III. 4-H CLUB WORK

III. The 4-H Club work in Craven County is carried on by the Home Agent and the Assistant Farm Agent through the schools. In 1941 there were 10 junior and 1 senior 4-H Clubs, and 2 Service Clubs, composed of older boys and girls. The 4-H Clubs met once each month for 15 minutes in the schools from September to May. The Service Clubs met once each month at night.

The 4-H Club members are required to carry a health project during the year, and at least one other project. Clothing was the major project for the girls in 1941.

The Spring Federation Meeting of the 4-H and Home Demonstration Clubs is held jointly. At this time the County King and Queen of Health are crowned and project work is displayed.

A joint camp is held at Neuse Forest for club members from Craven and Pamlico Counties.

26 members attended the 12th District Meeting of the Federation of 4-H Clubs at Atlantic Beach in June.

Two boys and one girl represented Craven County at 4-H Short Course in Raleigh where Archie White of Cove City, was selected State 4-H King.

IV. Organization

1. 10 junior 4-H clubs; 148 girls enrolled
1 senior 4-H Club; 18 girls enrolled
2. 2 Service clubs; 22 girls enrolled
3. The 13 clubs in the county form the County Federation of 4-H Clubs. One meeting was held during the year.
4. The Service Clubs met once a month during the year. The programs for the year were: Outlook for 1941, a Quiz Program on happenings in the State, Health, Our First Line of Defense, High Lights of North Carolina, and Recreation. Recreation is one of the main features of the Service Clubs, and games and contests are enjoyed at every meeting. In addition to the regular programs the clubs had a Christmas party, enjoyed a picnic given by the Lenoir County Service Club, and had an oyster roast to raise money for the State Health King's trip to Chicago. A box was sent to the Salvation Army at Christmas time.
5. Special 4-H Activities: The 4-H boys and girls assisted in collecting aluminum for defense.

The Cove City 4-H members have helped to beautify a spot along the highway in their town. Besides cleaning this place, they planted shrubbery and have done much to make their town more attractive.

4-H Sunday was observed by all the clubs. The boys and girls took part in the service by taking up collection, reading the Scripture, singing in the choir. Special services were held by two of the ministers.

V. Monthly Programs as Executed.

1. Joint Programs
- Joint programs were given during the year. The boys and girls have tried hard to have good programs at their Club meetings, and the programs are improving. Christmas Decorations and Gifts were demonstrated in December. Two programs on Health and one on "The meaning of the 4-H's" were given.

2. Project Programs

The demonstrations in the projects were given by the Agent at the meetings with the girls, and individual help was also given. Demonstrations in commercial patterns, laundry bags, making a slip, sewing equipment, food and feed, were given.

The project work was displayed and judged at the local meetings and at the Spring Federation meeting.

VI PROJECTS

1. Clothing

139 girls enrolled; 101 completed - 403 articles made.

Clothing was the major project during 1941 and although the girls were very young they did some excellent work. A pajama and apron revue was given at the Spring Federation meeting and 97 articles were shown. Those which were judged the best were given blue ribbons.

Five girls entered the Dress Revue which was held at the County Council meeting in September. Clell Heath of Cove City was winner in the County, but was too young to enter the State Revue, and the second place winner - Mohn Dixon of Epworth - represented the county at the State Revue. Mohn was also County Clothing Records winner. Two other girls in the County Contest attended the State Revue and returned enthusiastic and determined to try for county honors next year.

Mohn made 4 dresses, 4 slips, 1 pair of pajamas, 1 housecoat, 1 short and 2 brassiers during the year at a total cost of $12.31. The cost of other clothes added to the wardrobe during the year was $23.19.

2. FOODS AND NUTRITION

2 enrolled
2 completing

Two of the girls who had carried Foods and Nutrition as a project in the past continued this project. Individual help was given by the agent, and one of the girls completed the dinner unit and one the supper unit.

The records of Marie Buttry of Vanceboro were entered in the State Contest.

3. FOOD PRESERVATION

36 girls enrolled
12 completing
1182 quarts canned by girls
5386 quarts canned by girls assisted by others

Most of the girls help their mothers can during the summer, and in previous years group canning meetings have been held. Due to the full schedule of the agent this year, the club girls were asked to meet with the adults for their group canning.

Lucy Lancaster of Spworth did the most individual canning during the summer. She canned 38 quarts of fruits and vegetables and eight quarts of preserves by herself. Her mother bought a pressure cooker this year and Lucy helped her mother can 35 quart in this. Her records were entered in the State Contest.

Clell Heath of Cove City did a great deal of canning for her mother while she was at Farm and Home Week. Two of her jars were sent to the State Fair and they were placed in the red ribbon group.

4. ROOM IMPROVEMENT

5 girls enrolled
4 girls completing

Although there were only five girls who took Room Improvement for a project eight other girls made improvements in their rooms. Demonstrations in this subject were given at the Senior 4-H Club meetings; they were on care and cleaning of the room, color in the room, floor finishes, and arrangement.

Ada Whitford of Vanceboro probably made the most improvements in her room during the year. Ada made a dressing table, curtains, bed spread, sheets and pillow cases, and painted her bed, chairs and table at a total cost of $4.80. She says that her room is much more conveniently arranged and much more attractive and was really worth the effort and money to have the improvements that she has made. She takes care of her room herself.

VII LEADERS

There were eight 4-H Club leaders. The information was given to them by individual visits and through the mail. These leaders assisted the girls with their projects, with 4-H Sunday and other programs, and with the Spring Federation meeting.

VIII HEALTH PROGRAM

Club members were weighed and measured during January and health record books were distributed. The dentist was at several of the schools at the same time.

In April the 4-H Clubs held their regular meetings, at which time the kings and queens of Health were crowned. A playlet on Health was given at each of the clubs. Jasper Club was selected to give this play at the Spring Federation Meeting.

A County Health Contest was held in the office of the County Health Department, and it was gratifying to note that many of the boys and girls had improved the condition of their teeth, finger nails, and other minor faults since the first examination.

Representatives from Carteret, Craven, Hones, Onslow, Pamlico, Lenoir, Wayne, and Duplin Counties were examined in New Bern for the District Health Contest.

Archie White from Cove City scored highest in New Bern and was winner in the South-eastern District Contest in Wilmington. He and Marjorie Gibson of Hoke County were crowned King and Queen of Health at the District Meeting at Atlantic Beach; and they competed for State honors at 4-H Short Course where Archie was crowned State Health King with a score of 99.7. This score showed a gain of several points over his last year's standing. We are all proud of Archie, and are making every effort to send him to the National Contest in Chicago.

Archie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. White of Cove City, and is the third in the family to attain health honors. Three of the boys have been champions in the County Health Contest, two have been District champions, Archie holding this place for two consecutive years, and now he has achieved State championship.

The Spring Federation Meeting of the 4-H Clubs was held with the Home Demonstration Clubs on May 10 at the New Bern Armory.

A short program was presented by the 4-H Club members with F.M. Cox, Assistant County Agent, narrating. The girls showed aprons and pajamas which they had made. Ruth Powell of the Bridgeton Club said a poem she had composed for a contest. Ten girls entered this contest and Ruth was awarded a trip to Camp for having the best. A playlet, "Garden Sass", was given by the Jasper Club. Archie White and Gailya Hawkins were crowned County King and Queen of Health for the second year. Kings and Queens from the various Clubs acted as attendants in the Health Court. Miss Frances MacGregor, Assistant State Club Leader, gave a very inspirational talk. After the program refreshments were served.

XI HONORS WON

Archie White of Cove City won the greatest honor for the County, that of State Health King (see Health). The people in the County were so thrilled over this honor that they have done much to show their enthusiasm.

The Cove City Service Club honored Archie with an Oyster Supper and from this raised $11.00 to help defray his expenses to National Contest.

The District Service Club banquet was in honor of him, and programs depicting health were made. $25.00 of the money cleared from this banquet was given for his trip.

The County Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs felt that they would like to have a part in this honor, and so they planned to have their Achievement Day in the form of a Carnival to raise money for the trip. $16.00 was raised in this way.

Nobody is prouder of Archie than his family. Mrs. White says that being State Health Champion has meant so much to her son that he is making a special effort to improve his grades at school and his appearance, because he feels that he must live up to the honor that has been awarded him.

Clell Heath of the Cove City Club entered fruit and vegetables in the State Fair and won a red ribbon and $1.00.

XII 4-H CAMP

Despite the fact that the date for the annual 4-H Club camp had to be changed three times, because the buildings at Neuse Forest were leased, 26 club members from Craven and 14 from Pamlico enjoyed the 4 days' camp.

Classes in Handicraft and First Aid were taught. Evening programs consisted of "Vesper Service", "Trees", "The American Flag", and a moving picture entitled "North Carolina - Variety Vacation Land". Short plays were given by the Groups at the conclusion of the Camp.

XIII STATE SHORT COURSE

Craven County was represented by 2 boys and 1 girl at State Short Course. All three of these had attended Short Course before, and were most enthusiastic about the meeting.

XIV DISTRICT SERVICE CLUB BANQUET

The Cove City Home Demonstration Club women served the annual District Banquet for Service Club members from Carteret, Craven, Jones, Lenoir, Onslow and Pamlico counties. Although many of the boys have been called to National service there were about 100 present. Virginia Stanton, District President, acted as toastmistress. Guests were welcomed by Eula White of Craven County, a Lenoir County member responding. Instead of the regular county reports the Club secretaries told what the Service Club members could do for National Defense. Recreation was enjoyed after the banquet.

$25.00 of the money cleared from the banquet by the Home Demonstration Club was given to help pay Archie White, State Health King's way to the National 4-H Health Contest at Chicago. The banquet was in his honor, and decorations and program motive were based on Health.

ACHIEVEMENT DAY STAGED TUESDAY BY CLUB WOMEN

Annual Event Held at Brinson Memorial With Farmers As Guests

With all but three of the seventeen Home Demonstration clubs in the county well represented and men of the farm homes as their special guests, the annual Achievement Day of the Craven County Federation of Home Demonstration clubs was held at the Brinson Memorial school late Tuesday afternoon. A program was followed by a supper, and by games and recreational features.

The Jasper club, with an attendance of 18 persons, was the winner of the attendance gavel this year. For the first time all the members of the families present were counted in determining the largest attendance. A prize for the best exhibit went to the Jasper club; that club showing in miniature a complete home beautification project. Tuscarora won the second prize for an exhibit of plant propagation methods. The Neuse River and the Epworth clubs showed miniature home grounds and the placing of walks and drives, and the Bellair club had an exhibit showing a home before and after it had been beautified. Miss Bettie Cooper Davis, Pamlico county home agent, served as judge.

