Why The Phillips Basketball Team Is Called 66ers

When the modern Phillips basketball team opened its season in the fall of 1936, it was decided to name it the Phillips 66ers. But because of the team's connection with the oil industry, many sports editors and sportscasters have called the 66ers "Oilers."

Five Fine Phillips Freshmen. The Phillips 66ers' seven veterans are depending on the five first-year men to carry a big share of the burden this season. Left to right: Scotty Steagall (5'-11", Millikin University), Bobby Speight (6'-7", North Carolina State), Tom Lillis (6'-4", St. Louis University), Walt Kearns (6'-6", Arkansas University), and Andy Likens (6'-3" Oklahoma City University.)
