

PREFACE

The commitments enumerated in Sections VI and VII of the Consent Decree terminated on December 31, 1986. However, for the purpose of monitoring continuing compliance with Title VI and the fourteenth amendment, the jurisdiction of the Court remains in effect through December 31, 1988.

Because the plans incorporated into the Decree had proved to be of great value to The University of North Carolina (The University), the Board of Governors of The University resolved that:

The University will continue until December 31, 1988, to carry out the commitments in Sections VI and VII, as hereinafter set forth, except as already met or otherwise restated.

Resolution of the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina (Nov. 14, 1986).

This report to the Court is therefore made in accordance with Section VIII-2 of the Consent Decree (Decree), as amended by the Board of Governor's resolution of November 14, 1986. Section VIII-2 provides:

Through December 1986, the University shall file each December, beginning in December 1981, annual reports with the Court, with copies to counsel for the Government and the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights of the Department of Education, setting out (1) the actions taken by the University and its constituent institutions in accordance with the commitments set forth in Section VI of this Decree; (2) the minority presence enrollments at the predominantly white and predominantly black institutions for each year beginning in 1981-82; (3) the current operations and capital improvements budgets for each comprehensive and general baccalaureate constituent institution as approved by the Board [of Governors] for each fiscal year beginning with 1981-82; and (4) the implementation of the institutional development plans for each of the predominantly black institutions as set forth in Section VII.

The report cites each commitment as contained in Sections VI and VII of the Decree or as otherwise restated and then describes the actions taken to meet the commitment. Each section of the report corresponds to the identically numbered or lettered section of the Decree. A copy of current operations and capital improvements budgets of the comprehensive and general baccalaureate institutions, as approved by the Board of Governors for the fiscal year 1988-89, has previously been provided pursuant to Section VIII-2 of the Decree.^{1/}

ACTION -

The 1988-89 Continuing Operations Budget for The University of North Carolina - General Administration, Operating Budget, as established by the Board of Governors, provides for continued funding of the EOIC and that office is staffed and continues to be fully operative. portation, Natural Resources and Community Development, Social Rehabilitation and Control, and Commerce), and the departments of Cultural Resources, Human Resources, and Revenue. Because federal funding of the North Carolina Educational Information Center (NCEIC) was discontinued in December 1981, the EOIC distributed this publication to the 57 agencies (Exhibit 3) with which NCEIC worked.

COMMITMENT -

The University of North Carolina: A Multi-Campus University -- an eight-minute video-cassette providing basic information about the University and its sixteen constituent institutions, including the location of constituent institutions, the variety and levels of degree programs available within the University, admissions procedures, and the

The cassette, along with projection equipment if necessary, shall be placed in each public high school in North Carolina with a total enrollment of 500 students or more, with the permission of the school authorities, for use in connection with guidance and counseling programs maintained by the respective public high schools. Additional copies of the cassette, along with necessary projection equipment, shall be maintained by the EOIC to respond to requests from other institutions or groups.

ACTION -

The University General Administration contracted with the Learning Resources Network (LRN) to produce this eight-minute video-cassette about the University and its 16 constituent institutions. The cassette and projection equipment were provided during the 1981-82 academic year to public high schools in North Carolina identified by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction as having 500 or more students in grades 10 through 12. Exhibit 7 provides the name and address of each of these 226 high schools. The contract specifies that LRN will maintain the cassette and projection equipment in the high schools through December 31, 1988. Additional copies of the cassette, along with projection equipment, are maintained by the EOIC to respond to requests from other institutions or groups.

f. Video-Cassette for Each Constituent Institution

COMMITMENT -

Under the direction of the EOIC, each constituent institution shall produce and distribute beginning in 1981-82 an eight-minute video-cassette which shall supply basic information about the institution, portray the multi-racial character of the institution, and direct viewers to sources of additional information about the institution. Each institution's cassette, along with projection equipment if necessary, shall be placed in each North Carolina public high school with a total enrollment of 500 students or more.

ACTION -

Each constituent institution contracted with LRN either to revise its video-cassette or to produce a new one and, during the 1981-82 academic year, to place copies, along with projection equipment, in all public high schools in North Carolina identified by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction as having 500 or more students in grades 10 through 12. Exhibit 7 provides the name and address of each of these 226 high schools. The contracts specify that LRN will maintain the cassettes and projection equipment in these high schools through December 31, 1988.

g. Institutional Catalogues

COMMITMENT -

Each constituent institution shall distribute its most current undergraduate and graduate catalogues or bulletins to each public and private high school in North Carolina and to each public and private institution of higher education in North Carolina. All such catalogues or bulletins shall highlight the institution's policy of nondiscrimination and its intent to increase minority presence enrollment.