New officers of the County Council and of the Home Demonstration clubs represented were installed by Miss Jessie Trowbridge, Craven county home agent. Mrs. Herbert Beaman of Jasper succeeds Mrs. M. B. Simpkins of Jasper as president of the County Council. Mrs. Arthur Whitford of Askins was installed as vice president; Mrs. W. H. Heath of Cove City, secretary, and Mrs. B. L. Cash prizes were awarded the Jasper and Tuscarora clubs for their home beautification exhibits. Awards of merit in home beautification went to Mrs. Herbert Beaman of Jasper; Mrs. W. J. Cox, Jasper; Mrs. W. J. Wynne, Havelock; Mrs. J. R. Piner, Havelock; Mrs. M. F. Aldridge, Epworth; Mrs. Donald Witherington, Vanceboro; Miss Martha Whitley, Jasper; Mrs. Larry B. Pate, Bellair; Mrs. Larry M. French, Jasper; Mrs. I. L. Heath, Cove City; and Mrs. F. L. Hooker, Rhem. Several others are eligible, but had failed to send in their applications, said the report. Certificates for reading went to Mrs. M. B. Simpkins, Jasper; Mrs. Herbert Beaman, Jasper, and Miss Martha Whitley, Jasper.

Mrs. J. T. Ispock presided over the program, welcoming those in attendance and especially the men from the farm homes. Achievement, (Continued On Page Three) she said, means the summit after the climb; but she added that the greatest happiness for the club women came along the way as Achievement Day was made possible. She bespoke the thankfulness of the club women that America had been spared war and remained a land of freedom and plenty. She told the gathering that Mrs. Estelle T. Smith, district home agent, was prevented from attending by a fall which fractured a vertebra. And she expressed the thanks of the farm women to the county farm and home agents for their help during the past year.

The response came from T. A. Windley, past president of the Farmers' club. Following the gathering ordered its greetings sent to Mrs. Smith. W. C. Barfield sang "I Am An American," and, as an encore, "Come Ye Thankful People." He was accompanied by Miss Mary Gray Moore.

There followed a panel discussion of the club work in Craven county led by Mrs. Simpkins and Mrs. Bowman, retiring and incoming presidents of the County Council. The discussion brought out the fact that there have been 475 members in the 17 Home Demonstration clubs of the county; 51 of them having joined the clubs since the first of last January. It was emphasized, however, that but 125 of the club women had made their reports of work accomplished and that the reports of accomplishment which followed reflected only that which had been reported.

Mrs. Larry B. Felt of Bellair reported on the home beautification work in the county as reflected in the reports. There are, she said, 25 demonstration homes in the county this year which marks the end of two years in which home beautification has been the county's major project. She urged the work be continued, and said the women were coming back to the project later. Mrs. George West of Dover reported on foods work; Mrs. E. L. Beeton of Bachelor, canning; Mrs. R. C. Springale of Neuse River, house furnishings and home management; Mrs. J. C. Hook of Bellair, sewing; Miss Mamie Russell Miller of Askin, 4-H club leader, arts and craft and club work, and Mrs. J. I. Watson of Neuse Roads, poultry. For the men, T. J. Wethering, of Jasper told of blue mold control.

Discussing plans for the Home Demonstration club members for the coming year, Miss Trowbridge stressed first of all a closer course with the business men of New Bern for the purpose of discussing mutual problems and especially marketing. She asked for a higher percentage of leader reports; for greater club membership and more active members; for greater attendance at Farm and Home week. She spoke of the need of better balanced meals which, she said, means more home-produced foods including more wheat. She set the goal at 300 women in food conservation work. Goal in clothing, the county's major project, have been set high, she said. She asked that 500 homes be reached by the better bedding program which includes the making of mattresses. Home gardens, poultry flocks and other needs were emphasized.

County Agent L. G. Matthis told the gathering that there was a possibility that this section might be faced with a big tobacco problem this year. The government, he said, has the past two crops on hand, and if England should not be able to take them a crisis would develop. It is hard, he continued, to find a supplement for tobacco. Livestock has been tried and prices are low, he said; but he added that the farmer who is able to sell hogs even at a low price next spring and pay cash for his farm needs may effect a good saving. He mentioned the fact that Craven county farmers have been supplied with 70,000 pounds of Austrian winter peas, 4,500 pounds of vetch and 2,000 pounds of rye grass seed this year. He spoke of efforts to raise work stock at home, and of the need for producing small grains.

Paul M. Cox, assistant county agent, said the doing of 4-H club work was a privilege, and he paid tribute to Miss Mamie R. Miller and her work as a club leader. He spoke of the progress made by the 4-H club members towards self-education, but he insisted that the project work of the boys and girls must have the backing of their parents. He spoke of the service clubs and their work, and of work which had just come from Dover asking that a new Service club be organized there.

Mrs. W. E. Moore, a past president of the County Federation of Home Demonstration clubs, made the announcement of the awards. Checks were introduced, including Miss Sattie Cooper Davis, Pamlico home agent, and Miss Hattie Pearl Mallard, Duplin county home agent. Miss Mallard took charge of the recreational program which followed the supper. In the installation of the new officers by Miss Trowbridge, new officers were called upon to light candles for the coming year from four lighted candles signifying character, courage, culture and citizenship.

CLUB WOMEN OF COUNTY SELECT MAJOR PROJECT

Clothing to Engage Clubs With Some Emphasis On Home Beautification

After two years in which the Home Demonstration club women have held home beautification as their major project, clothing has been made the major project for the coming year. The home beautification work will be carried forward also, however, and the workers have expressed a desire to again stress it in the future.

That which has been accomplished during the past year in beautifying and improving the homes of the county may be found, at least in part, in the annual report of Miss Jessie Trowbridge, county home demonstration agent. The report, recently completed, says that 8 homes were built; 94 homes were remodeled, repaired or painted; 9 sewage systems were installed; 2 heating systems were installed. But 304 yards were improved. But the work was not confined to home beautification, and 330 families in Craven county had year-round gardens, 293 families had poultry flocks, 205 families had cows, 7,248 articles of clothing were made, 110,296 quarts of fruits and vegetables valued at $16,544.79 were canned, and 194,682 pounds of meat were cured.

Those home beautification statistics do not express the full scope of the home beautification work. Residents of the county to the number of 230 followed recommendations for the use of fertilizer; 204 recommendations for insect control; 192 recommendations for disease control; 194 recommendations for the planting of shrubbery and trees; 93 recommendations for the treatment of walks, drives and fences; and 182 improved the appearance of the exterior of their homes and outbuildings.

The year's work included three schools for home beautification leaders, for most of the work and recommendations are passed on to the membership of the home demonstration clubs through leaders who are trained by state specialists in cooperation with the home demonstration agent. In February the leaders studied care and fertilization of plants and pruning. The second school dealt with insects and diseases of the home garden, and the third afforded opportunity for a general review. Some of the lessons were presented to the New Bern Woman's club by Miss Trowbridge.

In 1930 the club women had selected sixteen homes and one club house as demonstrations of the improvements which can be made. That work was carried on again during the year just ending, but ten homes, the New Bern city hall, the Jasper school and the Vanceboro library were added. The year included the observance of better Homes week, and there was a flower show at the spring federation meeting in May.

Home demonstration club members who participated in the home beautification work were enthusiastic. A number have submitted reports showing much accomplishment at little cost. Plants were propagated. Native shrubs were used, supplemented by a few purchased shrubs. Homes were underpinned. Some painting was done. Better Homes week added materially to the work done.

In the foods and nutrition work during the past year, 13 club members budgeted their food expenditures for the year; 102 followed food buying recommendations; 122 planned and served meals according to the daily food essentials sheet; 108 followed recommendations for home-packed lunches; 96 followed recommendations for child feeding; and 96 followed recommendations for corrective feeding in controlling weight, anemia, pellagra and constipation.

In food conservation 103 produced and preserved home food supplies according to the food budget; 746 families were assisted in canning; 30,374 quarts of food were canned, and there were 4,594 added containers of jam, jelly and other products; 93 followed recommendations for the storage of the home food supply; 50 made a canning budget and 29 met the requirements of their budgets; 18 bare pressure canners and four new ones were bought during the year; ten cans in 116; 194,682 pounds of meat were cured and 67 pounds of fruits and vegetables were dried.

The major project next year, clothing work interested many during the past year. Club women who followed recommendations in the making of clothing numbered 231; whose 183 followed recommendations in the selection of clothing; 12 kept clothing accounts; 183 followed clothing-buying recommendations; dresses made numbered 3,900; coats 24; undergarments 1,328; hats 15; children's garments 2,130; other garments 845.

In home management 87 kitchens were improved; 108 families made soap; 43 women followed a recommended schedule for home activities; and 8 women kept home accounts. House furnishing work saw 135 club members improve the selection of household furniture; 144 improve methods of repairing, remodeling or refurnishing furniture; 108 improve the treatment of windows; 141 improve the arrangement of rooms; 119 improve the treatment of walls, woodwork and floors; and 132 improve the appearance of rooms through color and design.

has been given much attention, and 288 mattresses were completed by November 25. The first of December saw a total of 982 applications for mattresses, of which 403 had been approved. Of 429 gardens had by club members, 239 were year-round gardens. Dairying is an activity which is slowly developing in Craven county. During the past year 293 club women had cows; 190 reported they had made butter in the estimated amount of 16,209 pounds; 19 women reported they had made cheese, and 15 reported they had sold $1,283.80 worth of milk and milk products.

In poultry work 90 club members followed the organized improved breeding plan; 162 followed recommendations in purchasing baby chicks; 125 followed recommendations in chick raising; 153 recommendations in feeding flocks; 132 recommendations for disease and parasite control; 75 improved their poultry house equipment according to recommendations; 51 followed recommendations in marketing their poultry and eggs; 43 used economic information as a guide in commercial poultry production. Sixty is the average number of chickens in a Craven county flock and there are 390 flocks among club members. Club members who had a year-round supply of poultry and eggs for family use numbered 263.

The child development project saw 221 club women improve the habits of children during the year; 106 practice positive methods of discipline instead of negative ones; 90 provided recommended play equipment for children; 33 followed recommendations regarding furnishings adapted to children; 39 participated in child development and parent-education program; 91 children participated in the parent education program; 162 club women guide the reading to their children; 19 subscribe to a magazine on child development; 231 taught their children to dress themselves, and 222 taught their children to put away toys and books.

Community activities are another chapter in the home demonstration work in the county, and there is the 4-H club work. There are six home demonstration club buildings in the county and four club rooms. Community activities center about those clubs. During the year there were 10 junior and 4 senior 4-H clubs in the county and 2 strvice clubs. The total enrollment of boys and girls was 291.

