

CONSTITUTION
OF THE FIRST YEAR COLLEGE STUDENT COUNCIL
NORTH CAROLINA STATE UNIVERSITY AT RALEIGH

Preamble

We, the representatives of the First Year College desiring to promote the interests and general welfare of the students, and to provide the First Year College students with a representative Student Council, do hereby establish this constitution.

Article I - Name

The organization shall be known at the First Year College Student Council (FYCSC).

Article II - Purposes

The purposes of the Student Council shall be:

- 1) to provide an organization for the management of affairs in which all First Year College students may be interested;
- 2) to handle all monies received by the Council, including First Year College fees;
- 3) to promote leadership in the First Year College, and in the University;
- 4) to act on behalf, and in the interests of, the students in the First Year College.

Article III - Membership

SECTION 1 - Members of the First Year College will be the First Year College Student Council, and the president or a representative of each society whose function, or members, are related to the First Year College.

SECTION 2 - Any student of the First Year College or any other interested party may attend any meeting of the Council as an observer and may be recognized by the chair to speak.

SECTION 3 - Membership suspension criteria are referred to in Article XI, Section 2 and 3.

Article IV - Officers

SECTION 1 - Officers of this organization will be President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and, at the discretion of the Council, Parliamentarian.

SECTION 2 - The officers named in Section 1 will comprise the Executive Committee.

SECTION 3 - Officers will be elected by a majority of representatives present. The officers will be nominated and elected at the beginning of the Spring semester of their freshman year. All officers will be nominated and elected as follows: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Parliamentarian.

SECTION 4 - If any officer is unable to complete his or her term of office, a new officer must be nominated and elected by the Council at its next regular meeting. If the office of President is vacated, the Vice President assumes their presidency.

SECTION 5 - Any officer may be removed by a 2/3 vote, but only at a meeting subsequent to the one in which the removal motion is made.

Article V - Advisers

SECTION 1 - A faculty adviser(s) will be from the First Year College.

SECTION 2 - Attend all meetings of the Council unless an alternate is chosen to fill his/her vacancy. Adequately liaison with students to effectively represent their views.

Article VI - Finances

SECTION 1 - All fees collected from the students must be allocated. In addition, any funds collected from fund-raising projects are to be deposited in the Trust Fund, and treated as school fees.

SECTION 2 - With academic events taking precedence priority, the allocation of funds will be as follows:

- 1) Council operating expenses
- 2) Academic and social events for the First Year College
- 3) Academic and social events of societies
- 4) Academic and social events of a campus-wide nature
- 5) All events of special interest groups apart from the First Year College

SECTION 3 - The Council Treasurer will keep a record of every expenditure. The treasurer will institute his or her own system of bookkeeping. The only requirements are that it be accurate, efficient, current, and provide the societies with the best possible access to their funds. It is suggested that a spreadsheet of some type, such as Microsoft Excel, be utilized in this process.

SECTION 4 - Any allocated funds remaining at the close of the semester will be included in the report of the following semester.

SECTION 5 - Each society must keep complete records of all expenditures. All financial statements and leftover monies must be turned in at the council meeting following the event unless excused by the First Year College Student Council. This refers only to the money allocated by the Council, not to money which the society may have earned on its own. (For readmittance procedures, see Article XI, Section 3). The treasurer will report any budget discrepancies or misappropriations to the full council for possible suspension.

Article VII - Activities

SECTION 1 - Activities will be at the discretion of the Council.

Article VIII - Meetings

SECTION 1 - Regular meetings will be held during the school year at least once per month, the time and day to be designated by the Executive Committee at the beginning of each semester of the school year. These dates are to be ratified by the Council at the first meeting of the semester. After ratification, a schedule of these meetings will be printed and distributed to each society by the Secretary.

SECTION 2 - Special meetings may be called by the President or by a petition by a quorum of the Council members. This petition must be submitted to a member of the Executive Committee.

Article IX - Quorum and Voting

SECTION 1 - Quorum is defined as one half the total voting membership of the Council. A quorum must be present to conduct official business (See Article IX, Section 3).

SECTION 2 - Each representative and officer in good standing will have one vote.

SECTION 3 - The quorum requirement may be suspended by a 3/4 vote of the Council members present at a meeting provided that at least one third of the total membership is present. Quorum requirement may not be suspended when voting on constitutional amendments.

Article X - Amendments

SECTION 1 - The Constitution and By-Laws of the Council may be amended at any meeting of the Council by a 2/3 vote of those present, provided a quorum is present.

SECTION 2 - Any amendment to the Constitution or By-Laws must have been presented to the Council at least one meeting prior to its being voted upon.

SECTION 3 - Proposed amendments will be legibly written and properly dated.

SECTION 4 - After approval, amendments will be typed on durable paper, properly dated, and attached to the Constitution. An inked notation citing the amendments will be made in the body of the Constitution.

SECTION 5 - Any article of this constitution or part thereof that is in direct violation of the Student Government constitution or by-laws, shall be null and void and declared unconstitutional by the President of Student Government. Any differences of opinion between the Council and the President of Student Government shall be brought before the Legislature, whose decision shall be final.