ACTION -

Each constituent institution which revised during 1987-88 its general or undergraduate catalogue distributed copies to each public and private high school and institution of higher education in North Carolina. Each constituent institution which revised during 1987-88 a graduate catalogue or a catalogue for a school of dentistry, law, medicine, or veterinary medicine, distributed copies to each public and private institution of higher education in North Carolina. Catalogues were distributed by mail or in person during high school counselor workshops, College Day Programs, or special high school recruitment visits. All catalogues included this text:

[Name of institution] is committed to equality of educational opportunity and does not discriminate against applicants, students, or employees based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, or handicap. Moreover, [name of institution] is open to people of all races and actively seeks to promote racial integration by recruiting and enrolling a larger number of [white/black] students.

The University General Administration reviewed each general, undergraduate, graduate, and summer school catalogue; each catalogue for schools of dentistry, law, medicine, or veterinary medicine; and any separate catalogue for a school or college within a constituent institution that was revised during the 1987-88 academic year. This review assured that each catalogue prominently displayed the text quoted above near its beginning, included a description of any relevant Minority Presence Grant programs, and portrayed the multi-racial character of the institution.

h. Brochures for Prospective Minority Presence Students

COMMITMENT -

Each predominantly white institution shall produce a four to six page brochure, specifically for prospective minority presence students, highlighting the institution's policy of nondiscrimination and its intent to increase minority presence enrollment and including such items as information about organizations and activities in the institution that may be of special interest to prospective minority presence students. Copies of the brochure shall be sent to high schools and two-year institutions prior to recruiting visits, with the request that they be made available to potential minority presence students. Each brochure shall include a card to be completed and returned by the student to the admissions office. All cards submitted by members of the high school graduating class shall be placed in a central file at the institution. The file shall be checked to determine whether the student has applied to the institution and, if the student has applied, whether the application is complete. If the student has not applied to the institution, the institution shall send the student an application with a letter encouraging the student to apply. If the student's application is not complete, the institution shall contact the student by mail or telephone to encourage the student to complete the application.

A brochure for prospective minority presence students was produced by each predominantly white and predominantly black constituent institution (Exhibit 8). Each predomistantly white constituent institution (except the North Carolina School of the Arts) sent the number of copies specified in Exhibit 9 to the public high schools in North Carolina to be visited; at least 30 copies to each community college or private junior college in North Carolina to be visited; and at least 15 copies to each technical college or institute in North Carolina to be visited. Each predominantly black institution sent at least 20 copies to each public high school in North Carolina to be visited; at least 30 copies to each community college or private junior college in North Carolina to be visited; and at least 15 copies to each technical college or institute in North Carolina to be visited.

The North Carolina School of the Arts mailed five copies of its brochure to each North Carolina public high school teacher of music or drama identified by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction and to each North Carolina teacher of dance identified by the director of admissions at the North Carolina School of the Arts.

The brochures for each institution (except the North Carolina School of the Arts) were accompanied by letters to high schools (Exhibit 10) and to two-year institutions (Exhibit 11) requesting that copies be made available to minority presence students in the graduating class. The brochures for the North Carolina School of the Arts were accompanied by a letter (Exhibit 12) requesting that copies be made available to black students with special talent in the performing arts.

In addition, the EOIC sent posters to all public high schools and all two-year institutions in North Carolina for placement on bulletin boards. These posters were designed to inform students of the availability of the brochures for prospective minority presence students and of other publications about educational opportunities at the 16 constituent institutions of the University.

The brochure from each institution included a card (Exhibit 8) which could be completed and returned by the prospective student to the admissions office. In each case, the card was addressed for return to the admissions office and the cost of postage paid by the institution.

When such a card was received by the admissions office, the application file was checked to determine whether the student had applied. An application and letter (Exhibit 13) were sent to those prospective students who had not applied. Applicants with incomplete applications were sent a letter (Exhibit 14) specifying the items needed to complete the application process.