PARTIES FEATURE CLUB WORK DURING THE PAST MONTH

Miss Trowbridge Reports on December Activities As Home Agent

Christmas parties were a feature of the home demonstration club work during the month of December, and there were more of them than ever before, says the monthly report of Miss Jessie Trowbridge, Craven county home demonstration agent. The entire communities were invited to the parties. At some of them the home agent demonstrated the making of Christmas decorations in the home, but the recreation leaders provided the main feature for the programs.

The Bellair and Clark club had a joint covered-dish supper which 46 persons attended. The Cove City club entertained the Jasper club with a party and there were about 60 persons present. Last year the Jasper club was host to the Cove City group. Croatan had a covered-dish supper. Dover had a party which 46 persons attended. Epworth and Tuscarora had an oyster supper. Tuscarora had the largest community gathering ever held there when some 75 persons enjoyed it greatly.

Forrest and Havelock clubs had Christmas trees. Mile Oak, Rhems and Vanceboro had recreational meetings. The Neuse River club had thirty members at its meeting. Neuse Road and Jasper had their regular club meetings. Some of those in attendance at the December gatherings, it is said, had not attended a meeting during the year.

The County Council met in December at the New Bern Woman's club building. The women expressed their gratitude to the county commissioners for making it possible for them to have a place for their council meetings during the year.

In addition to the Christmas meetings of the home demonstration clubs, fourteen 4-H clubs met for Christmas programs. The making of Christmas decorations and gifts was demonstrated. And the Jasper Service club held a Christmas party and a box of gifts was sent to the Salvation Army by the Jasper group. Twenty-four boys and girls of the Dover community met to plan the forming of a service club. A brief discussion of the work took place and those present planned to perfect an organization in January.

COUNTY CLUB WORK IS FEATURED DURING MONTH IN CRAVEN

Miss Trowbridge, Home Agent, Submits May Report to Commissioners

The spring federation meeting of the 4-H clubs and the Home Demonstration clubs of the county was the feature of the work under the direction of the home demonstration agent in the county in May, says the monthly report of Miss Jessie Trowbridge, home agent. The federation meeting was held on May 10. There were 125 entries in the flower show held in connection with the federation meeting, and the Bellair-Spring Garden Home Demonstration club won the cash prize which went with the most blue ribbons awarded to club members. The Cove City club won the attendance gavel.

There was a short program by the 4-H clubmembers, with P. M. Cox, assistant county farm agent, assisting Miss Trowbridge. Ruth Powell of the Bridgeton club was awarded a trip to camp for having the best poem. The Jasper club gave a short playlet, "Garden Sas." Archie White and Gailya Hawkins were crowned county king and queen of health. There was a talk by Miss Frances MacGregor, assistant state club leader.

During May the seventeen Home Demonstration clubs studied foundation garments, poultry notes, garden notes and better speech. The county Council of Agricultural Agencies met twice, and 1,050 cards pledging cooperation with the live-at-home program have been received. A council for the curb market building was organized and the city and council have promised their aid in constructing a suitable building.

Mattress and comfort centers are now located at Neuse Forest, Cove City, Dover, Jasper and Bachelor, says Miss Trowbridge. Mattresses made number 1,733, and comforters 206. Efforts are being made to complete the mattress and comfort work before the farm busy season.

Attention was given during the month to mapping the county for a land use program; to wiring for electric service, and to the cotton stamp program. The home agent judged flower shows in Jones, Onslow and Pamlico counties.

LEADERS MOBILIZE FOR DEFENSE WORK IN CRAVEN COUNTY

Meeting Here Thursday Morning Is Addressed By Extension Leaders

BLAND PRESIDES AT COURTHOUSE SESSION

Gathering Similar to Others of Section; Purpose Explained by Matthis

Mobilized for defense work, civic and community leaders gathered at the court house here Thursday morning were asked to take over added duties in stressing the Federal farm and live at home program. R. H. Bland, chairman of the Craven county Agricultural Adjustment administration committee, presided over the meeting and the gathering heard D. T. House, State AAA committeeman; Miss Julia Melver, of the home demonstration department at State college; L. F. Watson, extension horticulturist with the State extension service, and a number of the local leaders.

Similar meetings are being held in adjoining counties, and Mr. Watson summed up the morning meeting with the declaration that the slowness in acting for which democracies are criticized may be overcome when all are familiarized with the situation and the needs. He had insisted that what is called "surpluses" of agricultural and other products in the United States may be largely due to under-consumption.

At the meeting, County

Miss Melver emphasized garden practices and nutrition needs. She presented a chart showing the needs of the individual. While some of the state's 4-H clubs are knitting and some of the home demonstration clubs are sewing for European relief needs, she said, there are such other things as the caring for nutrition needs at home which farm people can do in the defense program. She spoke of the cotton stamp plan, and of the need of canning and fresh foods budgets. "The main thing we can do in the defense program," she said, "is to protect health."

told the gathering of plans for the using of more cotton in the home demonstration club women's major clothing project this year. She spoke of the use of food charts; of the lack of milk in the county. Most families have gardens, she said, but there is need that they be operated a greater portion of the year. There is not a sufficient variety of meat, but about enough of the kind's most common, she said, and the poultry supply is fairly good in Craven county.

F. H. Bailey and Mrs. Mildred B. Joyner represented the Farm Security administration. The former said that program in this county was being made about 75 per cent education, and that cows, permanent pastures and fruit trees were being insisted upon. Mrs. Joyner spoke of the progress with gardens, poultry and in the keeping of records. T. L. King, Dover vocational agricultural instructor, spoke of the new defense training which is being offered, and B. L. Hodnett, agriculture instructor at Jasper, told of variety tests which showed 130 different varieties of different species of vegetables possible in this section. He spoke of the encouragement of gardens.

Ottis Evans, negro agricultural agent, spoke of emphasis on living at home on the farm, and Marietta Mears, negro home demonstration agent, spoke of efforts to better living conditions.

Mr. Watson's summary divided the problems into both consumption and distribution, and urged that distribution keep ahead of production. In its various programs, he said, the government is endeavoring to "burn both ends of the candle" in evening up consumption with production. The mattress and the cotton stamp programs were given as examples. He spoke of nutritional needs as evidenced by the army rejections. And he urged that the program so operate as to get stuff produced into the hands of the people who need it.

The speaker commented upon the needs in Europe and the expectation of nations there that the United States would give to supply the need. He insisted, however, that the better plan would be to take care of the needs at home first.

FOOD FOR FREEDOM DRIVE BE LAUNCHED HERE ON TUESDAY

Members of U. S. D. A. Defense Boards of Ten Counties to Gather

Moving swiftly to gear North Carolina's agricultural resources for an all-out "Food for Freedom" drive to attain production goals suggested by Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard, members of county United States Department of Agriculture defense boards of ten counties will meet Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the city hall here to consider plans for launching the program in this area. Plans for the Tuesday meeting were almost completed Monday morning.

Between now and December 1, every farmer in North Carolina will be given an opportunity to enroll in the greatest national food production program in the history of the nation, says R. H. Bland, chairman of the Craven County U. S. D. A. defense board, who has made the arrangements for the New Bern meeting. David T. House, representative of the state AAA, will preside at the meeting.

State production goals of designated foods, including milk, eggs, pork and others are being broken down into county goals, which in turn will be adjusted to the various communities and individual farms. A farm survey will be made later by AAA commissioners to acquaint each farmer with the program and to assist him in making out a farm production plan for 1942.

Counties to be represented at Tuesday's meeting include Wayne, Lenoir, Curritow, Pamlico, Beaufort, Greene, Jones, Craven, Hyde and Pitt. Needs and objectives of the program will be explained to county U. S. D. A. defense board members by James L. Nicholson, AAA; E. Troy Ferguson, extension service; Miss Pauline Smith, extension service; E. H. Meekins, vocational agriculture; H. D. McLawhorn, Farm Security administration, and Miss Mary E. Johnston, Farm Security administration.

The meeting reflects the mobilization of state and county staffs of agencies of the United States Department of Agriculture to assist producers in adjusting farm production to domestic needs for national defense and to the needs of Britain and other nations relying on agriculture.

"For the first time in the history of agriculture in this country production goals for essential farm commodities have been established," it has been pointed out by Secre-

EGG AND POULTRY MARKET FOR CITY BEING CONSIDERED

This and Other Farm Problems Discussed by County Agricultural Workers

Possibilities of the establishment of a poultry and egg market in New Bern; of the holding of community meetings for a discussion of farm problems throughout the county; and for the reestablishment of the regular meetings of the Craven County Farmers club were discussed Thursday night at a meeting of the Craven County Agricultural Workers council. The meeting held in the farm office in the Federal building, was presided over by County Agent L. O. Matthis.

Thomas Duboise, agricultural teacher at the Farm Life school at Yaxohoro, reported that the grading of eggs in Washington, N. C., had been discontinued because of a lack of volume, but that efforts were being made to build up the volume. J. W. Burton, secretary-treasurer of the Farm Loan association, here, said that the poultry and egg market in Kinston had been a success though the marketing of other produce had not. It was pointed out that a local poultry and egg market might serve five counties, and that it might count on three or more outlets for the produce bought. Mr. Matthis and state specialists saw a possibility of profit in egg production.

Something over $500 has been raised for the building of a shelter for the curb market, said the county agent. It is believed that at least $200 is needed now before there is much assurance of securing a serviceable building. The city and county have promised $300 each.

Craven county's goals in the national "Food for Freedom" campaign were discussed, Mr. Matthis reporting on the meeting of agricultural leaders held in New Bern earlier in the week. The goal is 100,000 eggs for thirty additional cows in the county. Approximately 100,000 eggs have been purchased.

County Agent L. O. Matthis, said it was indicated that an effort might be made to again hold regular meetings with some change in the plan for Farmers Club program.

COUNTY AGENTS TO AID IN COLLECTING SCRAP ALUMINUM

Office Here Designates Persons to Receive Donations At Various Points

Craven county's farm and home demonstration offices have been placed in charge of the effort to collect scrap and used aluminum throughout Craven county for use in the manufacture of airplanes and other items vital to the national defense. Residents at central points throughout the county have been designated to receive the aluminum in their communities and to take care of it until it can be collected on Monday, July 28. Those residents are also being asked to help in the campaign.

A letter has been addressed to residents throughout the county by Miss Jessie Trowbridge, county home demonstration agent; L. G. Matthis, county agent, and F. M. Cox, assistant county agent, calling attention to the campaign and asking the cooperation of all farm families. The contributions, it is being pointed out, will help protect citizens and the young men who are being sent to the army by the thousands. A well-armed army and navy, says the letter, means that a smaller number of Americans will be killed in case of action.

