THE OUTLOOK

The Wolfpack, which rode an explosive, high-powered offense to success and consecutive bowl victories the last two seasons, must be classified as a question mark team as the new campaign approaches.

Graduation dealt the reigning Atlantic Coast Conference champions a heavy blow, claiming 17 lettermen—nine of whom have signed professional contracts. Numbered among the departees were 10 standouts from the offensive unit, which averaged a league record 33 points per game, including all-American guard Bill Yoest, tackles Rick Druschel and Allen Sitterle, Dallas first-round draft choice Charley Young, and ACC Player-of-the-Year Willie Burden.

TWO-YEAR RECORD: 17-6-1

"You don't lose excellent players such as these and not feel it," says coach Lou Holtz, who has directed the Pack to its finest back-to-back seasons (17-6-1) in the school's 82 years of football. "Consequently, I'm as anxious to see what's going to happen this fall as are our alums."

Regardless of Holtz' apprehensions, the Wolfpack is expected to field another exciting, enthusiastic squad — a team trademark the past two years.

Defense, however, may become the club's key, rather than offense, as 15 of 28 returning lettermen fall in that category. A bevy of proven tackles—led by Sam Senneca, Frank Haywood, John Goeller, Randy Lail and Jim Henderson—will anchor what shapes up as State's finest defensive crew in many, many moons.

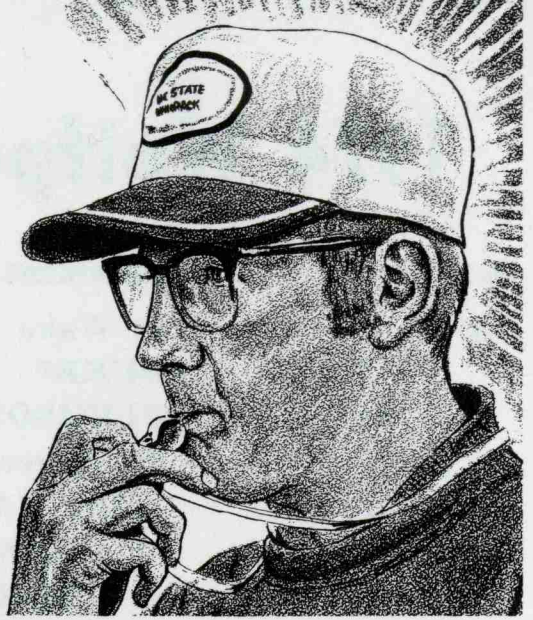

BUCKEY, FRITTS RETURN

If the interior line progresses rapidly enough, the Pack, likewise, may be back to its old habit of triggering unexpected fireworks.

Quarterback Dave Buckey returns along with record-breaking scorer Stan Fritts, high-stepping Roland Hooks and dandy sophomore Tommy London.

Other bright stars will be receivers Mike Hardy, Don Buckey, John Gargano and George Gantt along with center Justus Everett and guard Bob Blanchard.

LOU HOLTZ SAYS:

"The last two years, we've lived 'the life of Raleigh.' By that, I mean we had Willie (Burden) and Charley (Young), (both Raleigh natives), and a host of other veteran players.

"But we lost a lot of that great talent, and our young men this fall are going to have to work harder than ever and be a lot more determined. You might say this is a transitional year for us.

"There really is no way of knowing what the season holds for us. But I do know for a fact that we have some outstanding competitors.

"In essence, we'll be an exciting team, and we could be pretty good—but many things must fall into place for that to happen."
