Player of the Week

JORDAN EDWARD (Eddie) MORRIS . . . 6-4 . . . 200 lbs. . . . Senior . . . Winston-Salem, N. C.

One of the best defensive men on the State squad, Eddie usually gets a reserve role for the Wolfpack, but has started several games. Assigned to guard All-America Bill Milkv of Temple a year ago and held the Owls' star to his lowest total of the season when Milkv led the nation in scoring. Morris will be used as spot performer this season, particularly where defensive rebounds are important to the State cause. Last year in 19 games, Morris tallied only 25 points, but did a great team job on rebounds and assists. Needs to develop outside set-shot and could become more valuable if offensive ability improves. Good team player and always hustles. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation and is member of Army R.O.T.C. unit on campus. Will serve two years in Army after graduation next June with the Infantry. Prepped at Reynolds High, Winston-Salem, where he was All-State performer. Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morris, 1206 Irvin St., Winston-Salem. Twenty-one years old. Also regular catcher on baseball squad and is rated a good professional diamond prospect. Batted .306 as sophomore, but fell to .218 last year. Should have best year with Wolfpack baseball squad this season.