Quoting William S. Knudsen, director of the Federal office of production management, the letter says that the nation needs aluminum for planes and other vital items in its defense program more rapidly than existing facilities can produce it. Additional facilities are being constructed as quickly as possible. In the meantime, the people of the nation can help by disposing of all used aluminumware that can be spared from their households without being replaced. No individual or corporation will make any profit out of this transaction. The entire proceeds of the sale will be used for civilian defense. All aluminum will be used exclusively for national defense.

The week of July 21 has been set aside as National Defense Aluminum Collection week. The residents of the county are being asked to leave the aluminum at designated points on Thursday, July 24, if possible. If it cannot be delivered on that date, they are asked to make every effort to deliver it before Saturday, July 26, in order that it may be collected and brought to New Bern on Monday, July 28.

The following points and individuals have been designated to receive the aluminum throughout the county:

Askins—Mrs. I. W. Toler, Ernul route one.
 Bachelor—Mrs. R. R. King, Bachelor.
 Bellair—Mrs. Lena D. Tripp, New Bern route two.

ALUMINUM CANVASS TO BE HELD FRIDAY

Ten to twelve cars of members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce are to begin a house-to-house canvass of New Bern at about 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, July 25, for the collection of old and no longer used items of aluminum for the national defense, said W. F. Dowdy, Jr., president of the organization. Tuesday morning plans are now being completed for the canvass and for the gathering of the aluminum secured at a central point.

The local campaign is a part of a nation-wide effort to collect aluminum for defense purposes. The Junior Chamber of Commerce is participating in the work throughout the nation, says President Dowdy, but the organization will welcome the assistance of any other group doing like work and will cooperate with any other effort to collect aluminum scrap and items which are no longer useful in the homes.

Word which arrived Tuesday told members of the New Bern Junior Chamber that none of the aluminum collected would be used for any purpose other than national defense, and that the office of civilian defense would get the proceeds from the sale of all of the aluminum collected. New Bern housewives have been asked to leave the aluminum items on their front porches or at their front doors in order to facilitate the collection. It is expected that the thorough canvass of the city will be completed by 10 p. m. Friday.

MINUM GATHERED UP IN THE COUNTY

Good quantities of aluminum were collected throughout Craven county Monday by farm and home demonstration workers and brought to this city to be combined with contributions of New Bern housewives. Within the city a collection was made last Friday night by members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Residents of the county had been asked by farm and home demonstration workers to deliver their scrap and unused aluminum to central points in each community. Monday County Agent L. G. Matthis and Miss Jessie Trowbridge, county home demonstration agent, visited the communities and brought the contribution of the county homes to New Bern.

The accumulation of aluminum here was to be taken to Raleigh by state highway trucks for national defense use.

FOOD PROGRAM IS DISCUSSED DURING MEETING TUESDAY

State Agricultural Leaders
Meet Here in Ten-County
Conference

With marine planes from Camp Mitchell and those engaged in the eastern Carolina war games dropping overhead, state agricultural leaders and those from ten eastern Carolina counties gathered in the defense area here Tuesday morning to spend the day in a discussion of the Federal program of "Food for Freedom."

It was one of ten district meetings being held throughout the state. In addition to farm and home demonstration agents and the state leaders, there were representatives from the Farm Security administration, the Soil Conservation service, the Farm Credit administration, the Agricultural adjustment administration, and the vocational agriculture schools.

Emphasis was placed upon the need of the farms of eastern Carolina providing a greater portion of their food needs. Reference was especially to milk and dairy products and poultry and poultry products. In addition the food needs of England were stressed. A. C. Kimrey, dairy specialist, told the gathering that England wanted food for ten millions of people; or the equivalent of three states the size of North Carolina on relief, and that within the past year 100,000 more people had been brought to eastern North Carolina. The increased population in this section, he said, is equal to two cities the size of Raleigh, and the area wasn't producing enough milk for its own needs before the increase came.

David T. House, representative of the State Agricultural Adjustment Administration, presided over the meeting held in the city hall. He read a summary of conditions in Europe, referring to the food needs there. It has been found, he said, that Britain must have American food in order to win the war. It will take food, munitions and more food to win the war, he said, and he quoted an American as saying that, used to American diet, he was hungry all the time he was in England. The average citizen, Mr. House said, doesn't realize the shortage of food.

B. Troy Ferguson, of the State extension service, reviewed the accomplishments of the farm demonstration and home demonstration services during the first World War and compared conditions then with those of the present time. There are now, he said, some ten or twelve different organizations in the field working for the needed increased food production, but he added that people as a whole haven't yet come to the belief that the world is in such a chaotic condition as exists. Individuals back on the farm must realize that the program starts with them, he added.

Mr. Ferguson spoke of the gains in the knowledge of the production of livestock crops, but he added that the average person knows but little about feeding habits, before or after birth, and that people are perhaps the weakest spot in the whole system. He told his hearers that they had a fearful responsibility in carrying that knowledge to the people, and he spoke of the plan for making an inventory for every farm family and farm home.

Nutrition was also emphasized by Miss Mary Thomas of the extension department. Good food, and plenty of food all of the time is needed for the proper nutrition of American families, she said, and she ascribed much of what went by the name of laziness in the south to a lack of proper nutrition. She spoke of the findings of the draft boards in selecting men for service. Poor teeth have been found the greatest defect, and milk has much to do with good teeth, she told her hearers. She spoke of the need of milk and green vegetables for good eyesight.

Vegetables, fruits, eggs and milk can be easily produced on North Carolina farms, said Miss Thomas, and they will solve much of the nutritional deficiencies. Nutritional difficulties, she said are more often shown in farm food production or lack of farm production than in what is spent for food. She added that it was her understanding that North Carolina produces only about 50 per cent of the food it consumes. She stressed the need of more protective foods, and more year-round gardens. The best place for farm people to get their vitamins, she said, is on the farm, and the best place for city people to get theirs is the grocery store instead of the drugstore. The importance of better storage places and of better preparation of foods was stressed.

Hitler, said Miss Thomas, is using foods as a two-edged sword. He is taking foods that build up morale away from conquered peoples and giving them to his own people.

Mr. Kimrey expressed the hope that eastern North Carolina could go far beyond the 4 per cent increase in milk production asked of the state. England, he said, wants condensed foods such as cheese, condensed and powdered milk and butter. That is the reason, he added, that comparatively large increases are being asked of the dairy industry. Even though the supplies produced locally are used at home, he said, like amounts produced elsewhere will be released for export. Every family needs at least two cows, he said, and he spoke of the increased production possible through better housing, feed and care of the dairy stock. Six years before the beginning of the present war Germany stopped exporting dairy products to store them in condensed form, Mr. Kimrey told his hearers.

A. M. Maupin, state poultry specialist, spoke of the need of more chickens and eggs. People on the farms want to do something for America, he said, referring to the number of young men rejected for military service and to the older and younger people on the farm. Principal increases in food being asked, he said, are in dairy and poultry products. Eleven per cent increase in eggs, he pointed out, is being asked in the entire nation and the same percentage in North Carolina. He spoke of the possibility of securing the increase through more efficiency in poultry methods, and he said feeding was of first importance.

Additions to smaller farm flocks, the opportunity for new producers, and the possibility of using existing farm buildings were discussed by Mr. Maupin. A lot of money spent on buildings is not being recommended, he said. Production of hens and of turkeys for the market was described as "risky" and not being especially stressed for the beginner.

O. R. Middleton, State College horticulturist, spoke of the army's interest in fall and old in discussing the production of peanuts and soy beans. He advised growers to stay with the varieties now grown in the area, and he told his hearers that lighter-colored varieties of soy beans were favored.

GRAVEN FARMERS TO FACE SERIOUS LABOR SHORTAGE

County Agricultural Council Discusses Situation At Meeting Here

A serious shortage of farm labor throughout this section the coming year is foreseen by the members of the Craven County Council of Agricultural workers in session here Thursday evening. The council, presided over by County Agent L. G. Matthis, devoted its attention to the more permanent phases of the farm problems of this section, as well as those which have arisen as a result of defense developments.

C. A. Dees, of the New Bern office of the State Employment service was in attendance at the meeting. R. F. Allen, secretary-treasurer of the New Bern Production Credit association, told the gathering that farmers had been forced to cut their acreages and face labor problems this year as a result of the shortage of farm labor, and that some were questioning the advisability of attempting to produce a farm crop the coming year. He referred to the loss of young men to the army and of many workers to the construction of defense bases in this section.

Mr. Dees said the shortage of farm labor had been very serious this year and was likely to continue so during the coming year. He added, however, that the chief cause was the inability of the farmer to compete with other employers in the payment of wages. He was of the belief that if farmers got better returns for their products they would pay better wages; but, in view of the reduced selling price of most farm products, he saw little encouragement for the coming year.

COUNTY'S FARMERS SLOW TO TURN IN DEFENSE PLEDGES

Agricultural Workers Council Plans Ways to Speed Up the Program

Ways of urging Craven county farmers to turn in to the county farm agent cards of membership in the Governor's program sponsored "Food and Feed for Family Living" campaign were discussed at a meeting of the Agricultural Workers council at the City hall Monday night.

Over 3,000 of these membership cards have been mailed to farmers, asking them to participate in the campaign, which is a part of the state's National Defense effort, and only 400 have been returned to the county agent's office, it was reported.

Guy L. Matthis, president of the council, presided over the Monday night meeting and Mrs. Mildred R. Joyner acted in her capacity as secretary. There were 11 members of the council present.

It was decided that members of the National Farm Loan association, New Bern Production Credit association and the Farm Security administration would send out letters asking the farmers served by their organizations to return the cards pledging support to the campaign. Both white and negro Home Demonstration agents also agreed to send out letters urging return of the cards.

Stressing the importance of the campaign to produce as much food and feed as possible for home consumption to the National Defense effort, President Matthis promised to contact all preachers in the county and solicit their aid in asking farmers to return the cards.

The county agent expressed a fear of an eventual great surplus of farm labor should public works and other building programs lag later on. Others in attendance expressed a fear of the return of conditions of a few years ago when higher prices had resulted in farm surpluses, but the county agent was of the opinion that some control would be exercised over prices this year and that those conditions were less likely to be repeated.

Mr. Dees mentioned the possibility of labor camps next year as an important solution of the harvesting question. Efforts were made to establish camps this year in eastern Carolina, he said, but the start was late and there were other important tasks which conflicted. Camps have been promised for the harvesting of crops later next year, he said.

