Player of the Week

BERNARD (Bernie) R. YURIN . . . 6-4 . . . 195 lbs. . . . Senior . . . Gary, Indiana. A veteran at the backline job, Yurin has missed only two games in three years. He is well versed in the Case-system and with such knowledge is certain to be an important cog in the '53 plans. A great competitor, Yurin has a fine two handed set-shot that hits well and he drives in for numerous lay-ups. Bernie is also an excellent ball-handler and a holler-guy. He gets the club together when the going is rough and Coach Case regards him highly as a team-player. Although Yurin is not a great scorer, he has tallied in the double-digits on several occasions. Last year he notched 13 points against Duke at Durham for one of his better nights. A member of the Campus Quartermaster R.O.T.C. unit, Yurin will enter the Army for a two-year hitch following his graduation next June. He is a top student, enrolled in the Textiles department. Likes to travel and hopes to go into Textile sales after his Army service. Started cage career at Horace Mann High in Gary and was captain of team that won sectionals and Christmas Holiday Tournament. Brother is coach at Gary Edison High. Twenty-two years old.