The workshops shall focus on increasing junior and senior high school students' awareness of and interest in college opportunities. They shall seek to address ways in which public school personnel can work more effectively to encourage more students to complete their high school studies, to increase the college-going rate of North Carolina high school graduates, to acquaint all students with the range of educational opportunities available in the University and with the fact that these opportunities are open to all students without regard to race, and to explore means by which the University can better assist in these efforts.

The workshops shall highlight the institutions' policy of nondiscrimination and their intent to increase minority presence enrollment, and shall provide comprehensive information about the increased minority presence at the institutions and about the support services and programs designed to further increase minority presence.

With respect to students in grades 7 through 9, the workshops shall focus upon techniques to help these students and their parents to understand the variety of opportunities offered in the constituent institutions of the University, the availability of various student financial aid programs, and the

All 16 institutions mailed letters (Exhibit 28) to enrolled minority presence students requesting that they submit names and addresses of prospective minority presence

Each institution sent a letter (Exhibit 29) to each prospective minority presence student whose name and address were provided by an enrolled student and a letter (Exhibit 30) to each prospective student whose name and address were provided by an alumnus, along with a brochure for prospective minority presence students. The letters encouraged the student to apply for admission.

A letter (Exhibit 19) was sent to minority presence faculty and professional staff members at each institution requesting volunteers to attend visitation programs at two-year institutions not covered by a minority presence admissions officer. Where practicable, volunteers visited two-year institutions or took part in other recruitment activities.

During visits to two-year institutions, institutional representatives made copies of their institution's brochure for prospective minority presence students (Exhibit 8) available to interested minority presence students to acquaint the students with the institution's policy of nondiscrimination, its intent to increase minority presence enrollment, the nature and extent of student financial aid, including the Minority Presence Grant Program, and the manner in which application may be made for such aid.

Each of these institutions mailed an application to each student from North Carolina on the list who had not submitted an application, along with a brochure for prospective black students, and a letter (Exhibit 32) encouraging the student to apply.

i. Joint Committee on College Transfer Students

COMMITMENT -

To provide information designed to minimize the loss of credit and time in the transfer process to academic advisors and potential transfer students at two-year institutions, the University shall continue to be a member of, provide staff to, and assist in producing and distributing the publications of the Joint Committee on College Transfer Students.

ACTION -

The Associate Vice President for Planning served during 1987-88 as the Joint Committee's Secretary and as a member ex officio. In addition to the Policies of Senior Colleges and Universities Concerning Transfer Students from Two-Year Colleges in North Carolina (Exhibit 6) the University also publishes and distributes the Joint Committee's Guidelines for Transfer (Exhibit 33).

j. Admitted Minority Presence Students

COMMITMENT -

All minority presence students admitted to a constituent institution shall be contacted by mail, telephone, or personal visit and encouraged to enroll at the constituent institution.

Each institution sent a letter (Exhibit 34) after the notice of admission to all admitted minority presence students encouraging them to enroll. The letter also reminded students who planned to apply for financial aid that they should complete the application process as soon as possible.

k. Campus Visits

COMMITMENT -

Each predominantly white institution annually shall invite to its campus a number of prospective minority presence students from high schools and two-year institutions not less than 2% of the total size of the most recent entering freshman class and undergraduate transfer cohort at the institution. The visits shall be used to inform the prospective students of the University's and the institution's nondiscrimination policy and intent to increase minority presence enrollment and of the educational opportunities available at the institution.

ACTION -

The predominantly white institutions (except the North Carolina School of the Arts) sent letters (Exhibit 35) inviting at least the required number of black students to participate during the 1987-88 academic year in the institutions' campus visitation programs. 5. Graduate and First Professional Recruitment

a. Graduate School Recruitment

COMMITMENT -

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, North Carolina State University at Raleigh, and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, the major research and other doctoral-granting institutions, annually shall make at least one recruiting visit to each predominantly black institution and to at least three of the predominantly black private colleges in North Carolina. The deans of the graduate schools shall arrange and organize such visits. Special efforts shall be made to contact minority presence students to acquaint them with the institution's policy of nondiscrimination and its intent to increase minority presence enrollments. Presentations made and information distributed during such visits shall be designed to provide students with information about opportunities for graduate and professional study, application procedures and schedules, admission requirements, and financial aid programs, including opportunities for scholarships, fellowships, and assistantships.