The importance of livestock and local opportunities for the production and sale of milk on the farm were stressed at the Thursday night meeting. Pastures and feed production entered into the discussion. Immediate prospects of greatly increased demands for milk for the defense bases were mentioned.

Attention was given to the campaign this week for the collection of scrap and unused aluminum throughout the county. Farm homes have been asked to leave the aluminum at designated points and it is to be collected by representatives of the farm and home demonstration offices here next Monday.

It was suggested that the agricultural agents make as many personal contacts as possible. Thomas Dubois, agricultural teacher at the Vanceboro Farm Life school, was asked to request operators of the Masonic theatre to urge farmers to return the cards from the moving picture screen.

Plans were made to ask the New Bern Merchants association to help urge the farmers to return the cards and it was planned to place cards in windows of stores throughout the county and several of the council members agreed to put "reminder" banners on their cars.

President Matthis pointed out that the "Food and Feed for Family Living" campaign was in no way connected with the Triple-A program, and that there was nothing binding about the campaign.

The council is scheduled to meet again on Thursday, May 29.

SPRING MEETING

The spring federation meeting of the Craven county Home Demonstration and 4-H clubs will be held in this city, at the armory, on May 30. Plans for the event were made at a meeting of the Craven County council Saturday morning. In connection with the meeting at this time there will be a flower show, and the plans this year call for prizes for individual entries rather than for club entries. In the past show prizes have been given for club entries.

The county federation meeting will be informal in form, it was decided. Mrs. Estelle T. Smith, district home demonstration agent, is expected to be present. Mrs. George Bell of the Neuse River club was named chairman of the refreshment committee and Mrs. M. B. Simpkins was named a member of that committee.

A feature of the Saturday morning County Council meeting was the report of committees which have charge of the various activities in connection with the spring federation meeting. The committee on place consists of Mrs. M. B. Simpkins, chairman, Mrs. R. H. Springle and Mrs. B. L. Witherington. A program committee which reported consists of Mrs. Gray Wheeler, Mrs. Larry B. Pate and Mrs. S. N. Moore. The flower show committee consists of Mrs. Larry B. Pate and the home beautification leaders of each of the home demonstration clubs. The Bachelor club is to have charge of the decorations.

There was a report at the Saturday meeting of the committee on plans for the district meeting which will be held at Atlantic Beach on June 19, at which time the Craven county home demonstration organization will be held to the other clubs of the district. That committee consists of Mrs. J. T. Ippock, Mrs. Marvin Ahridge and Mrs. Arthur Whitford.

There was a good attendance at the Saturday meeting, and a number of additional committees were named. Other phases of the home demonstration work in the county were discussed.

PRIZE WINNERS AT FLOWER SHOW ARE ANNOUNCED

Cove City Home Demonstration and 4-H Clubs Get Attendance Gavel

Approximately 120 persons attended the Spring Federation meeting of 4-H and Home Demonstration clubs held at the National Guard armory in New Bern Saturday.

DISTRICT CANNING SCHOOL BE HELD

Plans are being completed here for a district canning school to be held at the Britton Memorial school Friday, beginning at 10 a. m., says Miss Jessie Trowbridge, Craven county home demonstration agent. Representatives of six or seven eastern Carolina counties will be present, and anyone interested is being invited to attend, says Miss Trowbridge.

A. E. Hall of the Burpee Canning company will demonstrate the canning of meats in tin in cooperation with the extension service. Mrs. Cornelia C. Morris, extension marketing and food conservation specialist, will be in attendance.

"Our national defense program for 1941 probably will call for large quantities of food to be canned in tin," says Mrs. Morris. "These demonstrations are to give the farm people and others an opportunity to learn how to use the can cooler and other equipment necessary when canning."

CHECK-UP REVEALS MUCH ACTIVITY IN CLOTHING PROJECT

Miss Trowbridge Reports Many Garments Made Thus Far This Year

A check-up on work which is being done by the home demonstration club members of the county on clothing projects was made during the June meetings of the clubs, says the monthly report of Miss Jessie Trowbridge, county home demonstration agent, to the board of county commissioners. Clothing is the major project of the home demonstration clubs this year.

It was found that the 144 women who attended the June club meetings had made 424 dresses, 27 children's clothes, 126 slips, 13 house coats, 18 gowns, 11 pair of pajamas, 78 aprons, 77 sheets, 96 pair of pillow cases, 24 pair of curtains, 25 coats, 59 miscellaneous articles; had remodeled 48 articles; upholstered 15 chairs and made 24 sets of slip covers since January 1.

The cotton stamp program was discussed, and it was learned that most of the women of the home demonstration clubs planned to get a supply of sheets and towels with their stamps.

During the month the Craven county home demonstration clubs were host to the annual twelfth district meeting of the Federation of Home Demonstration clubs at Atlantic beach, and this county was represented by 120 persons. Mrs. Herbert Beaman, president of the Craven county council, welcomed the gathering.

Thirteen meetings were held by lead use planning groups in the county during the month and there was a meeting of the county council of agricultural workers. To date, 183 mattresses and 541 comforters have been made in Craven county.

The health contest was one of the principal features of the 4-H clubs during the month. Archie White of Cove City was the winner for boys when representatives of Carteret, Craven, Jones, Onslow, Pamlico, Lenoir, Wayne and Duplin counties gathered here, and the next day he won the district contest in Wilmington. Marjorie Gibson won the district contest among the girls. They will meet at

Mrs. Baker, the president, presided and the minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary Mrs. A. W. Nelson. Plans were made for the district meeting to be held June 19 at Atlantic beach, and arrangements for the county council were also discussed. It was also decided that an all day canning demonstration would be held in July.

Miss Jessie Trowbridge, home demonstration agent, gave a most interesting and constructive talk on finishing and decorative stitches and construction tricks.

Mrs. Parks, garden project leader, read an article entitled, "Garden Notes," in which many suggestions as to carrying for gardens were given.

During the social hour which was held later in the afternoon an old fashioned spelling bee was entered into.

Ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses to the 17 members present.

CLUB MEETING

The Neuse River Home Demonstration club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. C. MacDonald with Mrs. J. D. Williams assistant hostess.

Miss Trowbridge and Mrs. Bell showed patterns of slips to be worn under day dresses and evening dresses.

The making of tailored and "friller" slips and their durability was discussed.

Mrs. MacDonald, beautification chairman, showed several arrangements of flowers which she had fixed and plans for the flower show to be held in May were discussed.

At the conclusion of the meeting the hostesses served punch, cake and candy and during the social hour contests were entered into by all present.

ACHIEVEMENT DAY EVENT STAGED AT BRINSON MEMORIAL

Entertainment and Fun Substituted for More Serious Program

A "fun frolic" at Brinson Memorial school Friday evening replaced the more serious program of the annual Achievement Day of the Craven county home demonstration clubs. A brief period was given to reports of the various 1941 project leaders. The remainder of the program was given to group singing led by Assistant County Agent F. M. Cox, to games, a cake walk and to carnival attractions such as bingo, fortune telling, a fish pond, toss the ring and a freak show. A minstrel show brought the event to an end.

Each of these carnival attractions was in charge of a different home demonstration club. In addition, there were sandwiches and cold drinks. And the carnival receipts, it was announced, will be used to send Archie White of Cove City, North Carolina's 4-H health champion, to the national 4-H health contest in Chicago. The health champion was presented, and he was to leave the last week in this month and to return about December 6. A portion of the needed funds had been previously raised.

The Epworth club carried off home demonstration club honors, winning both the pressure cooker for having turned in the annual reports from the greatest percentage of its members and the gavel for having the largest number of its members present for the Achievement Day. Mrs. J. R. Dudley of Mile Oak and M. B. Simpkins of Jasper were the winners of the cake walk contest.

The event was under the general direction of Miss Jessie Trowbridge, Craven county home demonstration agent. Reports from the county project leaders came as a part of a clever skit in which L. B. Pate and Mrs. Herbert Beaman took the part of Mr. and Mrs. Craven county, and Mrs. T. J. Wetherington the black-face part of the family maid. Mr. and Mrs. Craven County were seated at a table summing up the accomplishments for the past year. Project leaders were summoned to tell of the records in the carrying out of the various home demonstration projects in the county. Mrs. Beaman is president of the demonstration clubs.

Mrs. George West of Dover, as County Council of Home Demonstration county foods project leader, reported on that activity. Mrs. J. C. Ippock of Bellair, clothing leader, told of clothing work accomplishments. Mrs. L. B. Pate of Bellair, of home

Under his direction, however, a decision was arranged to hold a meeting of the Craven County Farmers club at Jasper on Thursday night, November 27, at 7:30 o'clock. Announcement was made of the Christmas decoration exhibit of the New Bern garden club at the club house here on December 11, and the county women were invited to attend.

The minstrel show brought a New Bern "colored" family to visit one which resided in the county and resulted in a display of singing, dancing and reading talents which delighted the gathering.

PREPARATIONS MADE FOR SUMMER COURSES

Plans and preparations are being made by Craven county home demonstration and 4-H club members for the annual 4-H club short course at State college July 28--August 2, and for the annual Farm and Home Week, August 4-8, says Miss Jessie Trowbridge, Craven county Home Demonstration agent.

Three Craven county Home Demonstration club members are expected to become Farm and Home week graduates this year, having attended for the past several years. There will be additional Home Demonstration club members to attend from this county. Archie White of Cove City will represent this district in the statewide health contest for 4-H boys. Other 4-H club members are expected to go from the county for the 4-H short course.

The program for both the short course and the Farm and Home week will feature the same thing. One day will be given to a discussion of "Adversity Through and Its Relation to Defense and Health," and another to "What Should Be Done to Thrive a Fair Balance Between the Returns to Agriculture and Industries as a Result of the Defense Program." A third day will bring a discussion of "What Kind of a World Order Do We Want Following the War."

HEALTH CONTEST WORK IS STRESSED THE PAST MONTH

Other Activities Revealed in Monthly Report of Miss Trowbridge

An outstanding feature of the 4-H work during August was the crowning of Craven county's health champion, Archie White, the state health king at the 4-H short course with a score of 99.7 points, says the monthly report of Miss Jessie Trowbridge, Craven county home demonstration agent. The score showed a gain of several points over his last year's standing. Every effort is being made to send him to the National 4-H health contest in Chicago, and he was honored by the Cove City Service club, of which he is a member, with a chicken stew at the regular club meeting.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. White of Cove City, this year's champion is the third boy in the family to attain health honors. Three have been champions in the county health contest; two have been district champions, a distinction which Archie has won for the second year, and now Archie has won the state championship.

