

NC State University
Students Today Alumni Tomorrow
Constitution

Article I
Name

Section 1. The name of this association shall be the Students Today Alumni Tomorrow. The association shall popularly be referred to hereafter as STAT.

Article II
Affiliation

Section 1. STAT shall be affiliated with and responsible to the NC State University Alumni Association. STAT shall be operated in accordance with the constitution of NC State University Alumni Association.

Article III
Purpose

Section 1. STAT is an association which promotes a lifelong relationship between students, alumni and NC State. Members receive unique opportunities to serve the university through involvement with programs promoting traditions, spirit and pride in NC State. STAT's mission is to help students create a better NC State experience by providing personal and professional benefits that will lead to a better career and active involvement as alum.

Objectives:

1. Increase Alumni Association's visibility among current students, its future alumni.
2. Provide benefits that will create student awareness of the Alumni Association as an organization that can positively impact the student experience.
3. Lay the foundation for future involvement in the NC State University Alumni Association.

Article IV
Membership

Section 1. All students enrolled in NC State University, undergraduate and graduate are eligible for S.T.A.T membership. STAT will not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, ethnic origin, sex, age, political persuasion, sexual preference, disability, or marital status.

Section 2. The Alumni Association Student Ambassador Program, a student leadership organization, shall govern STAT. AASAP membership criteria are outlined in the AASAP handbook. The following officers will be elected from the AASAP and will serve as the Executive Committee and officers of STAT: President, Vice President, Director of Programming, Director of Traditions, Director of Homecoming, Director of Communication, Director of Administration and Director of Membership Development.

Article V Advisor

Section 1. The advisor shall be the Director of Special Interest and Campus Programs of the NC State University Alumni Association.

Article VI Meetings

Section 1. The general membership of Students Today Alumni Tomorrow will be invited to at least one membership event once a month and will receive communication via a monthly listserve message

Article VII Financial Matters

Section 1. All contracts and transactions entered into assets owned by STAT shall be in the name of the NC State University Alumni Association.

Section 2. The only persons designated to deposit or withdraw funds from the STAT account shall be the advisor.

Section 3. All monies of STAT shall be deposited in the NC State Alumni Association account.

Article VIII Dissolution

Section 1. STAT may be dissolved upon written from the advisor or a designee of the Alumni Association Board of Directors.

Section 2. Upon dissolution, all organization's property, of whatever nature or value, and whosever situated, shall vest itself immediately to the NC State Alumni Association to be used as determined by the AASAP.

Article IX Amendments

Section 1. The power to alter, amend, or repeal this constitution shall be vested in the Alumni Association Student Ambassador Program and the advisor

Section 2. All modifications of the articles must be made or approved by the advisor and the president.

Section 3. Any amendment or revision of the constitution initiated and approved by the two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the AASAP shall become effective immediately.

Students Today Alumni Tomorrow
By-laws

A. Membership

Section 1. Eligibility for General Membership in STAT will be students enrolled in NC State University, undergraduate and graduate.

Section 2. In order to maintain active status, a member must pay his/her dues annually to the NC State University Students Today Alumni Tomorrow.

B. Dues

Section 1. The Annual STAT membership fee will be payable to the NC State University Alumni Association.

Section 2. The Annual STAT fee shall be $20. $5 of each member's fee will be given to the STAT annual fund, which goes toward a student project for NC State. $15 of the fee will be the member's annual dues. Dues shall cover operating costs for a school year, i.e. September 1 through August 31.

C. Alumni Association Student Ambassador Program

Section 1. The Alumni Association Student Ambassador Program shall be the governing body of Students Today Alumni Tomorrow. During the AASAP spring recruitment period, the spaces of current members who will graduate in May or August of that year will be filled.

Section 2. All candidates for the AASAP must first be members in good standing of STAT. Membership qualifications should include involvement in campus activities, proven leadership skills, and the ability to positively represent the Alumni Association in diverse social situations. An application must be submitted to the AASAP. A thorough review of all submitted applications will determine who will receive an interview from the AASAP president and advisor.

D. Executive Board

- The Executive Board will be made up of the following officers: President, Vice President, Director of Membership Development, Director of Communication, Director of Traditions, Director of Programming, Director of Homecoming.