These same three institutions annually shall utilize the Minority Graduate Student Locator Service of the Graduate Record Examination Board for distribution by the deans of each graduate school to all departments to assist them in identifying prospective minority graduate students.

During 1987-88, representatives of the three graduate schools scheduled visits to each predominantly black constituent institution and at least three private predominantly black colleges in North Carolina. Before each visit, the dean of the graduate school at each of these three institutions sent a letter to the chancellor or president of the predominantly black college or university (Exhibit 36) which emphasized the institution's policy of nondiscrimination and its intent to increase black student enrollment, included information about the Minority Presence Grant Program for doctoral students, and requested that the visit be publicized and prospective graduate students encouraged to attend.

Each of the three graduate schools also utilized the Minority Graduate Student Locator Service of the Graduate Record Examination Board. Black students on the three lists made available by the Graduate Record Examination Board in 1986-87 who indicated an interest in a program of study offered by the institution, who had a North Carolina address or were graduates of a college or university in North Carolina, and who had not applied for admission, were sent the following materials: an application for graduate school admission, information about the appropriate degree program, and a letter (Exhibit 37) indicating the institution's policy of nondiscrimination and its intent to increase black student enrollment.

Presentations made and information distributed during such visits shall be designed to provide students with information about opportunities for study in these fields and in other health profession programs, application procedures and schedules, admission requirements, and financial aid programs, including opportunities for scholarships, fellowships, and assistantships.

During 1987-88, representatives of the designated professional schools, as well as representatives of the School of Veterinary Medicine at North Carolina State University at Raleigh, visited each predominantly black constituent institution and at least three private predominantly black colleges in North Carolina. Prior to each visit, the dean of each of the designated professional schools sent a letter to the chancellor or president of the predominantly black college or university (Exhibit 38) which emphasized the institution's policy of nondiscrimination and its intent to increase black student enrollment, and requested that the visit be publicized and prospective students encouraged to attend. The letters also included information about special financial aid programs.

In addition, Fayetteville State University, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University, and North Carolina Central University sent information about their graduate and first professional degree programs to the predominantly white constituent institutions. Each institution sending material accompanied it with a letter (Exhibit 39) requesting that the information be disseminated to prospective students.

d. Information to Public School Personnel

COMMITMENT -

Each constituent institution offering, or serving as the site of a Graduate Center for, master's degree programs for in-service teachers and administrators in the public schools annually shall contact each public school in the county in which the institution is located and in adjacent counties to acquaint public school personnel with the availability of such programs, the institution's policy of nondiscrimination, and its intent to increase minority presence enrollments.

ACTION -

A letter (Exhibit 40) was sent by each institution offering, or serving as the site of a Graduate Center for, master's degree programs to the principal of each public school located in its county and in all adjacent counties. Each letter included information about the institution's master's degree programs for in-service teachers and administrators, its policy of nondiscrimination, its intent to increase minority presence enrollment, and a request that this information be made available to teachers and other administrators in the school.

6. Special Student Financial Aid Programs

a. Minority Presence Grant Program -- General Program

COMMITMENT -

The University shall continue to fund, at the current level ($720,000 per year) or higher, the Minority Presence Grant Program -- General Program. The University shall allocate this money to predominantly white and predominantly black institutions to aid them in recruiting financially needy North Carolina students who would be minority presence students at the respective institutions by enabling the institutions to offer relatively more aid for minority presence students in the form of grants rather than loans. This general program includes funds for minority presence grants for students attending the North Carolina Central University School of Law.

ACTION -

The Board of Governors allocated $1,140,000 to the constituent institutions for the Minority Presence Grant Program--General Program for 1988-89.

- b. Minority Presence Grant Program -- Doctoral Study, Law, and Veterinary Medicine

COMMITMENT -

The University shall continue to fund, at the current level ($280,000 per year) or higher, the Minority Presence Grant Program -- Doctoral Study, Law. Under this program, black North Carolinians who are selected to participate receive a stipend of up to $4,000 for the academic year, with an option of additional support in the amount of $500 for study in the summer session, to pursue doctoral and law degrees at East Carolina University, North Carolina State University at Raleigh, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Recipients must be full-time graduate students who demonstrate financial need. The University shall continue to give priority to students pursuing degrees in fields in which black participation has been historically low (e.g., engineering and the physical sciences). Beginning in 1982-83, a veterinary medicine component shall be added to the program. Black North Carolina residents who are admitted to the veterinary medicine program at North Carolina State University at Raleigh shall be eligible for scholarships under the program.