During the month three of the Home Demonstration club women of the county received certificates for having completed State Farm and Home week work. They were J. D. Williams of the Neuse River club; Mrs. I. L. Heath of the Cove City club, and Miss Mamie Russell of the Ashtina club. Six other Craven county women attended the Short Course and one of them told their club that she had gotten more for her money in attending Farm and Home week than for any other expenditure during the year.

Because the dormitory and dining room right Neuse Forest school was being leased for housing workers on the defense projects, the date of the annual 4-H camp was advanced one week. Twenty-six club members from Craven county and fourteen from Pamlico county enjoyed the four days of camp. Classes in handicraft and in first aid were taught by Miss Margaret Watson of Roanoke Rapids and Mrs. Roy Shupp of New Bern. There were vesper programs including the showing of the colored motion picture, "North Carolina Variety Vacationlands," and short plays by the campers. The camp was in charge of Miss Doris Shuler, Miss Jessie Trowbridge, A. T. Jackson and P. M. Cox.

The Craven Home Demonstration club women, it was announced, have canned 115 quarts of soup mixture for the school lunch room. During August the Home Demonstration clubs held recreational meetings. Mile Oak had a barbecue supper, Dover, Cove City and Bachelor clubs each held a picnic, and the Jasper club held a recreational meetings. The meetings were attended by 231 persons. The County Council of Agricultural agencies held its regular monthly meeting. Topics discussed were gardening, housing for families moved from the defense areas, and general farm problems.

Boys and girls of the 4-H clubs of Craven and Pamlico counties were to begin their annual camp at Neuse-Forest school on the Neuse river at Grantham late Monday afternoon, registering between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock. The first camp activity was to be a swim between 4 and 5 o'clock.

Some sixty boys and girls of Craven county had notified the farm offices in New Bern of their intention to attend the camp. Word had not been received from Pamlico county Monday morning as to the number from that county who planned to attend.

Monday's program provided "free periods" from 5 to 6 p. m. and from 7 to 7:30 p. m. Supper was to be served from 6:30 to 7 p. m. and the evening program was to be given between 7:30 and 9:30 p. m. The day's activities were to end at 10 p. m.

Tuesday is to see the launching of a full day's program of activities to be followed through Thursday. The campers will rise at 6:45 a. m.; attend flag-raising exercises at 9:30 a. m., and take sitting-up exercises between 6:35 and 7 a. m. ANNUAL BANQUET OF SERVICE CLUBS HELD

About a hundred Service club members and county farm and home agents from six eastern North Carolina counties gathered at Cove City Friday evening for the annual banquet of the service clubs of the Twelfth North Carolina district. The meeting was presided over by Virginia Station of Carteret county, president of the district organization. It was held at the Cove City school and the Women's Home — Demonstration club of Cove City served the banquet.

Reports from the Service clubs in the six counties of the district were a feature of the meeting. There was a short talk by C. M. Brickhouse, district farm agent. "Health" was the theme of the meeting, and Archie White of Cove City, recently selected the 4-H health king in North Carolina, was presented.

Following the program and banquet, the meeting was given over to recreational features, and it was 10:30 p. m. before the young people, who are older 4-H club members throughout the section, left to return to their homes.

THE SONG OF HEALTH

(1)

Iron of the earth, glow of the sun,
Breath of the four winds clean;
Hours for work, hours for play,
With stars and sleep between.

Faces that lift, pulses that throb,
Limbs that are lithe and strong,
Heads that think, hands that do,
And hearts that serve with song.

CHORUS

Our goal is health, the quest for man and maid,
The great adventure rare,
For health holds life and laughter and strength and happiness to spare.
Our goal is health, the quest for man and maid,
Lift high the goblet fair,
And pledge the toast from coast to coast,
"Our health, the wealth we keep and share!"

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there,
Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

While the storm clouds gather
Far across the sea,
Let us swear allegiance
To a land that's free;
Let us all be grateful
For a land so fair,
As we raise our voices in a solemn prayer.

God bless America,
Land that I love
Stand beside her and guide her
Thru the night with a light from above
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans white with foam,
God bless America
My home sweet home.

Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag
And smile, smile, smile.
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys, that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while, so—
Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag
And smile, smile, smile.

Is everybody happy? SURE WE ARE,
Then turn and make your neighbor happy too.
Is everybody happy? SURE WE ARE,

Is everybody happy? SURE WE ARE,
Then turn and make your neighbor happy too.

Silver Threads Among The Gold

Darling, I am growing old,
Silver threads among the gold,
Shine upon my brow today,
Life is fading fast away,
But my darling, you will be, will be,
Always young and fair to me.
Yes! my darling, you will be
Always young and fair to me.

Darling, I am growing old,
Silver threads among the gold,
Shine upon my brow today,
Life is fading fast away.

THE QUILTING PARTY

In the sky the bright stars glittered,
On the bark the pale moon shone,
And 'twas from Aunt Dinah's quilting party,
I was seeing Nellie home.

I was seeing Nellie home,
I was seeing Nellie home,
And 'twas from Aunt Dinah's quilting party,
I was seeing Nellie home.

WE BELIEVE IN OUR STATE

We believe in our state, we believe in her strong
We will talk her, and praise her and boost her along.
Carolina, shout her up now, Carolina again,
Carolina, whoop her up now, ye woman and men.
Carolina, sure smiles, there is pep in the air.
'Tis because they are doing great things down there.
Carolina, shout her out now, Carolina again
Carolina, whoop her up now, ye woman and men.

BE-AT-H ONE SONG

Yes, 'twa been farming by old plans
With little food to eat,
But now my plan for home supplies
Include my bread and meat.

(Chorus)
Oh, yes, I'll grow my home supplies
I'll grow my home supplies!
My plan is safe for me,
I'll grow my home supplies.
Son now, beware of credit plans,
With prices soaring high
Your creps will go to pay your bills,
And leave you high and dry.

When You and I were Young, Maggie
I wandered today to the hill, Maggie,

To watch the scene below,
The creek and the greening old hill, Maggie
The more we see in this one, the more we see,
The more grass is gone from the hill, Maggie,
The more first has deatils sprung,
The more you and I were young, Maggie,
And now we are aged and gray, Maggie,
The trials of life nearly done,
Let us sing of the days that are gone, Maggie,
When you and I were young.

MR. AND MRS. CRAVEN COUNTY REPORT

SCENE: Living room of farm home. Curtains open with couple in living room at desk discussing achievements of past year.

Husband - This has been a pretty good year for us. I have been checking over all that we've done and all that we've accomplished since last year this time. We do have so much to be thankful for. Harvest time is really the time for Thanksgiving, isn't it?

Wife - The whole year round is Thanksgiving time, but so few of us are as thankful as we should be. This is such a good place to live, and still we have not made as much of our resources as we should. Being in the Defense area we have witnessed many changes in the past year. The Food and Food program was one of our first undertakings in this defense program. Cards asking the farm families to raise at least 75% of their food and feed were sent to 3,000 families and 1,500 signified their intention to carry out these suggestions. Do you have any idea what was done in this program?

Husband - No, I haven't thought much about it, but I do know that we've had plenty to eat. I'll call the gardener and get her report of the work done this year. (rings bell for maid. Colored maid enters.)

Maid - Yes sir, did you ring sir?

Husband - Emma, call the gardener. Have her bring me a total report of gardens in the County.

Maid - Yes sir, I'll see that she comes spontaneous - like, Mister Craven.
(Enter Garden Leader, pushing wheelbarrow filled with vegetables.)

Husband - Now, let's have our garden report.

Garden Leader - (Gives report)

Wife - I believe that's a much better report than we had last year.

Husband - Yes, we stress good gardens every year, and this year especially, because we know that "We can make America stronger by making Americans stronger". No nation can be strong if its people are not healthy, and people cannot be healthy unless they eat the proper food.

Garden Leader - My gardens would not have been nearly so worthwhile if the people in the county had not cooked the vegetables properly, and if they had not canned the surplus. Wouldn't you like to hear what has been done in Food Conservation, and in Foods and Nutrition?

Husband - Yes, I certainly would. Will you call them in when you go out? (Garden Leader leaves the room, and Food Conservation Leader, and Foods and Nutrition Leader come in.)

Wife - Will you tell us what has been done in your Projects during the year?

Leaders report - (Maid enters during the report) .

Maid - Gosh, that sounds like a lot of vegetables. What do you ever hope to do with all that stuff.

Foods Leader - Oh, it will all be needed, and we hope to do even more next year. We try to have every family fill out a canning budget, and can as much as her family needs, that is 32 qts. of vegetables and 24 qts of fruits for every person in the family. Then if we have other things to can we can have a surplus for those years when the crops are not so good. Food is going up and the more that we can raise at home, the more money we will have for something else. I would like for our Poultry and Dairy Leaders to tell what they have done during the year

Leaders - enter and give reports.

Health Leader - I just saw the Garden Leader down the street and she told me that this was 'true confession' night, and so I thought that I had better come in too. Would you like to know what we have been doing to promote better health? (Gives report)

Wife - I knew that we had been busy during the past year, but those reports surprise me. If we had just thought to keep up with all these things that we have done, it would be so interesting; and it would tell us if we are really getting ahead or not.

Husband - Why, don't you remember that one of our goals for this year was to keep account of everything that we did? Mrs. _____ has worked hard to put down everything that was done. Call her, Erna, and let's see what she has to say.

Maid - Yes sir, I've been hearing her talk. You know all this year she's been asking me questions about what all I was buying, and how much it cost, just like she had something to do with it. I wondered why she had so much curiosity. (Goes for Home Management Leader)

Home Management Leader - (enters) You say you want me to report? It's just too bad that people won't realize how much it could mean to them to keep accounts. Still, I have a good report to give. (gives report)
(Knock at door. Maid goes toward door)

Maid - Right when you're working on your reports, here comes company. I'll just tell them you ain't home, 'cause you ain't got time to see them now.

Husband - No, Erna, I've told you not to tell stories about my being at home. Ask them in.

Maid - Yes sir, I was just trying to help. (Goes to door and invites the guests in.)

Wife - (rising) Well, how are you Mrs. _____. It's been ages since I have seen you. (Maid looks closely at dress)

Maid - Scuse me Mrs. _____, but that's the prettiest dress I've seen in a long time. When you get through with it, 'she' would like to have it.

Clothing Leader - Well, Erna, when I throw it away, I don't believe you could wear it. I have had it for six years, and I have just made it over for the third time. It will be completely worn out after this year. I always get good material so that I can make my dresses over. How do you like Frisoilla's dress? It was made from an old dress of her sister's.

Maid - It 'she' is pretty. Tell me how did you ever make all these pleats. If you would make me one, I'd do 'most anything for you.

