

DanceLife Constitution
May 04, 2007

Article I Name & Purpose

Section 1

This organization shall be known as DanceLife.

Section 2

The purpose of this club shall be to offer a variety of dance classes to dancers of all levels. As a member, one can take as many classes as they wish. If a member does not attend class, they will not be penalized. DanceLife will be a non-commitment and stress-free club. Each week the classes shall be Ballet and Jazz and alternate between other dance classes such as Tap, Hip-Hop, Modern, and Conditioning. The classes are intended to allow members to dance at their comfort level while having fun. The members are also encouraged to participate in at least two community service projects each year through the club. DanceLife's main purpose shall be to exercise and have fun through dance while simultaneously giving back to the community.

Article II Membership

Section 1

Membership shall be open to all regularly enrolled students at North Carolina State University who are interested in the offered dance classes. This is regardless of whether they are at a novice level and are learning how to dance, or are at an advanced dance level and want to improve their technique or maintain their dance skills. Members must pay dues, according to Article IV Section 1.

Section 2

There shall be no selection process for DanceLife membership.

Section 3

Regularly enrolled students at North Carolina State University who do not pay membership dues but pay for individual classes are non-members.

Article III Officers

Section 1

The officers of the club shall be the President, Vice-President, and Secretary/Treasurer. The President shall be in charge of scheduling classes, e-mailing the week's schedule to club members, overseeing that the officers are performing their respective jobs, organizing community service projects, and being in charge of at least one community service project. The Vice President shall be in charge of assisting the President in sending and replying to e-mails, collecting attendance sheets from each of the dance teachers, being in charge of at least one community service project, recording the history of the organization, and when the President is unable to perform his or her officer duties, acting as President. The Secretary/Treasurer shall be in charge of dues, bookkeeping, providing an updated budget at each meeting, recording minutes of each meeting, and being in charge of at least one community service project. The Secretary/Treasurer will collect dues and ensure that the dues correspond with attendance. Each officer shall be in charge of at least one community service project.

Section 2

The officers shall be appointed by the President the first year of DanceLife. The following years, the officers shall be elected with a majority vote by the club members to serve a term of one academic year. Their term shall begin after an elections meeting at the beginning of the fall semester.

Section 3

As the club grows and develops, new officer positions shall be created to assist the expansion and officer responsibilities may expand and be reorganized.

Article IV Dues

Section 1

Dues shall be $15 per semester or $20 per academic year. These dues shall be used towards events, guest teachers, and other DanceLife expenses. Events include community service projects and DanceLife activities and meetings. Members can take unlimited classes including classes with guest teachers.

Section 2

The first class for non-members shall be known as a trial class and shall be free. After the trial class, each class shall be $5 per class without membership.

Membership dues paid for in semesters or academic years after the non-member classes were taken shall not be refunded.

Article V Amending the Constitution and by-laws

Section 1

Amendments to the constitution shall be presented by members of the club in writing and read at a regular meeting but shall not be voted upon until the next regular meeting, and then only after informing each member of the proposed amendments. A majority of 2/3 of the members present and voting shall be required.

Article VI Meetings

Section 1

At the beginning of the academic year in August, there shall be a brief informational meeting to discuss the schedule, future meetings, community service projects, and election information for the upcoming year. There shall be an additional meeting for elections. There shall be additional meetings for the different community service committees. Community service committees shall meet according to their needs. Other meetings shall be announced through e-mail.

Article VII Committees

Section 1

The club shall make special committees for the community service projects. Each committee shall be headed by an officer. Additional committee leaders for community service projects shall be volunteers and must be members of the club.

If other committees are necessary, they shall be created when needed.

Rachelle Malit
DanceLife
North Carolina State University

Dear Rachelle,

Congratulations! We have reviewed your organization's registration and have approved DanceLife as a Registered Student Organization at North Carolina State University. The SORC organization directory has been updated to reflect the contact information for Rachelle Malit, as president of the organization and myself, Deborah Felder, as the advisor for the organization. Please review the organization detail page on our website for accuracy <http://www.ncsu.edu/sorc/myOrgs/details.php?id=779>. Please be sure to submit a new registration form each year, or any time you change officers or contact information.

If you need to modify who has administrative access to your website or to request space you (president or advisor) should send email to webmaster@ncsu.edu requesting the change. Be sure to include the URL of your web and up to two (2) Unity user ids' of people who should have administrative access.

The Student Organization Resource Center (SORC) website has a large amount of relevant information for organization leaders and advisors, and I encourage you to check it out at www.ncsu.edu/sorc

I would also like to remind you that SORC, located in 1202 Talley student Center, has a variety of services and resources available to your organization. We offer mailboxes and a permanent campus mailing address, file storage space, and display cases in the lobby of Talley Student Center. Additionally, we have a small amount of equipment available for organizations to rent, including a laptop computer, multimedia projector, portable sound system, video camera, and small tables. Full information can be found on our web.

As always our staff are here to answer your questions and assist you with your organization and activities in any way we can. Please contact us anytime if we can be of help.

Sincerely,

Deborah Felder
