

North Carolina
4-H TRAFFIC SAFETY
POSTER CONTEST

North Carolina 4-H TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

Reason for the Contest

Today, you may ride on a bike or in a car. You may take a bus or walk. Most likely you will be in traffic, moving along a route with other vehicles or pedestrians. This means you must think of yourself AND others. You must know and follow traffic safety rules and laws.

This contest is a way to help you learn about traffic safety. It also gives you a chance to compete and to win awards.

Who Can Enter

Any boy or girl in North Carolina who is 9-12 years old.

Things
To Do

1. Develop an idea about ONE of these subjects:

Bicycle Safety
Pedestrian Safety
Automotive Safety

Motorcycle Safety
School Bus Safety
Safety Belt Usage

2. Get some facts about Traffic Safety from your county Extension office. (Newspapers, magazines and the Drivers' License Office are good sources, too.)
3. On a piece of unlined 8½×11-inch paper, use words and pictures or drawings that show your idea neatly. Do your own work.
4. Remember how your poster will be judged:

Points Considered	Possible Score
Subject Matter Content	25
Creativeness	25
Attractiveness	25
Educational Value	25
Total Possible Score	100

5. On the back of your poster, write your name, address, age, parents' names, and county.
6. Ask the Extension agent in your county when and where you should take your poster to be judged.