6. Monitoring Institutional Compliance

COMMITMENT -

The President shall monitor each constituent institution's compliance with the minority presence student recruitment commitments in this Section of the Decree, and these commitments shall be regularly reviewed and discussed with the chancellors in the Administrative Council. If at any time a constituent institution appears not to be meeting in a timely manner those commitments or any benchmarks set for the institution by the President or the Board, the President shall direct the chancellor to take appropriate corrective action.

Minority presence enrollment goals and other Consent Decree matters were discussed with all the Chancellors in Administrative Council meetings on September 22, 1987, October 27, 1987, December 1, 1987, and January 26, 1988. (The Administrative Council did not meet in August or November in 1987, or in February 1988.)

In December 1987, and early January 1988, the President and his staff reviewed minority presence enrollments in each constituent institution for the fall of 1987. The President then sent to each Chancellor of a predominantly white constituent institution a memorandum comparing what had been realized at that institution with the Decree goals. These matters were discussed in Administrative Council on January 26, 1988.

At the President's direction, the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Vice President for Student Services and Special Programs, and the Associate Vice President for Planning held meetings on minority presence enrollments at fifteen constituent institutions as follows: East Carolina University (February 8, 1988), North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University (March 4, 1988), Pembroke State University (March 7, 1988), North Carolina School of the Arts (March 9, 1988), the University of North Carolina at Wilmington (March 21, 1988), the University of North Carolina at Greensboro (March 23, 1988), the University of North Carolina at Charlotte (March 23, 1988), North Carolina Central University (March 30, 1988), North Carolina State University at Raleigh (March 31, 1988), Appalachian State University (April 5, 1988), Western Carolina University (April 11, 1988), the University of North Carolina at Asheville (April 11, 1988), Winston-Salem State University (April 18, 1988), Elizabeth City State University (April 26, 1988), and Fayetteville State University (April 29, 1988). Participants in these meetings generally included the Chancellor, the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, the Director of Admissions, the Director of Student Financial Aid, and a minority presence admissions officer. The President conferred on minority presence enrollments and other Consent Decree matters with the new Chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill after his arrival in the summer of 1988. On June 1, 1988, a meeting of all directors of undergraduate admissions and admissions officers having principal responsibility for minority presence recruitment was held in Chapel Hill to review and assess the year's activity in minority presence recruitment.

Minority presence enrollment reports for fall 1988 were received by University General Administration in November and are being reviewed and analyzed. Reviews with representatives of individual institutions will begin early in 1989, consistent with the new "Program for Further Increases in Minority Presence Enrollment" adopted by the Board of Governors in November, 1988.

9. Employment

COMMITMENT -

Each constituent institution's affirmative action plan now extends over a five-year period ending October 1, 1983. By June 30, 1983, these plans shall be revised for a period to expire December 31, 1986, and shall comply with the requirements of Executive Order 11,246.

All institutions have developed revised affirmative action plans that came into effect on January 1, 1987, supplanting the plans that expired on December 31, 1986. The Board of Governors' "Program for Further Increases in Minority Presence Enrollment" requires that each institution's current plan will be revised and renewed prior to its expiration date.

OF THE PREDOMINANTLY BLACK INSTITUTIONS

1. State Financial Support for Current Operations

COMMITMENT -

The University shall provide financial support consisting of appropriations and tuition receipts to each predominantly black institution at least equal to the weighted average of the financial support provided to the predominantly white institutions in the same institutional category (excluding the East Carolina University School of Medicine), measured on a per-budgeted-FTE-student basis.

ACTION -

The Board of Governors has established 1988-89 Current Operations Budgets which provide the specified financial support in the amount of: $6,684 per student for Fayetteville State University, $7,442 per student for North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University and $6,903 per student for North Carolina Central University, as compared with the weighted average of $5,812 per student for the predominantly white comprehensive universities; and $8,700 per student for Elizabeth City State University, and $7,392 per student for Winston-Salem State University, as compared with the weighted average of $6,285 per student for the predominantly white general baccalaureate universities.

2. Student-Faculty Ratios

At each predominantly black institution in each year, the University shall maintain a budgeted student-faculty ratio at least equal to the most favorable ratio of any predominantly white institution in the same institutional category (excluding the East Carolina University School of Medicine).

