality sent P.A. to the head of the class

YEARS ago, P.A. showed a clean pair of heels to the field of smoking-tobaccos. It has maintained its lead ever since, putting more distance behind it every year. There must be a reason why P.A. is the world's largest-selling brand.

There is! Open a tidy red tin and get a full breath of that class-by-itself fragrance. Then tamp a load into the bowl of your pipe and light up. The first pull tells you why more men smoke P.A. than any other brand. Cool and smooth and mellow and mild—not for one pipe-load, but always. Try this long-burning tobacco, Fellows. You'll say so!
