

The Constitution of the Americans for America
At North Carolina State University
October 25, 2006

Article I. Name

- This organization shall be known as the Americans for America at North Carolina State University.

Article II. Purpose

- This organization's purpose is to establish a unified body to promote the ideals of American Nationalism and to create a political forum in which passed and current issues involving our national identity may be discussed and debated. Furthermore, we intend to promote the ideals and principles of this organization, through action within the community. We also wish to create an alternative to partisan politics, establishing an environment that emphasizes nationalism and patriotism over the advancement of a particular political party and its ideals.

Article III. Membership

Section 1: Membership is open to all enrolled students, faculty and staff that are American Citizens.

Article IV. Officers

Section 1: Organizational positions which will form the Executive Committee are as follows: Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Section 2: The Chairman shall oversee all organizational meetings and events; shall moderate all debates and discussions; shall plan all activities pertaining to the organization and represent the organization in all official matters.

Section 3: The Vice-Chairman shall, in the absence of the Chairman, oversee all organizational meetings, events, debates and discussions.

Section 4: The Secretary shall, in the absence of the Chairman and Vice Chairman, oversee all organizational meetings, events, debates, and discussions; shall keep record of each meeting's minutes and keep accurate record of all members' names and contact information.

Section 5: The Treasurer shall oversee all financial transactions made by the organization; shall collect all membership fees (if and when fees are instated) and report on all finances.

Article V. Officer Election

Section 1: The office of Chairman is reserved until the Chairman graduates or no longer feels capable of performing the necessary duties to the organization.

Section 2: An election for Chairman shall be held in either of the events previously mentioned.

Section 3: For the Office of Chairman, a meeting shall be called to discuss candidates and elections will be held at the next meeting of the organization.

Section 4: Candidates must inform the organization as to why they should be elected prior to election.

Section 5: The Office of Chairman is responsible for appointing the remaining officers.

Section 6: If the Chairman feels incapable of appointing the remaining officers a meeting will be held to discuss candidates and elections will be held at the next meeting of the organization.

Section 7: Elections will be by secret ballot and tallied by the executive committee. In the event of a tie, a second election will be held to determine the candidate that has plurality.

Article VI. Amending the Constitution

Section 1: Amendments to the constitution or by-laws shall be presented by members of the club in writing and read at a regular meeting but shall not be voted upon until the next regular meeting, and then only after informing each member of the proposed amendments. A majority of $2/3$ of the members present and voting shall be required.

Article VII. Committees

Section 1: Committees, if and when needed, shall be appointed by the Executive Committee for their specific purpose.