Article XI - Attendance

SECTION 1 - Attendance is mandatory for representatives and officers. A member's absence will be excused provided an alternate has been appointed and has attended the meeting or a valid excuse is presented.

SECTION 2 - After the first absence of a representative without an alternate present, the President will send a letter to the representative stating that one more unexcused absence will result in suspension from the Council. When a representative is suspended, a second letter will be sent to the adviser notifying him or her of the action.

SECTION 3 - In order to be readmitted, the representative or officer must appear before the Council and request readmission. If the request is approved by the Council, the membership will be restored. In order for a suspended membership to be restored, the representative must appear before the Council showing just cause for his or her absences. If the request is approved by the Council, the membership will be restored.

BY-LAWS
FIRST YEAR COLLEGE STUDENT COUNCIL

Dear Ms. Mills:

We have reviewed your organization's constitution and officers list and everything seems to be in proper order. You are now a registered student organization at North Carolina State University entitled to all privileges entailed in that status.

Understand that this registration in no way gives the University or Student Government responsibility for any financial liability which may be incurred by your group. Your status does, however, give you the opportunity to approach the Student Senate with a request for funds, and it gives you certain on-campus solicitation privileges.

Please be aware that we ask each student organization to update its file whenever there is a change of officers and at the beginning of each school year. Failure to do so will result in a loss of registration.

If the Department of Student Development can be of assistance to your group, please do not hesitate to call on us. Good luck with your new group.

Sincerely,

Guide to Parliamentary Procedure

Parliamentary procedure is a device used by the almost every law-making body and organization throughout the United States. The purpose of parliamentary procedure is to ensure that every point of view on an issue has a chance to be heard. Although it can be tedious at times, if used correctly parliamentary procedure can make meetings more productive, run quicker, and assure that ideas of the majority and minority are given a fair hearing. Robert's Rules of Order are defined as the parliamentary procedure guideline that the Student Senate follows.

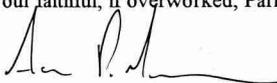

At the last meeting of the Senate, several esoteric points of Robert's Rules of Order were brought up and caused some confusion among the members. In order to alleviate this in the future, I have attempted to explain them fully below.

- For any motion there shall be a maximum of three full rounds of debate. Each round shall consist of four minutes for affirmative debate, and four minutes for negative debate, in that order.
- A member must raise their hand to be recognized, and may yield the balance of their time after speaking either to the President or another member.
- Any Senator may say "Question" at any time without being recognized. If no one "objects" to the question, this results in a suspension of debate and an immediate vote. If even one Senator objects, debate continues.
- If a Senator wishes to make a formal motion to end debate, they must wait until two full rounds of debate have been completed. A Senator must be recognized (no shouting out as with "Question") and should say "I move the previous question." At that point, if the motion is seconded, a vote is taken (this is a non-debatable motion). It takes a 2/3 vote to pass and end debate.
- If a member wishes to offer an amendment to a motion, they must wait until the first full round of debate has concluded. In order to make an amendment, a Senator must be recognized by the chair. There can be only two levels of amendments on any motion at one time (on the floor at one time there can be at most a motion—an amendment to the motion—and an amendment to the amendment).
- If a Senator is not sure how to do something in the course of business, they should politely say "Point of Parliamentary Inquiry."
- To ask a question to which you do not know the answer, say "Point of Information." This is only to obtain information... not to offer it. Do not use questions (leading or otherwise) as a form of debate.
- If a Senator makes improper or offensive statements, or if people are too loud, etc. you may say "Point of Personal Privilege." The President will immediately ask you to state your point.

- If a member disagrees with any ruling made by the chair, they may Appeal the ruling of the chair. This must be seconded, is debatable, and requires a majority to overturn the chair's decision.
- To lay a matter aside temporarily when something else has arisen, the proper motion is to Lay on the table the matter pending. (Note: this is not debatable, or amendable) In doing this, there is no set time to take the matter up again. This should not be used to kill a motion as it allows a majority to stop a matter before it has even been discussed. In order to set a matter aside indefinitely, the correct motion is to Postpone Indefinitely the matter at hand. This is debatable, so it does not trample on the right of the minority if it is used to "kill" a motion. For instance, the postpone indefinitely motion is handy to use to dispose of an ill-written or conceived motion. This motion is debatable, not amendable, and requires a majority vote to pass.
- To Recess while a motion is pending requires a majority vote, and is amendable (e.g. I move to recess for 5 minutes"). It requires a majority vote. The same conditions apply in order to recess when no motion is pending, except that the recess motion is then debatable.
- If a Senator feels that a motion has been hastily decided upon, that a decision was ill-advised, or that added information that is pertinent has become available, they may ask the assembly to Reconsider a motion. The motion to reconsider can only be made by a person who voted with the prevailing side in the matter. (i.e. If a motion failed, you must have voted against it, or if a motion passed, you must have voted for it.) The motion to reconsider can only be made in the same meeting (day) the vote was taken. If the same result can be obtained by another parliamentary motion, the motion to reconsider should not be made.
- If a Senator feels that a frivolous or extremely undesirable motion has been made, they may Object to Consideration of a Question. This needs no second, and is not debatable or amendable. If a two-thirds majority agrees with the objection, the motion is not considered.
- In order to consider a matter not on the floor, out of order, or to do something other than as a standing rule states, a Senator may propose to Suspend the Rules to _____. Please note that this motion cannot be used to overturn the Constitution of an organization. This motion requires a second, is not debatable or amendable, and usually requires a two-thirds vote.

