Bylaws

Revised 11-23-97

KAPPA ALPHA ORDER

Alpha Omega Chapter

Bylaws

Under the authority of its charter granted by the Knight Commander on April 7, 1997, and pursuant to section 9-211 of Kappa Alpha Laws, Alpha Omega Chapter of Kappa Alpha Order, located at the University of North Carolina State, adopts their bylaws for its government.

Article 1-Chapter Meetings

1.1 Regular Meetings- Regular meeting of the Chapter shall be held in the Chapter House in the Chapter Room on each Sunday the University is in session. Subject to following the minimum requirements of Section 9-212, the No. 1, for cause such as examinations being in progress or a conflicting athletic, social or other university scheduled activity, may cancel any regular meeting.

1.2 Special Meetings; Notice- A special meeting may be held as prescribed in Section 9-213, except that the No. 1 may call a Special Meeting upon posting a six hour notice, provided that he shall, in any such case and prior to such meeting, cause each member of the Chapter who does not live on the Chapter House to be notified by telephone or otherwise.

1.3 Attendance Required; Excused Absence- Each member of the Chapter shall attend each and every regular or special meeting of the Chapter. Except when unavoidable circumstances (of which the No. 1 and the No. 7 shall be the judge) prevent, a member shall notify the No. 1 or the No. 7 in advance and state his reason when he knows that he will be absent from a meeting.

1.4 Parliamentary Procedure- Except as otherwise provided by the laws or customs of the Order, Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, shall govern the parliamentary procedure of the Chapter. Each member in meeting shall observe the parliamentary procedure and proper decorum at all times.

1.5 Fines - may be imposed by the No. 7 on any member of the chapter that breaks any one of the rules. The fines will given at standards committee at the end of each meeting. All fines may be given to the No. 1 for an appeal.

1.6 Failure to pay fines - Any member not paying outstanding fines shall go in front of Standards Committee to receive his punishment.

Article 2- Officers

2.1 Responsibilities- In addition to any responsibilities of officers imposed by any provision of the Kappa Alpha Laws, the officers of the Chapter shall be charged with the enforcement of the Kappa Alpha Laws, these bylaws and any rules and regulations of the Chapter made pursuant to these bylaws. The officers of the Chapter shall also see, to the best of their ability, that all applicable regulations of the University of North Carolina State, the Interfraternity Council, and any other person or entity having supervisory authority over the chapter are observed.

2.2 Social Functions- The No. 1, the No. 2 and the No. 3 and all other officers are expected to attend all functions of the Chapter and to discharge their respective duties while in attendance.

2.3 Residence- The No. 1 and the No. 6 are expected to live in the Chapter House during their term of office unless the chapter votes by 3/4 to allow otherwise.

2.4 Summer Officers- If the No. 1 does not expect to be in residence at the Chapter House during any period the Chapter House is occupied during the summer school session, he shall, at the end of the spring semester, appoint a summer president who shall be at summer school both sessions and whose duties shall be to supervise the operations of the house, including the kitchen, and the care of the yard.

2.5 Interfraternity Council Representatives; Designation- The No. 1, or such other member(s) of the chapter designated by him, shall represent the chapter in the Interfraternity Council of the University of North Carolina State representatives in order of priority shall be appointed by the No. 1.

2.6 Province Council Representatives- The No.1 and the No.2 shall be the official delegates of the chapter to Province Council. For casting the two votes of this Chapter in Province Council meetings, both votes shall be cast as the majority of the members of the Chapter present at any such meeting may determine by the two highest ranking officers present. In the event the members present are equally divided upon any question, one vote shall be cast on each side of the question being voted upon by the Council.

2.7 Ritualist- The No. 1 shall appoint a Ritualist for the Chapter who shall direct initiation and be in general charge of initiation equipment.

