

Article 1 Name

The organization shall be known as the Technology Investment Club.

Article 2 Purpose

The purpose of the Technology Investment Club is to provide knowledge of any and all new technologies in specific regards to current and future applications. The two main goals of this organization are to create valuable members on the verge of the new technology of today and their counterparts. The second goal is to assist the current importance of current and future technologies within the technology market.

Article 3 Membership

Section 1 Eligibility

Membership shall be open to all currently enrolled students who are interested in the field of technology.

Section 2 Activities

If specific activities require work, more than one, for example, members may be required to complete applications, attend meetings, job fairs, visits to specific technical fields, classes within major fields of study, etc.

Section 3 Classes/Types of membership

Active members: These members are the currently involved in the organization, as well have been involved at a previous time.

Guest members: These members have attended at least one meeting or event, and are pending invitation into the organization.

Alumni: These were once members of the Student Investment Club and have graduated the university, and are encouraged to still attend meetings in the future to share their knowledge of real world finance.

Section 4 Non-discrimination

This club is open to any student interested in joining, we will not discriminate against any student due to race, creed, color, national origin, gender, age, religion, marital status, sexual orientation, or handicap.

Article 4 Officers

Section 1 Executive Council

The executive branch is composed of four members including the president, vice president, treasurer, and writer.

Section 2: Further Description of Offices and Chairs

President: In charge of leading other within the organization, has ultimate control over decisions, meets by members of the organization with a three fourths majority vote for chairs and officers.

Vice President: Responsible for making sure the other chairs and committees are fulfilling their jobs, as well as being the president's backup in the organization.

Treasurer: Responsible for setting up and organizing event events, handling transactions, accounts required by members of the organization, and meeting in front of expenses if any awarded to the members.

Writer: Responsible for logging all important information during the meeting via meeting, and creating the minutes to the minutes in charge of maintaining the web site.

Section 3: Term of office

All office positions will last one full semester, the length the term of office is one or full year to increase the organization and make its elected officers are more chances to increase their ability of learning.

Section 4: Candidates and elections

If officers are elected, include a sentence stating that they are elected.

Paragraph 1: Eligibility

Describe specific office eligibility here. SST's Constitution requires that officers must be currently enrolled students. Other criteria may include a certain amount GPA, previously serving the organization in another capacity, etc.

Paragraph 2: Nominations procedures

Candidates will be nominated by any member of the organization.

Paragraph 3: Election procedures

Each member considered for a position will receive a short report on who they should be chosen for such a position. The organization shall use their votes electronically through a secure Web 2.0-type website of the organization. No at the vote has changed the vote position. In the occurrence of a tie, the president will apply to all members attending that that there will be another vote for the two positions.

Section 4. Officers

Officers are general statements regarding office positions.

Paragraph 1. Requirements

If an officer can no longer fulfill his or her responsibilities they can be required to resign a voting system to their members to take on their responsibilities.

Paragraph 2. Removal

Officers will be held liable if performing deficiencies and be given a maximum of two weeks to take corrective measures.

Paragraph 3. Filing vacancies

After vacancies occur, the president of the executive council may require appointments or they may be elected by the executive council or the general membership.

Article 5. Committees

All committees will be chosen by general election and only existing to help the organization succeed in their end goals.

Public Management: Responsible for gathering the website when gathered information from the members of the organization.

Professional Development: Responsible for attending guest speakers at school the meetings.

Event Staff: Responsible for attending and organizing events from the organization.

Article 6. Advisors

An advisor is not required to have a functioning organization licensed to a university sanctioned to allow any, it is the clubs responsibility to determine to what an advisor is available, and how their advisor membership will be.

Article 5, Rules of procedure

Rules and regulations, according to the constitution of organization, is subject to be changed here.

Section 1: Meetings

Meetings should usually occur once a week, and will be posted on the website.

Section 2: Attendance

Attendance is optional for the general members, because it is of almost impossible that the members would be at all meetings, and are willing to attend all meetings when attending their job or in respective class.

Section 3: Minutes

Minutes will be recorded by the club.

Section 4: Parliamentary

Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised

Article 6, Amendments

Amendments to the constitution or by laws shall be proposed by members of the club in writing and read at a regular meeting and shall not be voted upon until the next regular meeting, and then only after referring each member of the proposed amendments, a majority of 2/3 of the members present and voting shall be required.