ACTION -

The Board of Governors has established 1988-89 Current Operations Budgets which provide for student-faculty ratios of: 15.1-1 for Fayetteville State University, 14.9-1 for North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University and 15.0-1 for North Carolina Central University, as compared to the most favorable ratio for any predominantly white comprehensive university, 15.5-1 for East Carolina University; and 15.1-1 for Elizabeth City State University, and 14.8-1 for Winston-Salem State University, as compared to the most favorable ratio for any predominantly white general baccalaureate university, 15.7-1 for Pembroke State University and for the University of North Carolina at Asheville.

3. State Appropriations for Faculty Salaries

COMMITMENT -

[T]he budgeted average teaching salary in State funds for budgeted teaching positions in the predominantly black institutions is at parity with that provided the predominantly white institutions in the same institutional category with three exceptions: the East Carolina University School of Medicine, the North Carolina Central University School of Law, and the University of North Carolina at Asheville. The University shall maintain this parity, with the exceptions noted.

ACTION -

The Board of Governors has established 1988-89 Current Operations Budgets which provide average teaching salaries of $37,490 for each comprehensive university, including Fayetteville State University and The University of North Carolina at Wilmington, as specified, but excluding the East Carolina University School of Medicine and the North Carolina Central University School of Law, and $35,863 for each baccalaureate university, including The University of North Carolina at Asheville.

4. State Financial Support for Libraries

COMMITMENT -

Table 4 compares library budgets for the comprehensive and general baccalaureate institutions in 1972-73 and 1980-81. In a 1974 library improvement plan, the University undertook to bring all University libraries up to minimal standards in terms of their overall collections and their level of funding as defined in the plan. The goal was accomplished in fiscal 1978-79. A comparable pattern of support now exists. The University also has given priority to increases in library acquisitions budgets to offset severe inflationary cost increases. These increases have been allocated across the board to all institutions and additional increases in acquisition funds intended to offset inflationary price increases in books and journals shall be distributed in a similar manner. The University shall consider carefully any institutional request for funds to address particularized library needs.

ACTION -

The Basic Program Support line in the Schedule of Priorities - Current Operations in the 1987-89 Budget Request included specific funding for library improvements at the predominantly black institutions as follows: $64,926 in 1987-88 and $65,895 in 1988-89 for Elizabeth City State University; $177,855 in 1987-88 and $227,542 in 1988-89 for Fayetteville State University; $147,600 in 1987-88 and $204,201 in 1988-89 for North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University; $77,166 in 1987-88 and $134,436 in 1988-89 for North Carolina Central University; and $42,000 in 1987-88 and $76,362 in 1988-89 for Winston-Salem State University.

From appropriations made by the 1987 General Assembly for 1988-89; on Line 10, Basic Program Support, the Board of Governors allocated the following amounts to the predominantly black institutions for library improvements: $6,000 for Elizabeth City State University; $56,583 for Fayetteville State University; $5,462 for North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University; and $12,463 for North Carolina Central University.

Three lines in the Schedule of Priorities - Current Operations in the 1989-91 Budget Request of the Board included specific funding for library improvements at the predominantly black institutions. On Line 3, Library Acquisitions, the requests on behalf of the predominantly black institutions were: $42,630 in 1989-90 and $62,282 in 1990-91 for Elizabeth City State University; $62,773 in 1989-90 and $91,710 in 1990-91 for Fayetteville State University; $147,815 in 1989-90 and $215,955 in 1990-91 for North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University; $186,778 in 1989-90 and $272,879 in 1990-91 for North Carolina Central University; and $54,503 in 1989-90 and $79,628 in 1990-91 for Winston-Salem State University. On Line 5, Computing, $27,622 in 1989-90 and $27,638 in 1990-91 were requested for library improvements at North Carolina Central University. On Line 11, Basic Program Support, institutional requests (estimates) from the predominantly black institutions for libraries for 1989-91 were: $73,153 in 1989-90 and $68,966 in 1990-91 for Elizabeth City State University; $49,925 in 1989-90 and $66,294 in 1990-91 for Fayetteville State University; $22,847 in 1989-90 and $23,000 in 1990-91 for North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University; $166,044 in 1989-90 and $185,765 in 1990-91 for North Carolina Central University; and $61,180 in 1989-90 and $130,544 in 1990-91 for Winston-Salem State University.