2.8 Election of Officers- The No. 1,2,3 shall be elected in accordance with Kappa Alpha Laws. The No. 6 is appointed by the No. 1. However, the No. 1 will ask for a vote on who would be the best candidate and makes his appointment accordingly. The No. 6 is in no way a legally elected chapter officer.

ARTICLE 3 - CHAPTER EMPLOYEES

3.1 Termination of Chapter Employees- For such actions as he may feel immediate steps are needed, the No. 1 may hire and fire any employee of the Chapter except the CRA, without immediate permission of the Prudential Committee. Such action is subject to review by the Prudential Committee.

3.2 Other Employees- There shall be a cook. He or she shall cook three meals a day, Monday through Thursday and breakfast and lunch on Friday. He or she shall meet with the kitchen manager in ordering and preparing meals for the upcoming week.

ARTICLE 4 - COMMITTEES

4.1 Committees; in General. The No. 1 may change the personnel of any standing committee at any time. Each standing committee shall report of its activities to the Chapter each week or more often as requested by the No.1. Each standing committee may have such sub-committees as the committee itself may determine. A majority of any standing committee shall constitute a quorum for any meeting of the committee. Each committee of the Chapter shall make pertinent recommendations to the Chapter and shall act with respect to its respective purposes in such manner as the Chapter may direct.

4.2 Special Committees. Special committees shall be appointed or elected for such purposes as the No. 1 deems appropriate or as the chapter shall direct. A special committee shall not be established for any matter upon which there is a standing committee.

4.3 Executive Committee. The executive committee shall be composed of all officers of the Chapter and such committee chairmen and other members as may be designated by the No. 1. The executive committee shall meet once a week to advise the No. 1 concerning matters on which he requests advice. Although the executive committee, as a matter of course, vote on matters before it, its determinations are strictly advisory and are not in derogation of authority and responsibility of No. 1.

4.4 Prudential Committee- The Prudential Committee shall consist of the No.1, No. 2, and No. 3 of the chapter as provided in Section 9-225. The No. 6 shall not be a member of the Prudential Committee, but he shall meet with and advise the Prudential Committee as requested by the Committee. At least once a month, the Prudential Committee shall review the report of the Chapter's CPA and compare expenditures against the budget. Furthermore the Prudential Committee shall satisfy itself that all expenditures have been properly made and properly classified. The No. 1 shall report the activities of the Prudential Committee at every Chapter meeting after which there has been an assembled meeting of the Prudential Committee.

4.5 Standards Committee- The Standards Committee shall consist of the No. 1, the No. 2, No. 3, and No. 7. The Standards Committee shall counsel in a fraternal spirit with active members of the Chapter so that the highest standards of the Kappa Alpha Order may be evident in the character and conduct of all members of the Chapter and in the activities of the Chapter.

4.6 Rush Committee- The Rush Committee shall carry on a year round rushing program, searching and recommending worthy candidates for membership and investigating persons recommended to the Chapter for membership. The Rush Committee shall also make a calendar of events for both fall and spring rush. They will be responsible for giving out bids to incoming rushees.

4.7 Alumni Relations Committee- The Alumni Relations Committee shall plan and carry out a consistent and annual program to inform the Alumni of the Chapter of the Chapter's activities, and to encourage the Alumni of the Chapter to participate in Chapter activities.

4.8 Social Committee- The Social Committee shall plan all social activities for the Chapter. He shall bring up all social events for approval in Chapter meetings. All events should be placed on the calendar in the foyer as soon as possible.

4.9 Pledge Education Committee- The No. 2 shall be the chairman of the Pledge Education Committee. The Pledge Education Committee shall encourage the members and the pledges of the Chapter to seek campus honors and shall directly require each freshman member or pledge to engage in such campus activities as the committee may determine. The Pledge educator shall administer the Pledge Education Program established by Kappa Alpha Order as supplemented in these bylaws and as further supplemented by action of the Chapter from time to time.