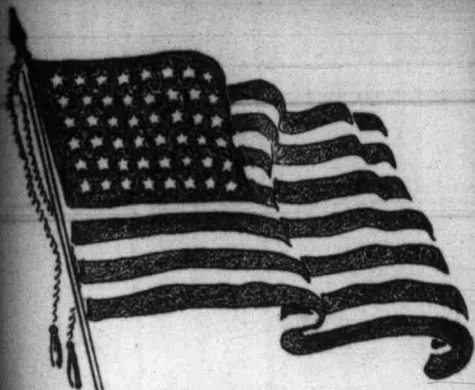

Clothing Leader - All right, Erna, I'll make a bargain with you. I have heard so much about your singing and dancing. If you will show us what you can do, your dress will be started tomorrow.

Maid - Yes 'nani (Sings)

Clothing Leader - That's fine Erna. Now let me tell what our Club women have been doing during the year, and then I must rush off. (Gives Club report)

Wife - Don't go. I am expecting some of the neighbors to drop in after a little while, and maybe we can find something to do. (Bell rings) That must be them now. (Ladies enter) Hello, I am so glad to see you. We have just been discussing some of the things that we have done this year. Can't you tell us something interesting about your work? (Each Leader reports)

Husband - I feel as if we are really doing something these days, and my prayer is that we can move ever onward in the land of America, where love, peace, and prosperity now abide. These women have made a step forward, and with our Leaders for 1942, we are looking for even bigger and greater things. (Introduces new Leaders).

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say, can you see by the dawn's early light
That so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

HAIL, CLUB WOMEN, CROWNED THRU SERVICE

We have seen a splendid vision of the glory of the State,
Through the fire upon God's altar, where the Vestals serve
'Tis the home He hath established that shall guard the future's fate;
Our work goes marching on.

CHORUS:
Hail, Club Women, striving ever in the glory of endeavor
Faith and Purpose failing never, Thru' service we are crown'd
In the faith of our own club work, each community shall stand
In a civic pride and righteousness to equal life's demand,
With a common purpose moving, strong in self, yet hand in hand
As we go marching on.

Thus the home shall be the Eden of a beauty and accord,
And our children be the glory of the garden of the Lord;
And the State its own defense shall stand, a pure and flaming sword
As youth goes marching on.

COLLECT OF CLUB WOMEN OF AMERICA

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought in word, in deed,
Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking,
May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self pity and without prejudice.
May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.
Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.
Let us take time for all things, make us grow calm, serene and gentle.
Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one.
And may we strive to touch and to know the great common woman's heart of us all; and O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

4-H CLUB PLEDGE

I Pledge:

My Head to clearer thinking,
My Heart to greater loyalty,
My Hands to larger service and
My health to better living
For my club, my community, and my country.

A SONG OF THE OPEN COUNTRY

A song of the open country—that we love so well,
Where freedom of outdoor living holds us in its spell;
The splendor of skies at dawn; the golden sunset's glow
Our hopes arise 'neath starlit skies, all nature helps us grow.

The awakening of life in springtime, gives us hope anew;
The long growing days of summer give us work to do.

In autumn the golden harvest fulfills our hope of spring
And proves the love of Him above who guards each living thing.

So life in the open country with growing things around,
Where our Creator's wisdom on every hand is found,
Gives youth of the open country a partnership with Him—
The work we share builds us four-square-head, heart, hands, health for Him.

SING YOUR WAY HOME

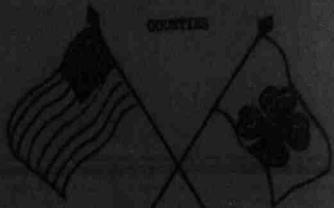

Sing your way home at the close of the day;
Sing your way home, drive the shadows away,
Smile ev-ry mile, for wherever you roam
It will lighten your load,
It will brighten your road,
If you sing your way home.

There's a camp along the good old Nouse
 "Camp Nouse Forest" is it's name.
 From the rise of sun to the setting sun
 There's lots of fun out there.

In the water blue we go to swim,
 Come right on in with us!
 We have cats that make us look
 And cooks that can cook,
 In that camp along the good old Nouse.

COMRADE SONG
 (Tune: Tiritoraba)

When the lark to greet the sun
 Is gaily winging
 Over grasses diamond flinging;
 When sweet clover breath
 The morning breeze is bringing
 Won't you come along with me?
 Chorus:

Oh, my sister! Oh, my brother!
 Let us up and out and greet the morning
 Oh, my sister! Oh, my brother!
 I am waiting here for you. too

When the vesper sparrow
 To his mate is calling,
 And the evening shadows falling,
 When the afterglow
 The world is all enthralling,
 Won't you come along with me?

Oh, my sister! Oh, my brother!
 Let us wander under heaven's starry
 Oh, my sister! Oh, my brother!
 I am waiting here for you. blue.

Let our deeds shed cheerful ray,
 As candles gleam from ev'ry home,
 To light wayfarers on their way;
 Or welcome back the ones who roam.

Our many 4-H candles' glow,
 Shall make in all a Glory bright
 To shine for all where'er we go,
 And make their daily burden light.

So speed the light that gleams and cheers,
 That all who see our candles shine
 May have great joy thru-out the years;
 And find the way to things divine.

FOLLOW THE GLEAM

To the Knights in the days of old,
 Keeping watch on the mountain heights,
 Came a vision of Holy Grail,
 And a voice through the waiting night.
 Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
 Banners unfurled o'er all the world;
 Follow, follow, follow the gleam
 Of the Chalice that is the Grail.

And we who would serve the King,
 And loyally Him obey,
 In the consecrate silence know
 That the challenge still holds today.
 Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
 Standards of worth o'er all the earth;
 Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
 Of the light that shall bring the dawn.

JOHN WESLEY'S "GRACE"

Be present at our table Lord,
 Be here and everywhere adored;
 These mercies bless, and grant that we May dwell in Paradise with Thee.

 COME LET US BE JOYFUL

Come let us be joyful,
 While the world is happy and gay.
 Come gather ye roses ere they fade away
 So don't you worry, and don't you fret,
 There's lots of fun in the old world
 yet.

So take a rose, the thorn forget;
 And go on your way rejoicing.
 Come let us be joyful,
 While the world is happy and gay;
 Come, gather ye roses ere they fade away.

 DAY IS DYING IN THE WEST

Day is dying in the west,
 Heaven is touching earth with rest;
 Wait and worship, while the night
 Sets her evening lamps alight
 Through all the sky.

Chorus:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts!
 Heaven and earth are full of Thee,
 Heaven and earth are praising Thee,
 O Lord, Most High.

Lord of life, beneath the dome
 Of the universe, Thy home;
 Gather those, who seek Thy face
 To the fold of Thy embrace;
 For Thou art nigh.

DREAMING

My home must have a high tree
Above its open gate,
My home must have a garden
Where little dreamings wait.
My home must have a wide view
Of field and meadow fair,
Of distant hills, of open sky
With sun-light everywhere.

My home must have a friendship
With every happy thing;
My home must offer comfort
For any sorrowing;
And every heart that enters
Shall hear its music there,
And find some simple beauty
That every life must share.

My home must have its mother,
May she grow sweet and wise.
My home must have its father
With honor in his eyes.
My home must have its children,
God grant the parents grace,
To keep our home through all the year
A friendly, happy place

WE'RE HERE FOR FUN

We're here for fun right from the start
Pray drop your dignity
Just laugh and sing with all your heart,
And show your loyalty.
The other meetings we've enjoyed,
Let this one be the best;
Join in the songs we sing today,
Be happy with the rest.

Iron of the earth, glow of the sun,
 Breath of the four winds clean;
 Hours for work, hours for play,
 With stars and sleep between.

Chorus:

Our goal is health, the quest of man
 The great adventure rare, and maid,
 For Health holds life and laughter, and strength and happiness to spare.
 Our goal is health, the quest for man and maid.
 Lift high the goblet fair,
 And pledge the toast from coast to coast;
 "Our health, the wealth we keep and share
 Faces that lift, pulses that throb,
 Limbs that are lithe and strong;
 Heads that think, hands that do,
 And hearts that serve with song.

HOW DO YOU DO

How do you do everybody?
 How do you do?
 Is there anything that we can do for you?
 We'll do the best we can,
 We'll stand by you like a man.
 How do you do everybody, how do you do?

PUFFABILLIES

DO'N at the station, early in the morning;
 See the little puffabillies all in a row.
 See the engine driver turn a little head-
 Choo-choo, whee-wee, off we go. ¹⁰

I'm Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines,
 I feed my horse good corn and beans,
 I swing the ladies in their teens;
 For that's the style in the army.

I teach the ladies' how to skip
 How to skip, how to skip;
 I teach the ladies how to skip,
 For that's the style in the army.

Salute your partner and turn to the ^{right}
 And swing your neighbor with all your ^{right}
 And promenade to the lady's right,
 For that's the style in the army.

 IT ISN'T ANY TROUBLE

It isn't any trouble just to S-M-I-L-E
 It isn't any trouble just to S-M-I-L-E
 Smile when you're in trouble
 It will vanish like a bubble,
 If you'll only take the trouble
 Just to S-M-I-L-E.

It isn't any trouble just to L-A-U-G-H
 It isn't any trouble just to L-A-U-G-H
 Laugh when you're in trouble,
 It will vanish like a bubble;
 If you'll only take the trouble
 Just to L-A-U-G-H.

It isn't any trouble just to G-R-I-N
 It isn't any trouble just to G-R-I-N
 Grin when you're in trouble,
 It will vanish like a bubble;
 If you'll only take the trouble
 Just to G-R-I-N grin.

COME AND SING WITH ME

Come all you Club folks
Come out and sing with me.
Leave all your troubles be,
Please get happy with me.
Sing out your sorrows,
Bring out your spirit true,
And we'll be jolly friends
The whole camp through.

O yes you can sing,
And help out others too;
I heard you once before,
So please let's sing once more.
There's no use sighing,
No reason to be blue.
So let's be a jolly group,
The whole camp through.

LITTLE SIR ECHO

Little Sir Echo, How do you do?
Hello Hello

Little Sir Echo will answer you,
Hello Hello Hello.

Won't you come over and play and play.
You're a nice little fellow
I know by your voice,
But you're always so far away away.

ARE YOU SLEEPING

Are you sleeping? Are you sleeping?
Brother John, Brother John?
Morning bells are ringing,
Morning bells are ringing
Ding, ding, dong, ding, ding, dong.

THE MORE WE MEET TOGETHER

The more we meet together, together together,
 The more we meet together the happier
 are we.
 For your friends are my friends,
 And my friends are your friends
 The more we meet together, the happier
 are we.

TAPS

Fading light dims the sight.
 And a star gems the sky, gleaming bright.
 From afar drawing nigh
 Falls the night.

