

University Cruise To Leave N. Y. On Third Annual Trip Abroad

The Third University World Cruise, sailing from New York October 10 for a seven months world tour, during which students and professors will carry on a college year of study, was announced yesterday at the offices of the University Travel Association at 255 Madison avenue, New York City. The Cunard cruise-ship "Letitia," a modern, oil-burning liner, has been chartered for the world cruise. Dr. James E. Lough, president of the pioneer Floating University, will have charge of all educational matters. The Cunard Line is to operate the steamship, and the en route service will manage the extensive shore programs.

The academic year of the Third University World Cruise consists of two semesters. The first semester is spent on a three months European tour. England, Holland, Belgium, France, Switzerland, Germany, Austria and Italy are visited.

The second semester, commencing January 28, is held on board the Cunarder "Letitia," while she cruises to Greece, Palestine, Egypt, Somaliland, India, Ceylon, Sumatra, Java, Strait Settlements, Borneo, China, Korea, Japan, Hawaii, California, Panama and Cuba. The students enjoy shore excursions at all ports, besides taking long overland trips in India and through China from Nanking to Peking and Seoul.

The courses are limited to those subjects which may be taught to special advantage on a world tour. History, government, economics and foreign trade, sociology, geography, art, geology, comparative religions and navigation are offered, in addition to such standard courses as English and French.

Classes meet in the first (European) semester during the periods of residence in European capitals and university towns, including Heidelberg, Oxford and Grenoble. In the second (world cruise) semester, classes are held daily at sea. The number of class meetings in each semester equals the number held at land universities.

BEST DRILLED SOLDIERS AT N. C. STATE COLLEGE

N.C. STATE COLLEGE ROTC BEST DRILLED SQUAD

In squad competition, which began with the freshman class of over 600 men at North Carolina State College and narrowed down to three picked squads, Corporal R. H. Gatlin's unit from Company G, Third Battalion, won high honors. The drilling of the entries was so close the judges had to recall all three squads for further observation.

The winning squad, pictured above, includes, left to right, front: F. T. Dellinger, Cherryville; E. H. Stinson, Goldston; H. E. Moore, Clinton; J. B. Midyette, Aurora. Back, Corporal Gatlin of Raeford; Lucy F. Weeks, Faison; P. J. Seligson, Raleigh; W. H. Grigg, Shelby, and R. D. Stallings, Raleigh.

The squad led by Corporal J. York Bass of Birmingham, Ala., won second place, and that of Corporal H. Hartman, Raleigh, third. Judges were Colonel J. W. Harrelson, N. C. Reserves; Captain Roy W. Smith, 120th Infantry; Lieut. C. H. Elems, Raleigh, and Cadet Colonel J. H. McKinnon, Red Springs.

World Cruise has, for the first time, been brought within the reach of practically every university student. Many cabins on the "Letitia" are priced as low as $1,450 for the second semester world cruise, New York around the world to New York. This rate includes tuition and all shore excursions and overland tours.

The very material reduction in rates have been made possible through the coöperated management of the University Travel Association, the Cunard Steamship Line and the en route service. This coöperation has resulted in many economies, for each of the three firms is a specialist in its field.

For the third time A. McK. Greaves-Walker received the J. C. Steele honorary ceramics award cup, Freshman O. B. Moore, Whitakers, received the other prize from this school, which was given by the Molland-Drysdale Company of Hendersonville.

William H. Brake, Rocky Mount, sophomore, won the Alpha Zeta honorary agricultural cup, presented by Dr. Z. P. Metcalf, Professor W. J. Dana, speaking for the Phi Kappa Phi honor society, presented medals to the leading senior, junior, and sophomore. These were: W. P. Albright, Greensboro, senior in poultry; A. C. Ruggles, Southern Pines, junior in chemistry, and Thomas H. Ward, Raleigh, sophomore in electrical engineering. Edgar W. Buchanan, Junior, Spruce Pine, won the White Spades cup for attaining the highest grade among fraternity men. W. V. C. Evans, of the Orange Free State, South Africa, won the Brooks Literature Club cup, presented by Henry G. Love, for his contributions to literary work.

State College Prof Made Director Seed Improvement Division

William H. Darst, professor of agronomy at North Carolina State College, has been designated for the directorship of the newly created farm crop seed improvement division of the State College agricultural extension service, President E. C. Brooks announced this week.

Dr. Brooks will formally recommend the appointment of Darst, who is a graduate of Ohio State University and who did post-graduate work at Cornell University, to the executive committee of the college trustees, in session with Governor Gardner on Friday.

The General Assembly passed an act to foster the development and production of pure-bred crop seeds in the State and to provide for the certification thereof. It was one of Governor Gardner's measures. Professor Darst had a prominent part in preparing the legislation.

Dr. Brooks said the appointment would carry no increase in salary for Professor Darst, but his college work and teaching would be rearranged so that he might devote the proper attention to the new division. The division will, however, carry a full-time assistant to be selected at a later date.