4.10 Scholarship Committee- The Scholarship committee shall encourage the scholarship of the members and the pledges of the Chapter, and shall directly require each freshman member or pledge to engage in such activities designed to improve his scholarship as the committee shall deem feasible.

4.11 Ammen Award Committee- The Ammen Award Committee shall prepare the Chapter's annual application for an Ammen Award and shall monitor Chapter activities so that sufficient activities will be engaged in so the Chapter will be eligible for an Ammen Award.

4.13 Community Service Committee- The Community Service Committee shall plan and supervise fund raising projects for MDA. It shall also organize and supervise other community service functions such as the "highway clean-up" and the carnival.

4.14 Public Relations Committee- The Public Relations shall cause press releases to be sent to appropriate newspapers and other media regarding activities of the Chapter or its members which are worthy of public notice.

4.15 Old South Committee- The Old South Committee shall be in charge of all responsibilities going towards Old South. The Chairman of the Old South Committee shall be selected by a majority vote of the active members of the chapter. The Chairmen will then select whom he wants to have on this committee.

4.16 Magnolia Committee- The Magnolia Committee shall be in charge of all responsibilities going towards Magnolia. The Chairman of the Magnolia Committee shall be selected by a majority vote of the active members of the chapter. The Chairmen will then select whom he wants to have on this committee. The Chairman is also responsible for the writing of the letter to the parents explaining the events.

ARTICLE 5 - AFFILIATION, ALUMNI, STATUS AND RUSH

5.1 Rush, who may be voted upon- No name shall be brought before the chapter for election to membership during the time of formal rush except names of those individuals who have participated in at least three rush events.

5.2 Voting During Rush- People who are eligible to vote are: initiated members and people who have finished pledging and are awaiting initiation. Though if they are still pledging they are not allowed to vote under any circumstance.

5.3 Affiliation- The Chapter shall abide by all guideline established in the Laws concerning affiliation of a transferring initiated member. A transfer may not be eligible for affiliation during the period of formal rush. A transfer may visit the chapter and assist in the process of formal rush, but may not be voted upon for affiliation until such time as rush is over. A transfer shall not be eligible for affiliation until a one month trial membership requirement has been fulfilled; during this period he shall be required to show interest in the Chapter but will not have the privileges of an active member to vote in Chapter Meetings until his request for affiliation is approved.

5.4 Alumni Status- A member who receives Alumni Status from the Chapter pursuant to Section 8-213(c), must tell the chapter at the time he requests Alumni Status if he desires to continue to participate in social and other activities of the Chapter. A member who wishes to receive Alumni Status must have been a member of the Chapter for seven semesters. He must also inform the Chapter if he wishes to continue to eat meals in the Chapter House. A member who elects to participate in chapter activities or to eat meals in the Chapter House as an Alumnus must pay for meals and social assessments on the same scale as active members. A member placed on Alumni Status pursuant to Section 8-213(d) may not participate in any chapter activities without the permission of the Standards Committee and the Knight Commander or his designee who placed him on Alumni Status.

5.5 Graduate and Professional School Students- Graduate students and professional school students who remain active Members, shall be excused from fraternity meetings at their discretion.

ARTICLE 6 - FINANCES

6.1 Dues- Each member affiliated with the Chapter during any semester must pay the dues for that semester. The No. 1 will set a date at the beginning of each semester to the dues are to be paid. If a payment plan is in order, then the person or payment plan shall write a letter saying when and how much he will be paying each month. If a person does not submit a payment plan by the due date, then there will be a $50 dollar fine added on to his bill.

Enclosed please find an information form which I would like for you to fill out and return to me at your earliest convenience and a release form which every member of your chapter must sign if you wish to have their grades at the end of the semester. This is the procedure that we will be using every semester from now on.

This semester you will have until Friday, December 2, to update your rosters (one week before the last day of class). Please, though, help us by filling out the roster information on the enclosed form so that we can eliminate any mistakes in your roster during the semester before grade reports are due.

Thank you for your assistance.