Day is done, gone the sun
 From the lake, from the hills, from the sky.
 God is nigh.

Then good night, peaceful night,
 Till the light of the dawn shineth bright;
 Friends, good night.

PARTING SONG

(Tune: Till We Meet Again)

4-H Club folks that we love so well,
 You're the folks that in our memories dwell;
 When we part from our friends here,
 We'll boost Club work all the year;
 And the friends we've met so merrily
 One and all we'll hold in memory.
 So, farewell, 4-H friends, we say
 Till we meet again.

LIVE-AT-HOME SONG

Yes, I've been farming by old plans
 With little food to eat,
 But now my plan for home supplies
 Include my bread and meat.

Chorus:

Oh, yes, I'll grow my home supplies
 I'll grow my home supplies;
 No other plan is safe for me,
 I'll grow my home supplies.

So now, beware of credit plans,
 With prices soaring high;
 Your crops will go to pay your bills,
 And leave you high and dry.

With gardens, corn, pork, and hay,
 With poultry and a cow,
 We'll bid farewell to mortgages,
 And live as kings know how.

Our boys and girls will then stay on
 To dwell upon the farm,
 For they will like to live where we Provide a home with charm.

 THE QUILTING PARTY

In the sky the bright stars glittered,
 On the bank the pale moon shone,
 And 'twas from Aunt Dinah's quilting
 party,

I was seeing Nellie home.

I was seeing Nellie home.

I was seeing Nellie home;

And 'twas from Aunt Dinah's quilting
 party,

I was seeing Nellie home.

SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD

Darling, I am growing old,
 Silver threads among the gold
 Shine upon my brow today,
 Life is fading fast away;
 But my darling you will be, will be
 Always young and fair to me.
 Yes! My darling, you will be
 Always young and fair to me.

Darling, I am growing old,
 Silver threads among the gold
 Shine upon my brow to day,
 Life is fading fast away.

IT'S A GOOD TIME TO GET TOGETHER

It's a good time to get together
 It's a good time to know
 Who is standing there beside you,
 And to smile and say Hello.
 Goodbye, lonesome feeling,
 Farewell, glassy stare;
 When we all join hands and pull together
 We're sure to get there.

ARE WE DOWNHEARTED?

Are we downhearted? No, no, no.
 Are we downhearted? No, no, no.
 Troubles may come and troubles may go;
 We keep on smiling, come weal or woe.
 Are we downhearted (whistle), no, no, no!

THREE BLIND MICE

Three blind mice, three blind mice,
 See how they run! See how they run!
 They all ran after the farmer's wife,

She cut off their tails with a carving knife.
 Did you ever see such a sight in your life
 As three blind mice.

AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
 For amber waves of grain,
 For purple mountain majesties
 Above the fruited plain.

America! America!

God shed His grace on thee
 And crown Thy good with brotherhood
 From sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for patriot dream
 That sees beyond the years
 Thine alabaster cities gleam
 Undimmed by human tears.

America! America!

God shed His grace on thee,
 And crown Thy good with brotherhood
 From sea to shining sea.

WHEN YOU AND I WERE YOUNG, MAGGIE
 I wandered today to the hill, Maggie,
 To watch the scene below,
 The creek and the creaking old mill, Maggie
 Where we sat in the long, long ago.
 The green grass is gone from the hill,
 Maggie
 Where first the daisies sprung.
 The old rusty mill is still, Maggie,
 Since you and I were young.
 And now we are aged and gray, Maggie,
 The trials of life nearly done,
 Let us sing of the days that are gone
 When you and I were young. Maggie

RHEUMATISM

(1) Rheuratism, rheumatism,

- (2) How it rains, how it rains,
 (3) Up and down the system,
 Up and down the system,
 (4) When it rains, when it rains.

THE OLD NORTH STATE

Carolina, Carolina,
 Heav'n's blessings abound here
 While we live we will cherish,
 Protect and defend her.
 Tho' the scorners may sneer at,
 And wittings defame her,
 Still our hearts swell with gladness
 Whenever we name her.

Hurrah! Hurrah!
 The old North State forever!
 Hurrah! Hurrah!
 The good old North State.

Then let all those who love us,
 Love the land that we live in;
 As happy a region
 As on this side of heaven,
 Where Plenty and Peace,
 Love and Joy smile before us.
 Raise aloud, raise together
 The heart-thrilling chorus.

WE BELIEVE IN OUR STATE

We believe in our state, we believe in her strong
 We will talk her, and praise her and boost her along.
 Carolina, shout her up now, Carolina again.
 Carolina, whoop her up now, ye women and men
 Carolina, sure smiles, there is pep in the air.
 'Tis because they are doing great things down there.
 Carolina, shout her out now, Carolina
 Caroline, whoop her up now, again ye women and men.

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory
 Of the coming of the Lord,
 He is trampling out the vintage,
 Where the grapes of wrath are stored;
 He has loosed the fateful lightening
 Of His terrible, swift sword;
 His truth is marching on.

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
 Glory, glory, hallelujah!
 Glory, glory, hallelujah!
 His truth is marching on.

In the beauty of the lillies,
 Christ was born across the sea;
 With a glory in His bosom,
 That transfigures you and me.
 As He died to make men holy
 Let us strive to make men free,
 While God is marching on.

 THE CHURCH IN THE WILDWOOD

There's a church in the valley by the (wildwood,
 No lovelier place in the dale,
 No spot is so dear to my childhood,
 As the little brown church in the vale.
 (Chorus)

Oh, come, come, come, come,
 Come to the church in the wildwood
 Oh, come to the church in the dale
 No spot is so dear to my childhood,
 As the little brown church in the vale.
 How sweet on a clear Sabbath morning,
 To list to the clear ringing bell,
 It's tones so sweetly are calling,
 Oh, come to the church in the vale.

WE'RE ON THE UPWARD TRAIL

We're on the upward trail,
 We're on the upward trail,
 Singing, singing, ev'rybody singing
 As we go.
 We're on the upward trail
 We're on the upward trail
 Singing, singing, ev'rybody singing,
 Onward bound.

IS EVERYBODY HAPPY?

Is everybody happy? SURE WE ARE!
 Then turn and make your neighbor happy
 Is everybody happy? SURE WE ARE,
 See the sun shine through.
 Greet your neighbor with a smile
 When you're dead, you're dead a long, long while.
 Is everybody happy? SURE WE ARE!
 Then turn and make your neighbor happy too.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Pack up your troubles in your old kit
 bag
 And smile, smile, smile;
 While you've a lucifer to light your tag,
 Smile boys, that's the style.
 What's the use of worrying?
 It never was worth while, so —
 Pack up your troubles in your old kit
 bag.
 And smile, smile, smile.

ANNIE LAURIE

Maxwelton's braes are bonnie,
 Where early fa's the dew;
 And 'twas there that Annie Laurie
 Gave me her promise true,
 Gave me her promise true,
 Which no'er forgot will be,
 And for bonnie Annie Laurie
 I'd lay me doon and doe.

ON JORDAN'S STORMY BANKS

On Jordan's stormy banks I stand
 And cast a wistful eye,
 To Canaan's fair and happy land,
 Where my possessions lie.

(Chorus)

I am bound for the promised land,
 I am bound for the promised land,
 O, who will come and go with me?
 I am bound for the promised land.

When shall I reach that happy place,
 And be forever blest/
 When shall I see my Father's face
 And in his bosom rest/

SWING LOW SWEET CHARIOT

Swing low, sweet chariot, coming fo' to carry me home,
 Swing low, sweet chariot, coming fo' to
 carry me home.

I looked over Jordan and what did I see?
 Coming fo' to carry me home,
 A band of angels coming after me;
 Coming fo' to carry me home.

I'm sometimes up and sometimes down,
 Coming fo' to carry me home.
 But still my soul feels heavenly bound,
 Coming fo' to carry me home.

SING YOUR WAY HOME

Sing your way home at the close of the day
 Sing your way home, drive the shadows
 away,
 Smile ev'ry mile, for wherever you roam
 It will lighten your load,
 It will brighten your road,
 If you sing your way home.

WHEN THE ROLL IS CALLED UP YONDER

When the trumpet of the Lord shall
 And time shall be no more ^{sound,}
 And the morning breaks eternal, bright
 When the saved of earth shall gather ^{and fall}
 Over on the other shore,
 And the roll is called up yonder,
 I'll be there,
 When the roll is called up yonder
 When the roll is called up yonder,
 When the roll is called up yonder,
 I'll be there.

Let us labor for the Master

From the dawn till setting sun,
 Let us talk of all His wondrous love
 Then when all of life is over, ^{and care;}
 And our work on earth is done,
 And the roll is called up yonder I'll be there.

 THE WAY OF THE CROSS LEADS HOME

I must needs go home by the way of the There's no other way but this; (cross
 I shall ne'er get sight of the Gates of (light,
 If the way of the cross I miss.

The way of the cross leads home,
 The way of the cross leads home;
 It is sweet to know, as I onward go,
 The way of the cross leads home.

I must needs go on in the blood-sprinkled way,
 The path that the Savior trod,
 If I ever climb to the heights sublime,
 Where the soul is at home with God.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

God bless America, land that I love.
Stand beside her and guide her
Thru the night by the light from above,
From the Mountains
To the praries
To the ocean white with foam.
God bless America, My home sweet home,
God bless America, My home sweet home.

To Be Sung As Directed:

"SONG OF HEALTH"

Iron of the earth, glow of the sun,
Breath of the four winds clean;
Hours for work, Hours for play,
With stars and sleep between.

Our goal is health, the quest for man and
maid,

The great adventure rare,
For health holds life and laughter
And strength and happiness to spare.
Our goal is health, the quest for man and
maid,

Lift high the goblet fair,
And pledge the toast from coast to coast,
"Our health, the wealth we keep and share!"

"THE CAMEL SONG" ("You Wore A Tulip")

Are you a camel, a camel, a camel and do you have a hump? hump, hump?
D'you sit at the table as straight as you're able, or d'you sit all in a lump, lump, lump, lump?

Are you a flapper, a flip-floppy flapper, without any starch in your spine?
If you're a flapper, a flip-floppy flapper please go somewhere else to recline!

RAISE PLENTY OF FOOD AND FEED

TO THE FARMER

There's a Constitution on paper and compositions too,
But the composition of our constitution depends largely on you.
So raise your food and feed freely, thanking God that you can,
For these are most essential in our National Defense Plan,

Not by iron alone can a world of peace be wrought,
Nor by bloody battles that are forever being fought;
But by him who feeds his nation,
And builds the stature of man,
Who, were he in conflict drawn,
Would hold a steadfast hand.