Section 1. Each officer's responsibilities shall be as follows:

President:

- ♦ Preside over meetings
- ♦ Create officer and program meeting agendas
- ♦ Oversee major decisions about the programming, budget, and administration of both the AASAP and STAT in conjunction with the Vice President
- ♦ Meet regularly with Staff Advisor to ensure clear communication between the Alumni Association staff, AASAP and STAT
- ♦ Enact the mission of the AASAP and STAT in such a way that the goals of the Alumni Association are also advanced
- ♦ Strive to expand upon and improve both the AASAP and STAT

Vice President:

- ♦ Manage the Directors
- ♦ Fill in for the President in her/his absence at meetings and events
- ♦ Preside over STAT and ensure clear communication between the Alumni Association staff, the AASAP President, Directors and STAT members.

Director of Communication:

- ♦ Oversee, plan, and implement the following:
 - AASAP, STAT and Traditions Web pages
 - Creation of Public Relations tools for AASAP, STAT and Traditions
 - Creation of AASAP & STAT apparel
 - PR for special events such as recruitment, Founders Day, and Traditions activities
- ♦ Director may choose to work with the staff advisor and president to delegate tasks among committee members as he/she sees fit and may designate members as:
 - Web Information Coordinator
 - Publicity Coordinator

Director of Membership Development:

- ♦ Oversee, plan, and implement the following:
 - Recruitment process including applications, Recruitment Information Sessions and the Spring Retreat
 - Fall Retreat
 - Meeting workshops and speakers
 - Internal Member Recognition
 - Semester social events for the AASAP members

- ♦ Director may choose to work with the staff advisor and president to delegate tasks among committee members as he/she sees fit and may designate members as:
 - Recruitment Coordinator
 - Development Coordinator
 - Internal Relations Coordinator

Director of Traditions:

- ♦ Oversee, plan, and implement the following:
 - Past & present NC State traditions research
 - Documentation of these traditions via collaboration with the Communication Committee to create a Traditions web page, public relations tools, and a multi-media presentation for faculty, staff, students and alumni
 - Recommendations to the director of programming & Alumni Association staff concerning the implementation of new traditions or revival of old traditions
 - Founder's Day events
 - Presentation of Traditions research through Wolfcamp, Wolfpack Welcome Week, etc.
- ♦ Director may choose to work with the staff advisor and president to delegate tasks among committee members as he/she sees fit and may designate members as:
 - Founder's Day Coordinator
 - Education Coordinator

Director of Programming:

- ♦ Oversee, plan, and implement the following:
 - Benefits package of STAT
 - STAT programming and events
- ♦ Director may choose to work with the staff advisor and president to delegate tasks among committee members as he/she sees fit and may designate members as program coordinators.

Director of Administration:

- ♦ Oversee, plan, and implement the following:
 - Email reminders to ambassadors for events
 - Code of Conduct
 - Meeting & Events Attendance/ RSVP service
 - Membership Database Management/ AASAP contact information
 - Listserv Management
 - AASAP calendar & sign-ups
 - Meeting & Committee Minutes
 - AASAP Handbook

- AASAP Annual Report
- Special correspondence such as gifts, cards, etc.
- ♦ Director may choose to work with the staff advisor and president to delegate tasks among committee members as he/she sees fit and may designate members as:
 - Records Coordinator
 - Standards Coordinator

Homecoming Committee Chair:

- ♦ Oversees, plans and implements all student Homecoming events and publicity.
- ♦ The chair may choose to work with the staff advisor and president to delegate tasks among committee members as he/she sees fit and may designate members as sub-committee chairs:
 - Wear Red Get Fed
 - Publicity
 - Parade
 - Pack Howl
 - Kick-off
 - Service
 - Spirit-traditionally lead by the current Leaders of the Pack whom, if not already members of the AASAP, will be invited to serve as ex-officio members.

Section 2. Each Committee Director shall be responsible for attending meetings of the Executive Committee as needed to report on the status of their specific projects.

E. Officer Appointments

Section 1. The officers shall be chosen by the advisor and the President from the Alumni Association Student Ambassador Program and will assume the duties of office in April.

Section 2. If the President leaves office, the Vice President shall automatically move to President, and the program advisor shall choose a new Vice President.

F. Amendments to the By-Laws

Section 1. The powers to alter, amend, or repeal these By-Laws or to adopt new By-Laws shall be vested in the Alumni Association. All modifications may be made or approved by the advisor or the president.