

The North Carolina 4-H Plan and Record

PROJECT OR ACTIVITY

Name

Parents' Names

Address

County

Age

Years in This Project

Years in 4-H Club

Community 4-H Club

Date Project Started:

Month/Day/Year

Date Project Completed:

Month/Day/Year

In my opinion, this record has been satisfactorily completed.

Signature of 4-H Member

Signature of 4-H Leader

Signature of Extension Agent

Project Timetable

1. Study the 4-H project record guide "Hints to Help You Complete Your 4-H Plan and Record."
 2. Study the project or activity manual. This is very important.
 3. Discuss your project with your parents and ask for their help.
 4. Discuss your project with your leader.
 5. Turn your record in on time.
 6. Tell the complete story in your record. Use additional pages if needed.
-

MY 4-H PLAN

4-H Project Goals. List the things you want to learn and do in your 4-H project this year.

4-H Group Activities. List the things from your club's plan that you want to take part in this year.

Sharing With Others. List the ways you plan to share your 4-H experience with others this year.

Plan Approved by:

Parent or Guardian

4-H Leader

- V. On a separate sheet of paper, write a story about this project. Tell what it has meant to you, your family and others. Include lessons learned, joys and satisfactions you had, problems overcome, skills learned, special recognitions and ways you have served others. Project pictures may also be attached to a separate page and included with the record.
- VI. Your project is completed. Did you learn the things you planned to learn? (See "My 4-H Plan.") List all new things learned by completing this project or activity.

Prepared by: Dalton R. Proctor, Associate Extension State 4-H Leader

Published by
THE NORTH CAROLINA AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION SERVICE

North Carolina State University at Raleigh, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University at Greensboro, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Cooperating. State University Station, Raleigh, N. C., T. C. Blalock, Director. Distributed in furtherance of the Acts of Congress of May 8 and June 30, 1914. The North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service offers its programs to all eligible persons regardless of race, color, or national origin, and is an equal opportunity employer.