5. State Appropriations for Summer Session Instruction

COMMITMENT -

The University has established and shall maintain parity in State appropriations, per budgeted credit hour of instruction for in-state students, for summer session instruction provided to the predominantly black and predominantly white institutions in the same institutional category.

The Board of Governors has established 1988-89 Current Operations Budgets which provide State appropriations of $21.30 per credit hour, as specified, to each comprehensive university and $20.50 per credit hour, as specified, to each general baccalaureate university.

State appropriations for matching funds for College Work-Study per budgeted regular session full-time equivalent student attending the predominantly black institutions shall be at least equal to the weighted average of such appropriations to the predominantly white institutions in the same institutional category.

ACTION -

The Board of Governors has established 1988-89 Current Operations Budgets which provide State appropriations for: non-service scholarships of $19 per in-state student for each comprehensive university and $19 per in-state student for each general baccalaureate university; matching funds for College Work-Study of $36 per student for Fayetteville State University, $21 per student for North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University and $39 per student for North Carolina Central University, as compared with the weighted average of $9 per student for the predominantly white comprehensive universities; and matching funds for College Work-Study of $46 per student for Elizabeth City State University, and $45 per student for Winston-Salem State University, as compared with the weighted average of $8 per student for the predominantly white general baccalaureate universities.

7. Tuition Rates for Regular Session Students

COMMITMENT -

[P]arity exists in tuition charges to in-State students attending the predominantly black and predominantly white institutions in the same institutional category (excluding the higher tuition charges at the East Carolina University School of Medicine). This parity shall be maintained, except that the Board reserves the right to establish different tuition rates for graduate and first professional students than for undergraduates. In that event, parity shall be maintained among institutions in the same institutional category and among categories of students (undergraduate, graduate, and first professional).

Tuition charges to out-of-state students attending institutions in the same institutional category differ. The University shall, effective fall 1981, establish parity for tuition charges to out-of-state students attending the predominantly black and predominantly white institutions in the same institutional category (excluding the higher tuition charges at the East Carolina University School of Medicine). When realized, this parity shall be maintained.

ACTION -

The Board of Governors has established the following tuition rates per academic year, effective fall term 1988: in-state students at the comprehensive universities, $432 (except the East Carolina University School of Medicine); out-of-state students at the comprehensive universities, $4,270 (except the East Carolina University School of Medicine and the North Carolina Central School of Law); in-state students at the general baccalaureate universities, $368; and out-of-state students at the general baccalaureate universities, $3,740.

COMMITMENT -

For the construction of new facilities or major additions, the University shall continue to request funds from each successive Session of the General Assembly for those projects at the predominantly black institutions identified on Line 5 of the Schedule of Priorities - Capital Improvements in the 1981-83 Budget Request of the Board of Governors but for which funds were not available for allocation from appropriations made by a preceding Session; moreover, such requests shall be assigned priority over those for any new facilities or major additions at any other constituent institution not already identified on Line 5. Other capital improvements requests put forward by the Board shall include requests on behalf of the predominantly black institutions that are at least proportionate to those institutions' size as measured by their share of total University enrollment. Share of total enrollment shall be defined in terms of the authorized regular session enrollments at the time the requests are made.

ACTION -

The 1987-89 Budget Request included in the Schedule of Priorities - Capital Improvements on Line 7, University-Wide Program for New Facilities and Other Major Construction Projects, the following projects for the predominantly black institutions: New School of Business Administration Building, $6,350,000, Fayetteville State University; New University Library, $14,823,000, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University; and Addition of Animal Research/Greenhouse Facility and Renovation to Lee Biology Building and Renovations Library, Old Law Building and Academic Buildings (Projects were combined and redesignated, Renovation of Major Facilities), $4,485,000, North Carolina Central University.

The General Assembly appropriated $7,038,200 directly to the Office of State Budget and Management for repairs and renovations to State property in 1987-88. However, the General Assembly in the same appropriations bill designated specific capital improvements projects to be funded from this appropriation totaling $6,978,216, leaving only $59,984 undesignated.

The 1987 General Assembly, 1988 Reconvened Session, appropriated 1988-89 capital improvements funds of: $16,000,000 for University-wide repairs and renovations [Renovation, Remodeling and Major Maintenance Projects (Line 1) and Utilities, Roads, Walks and Drives Projects