The same legislative act provided for a State board on seed improvement composed of the Governor, the Commissioner of Agriculture, W. A. Graham, and the dean of the State College school of agriculture, I. O. Schaub. This board, under the act, shall have control of production, distribution and certification of pure-bred seeds.

The act, known as House bill 1,377 and Senate bill 443, also provided for $5,000 as the annual sum for carrying out the provisions, the fund to come from any "unexpended and unappropriated portion of the agricultural fund." The act passed its final reading on March 19.

State R.O.T.C. Officers Transferred to Other Posts for the Summer

Transfer of one officer to the foreign service and three others to summer encampments, effective in June, was contained in orders made public at Reserve Officers Training Corps headquarters at North Carolina State College.

Lieutenant Edward P. Passaligaue, assistant professor of military science and tactics and member of the coaching staff of the athletic association, has been relieved of duty and is to be sent to foreign service on or about June 1, either to the Panama Canal or Honolulu.

Major C. C. Early, commander, and Captain W. R. Watson will go to Fort Bragg at Fayetteville for a month with the Citizens Military Training Corps. Later Captain Watson will give pistol fire instruction at Camp Perry, Ohio.

Lieutenant C. H. Elems, who joined the State College post in September, will join the Camp McClellan, Alabama, staff for R. O. T. C. work during the summer. Major George J. Newgarden, Jr., will remain in Raleigh during the summer, in charge of the college R. O. T. C. offices.

Yale men decide which is best cigarette...

OLD GOLD CIGARETTES WIN FIRST IN TESTS AT YALE

In the recent cigarette test made at the University, OLD GOLDS were chosen by the students as the best. The cigarettes were masked by black labels so that the names of the brands were concealed. Each label was numbered. This was judged to be the most sporting way of testing the merits of the four leading brands. Some 208 Yale students were asked to smoke the four disguised brands without knowing their identity.

They were merely to choose, by number, the one that was most appealing to the taste.

The News supervised the test on January 18 at various fraternity houses and in the News office.

When the votes were recorded it was discovered that OLD GOLD (Cigarette No. 3) had won. Old Gold was given 63 first choices, which was 11 per cent ahead of Cigarette No. 2, 34 per cent ahead of Cigarette No. 1, and 53 per cent ahead of Cigarette No. 4.

German Club Dances

The throngs of young men and women from various cities, towns, and colleges of the state who gathered in the Capital City this week to enjoy its customary post-Easter revelry were entertained at a series of German Club dances at the Frank Thompson gymnasium.

Joe Nesbit and His Pennsylvanians entertained the dancing set and with Mr. Standley Allen were an unusual asset to the entertainment.

Black-and-White Ball

The state's younger contingent assembled in the Capital City Thursday evening to the Black-and-White Ball, which was given by the Raleigh Junior Guild for the benefit of welfare work.

Debutantes of the season figured prominently at the affair, acting as sponsors for the ball, which they with their escorts opened with a black-and-white checkerboard figure.

Pi Kappa Phi Tea Dance

Pi Kappa Phi fraternity honored the guests of their house-party at a dance Tuesday afternoon, following the State-Washington and Lee baseball game. The tea dance was one of the most enjoyable events during the Easter holidays.

Annual Pi Kappa Alpha Dance

Fulfilling the precedent of 23 years was the dance given by Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity of N. C. State College, equaling in all instances and in many exceeding the brilliance of entertainments given by the fraternity each year since April 1, 1907.

The dance was given in the Frank Thompson memorial gymnasium and revealed marked increase in many directions since its inauguration by the fraternity when the institution was known as the North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical College. Members of the fraternity at that time were: Messrs. G. F. Bason of Ithaca, N. Y.; A. J. Beall of Charlotte; T. K. Bruner of Troy; E. J. Carpenter of Philadelphia, Pa.; W. G. Ferguson, of Southern Pines; D. H. Hill of Charlotte; W. R. Marshall of Buffalo, N. Y.; J. A. Park of Raleigh; J. A. Powell of Pittsburgh, Pa.; and St. Julian L. Springs of Durham.

Active members of the organization now and hosts on this occasion are Messrs. A. P. Baggett, W. T.

Gentlemen:

Just a line to let you know where some of your tobacco has been going for the last ten years. I have been smoking Edgeworth for the past ten years; in fact, since I started smoking, and it is just as good now as it was then. Have given other brands a fair trial, but there is none like Edgeworth. During that time I have had costly pipes and some not so costly, but I have decided that it is not the pipe but what is in it that counts.

With best wishes for your continued success in the manufacture of this high grade tobacco, I am,
Sincerely,

Avera, R. J. Ballard, H. C. Carter, E. L. Davant, Jr., J. H. Gardner, E. E. McCanless, and J. W. Yeager, 3d.

