

U.S. and International Student Organization

Constitution

Article I Name and Purpose

- Section 1 This organization shall be known as the U.S. and International Student Organization.
- Section 2 The purpose of this club will be to bring together international and U.S. students to participate in social and cultural events, fundraising, and community outreach and service.

Article II Membership

- Section 1 Membership shall be open to all regularly enrolled students who are interested in attending social, fundraising, and outreach events held by the club.
- Section 2 All members shall:
 - A. Agree to abide by this Constitution and the University rules which apply to campus organizations
 - B. Complete a registration form including name, telephone number, e-mail address, major, and willingness to volunteer with the OISSS office.

Article III Dues

- Section 1 Dues will not be taken by the club however each member will be asked to volunteer three hours a year in the Office of International Scholar and Student Services. However, membership is not contingent upon the member's ability to volunteer.

Article IV Officers

- Section 1 The elective officers for this club shall be president, secretary, treasurer, social organizer, and advertising manager.
- Section 2 The officers shall be elected by the club members to serve a term of one year, at the beginning of the fall semester.
- Section 3 An honorary guest president from another registered campus club will be asked to work with the elective officers for a period of two weeks. The guest president will be expected to encourage participation between the two clubs.

Article V

Amending the Constitution and By-Laws

Section 1

Amendments to the Constitution or by-laws shall be presented by members of the club in writing and read at a regular meeting but shall not be voted upon until the next regular meeting, and then only after informing each member for the proposed amendments. A majority of 2/3 for the members present and voting shall be required.

Article VI

Meetings

Section 1

The club shall meet as determined by the club membership each semester.