Okay, I agree that this can be extremely burdensome and confusing at times. It is wise to remember that Robert's Rules of Order exist in order to ensure that all matters get a fair hearing before the Senate. However, it is also wise to recognize that they do not exist in a vacuum... the rules are present to help, not hinder the meeting proceedings. Also, it would be misusing the rules of order if they were employed by those with a lot of knowledge to disenfranchise those who are not as knowledgeable in this realm. Please take this into consideration in your dealings in the meetings, and do not hesitate to bellow "Point of Parliamentary Inquiry!" if you have a question.

Your faithful, if overworked, Parliamentarian,

Aaron P. Maurer

Practical Pointers on Parliamentary Procedure

The motions or points listed below, 1 through 9, are in order of precedence.

In other words:

SIDE ONE

- A. When anyone of them is pending, you cannot introduce one that is listed BELOW it.
 B. You can introduce one that is listed above it.

YOU WANT TO:	YOU SAY:	May You Interrupt Speaker To Make This Motion?	Is A Second Necessary?	Is The Motion Debatable?	Can This Motion Be Amended?	Is Vote Required? What Percent Required?
1 Adjourn	I move we adjourn	No interruption permitted	A second is necessary	Not debatable	Not amendable	Majority vote required
2 Recess	I move we recess until . . .	No interruption permitted	A second is necessary	Not debatable	Amendable	Majority vote required
3 Register a complaint	Point of privilege, Mr. Chairman . . .	Yes, you may interrupt	No second needed	Not debatable (any RESULTING motion IS debatable.)	Not amendable	No vote required (Chair decides)
4 Suspend further consideration of a matter (To Table)	I move we table this matter	No interruption permitted	A second is necessary	Not debatable	Not amendable	Majority vote required
5 End discussion or further debating of a matter	I move the previous question	No interruption permitted	A second is necessary	Not debatable	Not amendable	Two-thirds vote required
6 Postpone consideration of a matter	I move we postpone this matter until . . .	No interruption permitted	A second is necessary	Debatable	Amendable	Majority required
7 Have further study on a matter	I move we refer this matter to a committee	No interruption permitted	A second is necessary	Debatable	Amendable	Majority vote required
8 Amend a motion	I move this motion be amended to read . . .	No interruption of speaker permitted	A second is necessary	Debatable	Amendable	Majority vote required
9 Introduce a matter or business (A primary motion)	I move that . . .	Cannot interrupt speaker	A second is necessary	Debatable	Amendable	Majority vote required

THESE ARE GENERAL POINTS, PROPOSALS AND MOTIONS AND HAVE NO ORDER OF PRECEDURE OVER ONE ANOTHER. YOU MAY INTRODUCE ANY ONE OF THEM AT ANY TIME, EXCEPT:

SIDE TWO

- A. When Motion To Adjourn Is Pending
 B. When Motion To Recess Is Pending
 C. Point Of Privilege Is Pending

YOU WANT TO:	YOU SAY:	May Speaker Be Interrupted To Make This Motion?	Is A Second Required?	Is Motion Debatable?	Can This Motion Be Amended?	Is Vote Required? What Percent Required?
1 Object to error in procedure or to a personal affront	Point of Order	May interrupt speaker	No second	Not debatable	Not amendable	No vote required, Chair decides
2 Request for information	Point of Information	If urgent and to the point	No second	Not debatable	Not amendable	No vote required
3 Verify voice vote by taking actual count	I call for a division of the house	No interruption permitted BUT division must be called by Chairman before new motion can be made	No second	Not debatable	Not amendable	No vote required UNLESS someone objects THEN majority required
4 Object to consideration of a matter you consider improper or undiplomatic	I object to consideration of this question	May interrupt speaker	No second required	Not debatable	Not amendable	Two-thirds vote required against consideration
5 Take up a matter which has been previously tabled	I move we take from the table	May not interrupt the speaker	Must be seconded	Not debatable	Not amendable	Majority required
6 Reconsider something already disposed of	I move we reconsider our action relative to . . .	May interrupt the speaker for record only. (Business at hand takes precedence)	Must be seconded	Debatable IF original motion was debatable	Not amendable	Majority required
7 Consider something out of its scheduled order	I move we suspend the rules and consider . . .	May not interrupt the speaker	Must be seconded	Not debatable	Not amendable	Two-thirds vote required
8 Vote on a ruling of the chair	I appeal the chair's decision	May interrupt speaker	Must be seconded	Debatable IF original motion was debatable	Not amendable	Majority vote required