Dancing continued from 9 until 1 o'clock and a scintillant program was revealed with the myriad colored gowns of young women in contrast with much garnet and gold, fraternity colors, which were lavishly used in decoration. A canopy of garnet and gold hung from the balconies and twisted colored streamers and festoons fell to the side walls, which were banked with long-leaf pine and palms, producing a sylvan effect.

Joe Nesbit and his Pennsylvanians, popular musicians, played during the evening, against a uniform background of garnet and gold, palms and evergreens. All lights in the hall were softly shaded with streamers and fraternity insignias burned at strategic points.

Prior to intermission the Pi Kappa Alpha figure was led, with all members of the lodge participating. The couples proceeded into the hall through a graceful arch, white-latticed and entwined with smilax and flowers and banked around with ferns.

The march was led by Mr. Edwin Spier with Miss Martha Galloway of this city. They were assisted by Mr. Paul Elam with Miss Fay Foster of Statesville and Mr. Sam Quartz with Miss Eulabeth Warner of this city. Others participating in the figure were: Mr. Allie Baggett with Miss Marion Dunn of Enfield; Mr. Walter Clement with Miss Edla Best of Warsaw; Mr. John Geoghegan with Miss Lou Kemper of Danville, Va.; Mr. John Gray with Miss Mary Gray Quinn of Warsaw; Mr. Buford Guy with Miss Jimmie Bristol of Statesville; Mr. Harry Lee with Miss Jamie Secrest of Monroe; Mr. William McQueen with Miss Margaret Warden of Danville, Va.; Mr. Edgar Rankin with Miss Mattie Belle Fraley of Statesville; Mr. Henry Atkinson with Miss Lila Lewis Steele of Statesville; Mr. Robert Ballard with Miss Marguerite Legerre of Nogales, Ariz.; Mr. Harry Carter with Miss Martha McGowan of Wallace; Mr. Edward Davant with Miss Mary Lynn Carlson of Greensboro; Mr. Herman Gardner with Miss Pat Abercrombie of Greensboro; Mr. Esson McCanless with Miss Elizabeth Crozier of New York City; Mr. John Yeager with Miss Helen Whitner, and Messrs. William Avera, Paul Eagle, and Charles Cutts.

The orchestra softly played "Sweet-hearts on Parade" as the letters P, K, and A were formed by the couples in the figure, at the conclusion of which the young ladies were presented with dainty bracelets bearing the Pi Kappa Alpha seal. A PiKa no-break dance followed.

During the intermission and at the conclusion of the dance numerous private supper parties were in progress over the city. The dance was attended by a throng of the state's younger set, including collegiate so-

RUM AT THE TYPEWRITER DOES NOT GO, AS SHOWN BY LETTER TO EDITORS

The following letter was received by the editor a few days ago from E. S. King of the local Y. M. C. A. It seems that the writer has it in for all editors, but takes the liberty to indulge in the frequent use of Scotch whiskey while telling them about it.

To the Editor:
You seem to take a good deal of delight in telling other people how to live and perhaps that is your business, but it seems to me that you exceed your duty when you arrogate to yourself the right to inform all of those who may happen to enjoy an occasional drink of "Scotch" on occasions.

I have been presented a fine bottle of Scotch whiskey for Christmas, and it is before me as I sit at my typewriter and indite this letter to you. What right has any form of law to make me a criminal if I partake of this gift?
I claim that any such law is an invasion of my personal liberty. I notice that you have referred often in your excellent column to the so-called Bill of Rights which secures to all men and women certain inalienable rights to their personal liberty, which, as you say, are not inconsistent with the rights of others. How do you reconcile your statements?

I have just tasted of this bottle of liquor, I will confide to you, and I cannot see where or how I am invading the rights of any other person on earth. I find it excellent. It warms my stomach; inspires my thoughts. I cannot feel, Mr. Editor, that I have wronged the community or added to the lawlessness of the general society in so doing. It makes me tired to be classed as a criminal for any such occasion.

Just to show my independence of such truck as you are writing, I have taken another drink, and I will say to you that it is about as smooth a drink as a criminal ever put into his system. The second drink, which I shall soon follow by a third, makes me certain that those who feel their systems require stimulants should band together; organize, start a campaign to floor this Volstead business.

Now, Mr. Editor, I am no bum and you can't make me a bum. I like a little drink now and then and I have taken a third or maybe it is a fourth, and I am more than ever convinced that any man that doesn't is a big idiot. You say that this evabion of the law is producing a stafoe of affairs in our Great and Glorious Country. You are wrong. This cuntry is jess as good as it ever was and was a great deal better country and I will leabe it to you f it wasnst, when we had free rum.

I want to say to you that this Scetch is all right. A lot of it wouldst do us harm. When we ened stumiany we need it. My grandfayer was hrousd up on rum. They had it in the hough all the time. They dranjt it freely and even the minstew drak it when he came to our housa. I can drink this sort of Scuteq all day and not be no worse a critxen than I was before. I could drink this whole quast and neger quiber an etelash.
